Kristy Burch
• 2002 Miami Hall of Fame Inductee

As one of the most prolific pitchers in Miami history, former RedHawk standout Kristy Burch became the first softball player inducted into the Miami Hall of Fame on Sept. 7, 2002.

Upon the completion of her four-year career (1987-90), Burch owned the Miami record books as she set all 18 school single-season and career pitching marks, including 15 records during her senior campaign.

Burch's on-field accomplishments over her last two years at Miami made her the first Miami softball player to be named First-Team All-MAC two years in a row. In arguably her best season in 1990, Burch compiled a 25-9 record in the circle with an 0.74 ERA and led Miami to a then school record 36 wins.

Monique Abbitt
• 2006 Miami Hall of Fame Inductee

Standout outfielder on the Miami softball diamond from 1988-91, Monique Abbitt remains a powerful presence in Miami's record books. Abbitt currently owns two Miami career records— doubles (36) and triples (15)—and also ranks fifth in runs scored (109), sixth in at bats (660), and third in hits (216). She is fourth in batting average (.327), tied for fifth in stolen bases (40) and ranks sixth in home runs (13).

Abbitt set the single-season record holder for hits (74 in 1991) and triples (6 in 1991). The triples mark is still a record today, while the hits mark ranks second. Twice she was honored as an All-Mid-American Conference selection, earning second-team honors in 1990 and 1991. Abbitt also was a standout in the classroom, garnering Academic All-MAC accolades three times and being tabbed a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1991, the only Miami softball player to earn Academic All-America recognition.

Hall-of-Fame

Theresa Shepherd • 2009 Miami Hall of Fame Inductee

One of Miami's first great hitters, Theresa Shepherd remains the Miami University softball co-record holder for triples in a season with six in 1989. Shepherd finished her Miami career as the career record holder in six statistical categories: batting average, runs, hits, triples, home runs and RBI. She remains ranked among the all-time top-10 in all six of those categories. Additionally, Shepherd ties for 10th in single-season home runs, belting six in 1987. As a senior, she led the team in all but one statistical category. During her Miami career, Shepherd was a two-time First-Team All-MAC selection. She captured her first All-MAC award during her sophomore campaign in 1987. Her second All-MAC honor came during her senior season in 1989.

Jackie Poggendorf • 2014 Miami Hall of Fame Inductee

Adorned pitcher for the RedHawk softball team from 2002-05, Jackie Poggendorf '05 led Miami to its first MAC Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance as a senior in 2005. Poggendorf captured third-team all-region honors and was a three-time All-MAC selection, earning first-team distinction in 2005. She was twice named the MAC Tournament MVP (2003, 2005) and was tabbed Miami's Female Co-Athlete of the Year as a senior in 2005. Poggendorf placed her name on every single-season and career pitching top-10 list and finished her career owning four pitching records. She currently ranks second all-time in wins (63), appearances (148), starts (106), innings pitched (793.0) and strikeouts (672). A four-year letterwinner, Poggendorf helped Miami to three straight MAC Tournament appearances (2003, 2004, 2005).
