STORYLINES

1. TOURNAMENT RUN: Miami is in the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in school history and second consecutive. This is the third time the RedHawks have earned an at-large bid; the other five (including last year's) were automatic bids for winning the MAC Tournament championship. This is the first time Miami has earned an at-large bid without winning the MAC regular-season title. The RedHawks are 1-7 all-time in NCAA Tournament play with their win coming in 1998, a 3-0 (15-12, 15-12, 15-9) win over Nevada.

2. OPPONENTS LOOK FAMILIAR: With one notable exception, this four-team pod in West Lafayette looks like the Dayton Flyer Classic that Miami participated in earlier this season (Sept. 19-20). That tournament included Miami, Dayton, Purdue and Louisville. While the RedHawks did not win a match in three tries at that tournament, the high level of competition helped them learn to function as a team and resulted in a 12-4 MAC season and a run to the tournament semifinals. The exception to the bracket is Miami's opponent in round one, Middle Tennessee State. The Blue Raiders had a very similar season to the RedHawks, finishing in second place in their division and making it to the conference semifinals. If Miami can defeat Middle Tennessee, it will face either Purdue or Louisville in the second round. Purdue beat Louisville 3-0 (27-25, 25-18, 25-22) when they met at that Dayton tournament.

RPI HIGH: The benefits of a difficult early-season schedule paid off in a high RPI ranking for the Miami RedHawks. The RPI is extensively used by selection committee's in choosing at-large teams for the NCAA Tournament and was directly responsible for the RedHawks receiving a tournament bid. The rating not only measures a team's wins and losses, but also how its opponents have fared, so defeating high RPI teams like Wisconsin and Western Kentucky, as well as just playing other highly-ranked teams such as Purdue and Saint Louis, benefit Miami in the long run. The RedHawks were ranked 45th in the latest RPI released by the NCAA back on Nov. 10 when the team was 16-10. That is the final RPI release until after the season is over.

BETTER OFFENSE/BETTER DEFENSE=BETTER MAC RESULTS: Improvement in hitting percentage was a factor in Miami's strong start in MAC play. The team hit .256 against conference foes, compared to a .230 percentage during the non-conference season.

An even bigger factor has been the commitment to defense during MAC play. After opponents hit .217 during non-conference play, MAC opponents hit only .166, and Miami is outhit its opponents by 90 points during conference play.

ZENZ PASSES 2,000 DIGS: Senior libero Melissa Zenz reached 2,000 collegiate digs on Nov. 15 against Buffalo. That includes the 627 digs she recorded as a freshman at Cincinnati. Despite only attending Miami for the last three seasons, Zenz has amassed 1,459 digs as a RedHawk, which is second in school history. Despite not playing her freshman year for the RedHawks, she has a shot at the all-time record, as she needs eight digs to pass Stephanie Otten for first place. In her first season at Miami, Zenz set the single-season dig mark with 507. She could potentially break that mark in the NCAA Tournament, as she now has 502 digs this season.

SCHROEDER AMONG ALL-TIME KILL LEADERS: Despite being in and out of the lineup due to injury this season, Emily Schroeder has once again established herself as the team's top offensive weapon with 293 kills, a team-leading average of 3.12 kills per set. Last season, Schroeder became the 17th player in program history to reach 1,000 career kills. Schroeder put down 22 kills against Northern Illinois en route to her 1,000th career kill. She recently became only the second RedHawk to reach 1,400 kills for her career. She currently has 1,437 kills and is now second on Miami's career top-10 chart. Schroeder amassed 494 kills as a sophomore. She received her first honor of the season Sept. 20 when she was named to the all-tournament team at the Dayton Flyer Classic. Schroeder was named to the All-MAC first team for the second time this season after being named first team in 2006 and second team in 2007.

ATTEBERRY WINS AWARDS: Junior Andrea Atteberry has had an impressive season for the RedHawks. For the third consecutive year, she continues to be the team's primary setter, performing a key leadership role. The weekend of Sept. 5-6, she helped lead Miami to the UNLV Tournament Championship with a 3-0 record, including a defeat of then 10th-ranked Wisconsin. For the weekend, she had 134 assists and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. She also won her first MAC East Division Player of the Week award. She won the MAC East Division Player of the Week award again on Oct. 20 for her performance in wins against Central Michigan and Eastern Michigan. Atteberry was one of three RedHawks named to the All-MAC First Team this year after being named to the second team in 2007. She now has 1,242 assists on the season, which puts her career mark at 3,576. Atteberry is only the fifth RedHawk to surpass the 3,000-assist mark. Her 11.16 assists per set ranks 22nd among all setters in the NCAA and second in the Mid-American Conference.

GRIFFIN KEY MEMBER OF FRONTLINE: Junior Megan Griffin joins Maria Leahy, Emily Schroeder and Hallie Hanks to make up the RedHawks' primary attack. She is second on the team with 313 kills and ranks first in hitting percentage at .3572. That leads the MAC and ranks 36th in the nation. She is challenging for the top single-season hitting percentage by a RedHawk, which is .3570, set by Wendy Tepe in 1985. After putting down 18 kills and hitting .643 for the weekend against Kent State and Ohio Oct. 3-5, she was honored as MAC East Division Player of the Week, for the first time in her career. Griffin then went on to be named to the All-MAC First Team for the second straight season.

HANKS ENJOYS BREAKOUT YEAR: Junior Hallie Hanks has enjoyed a breakout season so far this year. After moving into a starting role for the first time last year as a sophomore and recording 192 kills in 32 matches, she has become one of the team's primary attackers this year. She has 306 kills in 32 matches this season, which is third on the team. Her kills-per-set average has increased from 1.70 in 2007 to 2.68 in 2008. With 30 kills at the UNLV Tournament Sept. 5-6, she was honored with a spot on the all-tournament team. Hanks was named to the All-MAC Second Team on Nov. 20.

LEAHY GIVES A CONSISTENT ATTACK: After primarily serving as a backup her first two seasons, junior Maria Leahy entered the starting lineup and made an immediate impact. She has consistently been one of the best attackers on the team, and ranks fourth with 283 kills for the season, an average of 2.46 kills per set. She had 20 kills combined her first two seasons as a RedHawk. She also is a strong defender, as she ranks second on the team in digs behind Zenz with 338, an average of 2.94 per set. She leads the team with 12 double-doubles, each consisting of double-digit kill and dig performances. Her combination of offense and defense was on display in the MAC Tournament, where she was tied for second on the team with 24 kills and was also second with 27 digs. That performance earned her a spot on the All-MAC Tournament team, the first MAC honor of her career.

TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS: The RedHawks claimed a major tournament victory earlier in the season when they won the UNLV Tournament Sept. 5-6. After defeating Cal-State Fullerton, 3-0, on Friday, Miami upset then 10th-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday, 3-1. It was the highest ranked team the RedHawks had ever defeated. They closed out the tournament with a 3-0 win over host UNLV. Atteberry was named the tournament MVP with 134 assists over that weekend.

Miami in the NCAA Tournament

Dec. 11, 1981 New Mexico 3, Miami 1 Southwest Regional— Albuquerque, N.M.

In its first appearance at an NCAA Tournament, Miami got out of the gates in a hurry, downing New Mexico in the first game, 15-11. The Red and White battled to 11-15 decisions in the second and third games and eventually lost the fourth game and the match, 9-15. While the Red and White put forth a valiant effort in its first postseason appearance, the offensive power of New Mexico was just too much to withstand with three Lobos registering in double-figures for kills, including two above 20. Sandy Secoy led Miami with 17 kills and Jill Kohrs followed with 12. At the net, Leslie Hill knocked down a match-high six blocks.

Making its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, Miami was hungry to get the first-round jinx out of its system and advance to the second round. Again facing a higher seed, the RedHawks opened the match by winning the third NCAA Tournament game in the history of the program, a 15-12 decision. The RedHawks went on to take the next two games and win their first NCAA Tournament match. Alissia Thompson sparked the 'Hawks in the history-making match with 17 kills, 14 digs, two service aces and a .615 hitting percentage. Julie Sterk added a strong 16-kill effort and Mindy Collins notched nine kills and an impressive 22 digs. Kerry Hardek brilliantly quarterbacked the Miami offense with 57 assists.

Although the RedHawks were able to make it out of the first round, getting out of the second round was a much more difficult task against host-school Hawai'i. The Red and White got off to a slow start against the Rainbow Wahine, dropping the first two games 15-4 and 15-5. It seemed as if the third game might go the same as the first two, but a persistent RedHawk attack was able to hold off the Rainbow Wahine. Miami was able to climb its way back from a 4-11 deficit to pull within four of Hawai'i, 7-11. Hawai'i rattled off two more points and were at match point. However, a tenacious RedHawk attack manufactured five points and 11 sideouts before the Rainbow Wahine took the game and the match 12-15. Lori Moehring tallied nine kills and an impressive .692 hitting percentage. Alissia Thompson paced Miami with 12 kills, while Jamie Hales and Mindy Collins added 11 and 10 digs, respectively.

Entering the Mid-American Conference Tournament with the No. 3 seed, the RedHawks cruised to a MAC Tournament Championship by sweeping Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan and No. 15 Ohio, earning its fourth MAC Tournament crown and its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998. Miami was selected to play against Michigan, a team that had beaten Miami in three games at the end of August. The RedHawks got off to a slow start and dropped the first two games, 16-30, 18-30. In game three, the Wolverines had an eight-point lead on three occasions, before a kill by Megan Griffin, two kills by Carli Reihman and seven Michigan errors brought the RedHawks within one point, 21-22. The RedHawks remained within one point as late as 27-28, but the Wolverines went on to take the third and final game, 30-27. In her final match as a RedHawk, Reihman registered 14 kills on 20 attempts with no errors en route to a .700 hitting percentage. Reihman also collected 11 digs as she became the fifth Miami player to record a kill/dig double-double in a NCAA Tournament game.
