

Do you love going to Mizzou Football Games,
but don't know what to do with the kids?

Bring them to Pigskin Preschool! Pigskin Preschool is a great place for the kids to go while you enjoy the home football games. It is open to all families who are attending the Tigers home football games.

What is Pigskin Preschool?

Pigskin Preschool offers child-care for children 6 weeks to 10 years old during Tiger home football games. It begins 2 hours before kick-off and ends 2 hours after the game.

Who will care for the children?

Child-care is provided by Mizzou students and all are supervised by a Graduate Student in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies.

Where is Pigskin Preschool?

Pigskin Preschool is located in the Child Development Lab (CDL) in the lower level of Stanley Hall. The CDL in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies in the College of Human Environmental Sciences is a nationally recognized child-care facility. It is set up for a fun, safe, and educational environment for the children.

How much does it cost?

The cost is $35 for the first child and $10 for each sibling.

Who to contact for more information?
