1. Season Tickets: If a person has a disability and needs a seating accommodation in an accessible area, they will be asked to complete an accessibility verification form prior to the assignment of tickets. (link to: http://www.msuspartans.com/auto_pdf/p_hotos/s_chools/msu/genrel/auto_pdf/10-medical-verification)
2. Single Game Tickets: Subject to availability of accessible seating, the University will offer for sale single game tickets for wheelchair seats and companion seats to the same extent single game tickets are offered to customers without disabilities. If a person requests accessible single-game tickets more than one, they will be asked to complete this accessibility verification form (link to: http://www.msuspartans.com/auto_pdf/p_hotos/s_chools/msu/genrel/auto_pdf/10-medical-verification)
3. Exchanges prior to game: If accessible seating is needed due to a disability, whether tickets were purchased from the ticket office or otherwise acquired, a person should bring in their tickets for exchange to the Spartan Ticket Office while supplies last. First-time requests will not require medical verification. After the first exchange, medical verification will be required. (link to: http://www.msuspartans.com/auto_pdf/p_hotos/s_chools/msu/genrel/auto_pdf/10-medical-verification)
4. Exchanges at the game for individuals in a wheelchair: A person can attempt to exchange tickets at Will Call (between Gates G and H at Spartan Stadium) or Guest Services at Breslin Arena (behind section 118). Subject to availability, the ticket office will use its best efforts to exchange the original seats for accessible seats. Ticket exchanges are handled on a first-come first-serve basis. There is no guarantee that an exchange will be possible since there are a limited number of wheelchair accessible areas.

In addition, a person who has ticket(s) in wheelchair accessible seating and transfers them to a patron who does not need such seating should bring in their tickets to the Athletic Ticket Office by 5:00 p.m. of the Wednesday prior to the game to exchange their tickets for other seating.

5. Exchanges at the game for individuals not in a wheelchair: A person can attempt to exchange tickets at Will Call (between Gates G and H). Subject to availability, the ticket office will use its best efforts to exchange the original seats for seats in an area easily accessible. Ticket exchanges are handled on a first-come first-serve basis. There is no guarantee that an exchange will be possible since there are a limited number of easy-access areas.
