#-denotes Mid-American Conference Tournament

FIRST TIMERS

Brooke Livingston and Stephanie Wilson both scored the first goals of their careers last weekend. Livingston scored her goal against DePaul in the 10th minute on a header off a corner kick from Danielle Hays. Stephanie Wilson scored the first goal of her career a day later against then-No. 26 Louisville. Wilson bent her goal in from the right side of the field from just inside the 18-yard box. The ball bent just inside the far post and the keeper for Louisville could only stand and watch the ball hit the back of the net.

IN THE "ZWING" OF THINGS

Jodi Zwingelberg (Jr. Elgin, Ill.) posted two assists against rival Cincinnati with dishes to goal machine Sara Lund and Stephanie Laser. With those two assists, Zwingelberg equaled her 2007 point total and rocketed up the Mid-American Conference leader board. Zwingelberg is currently tied for seventh in the conference in assists and is tied for ninth in assists per game. Zwingelberg surpassed her 2007 point total with her goal against Sacramento State, the junior now has four points on the campaign.

SWEET SWEDE

Sara Lund (Sr., Malmo, Sweden) currently leads the Mid-American Conference in points per game, goals and goals per game. With five goals on the season, Lund is only two away from equaling her 2007 total. Lund earned Mid-American Conference Player of the Week honors following her performance in the Red-Hawks' season opener on Aug. 22.

Lund started the season off with a bang against Morehead State with the first hat trick of her career. After the RedHawks went down 1-0 to Morehead State, Lund put up three unanswered goals to give the Red and White a 3-1 victory. Lund scored all three goals in a hard-earned fashion. Lund scored her first goal by beating a defender and then firing a shot that hit goalie Sam Yocke and got into the net. The second goal by Lund had to be the most unlikely as she hit the near post and the ball ran along the goal line striking the far post and then entering the goal before Yocke could fall on it. The third goal of the day by the 5-foot-7 sophomore was a brilliant sliding shot.

BOFF TAKES OVER FOR PACE

After Krista Pace (Jr. Toronto, Ontario) left with an injury against DePaul, Rachelle Boff (So., Naples Fla.) making only the second appearance of her career and then made the second start of her career against Louisville. In the game against Louisville, Boff made a team-high eight saves. It was the most stops by a Miami keeper in 2008. On the road trip to California, Boff posted her first career shutout against San Jose State on Sept. 21.

INTERNATIONAL REDHAWKS

The Red and White have nine international players. Sara Lund, Eva Candia, Sarah Dessfelt, Nathalie Hillgren and Alexandra Karlsson are all from Sweden. Five are from Malmo, a port city on the southern tip of the country. Dessfelt is from Vellinge. Miami also has four players from Canada; Courtney Clarke, Haley Clark, Krysti Clarke and career saves leader Krista Pace.

LAST TIME OUT VS. SAN JOSE STATE

In only the third start of her career Rachelle Boff (So., Naples, Fla.) posted his first career shutout recording four saves. Jackie Hardek (Sr., Wheaton, Ill.) along with Danielle Hays (Sr., Apex, N.C.) led the team in shots with three. Hardek was the lone leader in shots on target with two. Hardek also received a yellow card in the 34th minute. It is the third consecutive game a RedHawk has received a caution.

Aug. 16, 2008

Miami at Indiana, L 1-0 Exhibition

The exhibition was divided into three 30 minute periods with Indiana scoring the only goal in the 48th minute of the game. Krista Pace, the Red-Hawks career saves leader, played the first two periods recording six saves surrounding the lone goal. Rachelle Boff (So., Naples, Fla.) played the finals period of action.

Stephanie Wilson, Jodi Zwingelberg and Stephanie Laser each posted a shot on goal for the RedHawks. Miami had several chances with seven corner kicks and four in the final period of action. Freshmen Alexandra Karlsson (Malmo, Sweden) and Haley Clark (London, Ontario) both started for the RedHawks.

Miami (1-0-0) vs. Morehead State (0-1-0), W 3-1

Miami would rallied behind 2007 Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year Sara Lund. Lund tied the game in the 16th minute with a hard shot that hit Eagles goalkeeper Sam Yocke and went in. Lund was far from finished as she scored again about 13 minutes later. Lund fired a shot at the near post that hit the pipe ran along the goal line hitting the far post and then going in the net.

Lund finished off her hat trick in the 48th minute after Stephanie Wilson tipped the ball, Lund came sliding in a beat the keeper to close out the scoring. The weather picked up in the 53rd minute bringing a stoppage in play that last 50 minutes.

Michigan (1-1-0) vs. Michigan (1-2-1), L 1-0

Kelsey Rogind of Michigan scored the only goal of the game early in second half (47:02) on a sliding challenge that beat Krista Pace (Jr. Toronto, Ontario). Miami (1-1-0) put on a late charge and Danielle Hayes (Sr. Apex, N.C.) had a free kick in the final minute but Michigan keeper Madison Gates made the save and gave Miami their first loss on the season.

Sara Lund (So. Malmo Sweden) pushed the ball forward for the Red-Hawks on many occasions but each attempt came up short for Miami.

The first half was physical with the Wolverines and RedHawks combining for 11 fouls. Each goalkeeper record one save with Madison Gates making a diving save on a shot by Lund. Pace collected her only of the first on a shot by Michigan's Meaghan Hennessy, from just outside the 18 yard box.

Miami (1-2-0) vs. Cincinnati (3-2-0), L 3-2 OT

Kendall Loggins found the back of the net on a sliding shot in the 105th minute to the Bearcats the win in a hotly-contested match. The goal came right after a great diving save by Krista Pace (Jr. Toronto, Ontario) at 103:48 of the overtime. Cincinnati controlled possession for most of the of the overtime period, but Miami was spurred to a couple runs with the help of a vocal crowd that toughed out the rain.

After a goal by Julie Morrissey on a pass from Kendall Loggins in the 77th minute, it looked like Miami might not even see overtime. Stephanie Laser (Jr. Hinsdale Ill.) came to the rescue in the 87th minute with a line-drive shot off a pass from Jodi Zwingelberg (Jr. Elgin, Ill). The assist was the second on the day for Zwingelberg.

Miami opened scoring in the first half when Sara Lund (Jr. Malo, Sweden) beat Cincinnati keeper Andrea Kaminski on a low line drive in the 7th minute. Cincinnati answered back in the 23rd minute with a hard shot from Erin MacDonald that hit Pace and found the back of the net.

Cincinnati controlled the pace of the game following the goal by Lund, but once MacDonald evened the score Miami had several solid chances and earned three corner kicks. Zwingelberg had a strong shot that was pushed over the net by Kaminski late in the first half.

Miami (1-3-0) vs. DePaul (2-5-0), L 3-2 OT

Morgan Celaya put a header over keeper Rachelle Boff (So. Naples, Fla.) and found the net in the 96th minute. Despite controlling the tempo for most of the game, Miami was not able to stop the Blue Demons from sending the RedHawks to their second consecutive overtime loss. Boff took over in net in the 89th minute when Krista Pace (Jr. Toronto, Ontario) was sidelined with an injury after she tried to make a diving stop.

DePaul looked to be on the ropes late in the game until Jenna Fagerman chipped a shot over the head of Pace that found the net and evened the score 2-2 in the 87th minute.

Brooke Livingston (So. Lisle, Ill) opened scoring in the first half in the 10th minute with a header off a corner from Danielle Hays (Sr. Apex N.C.). DePaul made several runs in the first half but the Blue Demons leading scorer Tara Strickland was shut down all game by Courtney Elsen (Sr. Madison, Conn.).

Sara Lund (So. Malmo, Sweden) gave Miami a 2-1 lead in the 34th minute after she was taken down in the box and was awarded a penalty kick. Lund beat the keeper left side for her fifth goal of the season, which leads the Mid-American Conference. The lone first-half goal for the Blue Demons came off a free kick from Beth Perry that found the foot of Kelly Semko and beat Pace left side.

Miami (1-4-0) vs. No. 26 Louisville (2-2-1), L 3-1

Stephanie Wilson (Sr. Elma, N.Y.) netted the first goal of her career to open scoring in the 14th minute and gave the RedHawks an early 1-0 lead. Wilson fired a shot across the box and bent the ball into the net with a little help from the 30-50 mile per hour winds.

Mallory Lampson tied the game off a pass from Kelsey Hunyadi and slipped Rachelle Boff (So. Naples, Fla.) on the left side to tie the game in the 24th minute. Giselle Mangal gave the Cardinals the lead in the 56th minute on a rocket shot off a pass from Shannon Smyth. Lindsay Boling put the game out of reach in the 81st minute when she scored off a pass from Caitlin Rehder.

Boff did a solid job between the posts making eight saves and also did a good job clearing the RedHawk zone while battling with the wind. Sara Lund (So. Malmo, Sweden) received her second yellow card of the season in the 25th minute.

The game was delayed at the 57:27 mark of the game after winds from Hurricane Ike knocked down a 50 foot tree that fell in close proximity to the field.

Miami (1-5-0) vs. Sacramento State (2-4-1), L 3-2 OT

Miami was edged by Sacramento State 2-1 Friday in Sacramento to open its two game road trip in California.

Kayelyn Satkowski found the back of the net off a pass from Jordan Carlberg to give Sacramento State the win over the RedHawks.

Jodi Zwingelberg (Jr. Ellgin, Ill) tied the game 1-1 for Miami in the 37th minute off an assist from Julie Thompson (So., Glenview, Ill.). The goal for Zwingelberg was her only shot on the day and one of seven shots on goal for Miami in the match. Sarah Howard opened scoring with an unassisted goal in the 16th minute that beat Rachelle Boff (So., Naples Fla.) left side.

After a save in the first minute starting Sacramento State keeper Jenny Lawrence was forced to leave the game after suffering an injury. Back-up keeper Savannah Abercrombie played the remaining 89 minutes of the match.

Boff made her third career start in place of the injured Krista Pace (Jr. Toronto, Ontario). Boff made over five saves for the second consecutive game, posting three in each half. Courtney Clarke (Fr., London Ontario) posted four shots to lead the team.

Miami (1-5-1) vs. San Jose State (1-4-3), T 0-0

Miami and San Jose State came out even 0-0 after 110 minutes in San Jose, Calif.

In only the third start of her career Rachelle Boff (So., Naples, Fla.) posted his first career shutout recording four saves. Jackie Hardek (Sr., Wheaton, Ill.) along with Danielle Hays (Sr., Apex, N.C.) led the team in shots with three. Hardek was the lone leader in shots on target with two. Hardek also received a yellow card in the 34th minute. It is the third consecutive game a RedHawk has received a caution.

The RedHawks had many opportunities against the Spartans out shooting San Jose 13-9 and getting more shots on target (6-4).

Miami made several runs but many were stopped by offside penalties as the RedHawks were called for nine offside penalties. It was a scrappy game with 26 fouls in the match with 19 handed out to San Jose State.
