WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- MSU qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight season, and for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- The Spartans are 9-1 all-time in the NCAA First Round, including winning their last seven (last loss 2003).
- MSU is one of 10 teams to have won at least one game in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments.
- Michigan State is one of 13 teams in the nation to have won at least 20 games in each of the last nine seasons.
- The Spartans finished tied for second in the Big Ten, having finished second or better in each of the last four seasons.
- Michigan State is one of two Big Ten schools with at least 10 conference wins in each of the last 10 seasons (Ohio St.).
- L. Johnson earned All-Big Ten honors for the fourth straight season, becoming the sixth Spartan to accomplish the feat.
- Over the last 10 games, MSU is averaging 71.6 points, while shooting 44.5% from the field and 36.3% from 3-point.
- For the third straight season, Michigan State has led the Big Ten in conference games in points allowed (60.6).
- At Northwestern, L. Johnson became the second Spartan and 13th Big Ten player with 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds.
- Porsche Poole has increased her scoring average in each of her four seasons, including a team-best 13.5 this season. Her +7.4 point increase is the fourth largest improvement in the conference and the fourth largest in MSU history.
- Over the last 11 games, Poole is second in the Big Ten with 18.7 points and fourth with 4.6 assists.
- MSU is 16-0 all-time when Taylor Alton scores in double-figures and 5-0 when she leads the team in scoring.
- In last 10 games, Klarissa Bell is averaging 7.8 points and 3.9 rebounds in 30.3 minutes (1.8 ppg 1.4 rpg, 7.1 mpg prior)
- L. Johnson moved into second place on the MSU career rebound list, and is 12th in Big Ten history (1,015).
- L. Johnson is one of only four Big Ten players to surpass 1,000 points, 1,000 rebounds, 200 steals and 100 blocks.
- Kiana Johnson's assist-to-turnover ratio (1.73) is third in the Big Ten, 44th in the nation, second among freshman nationally, currently the best by a Spartan since the 2004-05 season and ranks as the sixth-best at MSU since in 1984.
- K. Johnson's 126 assists are already the third most by a Spartan freshman, and are 10th in the nation among freshmen.
- L. Johnson is among the MSU all-time leaders in rebounds (second), offensive rebounds (second), blocks (third), steals (fifth), starts (sixth), free throws (sixth), games (10th), minutes (10th), points (11th), field goals (14th) and 3-point field goals (16th).
- Alton is eighth in MSU history with 116 career 3-pointers and seventh on the single-season list with 64 this year.
- Poole is averaging career highs in points, rebounds, assists and steals, in addition to field goal percentage.
- MSU leads the Big Ten and is 23rd in the nation in rebound margin (+6.7). L. Johnson is second in Big Ten in boards (8.7).
- When scoring at least 70 points under Coach Merchant, MSU's record is 51-4, including winning its last 34 games, while when it holds opponents to 60 points or less, its record is 88-8.
- MSU is second in the Big Ten and ninth in the nation in attendance, setting a new single-season record (7,505).

SPARTANS' NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Michigan State is making its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance, and its ninth in the last 10 years. All-time, the Spartans are 15-11 in the NCAA Tournament. MSU has won seven straight first round games, with its last loss coming in 2003, and is 9-1 all-time in its first game. The Spartans advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2006 and 2009, and the National Title game in 2005. The No. 10 seed is the lowest in program history.

MSU is also one of 22 schools who have qualified for the last four NCAA Tournaments. In the previous three trips, the Spartans are one of 10 teams to have won at least one game in each tournament. [Baylor, Connecticut, Duke, Florida State (not in 2012 field), Gonzaga, MSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Stanford, Texas A&M]

Over the last eight years, Michigan State has posted a 13-7 record in the NCAA Tournament. Its 13 wins are the 11th most in the nation and are the most among Big Ten schools. [Connecticut 28, Stanford 25, Tennessee 24, Baylor 19, Duke 19, LSU 18, North Carolina 17, Rutgers 16, Maryland 15, Oklahoma 15]

MERCHANT'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

This will be head coach Suzy Merchant's fifth trip to the NCAA Tournament, posting a 4-4 record. She guided the Spartans to the Sweet 16 in 2009, the second round the last two seasons, and took Eastern Michigan to the tournament in 2004.

SPARTANS IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Seven Spartans enter the weekend with previous NCAA Tournament experience, however, the group has totaled only 107 points in 23 combined games. Senior Lykendra Johnson has started all seven MSU games over the past three seasons, averaging 7.2 points and 7.3 rebounds in 28.0 minutes. Classmate Taylor Alton didn't get her first NCAA floor action until last season, but made the most of it, averaging 11.5 points, while hitting seven 3-pointers, in the two games. The final senior Porsche Poole has played in five NCAA games, but has scored only four points in 33 minutes.

SPARTANS VS. FIELD OF 64

Michigan State faced 10 teams in the NCAA Tournament bracket during the regular season, going 7-7. The Spartans posted two wins against No. 4 Penn State and No. 11 Michigan, in addition to home wins against No. 4 Purdue, No. 6 Nebraska and No. 12 Eastern Michigan. MSU lost twice to No. 4 Purdue, while also dropping games to No. 3 Miami, No. 8 Ohio State, No. 9 Texas, No. 9 Iowa and No. 12 Florida Gulf Coast.

The Big Ten Conference qualified a record seven schools for the NCAAs - Iowa, Michigan, MSU, Nebraska, Ohio State, Penn State and Purdue. The previous record was six, set in 1996, 2002, 2003 and 2004. Among other conferences, the Big Ten is tied for third for most schools, behind the Big East (8) and SEC (8), and tied with the Big 12.

ABOUT LOUISVILLE

The Cardinals, who earned the No. 7 seed in the Raleigh Region, enter the weekend with a 22-9 record and ranked No. 19 in both national polls. Louisville finished in a tie for sixth in the Big East and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Big East Championship. The Cardinals are making their 15th NCAA Tournament appearance and sixth in the last seven years.

Offensively U of L is led by sophomore Shoni Schimmel, who was a first-team All-Big East selection. Schimmel leads the Cardinals with 14.3 points, 4.5 assists and 2.4 steals, while knocking down 71 3-pointers on the season. Senior Becky Burke leads the team with 79 3-pointers, which is 29th in the nation, while making 38.9% from behind the arc, which is 21st nationally. Burke is also second on the team with 11.6 points. Louisville is +4.2 on the glass this season, with seven players averaging at least 3.5 a game.

AGAINST THE CARDINALS

Michigan State and Louisville have met only one time. The Spartans beat the Cardinals 82-73 in East Lansing on Nov. 25, 1990.

MSU AND LOUISVILLE COMMON OPPONENTS

The two schools have two common opponents this season - Pittsburgh and Villanova. MSU went 0-2 against those two teams in the non-conference schedule, while Louisville went 3-0, beating both in the Big East regular season and Villanova again in the Big East Tournament Second Round.

LOUISVILLE VS. FIELD OF 64

The Cardinals also played 10 teams in this year's field of 64, but posted only a 3-9 record. Louisville had wins over No. 5 Georgetown, No. 7 DePaul and No. 15 UT-Martin. The Cardinals' losses were against No. 1 Notre Dame, No. 1 Connecticut, No. 2 Kentucky, No. 3 St. John's (twice), No. 3 Texas A&M, No. 6 Rutgers, No. 7 DePaul and No. 8 West Virginia.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT WRAP-UP

Michigan State opened the Big Ten Tournament with a 97-68 win over Indiana, before losing to eventual champion Purdue, 73-64, in the quarterfinals. The three Spartan seniors all averaged double-figures for the tournament, led by 15.5 points from Lykendra Johnson. She posted a season high 23 points to go along with 11 rebounds for her 10th double-double of the season vs. Purdue, while also setting a new career high with five blocks. Porsche Poole scored in double figures in both games, averaging 13.5 points, while Taylor Alton added 11.5 points. Freshman Kiana Johnson dished out a team-best eight assists with no turnovers in 51 minutes of action.

The Spartans began the tournament by scoring the second highest point total (97) in the 18-year history of the conference tournament. MSU had a balanced offensive attack, as four Spartans scored in double-figures and 11 tallied at least two points. Poole and freshman Jasmine Hines led the way with 17 points apiece. Hines, whose total was a career high, went 4-of-6 from the field and 9-of-11 from the foul line in only 14 minutes off the bench, also adding a career- and game-high six rebounds. MSU used a 13-0 run in the first half to take control and made its first six 3-pointers in the second half to put the game away for good. The Spartans shot 50.8% from the field, including a 10-for-19 (52.6%) from behind the arc, while knocking down 21-of-25 (84.0%) from the free throw line. MSU forced 19 Indiana turnovers, while committing a season-low nine of its own. MSU also had a season high 21 assists.

The Spartans' run in the 2012 Big Ten Tournament came to an end against No. 21 Purdue in the quarterfinals, despite L. Johnson's best offensive game of the season. Junior Jasmine Thomas had quality minutes off the bench, scoring 12 points, while senior Porsche Poole also tallied double figures with 10 points. The first half was full of runs. Purdue scored the first seven points, to be followed by 13 unanswered points by the Spartans to jump out to a 13-7 lead eight minutes into the game. The Boilermakers responded with a 22-6 spurt to open a double digit lead at 29-19 with 5:33 on the clock. Three straight 3-pointers from Brittany Rayburn, who scored a game high 29 points, capped a 13-2 run for Purdue in the opening moments of the second half, opening a 54-34 lead with 15 minutes to go. Michigan State did not fold though, eventually putting together eight-straight points to get within nine (57-48) with 11 minutes to go. However, the Spartans could not get over the hump, and close the margin in the final minutes.

CONFERENCE RECOGNITION

The Big Ten Conference released its postseason awards Monday, Feb. 27, as three Spartans were honored. Seniors Lykendra Johnson and Porsche Poole were named All-Big Ten Second Team, while Kiana Johnson was selected to the All-Freshman Team. L. Johnson was also the team's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner. In Suzy Merchant's five seasons at MSU, the Spartans have had a Big Ten best 17 all-conference selections.

L. Johnson earns All-Big Ten honors for the fourth-straight season, becoming the sixth Spartan to accomplish that feat, joining Lindsay Bowen, Allyssa DeHaan, Kalisha Keane, Liz Shimek and Brittney Thomas. L. Johnson and Ohio State's Samantha Prahalis are the only two Big Ten student-athletes to be honored each of the last four seasons.

L. Johnson was a second team selection by the media and a third team choice by the conference's coaches. Poole was recognized for her breakout senior season, earning second team honors from the Big Ten coaches and third team accolades from the media. It is the first time in her career that she earned postseason conference honors. K. Johnson is the first Spartan since 2008-09 (Lykendra Johnson) to be named to the five-member All-Freshman Team, voted on by the coaches.

20 WINS FOR NINE STRAIGHT

Against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament, Michigan State won its 20th game for the ninth-straight season. MSU is one of 13 teams in the nation, and one of two in the Big Ten (Ohio State), to have won at least 20 games in each of the last eight seasons [Baylor, Bowling Green, Connecticut, Duke, Green Bay, Marist, Middle Tennessee State, Ohio State, Stanford, Temple, Tennessee and Vanderbilt].

10 FOR 10

Michigan State finished the Big Ten season tied for second with a 11-5 record. The Spartans have finished second or better in each of the last four seasons - winning the title last year, and placing second in 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2011-12.

The Spartans have now won at least 10 Big Ten games in 10-straight seasons. It is tied for the longest active streak in the conference with Ohio State. MSU is 117-49 (70.5%) in conference play over the last 10 seasons, trailing only OSU in winning percentage. MSU has won 34 of its last 43 Big Ten regular season games (79.1%) over the past two-plus seasons.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE

For the third straight season, Michigan State led the Big Ten in conference games in points allowed. Always a point of emphasis for Coach Merchant, the Spartans allowed only 60.6 points in this season's 16 Big Ten games.

LINEUP CHANGE, PRODUCTION CHANGE

After the Spartans lost their fourth straight Big Ten game midway through the season, head coach Suzy Merchant adjusted the starting lineup, moving senior Porsche Poole and sophomore Klarissa Bell into the starting five and pushing senior Taylor Alton to the 4-position. Since then, Michigan State has won eight of its last 10 games, including three against ranked opponents.

During this 10-game span, the Spartans have been more offensively efficient, increasing their production in all areas. MSU is averaging 71.6 points and 15.4 assists, while shooting 44.5% from the field, 36.3% from the 3-point line and 68.9% from the foul line, compared to 65.4 points, 13.6 assists, 40.9% field goal percentage, 31.1% 3-point percentage and 65.4% free throw percentage in the season's first 21 games. Another important factor has been a reduction in turnovers, averaging 13.1 in the last 10, compared to 17.7 in the first 21.

Individually, the increased play of the senior class, in addition to Bell, have been the catalysts. Each of the three seniors have increased their scoring - Poole (11.5 to 17.8), Lykendra Johnson (9.8 to 13.4) and Taylor Alton (7.6 to 8.7) - while Bell has seen a drastic change going from 1.8 points in 7.1 minutes to 7.8 points in 30.3 minutes.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 8-2 - MSU's record since inserting Klarissa Bell and Porsche Poole in the starting lineup on Jan. 29 vs. Penn State.
- 1,015 - career rebounds by Lykendra Johnson, second all-time at MSU. She is 13th player in conference history with 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds. Johnson is 12th in Big Ten history, just one rebound out of 11th and 14 away from the top-10.
- 126 - assists by Kiana Johnson, already the third most in season by a Spartan freshman. She is seven away from tying for second place and 17 away from the freshman record.
- 20 - wins this season, marking MSU's ninth-straight 20-win season. One of 13 schools in the nation, and two in the Big Ten, to have accomplished that feat
- 11 - Big Ten wins this season. MSU has won at least 10 Big Ten games in 10-straight seasons, tied for the longest active streak in the conference (OSU)
- 13 - NCAA Tournament wins over the last eight seasons. The win total is the 11th most in the nation and are the most among Big Ten schools.
- 7-7 - MSU's record against team's in this year's NCAA field of 64.
- +7.4 - Porsche Poole's scoring increase from last season. The margin is the fourth best in the Big Ten this season and the fourth largest in Spartan history.
- 64 - 3-pointers by Taylor Alton this season. She ranks fourth in the Big Ten and is seventh on the MSU single-season list. Alton is four 3-pointers away from cracking the top-5.
- .360 - Taylor Alton's career 3-point field goal percentage, which ranks fourth in MSU history.
- +275 - MSU's scoring margin with Lykendra Johnson on the floor, compared to a -35 margin when she is on the bench.
- 60.6 - points allowed in Big Ten games. MSU led the conference in points allowed for the third straight season.
- 143-4 - MSU's all-time record when holding teams below 50 points
- 7,505 - MSU's average attendance, setting a new single-season attendance record, while also ranking second in the Big Ten and ninth in the nation. It has finished top-15 nationally each of the last eight seasons.
- 17 - All-Big Ten selections over the last five seasons under Merchant, leading the Big Ten. (League-best 37 over last nine years)
- 218 - wins over the last eight-plus seasons, second among Big Ten schools

MAGIC NUMBERS

In head coach Suzy Merchant's tenure, when two numbers on the scoreboard were achieved it typically has been a sign of a MSU win. When the Spartans have scored at least 70 points, their record is 51-4 (92.7%), including winning their last 34 games, while when they hold opponents to 60 points or less, their record is 88-8 (91.7%), including 12 straight wins.

AMONG ELITE COMPANY

As Lykendra Johnson's Spartan career approaches the end, she continues to get to statistical levels that not many Michigan State or Big Ten student-athletes have reached. Currently she is the only Spartan, and one of only four Big Ten student-athletes (since the sport was sponsored in 1981), to surpass 1,000 points, 1,000 rebounds, 200 steals and 100 blocks in her career.

At Northwestern in the regular season finale, she became the second Spartan and 13th Big Ten player to total 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in her career. Earlier in the season at Texas on Dec. 10, Johnson became the 22nd Spartan in program history to surpass 1,000 career points. She has now totaled 1,237 points in her MSU career, good for 11th place. Johnson will leave as one of the top rebounders in school history, currently second all-time in rebounds (1,015) and offensive rebounds (404).

Johnson is the only Spartan to rank in the top-5 in both career blocks (third with 145) and steals (fifth with 222). She also is among the Michigan State leaders in each shooting category, ranking sixth in free throws made (302), 14th in field goals (438) and 16th in 3-point field goals (59). She is also sixth in career starts (115), 10th with 130 games played and 10th with 3,341 minutes.

HISTORIC PERFORMANCES

Over the last six weeks of play, Porsche Poole is second among all Big Ten players with 18.7 points and fourth with 4.6 assists a game, while also ranking fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.5) and 12th in steals (1.6). She has also increased her rebounding to 4.6 a game during the 11-game hot streak.

Over the 11-game stretch, she has set career highs in points (32 vs. Penn State), rebounds (9, at Michigan), assists (9, vs. Nebraska) and minutes played (43 vs. Illinois). In addition, she dropped in the game-winner at Michigan with 3.9 seconds left and was named Big Ten Player of the Week for the first time in her career on Jan. 31.

She had a streak of four straight games with at least 20 points, the longest streak by a Spartan since Liz Shimek (Feb. 23-March 18, 2006). Poole is also just the second Spartan since 1994 to have such a streak. Against Penn State (32 points) and Illinois (28), she totaled 60 points, which were the most by a Spartan in consecutive games in program history (previous record was held by Kisha Kelley with 59 points on Feb. 9 and 13, 1994). Her 32 points against Penn State are tied for the eighth most in a single-game and the most by a Spartan since Aisha Jefferson scored 34 at Notre Dame on Nov. 29, 2008.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARDS

Senior Lykendra Johnson entered the season with the reputation as one of the best rebounders in the nation, and she has lived up to that billing in the 2011-12 campaign. She is second in the Big Ten with 8.7 rebounds a game, despite playing just 26.8 minutes a game. She also leads the conference in offensive rebounds with 3.2 and is second in the league with 10 double-doubles.

Johnson recently moved into second place on the Spartan all-time rebound list, and currently has totaled 1,015. In terms of all-time Big Ten rebounders, Johnson is 12th among conference student-athletes since the conference began sponsoring the sport prior to the 1981-82 season (only 14 rebounds away from breaking into the top-10). On the offensive boards, she is second at MSU (404), since the stat began being recorded in 1986-87.

Johnson has 27 career double-doubles, ranking her sixth on the MSU career list. In addition, she has 39 double-digit rebound games, placing her fifth in Spartan history.

Earlier this season she set a career-high with 20 on Nov. 15 vs. IPFW. Those 20 rebounds were the seventh most ever by a Spartan and the most since Kristen Rasmussen grabbed 20 on Dec. 30, 1997.

Johnson's value on the floor for the Spartans is undeniable. So far this season, MSU is +275 with her on the court, but are -35 when she is sitting on the bench. Dating back to the beginning of last year's Big Ten play, the Spartans are +462 with Johnson on the floor, but -84 when she was on the bench.

SPLASH IN THE POOLE

Senior Porsche Poole has increased her scoring average in each of her seasons at MSU, averaging 3.8 as a freshman, 4.6 as a sophomore and 6.1 last season. So far this season, she leads the team with 13.5 points per game, which is 16th in the Big Ten. Her +7.4 point increase from last year's average is the fourth largest improvement in the conference so far this season and is also the fourth-best increase in Spartan history. Poole has scored in double-figures in 22 games and led MSU in scoring 15 times, both team highs.

Poole has also set career high marks in almost every statistical category so far this season. She has already topped her season high totals in points, rebounds, assists and steals. Poole is also shooting a career best 45.9% from the field, which ranks second on the team and 12th in the Big Ten.

AMONG THE BEST FRESHMEN

Freshman Kiana Johnson was recognized for her success this season by being named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Within the conference freshmen, she is first in assist-to-turnover ratio, second in steals, third in assists, and sixth in points. Among freshmen nationally, Johnson is 10th in assists and second in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Her 126 assists this season are already third among all-time Spartan freshmen. She is seven assists away from tying Brittney Thomas for second and just 17 shy of the freshman record held by Vnemina Reese.

BELL'S CHANCE

Entering the Penn State game (Jan. 29), Klarissa Bell had played only 7.1 minutes a game, averaging 1.8 points and 1.4 rebounds, but in an effort to shake up the team, Coach Merchant inserted Bell into the starting lineup for the first time in her career. She has responded to average 7.8 points and 3.9 rebounds in 30.3 minutes over the last 10 games.

Since becoming a starter, Bell has set career highs in points (18), steals (3) and minutes (38), all against Nebraska, and assists (5 at Northwestern), while also setting season highs in rebounds (8 vs. Iowa). She is also shooting 50.0% from the field, second on the team, during the stretch. Bell has made 10-of-22 (45.5%) from the 3-point line, after starting her career by making only 7-of-48 (14.6%) in her first 49 games.

SHARP SHOOTER

Senior Taylor Alton took advantage of an opportunity and has been in the Spartan starting lineup ever since. She has started the last 46 games, averaging 7.9 points over that span, after posting just 3.0 points in her first 35 career games. Alton has been a good luck charm for MSU when she reaches double-figures, as the Spartans are 16-0 in those games in her career.

Michigan State's top threat from behind the arc, Alton leads the team and is fourth in the Big Ten with 2.1 3-pointers a game. Her 64 3-pointers this season are the seventh most in a MSU single-season. She also leads the team with a 37.4% mark from behind the line, which is sixth in the Big Ten. For her career, Alton is eighth all-time at MSU with 116 3-pointers and fourth with a 36.0% 3-point percentage.

FRESHMAN REVITALIZED

Freshman point guard Kiana Johnson started the first four games for the Spartans, but lost her starting spot for four games, before regaining the honor for the last 23 contests. During her time coming off the bench, Johnson struggled, averaging just 4.3 points and 2.3 assists (compared to 2.3 turnovers), while shooting 26.1% from the field. Since returning to the starting five, she is averaging 7.8 points and 4.6 assists (compared to 2.3 turnovers).

Johnson's assist-to-turnover ratio (1.73) is currently the best by a Spartan (with at least 2.0 assists a game) since the 2004-05 season, and ranks as the sixth-best at MSU since turnovers started being recorded in 1984. It is also tied for 44th in the nation and second among freshmen nationally.

Johnson leads the Spartans and is seventh in the Big Ten with 4.1 assists per game, and is third overall with a 1.7 assist-to-turnover ratio. She increased her production in conference games, finishing tied for second in assists (4.7) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.7). Johnson is second on the team lead in steals with 1.7 a game, 13th in the Big Ten.

GETTING TO THE LINE

A common theme between Michigan State's wins and losses has been its ability to get to the free throw line. In the wins, MSU has shot 395 free throws (19.8 a game), in comparison to 14.2 a game in the losses (156 total). In its 20 wins, MSU is +66 in free throw attempts (+3.3 a game), while -85 (-7.7) in the 11 losses. The Spartans have been 43-5 over the last three seasons when attempting more free throws than their opponent, including a 12-3 mark this season.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

Michigan State leads the Big Ten and is 23rd in the country in rebound margin (+6.7). Senior Lykendra Johnson is second in the Big Ten with 8.7 a game, and leads the conference with 3.2 offensive boards.

MSU has out-rebounded 48 of its last 57 opponents dating back to last season, and was outrebounded only five times this season (at Texas, at Penn State, vs. Indiana, vs. Northwestern, vs. Nebraska).

Last season, Michigan State led the Big Ten in rebound margin, offensive rebounds and both rebound percentage categories. MSU was +8.4 in rebound margin, which was also ninth in the nation and broke the school's single-season record. The Spartans also topped the league with 15.5 offensive rebounds a game, which tied the previous record (2005-06).

300 AND 100

With the win over Oakland on Nov. 27, head coach Suzy Merchant became the fastest head coach to 100 wins as a Spartan. In her five seasons, she has posted a 115-52 (.689) record since her arrival prior to the 2007-08 season. Both Karen Langeland and Joanne P. McCallie needed 155 games to win 100, while Merchant accomplished the feat in 143 games.

In the 31-year history of the Big Ten, Merchant has the 10th-best career winning percentage in conference games, winning 68.6% (59-27), and has the second highest percentage among active coaches.

Merchant claimed her 300th career victory on Nov. 22 at Milwaukee. All-time, Merchant is 316-172 (.648) in her 17 years as a head coach, including stops at Eastern Michigan (1998-07) and Saginaw Valley State (1995-98).

AGAINST THE NATION'S BEST

Michigan State had won three-straight games against ranked opponents, until its last loss to No. 21 Purdue. With its wins over Purdue and Nebraska, it was the first time in program history that an unranked Spartan team has beaten back-to-back ranked teams. This season, the Spartans are 4-5 against teams in the top-25 this season. Under Coach Merchant, MSU is 15-16 against ranked teams. Since the beginning of the 2004-05 season, the Spartans have 36 wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including 12 over top-10 teams and 17 on either the road or neutral floor.

BOUNCE BACK ABILITY

Michigan State has done a great job of bouncing back after a loss over the last couple seasons. The Spartans lost back-to-back games in-season for the first time since Jan. 2010 towards the end of January. Previously, MSU had won its last 13 games in-season after a defeat. In Coach Merchant's four seasons, the Spartans are 38-12 (76.0%) following a loss.

ON THIS DATE

Michigan State is 0-1 all-time on March 17. MSU lost to Wisconsin in the quarterfinals of the WNIT in 2000.

HOME COOKING

The 2011-12 basketball season was the Spartans' 23rd inside the Jack Breslin Student Events Center. MSU has an all-time record of 237-82 (.743) at Breslin and have been even more dominant of late in its cozy confines, having won 31 of its last 35 games (.886).

FANS CONTINUE TO PACK THE BRESLIN

For the second straight season, the Spartans broke their single-season attendance record for the second-straight season. Michigan State was second in the Big Ten and ninth in the nation in attendance with 7,505 fans a game. Its crowd vs. Ohio State (14,181) was the third largest in program history, while the attendance on Sunday vs. Purdue (13,424) was the fifth largest.

For the past seven-plus seasons, Michigan State has been one of the top programs in the country in regard to fan support. Last season marked the seventh straight season that the Spartans had been among the nation's top 15 in attendance, averaging 7,388 fans per game, which ranked ninth in the nation and second in the Big Ten.

Michigan State had its first official sellout in program history last season vs. Michigan (Feb. 13) with a crowd of 14,797. It was the first sellout by a Big Ten school since Feb. 29, 2004 (Penn State), and just the ninth by a Big Ten school in their current home venue. With the sellout, the Spartans were the Big Ten Conference winner of the NCAA's Pack the House initiative.

ROAD WARRIORS

A major factor in the Big Ten success of the Spartans under Coach Merchant has been their play away from Breslin Center. In the five seasons under Merchant, MSU is 27-16 (62.8%) in road conference games. They are one of two schools with a winning road record (Ohio State is 25-18).

STREAKS SNAPPED

With the overtime loss vs. Illinois on Jan. 26, the Spartans snapped a 15-game winning streak in overtime games. MSU had not lost in overtime in nearly 10 years, with its last loss coming on Feb. 28, 2002 against Ohio State, 89-82, in the Big Ten Tournament. The streak was the longest active streak among Big Ten schools.

The loss also ended a string of 49 wins when leading with five minutes remaining. MSU had won its first 11 games this season with a lead at the five minute mark in the second half.

POOLE HONORED

Porsche Poole was named Big Ten Player of the Week on Jan. 31. Poole set career highs in points in both games that week, averaging 30.0 points, 4.5 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 3.0 steals, while shooting 56.4% from the field. Poole's 60 points in the two games were the most in a two-game span in program history. It was Poole's first career weekly conference recognition, and only Spartan to earn Big Ten Player of the Week accolades this season.

AGAINST IN-STATE SCHOOLS

Michigan State has had great success against other collegiate programs in the state of Michigan over the past 10 seasons. Since the beginning of the 2002-03 season, the Spartans are 34-1 (.971) against in-state rivals, including a 19-1 (.950) mark under Coach Merchant. All-time, Michigan State is 167-56 (.749) against other Michigan schools.

IN BIG TEN OPENERS

With their win at Indiana (Dec. 30), the Spartans improved to 15-16 all-time in Big Ten openers. Under Coach Merchant, MSU is 3-2 in Big Ten openers and 3-2 in their first conference road game. Against Michigan (Jan. 4), MSU improved to 21-10 in conference home openers and are now 2-3 under Merchant.

KELSEY SMITH'S TRANSFER

Redshirt sophomore Kelsey Smith decided to transfer from the Spartan women's basketball program in mid-December. The St. Charles, Ill., native averaged 2.0 points and 3.5 rebounds in four games this season.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

The Spartans were picked third in the media's preseason Big Ten poll, trailing Penn State and Purdue. Also released at Big Ten Media Day, senior Lykendra Johnson was selected to the five-member All-Big Ten Preseason Team by both the coaches and media. In the initial national rankings, MSU is 25th in the ESPN/USA Today coaches' poll and receiving votes in the Associated Press poll. It was the seventh time in the last eight seasons that the Spartans have been ranked preseason.

INJURY BUG STRIKES AGAIN

Redshirt freshman Madison Williams will miss the rest of the 2011-12 season, after tearing the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in her left knee on Nov. 15 vs. IPFW. The typical recovery time is 4-6 months. The 6-7 center missed all of last season after tearing her right ACL in the Green & White scrimmage on Oct. 31, 2010. Williams had appeared in the first three games, playing only 25 minutes. She was averaging 3.3 points, 3.0 rebounds and 1.7 blocks, while shooting 50.0% from the field.

Williams entered Michigan State with a laundry list of high school accolades. She was just the second McDonald's All-American in program history, in addition to being named a USA Today All-American, the 2010 Gatorade Michigan Player of the Year, the Associated Press Class B Co-Player of the Year and a four-time all-state selection. She led Detroit Country Day to a 100-4 record in her four seasons, highlighted by two Class B state titles and a runner-up finish as a senior. In her senior season, she averaged 12.5 points, 11 rebounds and nine blocks.

HISTORIC EFFORT

In the Spartans' 113-60 win over North Carolina A&T on Nov. 12, MSU scored the second-most points in program history, while also posting the sixth largest margin of victory all-time. Also, it was the 11th time in school history that the Spartans topped 100 points.

51	- Feb. 7, 1997 v. Minnesota
51	- Dec. 29, 1983 v. Victoria

Part of the Spartans' success was their domination on the boards. MSU outrebounded North Carolina A&T, 60-24. The +36 rebound margin was the largest in program history, while the 60 rebounds were the most since grabbing 62 vs. Alcorn St. in the NCAA Tournament First Round (March 19, 2005).

WHAT'S RETURNING?

The 2011-12 Spartans will have some large shoes to fill for the second-straight season with the graduation of three key players last year. They return 54.9% of minutes, including the loss of three starters. In terms of production, 54.2% of the points return, to go along with 63.8% of rebounds, 47.9% of assists, 46.4% of steals and 62.3% of blocks.

BRANNDAS AGEE AND MARIAH HARRIS SIGN NLI'S WITH MSU

Michigan State women's basketball received two National Letters of Intent during the fall signing period - Brannndais Agee (Detroit, Mich./Cass Technical) and Mariah Harris (Springfield, Ohio/Kenton Ridge). Both will join the Spartans for the 2012-13 season. Dan Olsen of Collegiate Girls Basketball Report ranks the Spartan recruiting class of Agee and Harris as the 19th-best in the country.

Agee, a 5-11 guard from Detroit, Mich., improved her national status with an impressive summer on the AAU circuit. She enters her senior season ranked No. 27 nationally by ESPN's Hoopguz and No. 45 by Collegiate Girls Basketball Report. Agee plays at Cass Technical High School for coaches Omar Ahart and Jarvis Mitchell, and AAU for Michigan Crossover and director Emez Oliver. The daughter of Yvette Agee, she has three siblings - Brianna, Brent and Brandon.

Harris, a 5-11 guard from Springfield, Ohio, has started all 71 games in her first three high school seasons, scoring 1,032 points. Her career line so far is 14.5 points, 8.4 rebounds, 6.2 assists and 3.8 steals. Harris has led Kenton Ridge High School and head coach Ed Foulk to a 58-13 record in her first three seasons, including a 36-6 mark in conference play. Collegiate Girls Basketball Report ranks Harris as the No. 44 overall prospect in the Class of 2012.

Harris had a laundry list of accomplishments as a junior, earning special mention all-state by the Associated Press and Ohio High School Athletic Association (OHSAA), sharing the Central Buckeye Conference and News Sun Player of the Year honors, and being named first-team all-conference, all-county and all-district. She averaged 19.9 points, good for second in the conference, and led the league with 11.7 rebounds and 6.7 assists, while also adding 4.2 steals and 1.3 blocks. Harris had five triple-doubles, and posted career-highs during the season of 36 points, 18 rebounds and 13 assists. Kenton Ridge went 19-5 overall and finished first in the Central Buckeye Conference Kenton Trail Division at 9-1.

As a sophomore, Harris averaged 12.6 points, 6.3 rebounds, 5.0 assists, 3.2 steals and 1.1 blocks. Meanwhile, as a freshman, she led Kenton Ridge in rebounds (8.3) and assists (6.9), also a conference-high, while adding 11.6 points, 4.1 steals and 2.0 blocks. She was a three-time first-team all-conference and all-country selection. Harris plays AAU for Ohio Glory and coach Marwan Miller. The daughter of John Harris and Kim Beverly, she has one brother Jevon.

POSSIBLE SECOND ROUND OPPONENTS

NO. 2 MARYLAND

ABOUT MARYLAND

The Terrapins enter the NCAA Tournament on a seven-game winning streak, having won the ACC Tournament. Maryland is 28-4 on the season and finished ACC play in third place at 12-4. Maryland is making its 20th NCAA Tournament appearance and eighth under head coach Brenda Frese. Sophomore Alyssa Thomas was named ACC Player of the Year, and leads the team with 17.4 points, while also adding 8.1 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.7 steals. Maryland is fourth in the nation in scoring (78.8 points) and field goal percentage (47.2%), while also ranking second in rebound margin (+14.1) and 10th in assists (16.9).

SPARTANS AGAINST THE TERRAPINS

Michigan State trails the all-time series, 2-0 against Maryland. The Terrapins won 75-61 in the U.S. Virgin Islands on Nov. 25, 2005, and beat the Spartans 97-57 on Jan. 6, 2007 in College Park, MSU's only previous trip to the state of Maryland.

MARYLAND VS. THE FIELD OF 64

The Terrapins faced six teams in this year's NCAA Tournament bracket, going 7-3. Maryland went 3-0 against No. 4 Georgia Tech, and posted wins over No. 3 Delaware, No. 5 Georgetown and No. 11 Michigan. The Terps split with No. 2 Duke, but lost twice to No. 3 Miami.

MSU AND MARYLAND COMMON OPPONENTS

The Spartans and the Terrapins have two common opponents - Miami and Michigan. MSU went 2-1 against those teams, beating Michigan twice and losing at home to Miami, while Maryland went 1-2, with a win vs. Michigan and two losses to Miami.

NO. 15 NAVY

ABOUT NAVY

The Midshipmen won the Patriot League Tournament to earn their second straight bid to the NCAA Tournament. Navy is 18-13 on the season. The Mids had two players - Jade Geif and Alix Membreno - earn second team All-Patriot League honors. Geif leads the team with 11.0 points and 7.8 rebounds, and is second with 2.6 assists. Membreno is third with 9.2 points and second with 6.6 rebounds, but leads the team with 41 steals. Navy is 12th in the country in points allowed (52.3) and leads the nation with only 11.7 fouls per game.

SPARTANS AGAINST THE MIDSHIPMEN

Michigan State and Navy have never met.

NAVY VS. THE FIELD OF 64

MSU AND NAVY COMMON OPPONENTS

The Spartans and the Midshipmen have no common opponents this season.

2010-11 BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

SUZY MERCHANT
HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON
CENTRAL MICHIGAN '91

Suzy Merchant is in her fifth season as head coach of the Michigan State women's basketball program. She was hired at MSU on April 30, 2007, after spending time as a head coach at Eastern Michigan (1998-07) and Saginaw Valley State (1995-98). In her 16 years as a head coach, she has won more than 60 percent of her games, collecting a 316-172 (.648) career record, including 115-52 (.689) in her five seasons in East Lansing. Her 95 wins in her first four years are the most by a Spartan coach in their first four seasons at the helm. She is also the winningest coach in Eastern Michigan history, compiling a 147-91 record in her nine seasons.

Merchant put her stamp on the Spartan program during the 2010-11 season, leading the Spartans to their first outright Big Ten title in school history. MSU went 13-3, winning the conference by two games. The Spartans went 27-6, recording the second most wins in program history, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round. Merchant was named Big Ten Coach of the Year by both the conference's coaches and media, becoming the third Spartan coach to earn that honor.

Through her first five seasons at MSU, 17 Spartans have earned All-Big Ten recognition (the most in the conference) and 20 have been named Academic All-Big Ten. In each of the two previous seasons, a pair of Spartans earned major Big Ten awards - Kalisha Keane was the Big Ten Player of the Year last season, following up the Sixth Player of the Year award as a junior, while Lykendra Johnson (2010-11) and Allyssa DeHaan (2009-10) were the previous two Big Ten Defensive Players of the Year. DeHaan, who finished her career second all-time in NCAA history in blocked shots, and Keane were also named All-Americans following their senior seasons.

In 2009-10, Merchant topped the 20-win plateau for sixth-straight season and for the seventh time in her career. The Spartans advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round and finished the regular season second in the Big Ten for the second-straight season. In addition to the two major award winners, four Spartans were named All-Big Ten and Lauren Aitch was the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner, the first MSU women's basketball player to earn the award.

During the 2008-09 season, the Spartans earned a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16 with wins over No. 1-seed Duke and No. 8-seed Middle Tennessee; Merchant's first career NCAA Tournament win. She led the Spartans to a 13-5 record in the Big Ten, tying them for second in the conference. The wins tie for the second most in program history, while the finish is the best since the 2004-05 Big Ten Champions. Six Spartans earned postseason Big Ten accolades, led by Allyssa DeHaan taking home second team All-Big Ten honors. After the season, Merchant was named the Coaches Association of Michigan (BCAM) Women's College Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

In the summer of 2009, Merchant spent time with USA Basketball as an assistant coach for the Women's World University Games team in Belgrade, Serbia. Team USA went undefeated and took home the Gold medal, topping Russia, 83-64 in the championship game.

In her first season at Michigan State, Merchant took the youngest team in the Big Ten to its seventh-straight postseason trip, advancing to the championship game of the WNIT, and tied for the most wins (23) by a first-year Spartan basketball coach in MSU history. The 23 wins tied for the fourth-winningest season in program history and also tied a career-high for Merchant. In addition, the Spartans won 10 conference games for the sixth consecutive season and advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals for the fifth-straight year. Individually, Allyssa DeHaan earned first team All-Big Ten honors, while a pair of freshmen - Kalisha Keane and Brittney Thomas - were honorable mention all-conference and on the All-Freshman Team.

In her first four years in the Greater Lansing area, Suzy Merchant has gone to great lengths to become an integral part of the community. In her time off the court and out of the office, Merchant can be seen at many community service events in the Great Lansing area. She has been an Honorary Chair for numerous events, including the Ele's Place, Sparrow Foundation's Hike for Hospice, Women Working Wonders, MSU Children's Health Initiative, Women's Center of Lansing, Haven House, Ronald McDonald House, Advent House Ministries, Old Newsboys' Shoe and Coat Drive, and Muscular Dystrophy Association.

During her tenure with the Eagles, Merchant guided Eastern Michigan to a record of 147-91 (.618), including three 20-win seasons, three postseason appearances and two Mid-American Conference West Division titles. Merchant's 2003-04 Eastern Michigan team claimed the MAC West Division and MAC Tournament championships for the first time in school history, earning the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament en route to a 22-8 record. That season, she was named the BCAM Women's College Coach of the Year. She followed that impressive season by winning 23 games in 2004-05, the most in school history, and sent EMU to the postseason for the second straight year with a WNIT appearance. Ryan Coleman became the second Eagle in program history to earn honorable mention All-America accolades.

In 2005-06, the Eagles reached the 20-win plateau for the third consecutive season and won their second MAC West title with a 15-1 conference record, notching the most league wins in school history. Their 22-8 overall record put them into the postseason for the third-straight year as the Eagles earned a bid to the WNIT. Individually, Ryan Coleman earned honorable mention All-America honors for the second straight season and closed out her career as the second all-time leading scorer in school history with 1,793 points. While on maternity leave for most of her last season, Merchant's Eagles finished second in the MAC West Division with a 10-6 league record and finished 16-13 overall.

EMU players received postseason MAC honors over 20 times during her nine seasons in Ypsilanti, including the only two All-Americans in program history (Stephanie Smiley, Ryan Coleman). Along with her coaching duties, Merchant assumed the interim role of Assistant Athletics Director/Senior Women's Administrator in April 2005 through June 2006.

Before coaching at Eastern Michigan, Merchant spent three seasons at Saginaw Valley State, posting a 54-29 (.651) record. After inheriting a team with a losing record, Merchant quickly built the SVSU program into a winner, going 15-11 in her first season before going 19-11 in year two while earning a berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament for just the second time in school history. In her final season, Saginaw Valley State collected a 20-7 record and was ranked as high as 15th in the nation.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Merchant was the top assistant for three years at Oakland University (1992-95).

A four-year starter and three-year captain at Central Michigan (1987-91), Merchant holds Chippewa records for assists with 463 and single-season assists with 156, and is tied for first in single-game assists with 11. She also finished her career third-best in made 3-point field goals with 75.

A native of Traverse City, Mich., Merchant was a three-sport standout at Traverse City Central High School, lettering in basketball, volleyball and softball. She earned honorable mention All-America honors by USA Today and was a two-time Class A all-state selection in basketball. She also earned all-state honors in volleyball. During the summer of 2010, she was inducted into the Traverse City Central High School Hall of Fame.
