PILOTS WIN OVER REDHAWKS

Portland, Ore. - The Portland women's basketball team opened their season with a 74-61 victory over the Miami University Redhawks. The Pilots were led by junior guard Ashlee Giles who finished the night with 13 points, five steals and nine assists. The Pilots had three players score in double digits, Giles, Tami Standish with 15 points and Khalila O'Rielly-Williams with 14. O'Rielly-Williams had a double-double for the Pilots with 12 rebounds and those 14 points.

In the first five minutes of the game, the Pilots opened up a 10 point lead, 13-3, and never looked back. The biggest lead of the night for the Pilots came with less than a minute left in the first half with a 42-21 lead. At the half the Pilots led 42-25. Senior Tami Standish had 13 first half points on 6-10 shooting.

The second was led the entire way by the Pilots with the Redhawks making a strong effort and getting to within six points at 63-57, but the Pilots held off the Miami charge. The Miami charge was led by Colleen Day who scored all 12 of her points in the second half, she also had 12 rebounds on the night for a double-double. The Redhawks also had three players score in double digits with Beth Roederer and Day with 12 points and Jana Butler with 10.

Senior center Allison Asher and sophomore forward O'Rielly-Williams each had two blocks for the Pilots. Of O'Rielly-Williams 12 rebounds, seven were offensive. Guards Trish Felts and Hanna Seltzer each contributed nine points off the bench for the Pilots.

The Pilots continue their non-conference schedule Tuesday in a game against in-state rival Oregon, that game is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. in the Chiles Center.
