Season Ticket Holder Policy

Michigan State University promotes good sportsmanship, appropriate fan behavior, and a welcoming atmosphere at all athletic events sponsored by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Any individual who engages in unruly or illegal conduct at an athletic event may be ejected from the event and prohibited from re-entering the athletic facility. In addition, season ticket holders are responsible for their own conduct and the conduct of others who use their season tickets to gain admission to athletic events.

Season ticket holders to all MSU athletic events purchase, hold, and use their tickets subject to strict compliance with this policy.

Letters of Warning – A letter of warning will be issued by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to any season ticket holder whose ticket is used to gain admission to an athletic event by an individual who is ejected from the event by police or security personnel for any reason. All letters of warning issued during a sports season will be maintained by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and reviewed with the MSU Police Department at the end of the season. In the case of severe conduct or repeat ejections, an individual's ability to purchase season tickets in the future may be restricted.

Revocation of Season Ticket(s) – The season ticket used by any individual to gain admission to a MSU athletic event may be revoked for the remainder of that current sport season if any of the following occurs, regardless of whether the individual using the ticket is the season ticket holder:

- The individual is transported to a health care or detoxification facility by any police official because the individual is incapacitated due to excessive drunkenness or the use of illegal drugs;
- The individual is issued a citation or is arrested for throwing hard objects, resisting arrest/obstruction, assault/battery, public urination, or disorderly conduct involving violent or indecent behavior;
- The individual is arrested for any violation of the Michigan Criminal Code.

Any such revocation of season ticket(s) will include a refund of the purchase price of the season ticket(s) pro-rated over the remaining events included in the ticket package. If season tickets are revoked during the current sport season, the individual's ability to purchase season tickets in the future may be restricted.
