The Starting Five

1. Thank You Seniors - Seniors Drew Naymick and Drew Neitzel will be recognized in a pre-game ceremony. A reserve post player for his first two seasons, he took a medical redshirt in 2005-06 due to an injured shoulder. Last season, he emerged as MSU's best post defender. He is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. Neitzel was a freshman point guard on MSU's 2005 Final Four squad, earning a starting role for the final two months of the season. As a junior, his role changed from distributor to scorer, emerging as one of the nation's top shooting guards and earning All-America accolades. As a senior, he is second in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio, while still averaging 13.4 points. MSU has appeared in the NCAA Tournament every year of their careers. Senior managers Paul Izzo and Nick Holmberg will also be honored.

2. Neitzel Recognized For Academics - Drew Neitzel has been named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America second team. Neitzel earned a spot on the team by posting a 3.27 grade-point average as an interdisciplinary humanities major. He is the fifth player in Spartan history to earn Academic All-America honors, joining Ralph Simpson (1970), Greg Kelsner (1979), Matt Steigenga (1990) and Chris Hill (2003-05).

3. Neitzel Among Career Leaders - Drew Neitzel currently ranks fifth in career assists at Michigan State with 557. With four more assists, he will tie current MSU assistant Mark Montgomery for fourth place on the MSU career chart. He ranks second in MSU career free-throw percentage (.857), and ranks third in 3-point field goals made (245) and 3-point field goals attempted (615).

4. Neitzel Moving Up Scoring List - Drew Neitzel ranks 15th in Michigan State career scoring with 1,408 points. He needs 61 points to pass Charlie Bell (1,468 points). Neitzel scored his 1,000th-career point against Marquette in the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

5. Naymick Breaks Block Record - Drew Naymick owns the MSU career record with 126 blocked shots. He passed Matt Steigenga for the Michigan State career lead with a block at Iowa on Jan. 12. Last season, Naymick led the Spartans with 55 rejections, good for the second-best single-season total in MSU history. He ranks third in the Big Ten this season with 1.86 blocks per contest. His 52 blocks rank third on the MSU single-season list. Naymick has blocked 35 shots in the 15 conference games (2.33 bpg), ranking second in the Big Ten in league play.

Hitting The Boards - Michigan State has a Big Ten-best +7.9 rebound margin, ranking seventh in the nation (as of Feb. 29). MSU is 21-3 this season when out-rebounding its opponent, but just 1-3 when failing to do so. In MSU's 22 wins, the Spartans have a +10.0 rebound margin, but lost the only games in which they were outrebounded (UCLA 37-28; Indiana 28-26). Texas and Penn State tied the Spartans on the boards, as MSU is 1-1 in those games. In 2006-07, MSU posted a +7.0 rebounding margin, outrebounding 24 of 35 opponents while tying three other teams.

Assist-To-Turnover Ratio - For the most part, Michigan State's turnovers are not coming from the point guards, as Drew Neitzel, Travis Walton and Kalin Lucas combine to average just 5.2 turnovers per game. Neitzel leads the Big Ten with a 3.24-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio, while Walton ranks second at 2.52-to-1, and Lucas is seventh at 1.77-to-1. In fact, Neitzel ranks second in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio, while Walton ranks 18th (as of Feb. 29). As a team, the Spartans rank second in the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.29) despite ranking eighth in the league in turnovers.

Neitzel Finalist For Senior CLASS Award - Drew Neitzel is one of 10 finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. The four primary areas of criteria include classroom, community, character and competition. Voting for the award runs through March 21. Spartan fans can vote for Neitzel at www.seniorclassaward.com. The fan balloting will be combined with votes from coaches, media and sponsors.

Suton On The Glass - Goran Suton ranks second in the Big Ten in rebounding at 8.1 boards per contest, and third in offensive rebounds (2.89 orpg). In conference games, he ranks second in the league at 7.9 rpg. Earlier this season, Suton grabbed 20 carsoms against Oakland, becoming the first Spartan since Kevin Willis in 1983 to record 20 boards in a game. Suton has led the team in rebounding in 16 games. He has nine games with double-figure rebounds and five more contests with nine boards. Suton leads the team with seven double-doubles.

A Balanced Scoring Attack - Although just three Spartans are averaging double-figures in scoring (Raymar Morgan - 14.9; Drew Neitzel - 13.4; Kalin Lucas - 10.0), Michigan State can get scoring contributions from many different sources. Seven Spartans average at least 5.1 points per game, and nine Spartans have scored 10 or more points in a single game this season. Six different players have led MSU in scoring in a single game, including all three true freshmen. In conference play, three Spartans average double figures (Morgan - 12.7; Neitzel - 12.5; Lucas - 11.1). In 11 games, four or more Spartans have scored in double figures, as MSU is 11-0 in those contests.

MSU's Block Party - Michigan State ranks third in the Big Ten with 4.46 blocks per contest (125 total blocks). Against San Jose State, the Spartans blocked a single-game school-record 13 shots. In 2006-07, Michigan State blocked a school single-season record 162 shots. The 125 blocks rank third in the MSU single-season record books, eight behind the 2000-01 squad.

Attacking The Offensive Glass - Michigan State grabs 40.7 percent of their own missed shots. As a point of comparison, no other league team is at 40 percent. The best percentage in Tom Izzo's head coaching career was the 2000-01 squad, which grabbed 47.1 percent of its misses. In five games (Chicago State, ULM, Oakland, Bradley and BYU), the Spartans had more offensive rebounds than their opponent had defensive boards. MSU is averaging 12.9 offensive rebounds per game, and has recorded at least 10 offensive boards in 19 of the 27 contests, including four games with 20 or more offensive rebounds.

MSU's X-Factor - Marquise Gray is a real X-factor for the Spartans in the sense that when he is productive, Michigan State will most always win. Gray has scored in double figures 14 times in his career, and the Spartans are 13-1 in those games. The lone loss came against North Carolina in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, where Gray tallied 11 points. In addition, MSU is 4-0 when Gray grabs 10 or more rebounds and 3-0 when he posts a double-double.

Spartan Depth - Nine different Spartans are averaging 11.8 minutes or more. Drew Neitzel leads the Spartans at 31.2 minutes per game, four fewer than he averaged last season (35.7 mpg), when he played more minutes than any Spartan since 1991.

Spartans Sign Impressive Recruiting Class

Michigan State men's basketball head coach Tom Izzo announced Wednesday that three players have signed National Letters of Intent to attend Michigan State next fall and play for the 2008-09 Spartan basketball team.

The signees include Draymond Green (F, 6-7, 230, Saginaw, Mich./Saginaw), Korie Lucious (G, 5-10, 165, Milwaukee, Wis./St. Pius XI High School) and Delvon Roe (F, 6-8, 220, Lakewood, Ohio/St. Edward High School).

"I am very excited about this class," said Michigan State head coach Tom Izzo. "You have three players that all have the potential to be Mr. Basketball in their respective states. In last year's class, we were looking for what our needs were. This year, we were not only looking to address our needs, but we were looking for some more basketball players.

"When you put these three together, you've got a guard and a couple of swing guys that can play two or three positions. I really believe that in this class we have guys who know how to play the game, and they're not one-dimensional players. We've now put together back-to-back recruiting classes with guys who can play the game and shoot the ball. They are guys that are going to take care of business on the court and off.

"Finally, I'm happy with the job my assistants did in the recruiting process. Sometimes they don't get the credit they deserve. But the staff did a great job."

Draymond Green (F, 6-7, 230, Saginaw, Mich./Saginaw) - Averaged 25 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three steals as a junior ... Led Saginaw High School to the Michigan Class A State Championship and a 26-1 record ... 2007 Detroit Free Press and The Detroit News Dream Team Member, the lone junior on the team ... Shot 52 percent from the field and 73 percent from the foul line ... First-team all-area and all-conference selection ... Ranked the No. 98 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 29 power forward ... Rated the No. 77 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 21 power forward ... Averaged 12 points and 11 rebounds as a sophomore ... Plays AAU basketball for the The Family, having previously played for the Michigan Mustangs ... Plays for Coach Lou Dawkins at Saginaw High School.

Izzo On Green: "What attracted me to Draymond was that he has great hands and great skills. The other thing I like about him beside his versatility is that he played for a great high school coach in Lou Dawkins on a team that won a state championship. He has an understanding of how to win, and I think that is very, very important. I think he needs to get into the best shape of his life, and that will be taken care of. He was out for a period of time during the summer because of injury, which might have caused him to slip in the national rankings. We expect him, however, to be a very good player for us."

Korie Lucious (G, 5-10, 165, Milwaukee, Wis./St. Pius XI High School) - Averaged 24.2 points, 5.4 assists, 4.3 steals and 2.6 rebounds as a junior at St. Pius XI High School, leading his team to a 19-4 record ... Shot 48.3 percent from two-point range, 42.3 percent from 3-point range and 82.5 percent from the foul line ... Named the 2007 Classic Eight Conference Player of the Year ... First-team all-area selection ... Participated in the 2007 USA Basketball Men's Youth Development Festival, averaging 18.2 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.4 assists ... Ranked the No. 90 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 11 point guard ... Rated the No. 85 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 9 point guard ... Attended Rufus King High School as a sophomore, averaging 12.1 points, 6.5 assists and 2.3 steals ... Plays AAU basketball for DTA Wisconsin ... Plays for Coach Joel Classen at St. Pius XI High School.

Izzo On Lucious: "In Korie Lucious, we knew we were going to be losing Drew Neitzel, and he's a guard that can do more than one thing. Even though he's only 5-10 in stature, he's one of the quickest ball-handling guards. And I think sometime in the future we can play him and Kalin Lucas at the same time, giving us an extremely quick backcourt. Korie is a guy who can really shoot the ball. An extra benefit is that he has played against good competition and he's a winner, playing for a very good coach in Joel Classen."

Delvon Roe (F, 6-8, 220, Lakewood, Ohio/St. Edward High School) - 2007-08 Sporting News First-Team All-American ... 2007 EA Sports National Junior of the Year ... 2007 EA Sports All-America second team and Parade Magazine All-America fourth team ... Averaged 22.5 points and 11.5 rebounds as a junior at St. Edward High School, leading his team to a 25-1 record, the Ohio Division 1 semifinals, a No. 23 final national ranking and a No. 5 Midwest Regional ranking by USA Today ... Led St. Edwards in blocks (60) and steals (69) and was second in assists ... Shot 40 percent from 3-point range as a junior ... Runner-up for 2007 Ohio Mr. Basketball honors ... Named 2007 Player of the Year in Ohio by the Cleveland Plain Dealer ... All-Ohio Division I honoree ... Participated in the 2007 USA Basketball Men's Youth Development Festival, averaging 30.3 points (tournament best) and 10.3 rebounds ... Ranked the No. 9 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 2 power forward ... Rated the No. 7 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 2 power forward ... Averaged 20.5 points, 10.7 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 2.2 steals as a sophomore ... Named all-state honorable mention and all-district as a sophomore ... Averaged 16.3 points, 9.6 rebounds and 3.2 blocks as a freshman, earning all-conference accolades ... Plays AAU basketball for King James Shooting Stars ... Plays for Coach Eric Flannery at St. Edward High School.

Izzo on Roe: "I don't think there's any question that Delvon Roe is everybody's first team All-American. He took his team to the state semifinals last year, and he's a favorite to go back and win a state championship. He plays for another great high school coach in Eric Flannery, so he's been well-coached. He improved his three-point shooting a lot last year. He's kind of like a Raymar Morgan, but maybe more athletic in scoring around the basket. He's not quite as strong as Raymar is though, but he's similar. Delvon is a winner from the get-go, and he's really going to help us. On and off the court, he has the credentials to do great things."

Finding Success At The Foul Line - Michigan State is shooting .724 from the foul line, ranking second in the Big Ten. The Spartans are averaging 19.3 attempts and 13.9 makes per contest. In the Spartans' six losses, they have totaled 79 free-throw attempts, including just four against Iowa. Last season, MSU averaged 19.2 attempts and 13.8 makes. Individually, Raymar Morgan has the most trips to the foul line (154), averaging 4.0 points per game at the stripe.

High-Octane Offense - Michigan State ranks second in the Big Ten in scoring, averaging 71.7 points per game. The Spartan offense has scored more than 80 points in eight games this season, surpassing last year's number of 80-point games. Last season, MSU scored 80 or more points in just five of 35 contests. Michigan State has scored 75 or more points in 16 games.

Freshmen Contributions - Michigan State has played three true scholarship freshmen (Chris Allen, Kalin Lucas and Durrell Summers) this season. The trio is averaging 21.3 points, 5.4 rebounds and 5.1 assists in 49.4 minutes.

MSU's Homecourt Win Streak - Michigan State has won 20 straight home games at the Breslin Center, dating back to a Feb. 3, 2007, loss to No. 4 Ohio State. This season, the Spartans are a perfect 16-0 at home, averaging 76.3 points and 49.7 percent shooting. The 20-game home win streak is MSU's longest since it won 53 straight between November 1998 and January 2002. During Tom Izzo's career as head coach, the Spartans are 179-22 (.891) at home, including 156-13 (.923) over the last 11 years.

Dickie V's Coach Of The Week - After leading Michigan State to back-to-back victories away from East Lansing against Bradley and BYU, Tom Izzo was named Coach of the Week by Dick Vitale on his web site on Dec. 10. Vitale wrote "It is never easy to win on the road in college basketball and Izzo led the Spartans to victories at two difficult places."

Spartans Play For Record Crowds - In addition to playing in front of sellout crowds at home, Michigan State is a top draw on the road, as the Spartans played in front of two record crowds during the first week of December. On Dec. 4, MSU played in front of 11,597, the largest crowd ever to witness a Bradley home game. In Dec. 8's win over BYU, the Spartans played in front of the largest crowd ever to watch a college basketball game in Salt Lake City (16,412).

Morgan Is Two-Time Big Ten POW - Raymar Morgan was named co-Big Ten Player of the Week on Nov. 19, sharing the honor with Indiana freshman Eric Gordon. The Spartan sophomore averaged 19.0 points and 14.5 rebounds in the East Lansing Regional of the CBE Classic, earning Regional MVP honors. On Jan. 7, Morgan shared the honors with Penn State's Geary Claxton after the Spartan sophomore scored a career-high 31 points to go along with 10 rebounds against Minnesota.

Home Sweet Home - During Tom Izzo's career as head coach, the Spartans are 180-22 (.891) at home, including 157-13 (.924) over the last 11 years.

Playing With Team USA - Raymar Morgan and Drew Neitzel had the opportunity to play for Team USA over the summer. Morgan made the 2007 USA U19 World Championship Team, winning a silver medal at the FIBA U19 World Championships. He started six of the nine contests, averaging 9.2 points (sixth most on the team) and 4.3 rebounds (fourth most). Neitzel made the 2007 USA Pan American Games Team, helping the team to a 3-2 mark. He led Team USA in minutes (29.6 mpg) and assists (2.2 apg), while ranking fifth in scoring (8.2 ppg).

A Perfect 10 - Michigan State made its 10th straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007. It is the longest current streak among Big Ten schools and fifth longest in the nation. Only Arizona (23), Kansas (18), Kentucky (16) and Duke (12) have longer current streaks. It is also the second longest streak in Big Ten history. Indiana appeared in 18 consecutive tournaments between 1986 and 2003.

Spartan Opponents In The Polls - Five Michigan State opponents are ranked in the latest The Associated Press Top 25, including No. 4 UCLA, No. 5 Texas, No. 10 Wisconsin, No. 12 Indiana and No. 16 Purdue. (Based on Feb. 25 rankings.)

MSU Among Decade's Best - In early May 2007, ESPN.com released a ranking of the top 10 programs of the last 10 years. Michigan State was tied for second in the consensus ranking of five college basketball experts. One of the five voters, Andy Katz, ranked MSU as the top program over the last 10 seasons. In ranking the Spartans at the top of the list, Katz used several supporting arguments including: appearing in a nation's best four Final Fours; winning four Big Ten Championships, two Big Ten Tournament Titles and the 2000 NCAA Championship; 10 straight NCAA Tournament appearances; 10 players selected in the NBA Draft; playing 32 ranked regular-season non-conference opponents; 30 graduates; 145 consecutive home sellouts and a .916 winning percentage at Breslin over the last 10 years.

Morgan On Wooden List - Raymar Morgan is one of 30 players on the midseason list for the John R. Wooden Award. Morgan joins Indiana's D.J. White and Eric Gordon as the only Big Ten players on the list. The John R. Wooden Award, presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club, has been presented annually since 1976.

Neitzel Up For Naismith Award - Drew Neitzel is one of 30 players on the midseason list for the 2007-08 Naismith Trophy presented by AT&T. Neitzel joins Indiana's D.J. White and Eric Gordon as the only Big Ten players on the list. The Top 30 men's list was voted on by the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, comprised of leading basketball journalists, coaches and administrators from around the country.

Spartans In The NBA - Eight former Spartans were on opening day NBA rosters, including Maurice Ager (Dallas Mavericks), Charlie Bell (Milwaukee Bucks), Shannon Brown (Cleveland Cavaliers), Paul Davis (Los Angeles Clippers), Morris Peterson (New Orleans Hornets), Zach Randolph (New York Knicks), Jason Richardson (Charlotte Bobcats) and Eric Snow (Cleveland Cavaliers). Since opening day, Ager has been traded to the New Jersey Nets and Brown has been traded to the Chicago Bulls.

THE BOOK ON TOM IZZO

In his 13th year, Tom Izzo (Northern Michigan, '77) is 300-127 (.703), and 143-68 (.678) in the Big Ten, as the coach of the Michigan State basketball program. In 2005, he passed Benjamin Van Alstyne to become the second-winningest coach in MSU history, trailing only Jud Heathcote (340) in total wins. In his 12 seasons as a head coach, Izzo has won National Coach of the Year honors four times, including the Clair Bee Award in 2005 and NABC honors in 2001. In 1999, Izzo was named National Coach of the year by Basketball Times, while earning similar honors from The Associated Press, Basketball News and the USBWA in '98.

Among The Big Ten's Best - Tom Izzo's .678 winning percentage in Big Ten games ranks third all-time among league coaches with at least 10 years of service, behind former Indiana coach Bob Knight (.700) and Purdue's Ward Lambert (.685). In all games, Knight ranks first at .734, followed by Wisconsin's Walter Meanwell (.712), Lambert (.709) and Izzo (.703). With 143 conference victories, Izzo ranks 12th all-time, one behind Ohio State's Harold "Bud" Foster.

Izzo Against Ranked Opponents - In his 13 years of coaching, Tom Izzo is 64-62 against ranked opponents.

Izzo Among Best Ever - Through his first 12 seasons, Tom Izzo won 278 games, ranking ninth in college basketball history for most wins by a college coach in his first 12 years.
