The Starting Five

Table with 5 columns: Year, Site, W/L, Score, Opponent. Lists historical games from 1925 to 2002.

1. Spartans Among Big Ten Stat Leaders - Look at the Big Ten individual statistics and you will see a Spartan near the top of nearly every category. Spartans lead the league in field-goal percentage (Marquise Gray, .703) and assist-to-turnover ratio (Drew Neitzel, 5.0-to-1), while ranking second in assists (Drew Neitzel, 5.00) and offensive rebounds (Goran Suton, 3.75), and third in scoring (Raymar Morgan, 17.6) and rebounding (Goran Suton, 8.5).

2. Finding Success At The Foul Line - Michigan State is shooting .751 from the foul line, ranking second in the Big Ten. The Spartans are averaging 23.6 attempts and 17.8 makes per contest. In fact, MSU has made as many free throws (142) as its opponents have attempted (142). In the Spartans' lone loss to UCLA, they made 93.3 percent of their attempts, but attempted just 15 free throws. Last season, MSU averaged 19.2 attempts and 13.8 makes. Individually, Raymar Morgan has the most trips to the foul line (55), averaging 5.3 points per game at the stripe.

3. I Love The 80's - The Spartan offense has scored more than 80 points in five of eight games this season, equalling last year's number of 80-point games. Last season, MSU scored 80 or more points in just five of 35 contests.

4. Hitting The Boards - Michigan State has a +11.5 rebound margin. Goran Suton paces the Spartans at 8.5 boards per contest, having grabbed 20 against Oakland, becoming the first Spartan since Kevin Willis in 1983 to record 20 boards in a game. In MSU's seven wins, the Spartans have a +14.4 rebound margin, but lost the only game in which they were outrebounded (UCLA; 37-28). In 2006-07, MSU posted a +7.0 rebounding margin, outrebounding 24 of 35 opponents while tying three other teams.

5. Maintaining The Defense - Michigan State is holding its opponents to 37.7 percent shooting overall, and 30.5 percent shooting from 3-point range. Last year, MSU allowed opponents to shoot just 38.4 percent, the lowest percentage since 1958-59. The Spartans have held six of eight opponents below 40 percent shooting, including the last three.

MSU vs. BYU Notes

Series History - The all-time series between Michigan State and BYU is tied 4-4, as the two teams have split the two neutral site contests. The Cougars defeated the Spartans in the first neutral-site meeting, 96-88, on Dec. 29, 1986, when the two teams met at the Cable Car Classic in Santa Clara, Calif. Last season, MSU defeated BYU, 76-61, at the Palace of Auburn Hills in the Spartan Clash.

Coach Rose - Dave Rose (Houston, '83) is 52-19 in his third season as a Division I head coach at BYU. He earned USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year honors after posting a 20-9 record in his first season. Last season, BYU was 25-9 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. During his playing career at Houston, he was co-captain of the 1983 "Phi Slamma Jamma" Cougar squad that featured Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler, and lost to North Carolina State in the NCAA Championship game. Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was a junior college head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, posting a 167-57 record.

The Last Meeting - Michigan State defeated BYU, 76-61, on Dec. 9, 2006 at the Spartan Clash in Auburn Hills, Mich. Playing With Team USA - Raymar Morgan and Drew Neitzel had the opportunity to play for Team USA over the summer. Morgan made the 2007 USA U19 World Championship Team, winning a silver medal at the FIBA U19 World Championships. He started six of the nine contests, averaging 9.2 points (sixth most on the team) and 4.3 rebounds (fourth most). Neitzel made the 2007 USA Pan American Games Team, helping the team to a 3-2 mark. He led Team USA in minutes (29.6 mpg) and assists (2.2 apg), while ranking fifth in scoring (8.2 ppg).

Big Ten Favorites - Michigan State was selected the preseason Big Ten favorite by a 22-member media panel at Big Ten Media Day on Oct. 28 in Chicago. MSU was followed in the polls by Indiana and Ohio State. At the event, Drew Neitzel was also selected Preseason Big Ten Player of The Year, becoming the first Spartan to earn the preseason nod since Mateen Cleaves was the coaches' pick in 1999. Indiana's D.J. White, Ohio State Jamar Butler, Penn State's Geary Claxton and Illinois' Shaun Pruitt joined Neitzel on the all-league team.

MSU Among Decade's Best - In early May 2007, ESPN.com released a ranking of the top 10 programs of the last 10 years. Michigan State was tied for second in the consensus ranking of five college basketball experts. One of the five voters, Andy Katz, ranked MSU as the top program over the last 10 seasons. In ranking the Spartans at the top of the list, Katz used several supporting arguments including: appearing in a nation's best four Final Fours; winning four Big Ten Championships, two Big Ten Tournament Titles and the 2000 NCAA Championship; 10 straight NCAA Tournament appearances; 10 players selected in the NBA Draft; playing 32 ranked regular-season non-conference opponents; 30 graduates; 145 consecutive home sellouts and a .916 winning percentage at Breslin over the last 10 years.

Spartans On The Run - After Michigan State's season-ending loss to North Carolina in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, Tom Izzo promised that the Spartans would return to the up-tempo style of basketball that he prefers to play. Look for the Spartans to significantly improve on the 65.0 points they averaged last season. Instead, expect something similar to the 2004-05 squad that averaged 78.5 points per contest, the most by any Izzo-coached team.

The Other Foundations - While an up-tempo offense is Tom Izzo's preferred style, his best teams are also built around exceptional rebounding and strong defense. In fact, MSU led the Big Ten in rebounding margin in 2006-07 for the eighth time in the last 10 years. Defensively, the Spartans allowed opponents just 57.2 points per game, the lowest total since 1951-52. While that number might increase due to a faster pace of game, the field-goal percentage defense need not increase. Last year, MSU allowed opponents to shoot just 38.4 percent, the lowest since 1958-59.

A Perfect 10 - Michigan State made its 10th straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007. It is the longest current streak among Big Ten schools and fifth longest in the nation. Only Arizona (23), Kansas (18), Kentucky (16) and Duke (12) have longer current streaks. It is also the second longest streak in Big Ten history. Indiana appeared in 18 consecutive tournaments between 1986 and 2003.

Preseason All-American - A second-team All-American as selected by Dick Vitale and CBS Sports.com in 2006-07, Drew Neitzel opens the 2007-08 season as a popular pick for first-team All-America honors. In fact, Neitzel is a preseason first-team All-American according to The Associated Press, Athlon Sports College Basketball, Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook and Dick Vitale. Teammate Raymar Morgan made Vitale's fourth team.

Spartans Sign Impressive Recruiting Class

Michigan State men's basketball head coach Tom Izzo announced Wednesday that three players have signed National Letters of Intent to attend Michigan State next fall and play for the 2008-09 Spartan basketball team.

The signees include Draymond Green (F, 6-7, 230, Saginaw, Mich./Saginaw), Korie Lucious (G, 5-10, 165, Milwaukee, Wis./St. Pius XI High School) and Delvon Roe (F, 6-8, 220, Lakewood, Ohio/St. Edward High School).

"I am very excited about this class," said Michigan State head coach Tom Izzo. "You have three players that all have the potential to be Mr. Basketball in their respective states. In last year's class, we were looking for what our needs were. This year, we were not only looking to address our needs, but we were looking for some more basketball players.

"When you put these three together, you've got a guard and a couple of swing guys that can play two or three positions. I really believe that in this class we have guys who know how to play the game, and they're not one-dimensional players. We've now put together back-to-back recruiting classes with guys who can play the game and shoot the ball. They are guys that are going to take care of business on the court and off.

"Finally, I'm happy with the job my assistants did in the recruiting process. Sometimes they don't get the credit they deserve. But the staff did a great job."

Draymond Green (F, 6-7, 230, Saginaw, Mich./Saginaw) - Averaged 25 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three steals as a junior ... Led Saginaw High School to the Michigan Class A State Championship and a 26-1 record ... 2007 Detroit Free Press and The Detroit News Dream Team Member, the lone junior on the team ... Shot 52 percent from the field and 73 percent from the foul line ... First-team all-area and all-conference selection ... Ranked the No. 98 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 29 power forward ... Rated the No. 77 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 21 power forward ... Averaged 12 points and 11 rebounds as a sophomore ... Plays AAU basketball for the The Family, having previously played for the Michigan Mustangs ... Plays for Coach Lou Dawkins at Saginaw High School.

Izzo On Green: "What attracted me to Draymond was that he has great hands and great skills. The other thing I like about him beside his versatility is that he played for a great high school coach in Lou Dawkins on a team that won a state championship. He has an understanding of how to win, and I think that is very, very important. I think he needs to get into the best shape of his life, and that will be taken care of. He was out for a period of time during the summer because of injury, which might have caused him to slip in the national rankings. We expect him, however, to be a very good player for us."

Korie Lucious (G, 5-10, 165, Milwaukee, Wis./St. Pius XI High School) - Averaged 24.2 points, 5.4 assists, 4.3 steals and 2.6 rebounds as a junior at St. Pius XI High School, leading his team to a 19-4 record ... Shot 48.3 percent from two-point range, 42.3 percent from 3-point range and 82.5 percent from the foul line ... Named the 2007 Classic Eight Conference Player of the Year ... First-team all-area selection ... Participated in the 2007 USA Basketball Men's Youth Development Festival, averaging 18.2 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.4 assists ... Ranked the No. 90 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 11 point guard ... Rated the No. 85 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 9 point guard ... Attended Rufus King High School as a sophomore, averaging 12.1 points, 6.5 assists and 2.3 steals ... Plays AAU basketball for DTA Wisconsin ... Plays for Coach Joel Classen at St. Pius XI High School.

Izzo On Lucious: "In Korie Lucious, we knew we were going to be losing Drew Neitzel, and he's a guard that can do more than one thing. Even though he's only 5-10 in stature, he's one of the quickest ball-handling guards. And I think sometime in the future we can play him and Kalin Lucas at the same time, giving us an extremely quick backcourt. Korie is a guy who can really shoot the ball. An extra benefit is that he has played against good competition and he's a winner, playing for a very good coach in Joel Classen."

Delvon Roe (F, 6-8, 220, Lakewood, Ohio/St. Edward High School) - 2007-08 Sporting News First-Team All-American ... 2007 EA Sports National Junior of the Year ... 2007 EA Sports All-America second team and Parade Magazine All-America fourth team ... Averaged 22.5 points and 11.5 rebounds as a junior at St. Edward High School, leading his team to a 25-1 record, the Ohio Division 1 semifinals, a No. 23 final national ranking and a No. 5 Midwest Regional ranking by USA Today ... Led St. Edwards in blocks (60) and steals (69) and was second in assists ... Shot 40 percent from 3-point range as a junior ... Runner-up for 2007 Ohio Mr. Basketball honors ... Named 2007 Player of the Year in Ohio by the Cleveland Plain Dealer ... All-Ohio Division I honoree ... Participated in the 2007 USA Basketball Men's Youth Development Festival, averaging 30.3 points (tournament best) and 10.3 rebounds ... Ranked the No. 9 player overall in the nation by Scout.com, including the No. 2 power forward ... Rated the No. 7 player in the ESPN 150, including the No. 2 power forward ... Averaged 20.5 points, 10.7 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 2.2 steals as a sophomore ... Named all-state honorable mention and all-district as a sophomore ... Averaged 16.3 points, 9.6 rebounds and 3.2 blocks as a freshman, earning all-conference accolades ... Plays AAU basketball for King James Shooting Stars ... Plays for Coach Eric Flannery at St. Edward High School.

Izzo on Roe: "I don't think there's any question that Delvon Roe is everybody's first team All-American. He took his team to the state semifinals last year, and he's a favorite to go back and win a state championship. He plays for another great high school coach in Eric Flannery, so he's been well-coached. He improved his three-point shooting a lot last year. He's kind of like a Raymar Morgan, but maybe more athletic in scoring around the basket. He's not quite as strong as Raymar is though, but he's similar. Delvon is a winner from the get-go, and he's really going to help us. On and off the court, he has the credentials to do great things."

Neitzel On Cousy List - Senior point guard Drew Neitzel is one of 36 Division I candidates for the 2007 Bob Cousy Award. Presented annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, the award recognizes the top collegiate point guard participating in NCAA Divisions I, II and III. The selection committee is comprised of college basketball experts including media members, former coaches and players. Candidates are evaluated on their ability to maximize their team's collective potential, their leadership, their core basketball skills and overall team achievement. Neitzel is the only Big Ten player on the list, which also includes two Division II and Division III candidates.

Spartans Make Wooden And Naismith Lists - Raymar Morgan and Drew Neitzel are two of 50 players nationwide to earn a spot on the 2007-08 Naismith Trophy presented by AT&T preseason candidate watch list. The Naismith watch list was compiled by the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, which based its preseason criteria on player performances from last season and expectations for the 2007-08 season. Morgan and Neitzel are two of just four Big Ten players on the Naismith watch list, where they are joined by Penn State's Geary Claxton and Indiana's D.J. White. Neitzel was also selected one of the top 50 preseason candidates for the 2007-08 John R. Wooden Award. The John R. Wooden Award, presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club, has been presented annually since 1976. Neitzel and White are the only Big Ten players on the preseason list for the Wooden Award. Last season, Neitzel was one of 22 players to appear on the final ballot for the Wooden Award.

Spartan Opponents In The Polls - Four Michigan State opponents are ranked in the latest The Associated Press Top 25, including No. 4 Texas, No. 7 UCLA, No. 15 Indiana and No. 20 Brigham Young. (Based on Dec. 3 rankings.)

Spartans In The NBA - Eight former Spartans are currently on NBA rosters, including Maurice Ager (Dallas Mavericks), Charlie Bell (Milwaukee Bucks), Shannon Brown (Cleveland Cavaliers), Paul Davis (Los Angeles Clippers), Morris Peterson (New Orleans Hornets), Zach Randolph (New York Knicks), Jason Richardson (Charlotte Bobcats) and Eric Snow (Cleveland Cavaliers).

THE BOOK ON TOM IZZO

In his 13th year, Tom Izzo (Northern Michigan, '77) is 285-122 (.700), and 133-63 (.679) in the Big Ten, as the coach of the Michigan State basketball program. In 2005, he passed Benjamin Van Alstyne to become the second-winningest coach in MSU history, trailing only Jud Heathcote (340) in total wins. In his 12 seasons as a head coach, Izzo has won National Coach of the Year honors four times, including the Clair Bee Award in 2005 and NABC honors in 2001. In 1999, Izzo was named National Coach of the year by Basketball Times, while earning similar honors from The Associated Press, Basketball News and the USBWA in '98.

Among The Big Ten's Best - Tom Izzo's .679 winning percentage in Big Ten games ranks third all-time among league coaches with at least 10 years of service, behind former Indiana coach Bob Knight (.700) and Purdue's Ward Lambert (.685). In all games, Knight ranks first at .734, followed by Wisconsin's Walter Meanwell (.712), Lambert (.709) and Izzo (.700). With 133 conference victories, Izzo ranks 13th all-time, five behind Northwestern's Arthur Lonborg.

Izzo Among Best Ever - Through his first 12 seasons, Tom Izzo won 278 games, ranking ninth in college basketball history for most wins by a college coach in his first 12 years.

Graduating Student-Athletes - In Tom Izzo's 12 full years directing the Spartan program, 82 percent of his players who completed their eligibility also left with a degree. In the last eight years, 27 Spartans have received their undergraduate degrees, including five each in 2001, 2003 and 2007.

Izzo's Coaching Tree - Six current Division I head coaches all served as assistants to Tom Izzo, including Jim Boylen (Utah), Tom Crean (Marquette), Brian Gregory (Dayton), Stan Heath (South Florida), Stan Joplin (Toledo) and Doug Wojcik (Tulsa). Gregory is in his fifth year as head coach, after leaving MSU in the spring of 2003. Crean directed Marquette to the 2003 Final Four, while Heath directed Kent State to the Elite Eight in the 2002 NCAA Tournament. Wojcik is in his third season at Tulsa. Mike Garland served as head coach at Cleveland State for three seasons after leaving Izzo's staff in 2003. He is now back as an assistant coach at MSU. Most recently, Jim Boylen left MSU following the 2007 season, and is in his first season with Utah.
