After winning the program's fifth NCAA Regional title, the 11th-ranked Missouri softball team is ready to play against No. 2 UCLA in a best-of-three NCAA Super Regional series beginning Saturday, May 23, at 8:30 p.m. (CT). Games two and three of weekend series are set for 2:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. (CT) Sunday, May 24, with all three games televised live on ESPNU. Justin Kutcher and Texas A&M softball standout Amanda Scarborough will call the action as Missouri and UCLA battle at Easton Stadium.

In two weeks, the Tigers have captured a Big 12 and NCAA Regional title, marking the first time in program history that a Missouri softball squad has managed such a feat. Additionally, the Tigers managed win No. 48, the most in school history, with their 1-0 regional crowning victory over DePaul. Averaging .318 on the season, Missouri's best clip since finishing .318 in 1997, the Tigers are ready to rebound from an early season, 2-1, loss to UCLA.

Saturday's matchup between the two teams is the second of the season and 11th in 30 years. UCLA enters the competition as the No. 2 overall seed in the tournament, while Missouri, after besting DePaul, has assumed the No. 15 seed in the bracket. The last time Missouri made a trip to Los Angeles for postseason competition came in 2004, the final year before a super regional format was put in place. Missouri and UCLA never played each other, however the Bruins went on to win their 11th National Title.

Missouri is making its second consecutive Super Regional appearance, doing so first in 2008 with a trip to Tuscaloosa, Ala. Two wins at the UCLA super regional tournament would send the Tigers to the Women's College World Series (WCWS), held in Oklahoma City, Okla., for just the fourth time in program history and first since 1994. Missouri's first outing at the WCWS, held then in Omaha, Neb., was in 1983 under the direction of then Head Coach Joyce Compton. The Tigers finished the tournament tied for seventh.

The Tigers have displayed strength in the circle in this year's postseason competition. With a combined 0.35 ERA, Missouri's four person staff has held opponents to two earned runs in 40 innings, shutting out four of its six opponent. Opponents are averaging just .169 against the Tigers.

Riding a seven game win streak, Missouri's bats look to stay hot as they take on perennial powerhouse UCLA. Sophomore Rhea Taylor continues to lead the squad with a .422 average, finishing the three game regional tournament with a .545 mark that included the game winning, two out, home run against DePaul, May 17. In the leadoff position, Taylor is hitting .608. The 2008 All-American has opened six of Missouri's last 10 games with a single, reaching base on balls in one game. Taylor, who sits with 35 stolen bases on the year, has slowly edged her way closer to the No. 1 spot in the Missouri career stolen bases record book. The current record setter, Julie Link, set the bar with 110 stolen bases between 1985-1989.

SCOUTING THE BRUINS

Second ranked UCLA is in search of the program's 12th Women's College World Series title and will take the next step in moving towards that goal by hosting Missouri in a two-day NCAA Super Regional series. The "Sweet 16" appearances is the program's fourth since the creation of the Super Regional format in 2005.

Led by Head Coach Kelly Inouye-Perez, now in her third year with the Bruins, UCLA was one of six Pac-10 programs in the 64 team NCAA Regional bracket. All six conference squads advanced to Super Regional play. The Bruins own the fourth best RPI in the nation and have bested 11 of the nation's top-25 ranked programs.

Currently riding a nine game win streak, five members of the 18-person squad were awarded All-West region accolades, while junior Kaila Shull is one of 25 finalists in the running for USA Softball Player of the Year honors.

As a team, the Bruins are averaging .320 on the year, a clip good enough for eighth-best in the nation. Sophomore Katie Schroeder leads her team with a .409 mark that includes a squad high 14 home runs, 67 hits and 54 runs scored. Shull owns a .365 average, one of seven Bruins batting above .300, and has been credited with 57 RBI.

In the circle, junior Megan Langenfeld owns a 0.99 ERA and 16-1 record that includes three saves. Langenfeld has thrown 126.2 innings and allowed just 18 earned runs on 59 hits. Teammate Donna Kerr has also seen significant time in the circle. With a 2.65 ERA, Kerr has struck out 228 batters in 166.1 innings, holding her opponents to a .181 batting average.

UCLA advanced through its regional bracket by holding off Long Beach State, 4-2, and Fresno State, 4-2 and 9-5.

REGIONAL RECORD

In its 13 trips into NCAA postseason play, Missouri has managed a 23-18 record. This year, Missouri went 3-0 while hosting the Columbia Regional, claiming the program's fifth NCAA title in program history. Missouri's first trip to regionals came in 1982 under then-Head Coach Barb Priest. The Tigers went 1-2 to finish out the year with a 46-20 record.

MISSOURI VS UCLA IN POSTSEASON PLAY

The Tigers and Bruins have met on three prior occasions in NCAA postseason play. First battling on the diamond in 1983, UCLA handed Missouri a 1-0 loss at the Women's College World Series (WCWS) held in Omaha, Neb. Missouri went on to finish tied for seventh in its first WCWS showing. Eight years later, the two programs met again in the World Series setting. This time playing in Oklahoma City, Okla., the Bruins ended Missouri's season by way of a 5-0 victory. The final postseason meeting between UCLA and Missouri came 10 years ago on May 23. Playing in Los Angeles, UCLA again brought a halt to Missouri's run at a national title, this time by a score of 12-5.

AGAINST THE PAC 10

In 2009, the Missouri softball team has played only two Pac-10 teams, UCLA and Oregon. Both games were played at the San Diego State Classic, Feb. 27-March 1, and Missouri won its game against Oregon, 8-7, in nine innings before falling to UCLA, 2-1. The extra inning victory against Oregon was Missouri's first of four extra inning games on the year. Since the formation of the Tiger squad in 1975, Missouri has played all eight Pac-10 programs that host a softball team, but only owns a winning record, 2-1, over one school, Oregon.

MISSOURI ONE OF FIVE NON-SEEDED SQUADS TO ADVANCE TO SUPER REGIONALS

The Missouri softball team hosted 15th-seeded DePaul in the NCAA Regional tournament this past weekend at University Field. DePaul played as the No. 1 seed in the Columbia, Mo., regional and Missouri, the No. 2 seed, managed the "upset" to advance to the super regional series. Missouri is one of five non-seeded squads that will try their luck in super regionals. California, Baylor, Jacksonville State, North Dakota State and Missouri all knocked off their seeded opponents to become one of the final 16 teams searching for a National Title.

PLAYING FOR A TRIP TO THE WORLD SERIES

The Missouri softball team has made three appearances in 34 years to the Women's College World Series. The Tigers had a team-best showing of fifth in 1991 and finished seventh in 1994 and tied for seventh in 1983. In all three trips to the world series, Missouri won both the conference (Big Eight) and regional title en route to the WCWS.

EARLEYWINE, FIRST MU SOFTBALL COACH TO WIN BACK-TO-BACK REGIONALS

In only his third year at the helm of the Missouri softball team, Ehren Earleywine has become the first Tiger coach to guide his team to back-to-back regional titles. Winning the Columbia, Mo., Regional by way of 1-0 victory over No. 19 DePaul, the Tigers were awarded their fifth regional title in program history. In 2008, the Tigers captured the Iowa City, Iowa, Regional crown after defeating host Iowa, 5-4. Since the formation of the Missouri softball program in 1975, only five squads have earned regional titles (1983, 1991, 1994, 2008 and 2009). Only one other coach in program history, Jay Miller, has led the Tigers to more than one regional title, doing so in 1991 and again in 1994.

AND THEN THERE WERE TWO

Only two Big 12 squads have advanced to NCAA Super Regional competition, Missouri and Baylor. Both schools hosted one of 16 regional tournaments last weekend and won their title in only three games. Seven Big 12 schools, Baylor, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas A&M were awarded entrance into the initial field of 64 teams. Since the first season of Big 12 softball in 1996, a league team has advanced 15 times to the WCWS over a span of 13 years. The league has sent at least one team to the WCWS every year since 2000, with three teams advancing in 1998 and two each in 2002, '03 and '07.

THE ONLY PLAYER TO SEE MISSOURI HOST TWICE

Senior Micaela Minner has been on Missouri's softball squad long enough, six years, to see the city of Columbia host two NCAA Softball Regional tournaments. The NCAA deemed Missouri a host in 2005 and squads from Southern Illinois, Stanford and Robert Morris made their way to Columbia, May 20-22. The Tigers played in the title game of the tournament, with Minner powering a two run homer in the first frame to give Missouri a lead over No. 1 seeded Stanford. The Cardinal went on to win the game, with their cleanup hitter knocking a three run home run in the third for the win and trip to Super Regionals. In 2009, Regionals returned to Columbia. Playing as the No. 2 seed, Missouri won three straight games to capture its second consecutive NCAA Regional Title. The first time in program history any squad has won back-to-back Regional Championships.

SINCE 1997

In 1997, the Missouri softball team became the first Tiger program to collect Big 12 hardware. Winning the Big 12 title with a 15-3 regular season record and first place finish at the conference championships. Since then, Missouri has been awarded six additional Big 12 titles. In 2008-09 alone, the soccer squad (women's), football team and men's basketball team garnered the prestigious award, with softball capturing the crown on May 10 in the form of a 5-0 shutout of ninth-ranked Oklahoma.

40-WIN SEASONS

Since the creation of the Missouri softball program in 1975, 13 Tiger squads have closed out their campaign with 40 or more wins. To date, the 2009 Tigers are carrying a 48-9 record, marking the third straight year in which Missouri has managed 40 or more wins in a single season and tying the longest streak of 40 win seasons previously set between 1981-1983. 1997 Big 12 Coach of the Year Jay Miller led his Missouri Tigers to the most 40 wins seasons, six (between 1988-2002), while current Head Coach Ehren Earleywine holds the second best record at three 40-win seasons. On May 18, Missouri made history by setting a new record for wins in a season, 48. The Tigers held off 19th-ranked and No. 1 seeded DePaul, 1-0, to earn the Regional title and set a new record.

POSTSEASON NUMBER CRUNCHING

Since entering postseason play on May 8, the Tiger pitching staff has combined for an incredibly low 0.35 ERA. For her part, freshman ace Chelsea Thomas has managed a 0.28 ERA and 4-0 record that includes aiding in Missouri's win over No. 9 Oklahoma for the Big 12 title and the Tiger's May 17 victory over No. 19 DePaul for the program's fifth NCAA Regional title. Thomas has thrown 25 innings and allowed just one earned run. Holding her opponents to a .186 average, Thomas has managed two solo and one combined shutout.

At the plate, leadoff batter Rhea Taylor continues to dominate. Through Missouri's six postseason games, Taylor is averaging .550 and has scored nine of Missouri's 24 runs. Taylor is 5-of-6 on stolen bases in postseason play and hit the game winning home run in Missouri's May 17 win over 19th-ranked DePaul.

BY THE NUMBERS: RPI

Having played five of the nation's top 25 ranked squads, including No. 2 UCLA, Missouri owns the 16th best RPI in the nation. Florida owns the best RPI (through games played on May 5), with Alabama, Washington, UCLA and Georgia rounding out the top five. Missouri is one of two Big 12 schools with an RPI that ranks among the top 25 in the nation.

PITCHING STRENGTH

Missouri has four go-to athletes on its pitching staff and two of its four, Chelsea Thomas and Stacy Delaney rank among the top 25 in the nation. Thomas, with her 1.07 mark, ranks 10th in the nation and is the only freshman with a top-10 ERA. Delaney, has notched a 1.38 ERA, good enough for 22nd. Missouri is one of four schools that have two pitchers ranked among the top-25 in the country. Missouri's weekend opponent, UCLA, has one pitcher, Megan Langenfeld, ranked eighth with a 0.99 ERA. Baker, who recorded the win against Missouri earlier in the campaign, owns a 3.10 mark.

ALL-MIDWEST REGION TEAM

Five members of the nationally ranked Missouri softball team were awarded Louisville Slugger/NFCA Division I All-Midwest Region honors as announced May 14 by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). Senior Lindsey Ubrun and Marla Schweisberger earned their first career accolade, while senior Stacy Delaney and sophomore Rhea Taylor were presented with their second career honor. Senior Micaela Minner rounds out the Missouri contingent by earning her third career All-Midwest region honor.

The five All-Midwest region honorees ties Missouri's program high, set last season. The most all-region honorees Missouri had prior to 2008 was four, set in 1994. This season, Missouri tied Texas for the most all-region honorees at five. Oklahoma and Baylor had the second most recipients at four, while Texas A&M received three nods.

One of six outfielders to receive All-Midwest Region accolades, Minner becomes just the third Tiger in program history and first since 2000 to earn three all-region honors in her career. Former Missouri standout and current Iowa State Head Coach Stacy Gemeinhardt was the last Tiger player to earn three all-region honors, doing so in 1998, 1999 and 2000. Karen Snelgrove, a 1992 graduate was the first Missouri player to receive three all-region honors.

The NFCA honored a total of 263 players from 121 different institutions, making up 10 NFCA regions. A change this year is the announcement of just one team per region (First Team), although the team has the same number of members of the previous year's first and second teams combined. The change gives the regional representatives more leeway in presenting candidates for All-America selection.

The all-region teams were chosen by NFCA member coaches from each region, and all the honorees will now be eligible for selection to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America first, second or third teams. In addition, conference pitchers and players of the year not selected to the regional teams were added for All-America consideration.

ALL-BIG 12 TOURNAMENT TEAM

Following Missouri's 5-0 win in the title game of the Big 12 Championships, May 10, in Oklahoma City, Okla., five Tigers were awarded All-Tournament honors. Freshman Chelsea Thomas, who threw a complete game shutout, was recognized as the Most Outstanding Player of the Tournament, while second baseman Andee Allen, outfielder Rhea Taylor, catcher Megan Christopher and pitcher Stacy Delaney were named to the All-Tournament team. 1997 graduate Barb Wright, a pitcher, was the last Tiger to earn Most Outstanding Player of the Tournament honors. Since the formation of

Missouri's Ehren Earleywine

In his three years at Missouri, Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has guided the Tigers to back-to-back Regional victories, two Super Regional appearances, their first Big 12 title since 1997 and first top 10 ranking since 1998.

With a 73-percent winning percentage, the 2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year is arguably one of the top recruiters in the nation and aided current sophomore Rhea Taylor to All-America and Big 12 Freshman of the Year accolades in 2008. In 2009, five members of the Tiger squad were awarded All-Midwest Region accolades, tying the program high set one year prior.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.37 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975.

Because of his success, Earleywine was awarded a contract extension that will have him coaching the Tiger softball team through 2013.

Tabbed the eighth head softball coach at the University of Missouri, August 25, 2006, Earleywine helped a struggling Tiger squad rebound from a disappointing 2005-06 campaign in which the team finished the season unranked.

In his first year with the program, Earleywine led the Tigers to their fourth NCAA Regional Tournament appearance in five years and guided the team to a third place finish in Big 12 regular season play, nearly capturing the league crown, but falling one win short. Two years later, Earleywine helped the Tigers to a second place finish in Big 12 regular season play, the second-best showing in program history, and guided Missouri to its second-ever Big 12 softball championship win by way of a 5-0 shutout of No. 9 Oklahoma.

the league in 1996, 18 Tigers have collected 22 All-Tournament honors, with 2009 marking the most Missouri players ever named to the All-Tournament team. The previous high, four, was set first in 1997 and again in 2005.

MISSOURI'S ALL-BIG 12 HONOREES

The Big 12 announced its annual award winners May 9. Four members of Missouri's nationally ranked squad were awarded first team All-Big 12 honors, while two were recognized to the second team. Missouri's six All-Big 12 members ties for the second most in program history and marks the third time in five years that the Tigers had six individuals named to the team. Oklahoma received the most all-conference selections, with eight.

Senior third baseman Lindsey Ubrun, pitcher Stacy Delaney, first baseman Marla Schweisberger and outfielder Rhea Taylor, were awarded first team honors, with Ubrun, Schweisberger and Taylor selected unanimously by the Big 12 Coaches. The second career first team accolade for Ubrun, Delaney and Taylor, it is the first of sophomore Schweisberger's career.

Sophomore Megan Christopher, Missouri's starting catcher, and freshman pitcher Kristin Nottelmann were selected to the second team. The honor is the first of either player's career.

The most All-Big 12 selections a Missouri softball team has ever received is seven set in 1996. Since then, the Tigers have had six All-Conference award winners on six occasions.

ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

A program and league high 12 Tigers were awarded Academic All-Big 12 Softball honors as announced May 9 by the conference office. Eleven Missouri players were awarded first team accolades, with one named to the second team. Senior second baseman Andee Allen was one of four Big 12 softball players recognized with a 4.00 grade-point average and the first since 2007 graduate Kathy Masterson to accomplish such a feat.

In addition to Allen, seniors Katie Milles, Micaela Minner and Lindsey Ubrun were named to the first team, as were juniors Jana Hainey, Gina Schneider, Julie Silver and Michael Vock and sophomore teammates Megan Christopher, Marla Schweisberger and Abby Vock. To qualify for first team honors, a student-athlete must have maintained a 3.20 GPA or better and have participated in 60 percent of her team's scheduled contests. Freshmen and transfers are not eligible in their first year of academic residence. Senior student-athletes who have participated for a minimum of two years and meet all the criteria except percent of participation are also eligible.

Missouri's second team honoree, senior Stacy Delaney, earned her first career nod and maintained a cumulative GPA between 3.00 and 3.19.

A total of 72 players from around the league landed on the 2009 Academic All-Big 12 Team with Missouri leading the Conference with its 12 honorees. The most honorees Missouri ever had prior to 2009 was eight set during the 2006 campaign.

UBRUN NAMED COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT SEVEN HONOREE

Missouri third baseman Lindsey Ubrun was awarded College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) First Team Academic All-District 7 Softball Honors as announced May 7. Ubrun is Missouri's 15th softball player to earn the yearly academic honor and extends the streak to three straight years in which the Tigers have had a player named to the All-District squad.

Ubrun, a senior general studies major with a 3.82 cumulative grade-point average, will pursue a career in education following her graduation. Missouri's resident third baseman, Ubrun is averaging .359 on the season and has hit a squad-high 15 home runs on the year. To date, Ubrun has crushed 31 home runs during her two year career at Missouri, a mark good enough for fourth best in the Missouri career home run record book.

The Tiger senior is one of four Big 12 softball players named to the 11 person first team Academic All-District squad and will be in the running for All-America honors to be announced in the upcoming weeks.

SOLO SHUTOUTS

Freshman right handed hurler Chelsea Thomas has been credited with 10 solo shutouts, a mark that ties her for 10th in the Missouri single season shutout record book. The last Tiger to throw 10 shutouts was Erin Kalka in 2003. Stacy Delaney came close to tying the mark with nine solo shutouts in 2008. One more solo shutout by Thomas would tie her for ninth in the Missouri single season record book with Karen Snelgrove. Snelgrove managed 11 solo shutouts in 1989. Six of the 10 solo shutout marks were set in the 1980's, withstanding the test of time.

BLANKING OPPONENTS

This season, the Missouri softball team has shutout 24 of its opponents, including Big 12 foes Baylor, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas A&M, Iowa State and Nebraska. Most recently, the Tigers blanked 19th-ranked DePaul in the NCAA Regional Championship game, May 17 in Columbia, Mo. One week earlier, Missouri managed three straight shutouts at the 14th annual Big 12 Championships, blanking Oklahoma State, 10-0, Baylor, 1-0 and No. 9 Oklahoma, 5-0. The most Missouri shutouts in a single season is 32 set in 1982. Tiger ace Teresa Wilson, the current pitching coach at Arizona, recorded 21 solo shutouts that year. In 1981, Missouri notched its second highest shutout mark at 27. Again, Wilson was credited with a majority of the work, blanking 27 teams.

THROWING A NO HITTER

This season two Missouri pitchers have managed a total of three no hitters. Freshman Chelsea Thomas threw the Tiger's first solo no hitter of the campaign, a five inning perfect game against SEMO, March 7, at the All-Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament. The very next day, Thomas hurled a complete game no hitter against Missouri State, but did allow two walks. Senior Stacy Delaney tossed a five inning, complete game no hitter against then-No. 15 North Carolina on March 15, striking out six en route to the 8-0 win.

THE FIRST GRAND SLAM OF THE YEAR, FOLLOWED BY THE SECOND

Sophomore Marla Schweisberger came up with Missouri's first grand slam of the year, crushing a home run against Big 12 opponent Texas A&M, April 4 at home in game two of the doubleheader. The full count knock was Schweisberger's first of her career. The last time a Missouri player hit a grand slam was April 9, 2008. Recent graduate Amanda Renth knocked one out of the park in St. Louis. Senior Lindsey Ubrun was the next Tiger of 2009 to hit a grand slam powering a four run knock against Nebraska on May 3 at home on University Field. The grand slam was Ubrun's second at Missouri, the first coming March 2, 2008, against Boston University at home.

BRING THEM UP, SIT THEM DOWN

In two years on Missouri's softball team, pitcher Stacy Delaney has made her way into the career strike out record book. Tallying 178 as a junior in 2008, Delaney has struck out 125 this season for 303 on her career. With the mark, Delaney has moved into 10th in the MU record book. 1983 graduate Teresa Wilson has held onto the No. 1 spot for 26 years with 893 strikeouts. In Delaney's last 10 appearances in the circle, she has struck out 46 batters in 45 innings of work. Her single season high is 10 strikeouts against UMKC March 6, while her career high at Missouri is 14, set Feb. 29, 2008, against Boston University.

SINCE RETURNING

Freshman pitcher Chelsea Thomas missed nearly a month of competition with bicep tendonitis. Since her return to the circle in Missouri's April 18 game against Texas Tech, Thomas has made seven starts, including two at the NCAA Regional tournament, thrown 46.2 innings and five complete games, shutout out Nebraska (May 3), No. 9 Oklahoma (May 10), Illinois (May 15) and No. 19 DePaul (May 17) and forced 38 strikeouts, including a season high nine (in 4.1 innings) against Iowa State on April 22. After an impressive 2-0 showing at the Big 12 Championships in Oklahoma City, Okla., during which time Thomas held both Oklahoma State and Oklahoma scoreless, striking out seven batters in 11 innings, and holding both teams to a combined five hits, Thomas was awarded the All-Big 12 Most Outstanding Player of the Tournament trophy.

A TEAM KNOWN FOR ITS SPEED

Missouri has speed. Opponents can see it in the Tiger's 127 stolen bases this season as well as in freshman pitcher Chelsea Thomas' fast ball. On the base path, last year's conference leader, Rhea Taylor, stands first with 35, while teammate Shana White, also a sophomore, is second with 29. Taylor's 92 career stolen bases ranks second in the Missouri record book, 18 shy of the No. 1 spot currently held by Julie Link (1986-89) at 110. In Missouri's last 10 games, Taylor has stolen seven bases. The most stolen bases she's had in a single game is three, set Feb. 27 against Oregon.

As a team, Missouri's 127 stolen bags ranks fourth in program history, with the 1988 squad setting the bar at 142.

In the circle, Thomas has been known to touch the 70's, reaching as high as 74 throughout the course of the campaign.

WIN BY RUN RULE

This season Missouri has run ruled 18 of its opponents, ending games in six or fewer innings. The Tigers won three straight games by run rule, two against Texas A&M on April 4 and one against Southern Illinois April 8, in Columbia. The most consecutive wins by run rule this season is three.

TIGERS STAND AT 10th FOR THREE STRAIGHT WEEKS

The Missouri softball ranked as high as 10th in 2009 as first released Tuesday, April 7. The ranking is the Tiger's fourth highest in program history. In 1997, Missouri stood as high as seventh in the nation for two weeks. In 1998, Missouri ranked as high as eighth and in 1997 and 1998 Missouri earned a No. 9 ranking. Weekly softball polls began in 1995 by the NFCA, with USA Softball beginning a poll in 2003. This season, Missouri stood 10th for three straight weeks before suffering three straight losses and falling to No. 13.

HOME RUN HITTER

Senior Lindsey Ubrun has hit 15 home runs this season, one shy of the mark she set as a junior (16). In her last 10 games, Ubrun has hit four home runs. Ubrun also recorded a five game streak in which she hit one home run in each game (April 19-26). To date, Ubrun's 31 career home runs ranks fourth best in the Missouri record book, while her 15 homers this season is good enough to tie for seventh.

SCHWEISBERGER EARNS FIRST CAREER PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Sophomore softball player Marla Schweisberger was named Big 12 Player of the Week as announced April 14 by the Conference office. The weekly honor is the first of Schweisberger's career and the sixth for a Missouri player this season. Schweisberger is the fifth different Tiger to win Big 12 weekly honors in 2009.

The last time a Missouri softball team earned six or more weekly conference accolades came in 1994 when nine players were awarded Big Eight honors.

Schweisberger had a team-high .556 batting average and 1.333 slugging percentage to aid Missouri's 3-0 weekend stance, including a two-game sweep of Oklahoma State. The sophomore hit two home runs and one double against Southern Illinois and OSU, scoring four runs and notching a .667 on base percentage. Against the Cowgirls, her one out, two-run homer drove in Missouri's first of five game-winning runs. On defense, the first baseman tallied 15 putouts with no errors for a 1.000 fielding percentage.

CHRISTOPHER TABBED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Missouri sophomore softball player Megan Christopher was named Big 12 Player of the Week as announced April 7 by the league office. The weekly accolade is the first of Christopher's career.

Between March 29 and April 5 Christopher started all four contests behind the plate and managed a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage with 21 putouts and one assist. At bat the sophomore averaged .500 on the week with a 4-for-8 showing at the plate. Three of Christopher's four hits resulted in home runs, two against Texas A&M and one against M&I Bank Border Showdown opponent Kansas. In MU's 10 games prior to April 5, Christopher homered on six separate occasions. She led the squad with a 1.625 slugging percentage, on base percentage (.636), total bases (13) and home runs (3) on the week, and tied for most runs (4) and RBI (5).

DELANEY TABBED BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK: SECOND CAREER HONOR

Senior Missouri softball player Stacy Delaney was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the second time of the season as announced March 30 by the league office. The weekly accolade was Missouri's third Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honor of the campaign. Delaney last received the title on March 16, while freshman Chelsea Thomas was tabbed Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on March 9.

This marks the first time since 1994 that Missouri has received three or more Conference Pitcher of the Week honors in a single season, with Delaney becoming the first Missouri pitcher since Stephanie Falk to be awarded Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honors twice in one season. Falk accomplished the feat in 1999.

Credited with two of Missouri's four wins between March 23-29, Delaney notched a 0.44 ERA and struck out 10 batters in 16 innings of work. The senior opened the four-game stretch by holding Houston to one run in seven complete innings. Next, she tabbed her fifth complete game of the season as she struck out six Baylor batters, allowing four hits. Entering Sunday's contest with BU in the final two innings, she struck out two en route to the Tiger's first Big 12 sweep of the campaign. Now 6-2 on the year, Delaney has notched 63 strikeouts in 64 innings from the circle, and has held opponents to a .181 batting average.

DELANEY CROWNED BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Missouri senior pitcher Stacy Delaney was awarded Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honors as announced on March 16 by the league office. Delaney's accolade was the first of her career and Missouri's second of the season.

Delaney went 2-0 and helped the Tigers improve to 23-3 on the year at the Coastal Carolina Tournament in Myrtle Beach, S.C. She threw a complete game no hitter against 15th-ranked North Carolina, and recorded a solo shutout of Coastal Carolina. In two starts, Delaney hurled 10 innings, struck out 10 batters, allowed only two walks, and held her opponents to a 0.63 batting average.

THOMAS NAMED BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Missouri freshman Chelsea Thomas was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week as announced on March 9 by the league office. The accolade was the first of Thomas' career and marks Missouri's first Pitcher of the Week honor since 2005.

Thomas helped Missouri improve to 18-3 on the season after winning three of the Tigers' last six games. Pitching three complete games, Thomas threw back-to-back no hitters against Southeast Missouri State (8-0) and Missouri State (5-0) at the All-Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament held in Springfield, Mo. Through 19 innings of work, the freshman struck out 14, allowed three hits, four walks, and held opponents to a .052 batting average. Thomas recorded a 0.00 ERA on the week.

The last time Missouri recorded two or more no hitters in a single season came in 2005.

RHEA TAYLOR GRABS MISSOURI'S FIRST BIG 12 HONOR

Missouri sophomore Rhea Taylor was awarded Big 12 Softball Player of the Week honors as announced on Feb. 17. The weekly accolade is the third of her two-year Tiger career and Missouri's first of the 2009 campaign.

Taylor went 6-for-11 at the plate and contributed seven of her team's 20 runs at the Georgia State First Pitch Classic in Atlanta, Ga. Batting in the leadoff position, Taylor opened the season by scoring three runs in consecutive contests against Evansville and Virginia Tech. Her performance helped Missouri to a 3-0 record for the first time in four years. Taylor recorded a team-best 1.091 slugging percentage after reaching base 12 times. The sophomore also knocked a double, triple and hit her third-career home run on the weekend.
