THE WEEK AHEAD

• Michigan State has received a bid to the inaugural National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC). The Spartans are the automatic qualifier from the Big Ten.

• MSU joins IUPUI, and Murray State at regional host Illinois State for the tournament, with games beginning on Tuesday at 4 pm when the Spartans take on Murray State. The double-elimination regional round will be contested May 16-18. The Championship round will take place May 23-25 at a site to be determined after regional play.

• Spartan Sports Network continues its coverage of Spartan softball, and will provide a live broadcast from every game, home and away, for the remainder of the season. Matt Tjapkes is back for his third season on the call, with former Spartan standout Ali Grant and All-American and former pitching coach Jessica (Beech) Bograkos providing analysis on home games.

• MSU has previously faced only one of these teams in this regional - the Spartans are 8-4 all-time against Illinois State, which includes a 7-4 win in the 2016 season. Much of the two teams' lineups are still intact from those games - for MSU, Lea Foerster went 4-for-4, scoring two runs and adding an RBI, while Ebonee Echols went 2-for-3. Kristina Zalewski entered in the third inning, and struck out six. For the Redbirds, Jordan de los Reyes was 3-for-4, and Riley Hale turned in a 2-for-3 effort at the plate, while Sarah Finch, Ali Domkuski, and Shannon Felde all saw action in the circle.

• Regular-season champion Illinois State fell 2-0 in extra innings to Southern Illinois in the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament semifinal last Friday, and is 30-21 on the season. Career home-run leader and MVC Player of the Year Jessica de los Reyes, who is batting .401 with 19 homers and 14 doubles this season, with an impressive 67 RBI. She ranks fourth nationally in homers per game, and second in RBI per contest (1.34). Shannon Felde is hitting .379, and Allison Spence rounds out the top three with a .365 average. Sara Finck leads the pitching staff with a 21-11 record, 2.60 ERA in 204 innings pitched, with 76 strikeouts.

• Murray State is MSU's first-round opponent. The Racers were fifth in the Ohio Valley Conference with an 11-7 overall record, and posted a 35-18 overall mark. Jessica Twaddle leads the Racers and is the two-time OVC Player of the Year and leads her team with a .404 average, 40 RBI, 12 doubles, and 13 home runs. Brenna Finck is batting .372, and Kaylee Ranburger is third, batting .357. Mason Robinson (201 IP, 1.95 ERA, 113 K) and Haven Campbell (101 IP, 3.65 ERA) have shouldered the load in the circle.

• IUPUI won the Summit League regular-season title, but fell in the Summit League championship on Saturday, dropping both games to North Dakota State. Maggie Good leads the offensive charge for the Jaguars, batting .351 and smacking 14 homers for 49 RBI on the season. Roni Patterson is right behind with a .350 average, 12 homers and 47 RBI, and Taylor Chitwood rounds out the top three with a .348 average, with 36 RBI. Nickole Finch has logged 188 innings in the circle, with a 4.91 ERA and 136 strikeouts, while Erica Tharp has tossed 119 innings and boasts a 4.66 ERA.

TEAM NOTES

• Michigan State head coach Jacque Joseph captured her 800th career victory with the 5-4 victory over Michigan in the Big Ten quarterfinals.

• At 31-22, the Spartans have the most wins since the 2007 team went 33-26.

• MSU has played three teams this season that appear in the NISC: Georgia State, and UNC-Wilmington. Five Big Ten teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament, in addition to MSU non-conference opponents Southern Illinois, Georgia, and Notre Dame.

• Michigan State dropped a heartbreaker in the Big Ten semifinals on Saturday, 4-3, to No. 3 seed Ohio State. The Spartans were the No. 7 seed and upset No. 2 Michigan in the quarterfinals after dispatching Indiana in the first round on Thursday, 8-7.

• Michigan State has won 10 of its last 15 games, including a pair of impressive late-inning rallies in the Big Ten Tournament. The Spartans scored four runs in the sixth to rally to down Indiana in the first round on Thursday, then stunned No. 2 seed Michigan with a three-run top of the seventh to post a 5-4 victory. MSU trailed Ohio State 4-0 in the semifinals, but the rally fell short - the Spartans scored three runs in the sixth but couldn't get a baserunner in the seventh.

• The Spartans have had seven walkoff losses this season, and also had three walkoff victories. Overall, MSU played 15 one-run games this season and holds a 7-8 record in those contests.

• MSU played just nine home games this season and owned a 8-1 mark on its home field. The 2017 season was supposed to feature a homestand that had 16 of 18 games at home, but the flooding of the Red Cedar River forced the relocation two BIG series (vs. Penn State and Illinois) to neutral sites as well as flipping a home game against Michigan (April 12) to Ann Arbor. MSU went 2-5 in the seven relocated games.

• MSU is 8-1 at Secchia Stadium, 13-7 in neutral-site games, and 10-14 in true road games this season.

• In MSU's 26 games away from Secchia Stadium to start the season, the Spartans were the true or designated visiting team in 20 of those contests.

• MSU ranks in the top third of the Big Ten in most offensive categories - first in triples (20), second in home runs (62), doubles (84), RBI (296), slugging percentage (.534) and hit by pitch (51), and third in batting average (.315), on-base pct. (.412), runs (318), and walks (182), while landing fourth in hits (447), and sac flies (15).

• Last week, MSU ranked among the national top 20 in seven different categories: Triples per game (fourth, 0.41), Home runs per game (1.18, fourth), slugging percentage (.538, fifth), scoring (6.00 runs per game, 17th), 18th) and doubles per game (1.55, 12th).

• On the season, Michigan State has accumulated 166 extra-base hits (84 doubles, 20 triples, 62 home runs), good for 37% of its 447 base knocks. Only Minnesota (173) has more extra-base hits among Big Ten teams.

• Spartan batters have struck out 172 times in a combined 1419 at-bats, the second-fewest of schools in the Big Ten (Minnesota has 153 to lead the way)

• MSU's offense is looking at a third consecutive year of top-10 all-time numbers. This Spartan team has already established new school records in home runs (62), runs (318), RBI (296), and total bases (757), while MSU's batting average (.315), slugging percentage (.533) and on-base percentage (.408) would all rank first if the season ended today.

• MSU's 84 doubles and 20 triples both rank third in the Spartan single-season record book, while MSU's walks (182), and sac flies (15) are the second-highest totals in school history.

• The MSU pitching staff is first in the Big Ten in saves (8), sixth in victories (31), and ranks third with 275 strikeouts on the season. MSU is ninth in ERA (4.16).

- Eveland leads the team and ranks sixth in the Big Ten with a .404 average, ranks sixth in slugging (.723) and sixth in on-base percentage (.503). She is fourth with 53 RBI, a total which ranks tied for second all-time in a season at MSU. She is also among BIG leaders in homers (9, T-11), doubles (14, ninth), and walks (12th, 28).

- Eveland's 25 extra base hits is second among the Spartans and tied for eighth on MSU's single-season list. Her .404 average would fall in MSU's all-time single-season top five.

- Freshman Kelcey Carrasco brings a 14-game reached base safely streak into the Big Ten Tournament, the second-longest streak for any Spartan this season. She is hitting .329 on the season and is tied for 11 in the Big Ten with nine home runs. She is just the second freshman in school history to belt nine homers, and looks to become the first to have double-digit round-trippers.

- All eight of Lexi White home runs this season have come against Big Ten teams - that ranks third among Big Ten players in Conference games only. She's hitting .250 on the season with 13 RBI.

- McKenzie Long is hitting .304 in her junior season, with 20 RBI, 14 sac hits (second in the Big Ten), three triples (fourth, BIG) and three doubles. Her 40 runs scored is 10th in a single season at MSU

- Echols leads the BIG and Division I softball with 11 triples this season. That total is one behind the single-season school record of 12, held since 1980 by Izzy Forester. Her 20 career triples is the most in school history.

- Echols ranks third nationally among active players in career triples, but is the only sophomore among the top 10 active career players in triples. Both players ahead of her - Taylor Brown (27) from Abilene Christian and Lindsay Crowdus of Memphis (22) - are seniors. The all-time NCAA record for career triples is 51, and the second-place holder has 38.

- Echols is tied for sixth all-time in the Big Ten in career triples, and has the most by any player in the Big Ten since 1999.

- Sarah Gutknecht, the team's lone senior, is also moving up the Spartan career records. Her 29 career home runs is third in the Spartan annals. She ranks 17th on MSU's all-time hit list with 176 career base hits, is sixth in extra-base hits (65), tied for seventh in career doubles (36) and career walks (67), and is fourth in MSU history with 120 career RBI.

- Gutknecht is hitting .277 on the year, with 11 doubles, 10 home runs, and 31 RBI. Her 10 homers ranks in a tie for seventh place in MSU's single-season record book. Gutknecht is also tied for the most sac flies (4) in the Big Ten.

- Lindsey Besson tied a school record vs. Toledo (April 19) when she was hit three times in the batter's box, a record originally set by Sandy Lewis on March 2, 2002 by North Carolina. She was hit three times by three different Toledo pitchers. She ranks fifth in the Big Ten in hit by pitch (13), second on the team behind Lea Foerster (19).

- Besson has started 29 games behind the plate, and with just two errors in 28 games, owns a .989 fielding percentage, second on the team behind center fielder Lea Foerster (1.000). In her fourth season in the program, Besson has a great handle on the Spartan pitching staff.

- Melanie Baccay had three hits in the Big Ten Tournament, scoring three runs (one behind team leader Lea Foerster).

- Baccay has started 47 of 49 games at second base, and is hitting .285 on the year with two homers and four doubles. She and classmate Kelcey Carrasco both hit home runs in their first college games on Feb. 10 vs. North Florida, and Baccay added a second vs. No. 16 Georgia (3/4).

TIDBITS

- MSU will lose two from its 2017 roster, first baseman Sarah Gutknecht - a four-year starter - and pitcher Valerie Kaff, who still has eligibility remaining but has elected to retire due to injuries. The Spartan junior class is its largest, with six players. Two are redshirt juniors who entered with Gutknecht and but suffered injuries that cost them an entire previous season (catcher Lindsey Besson, and pitcher Kristina Zalewski). MSU also has six sophomores and four freshmen.

- The Spartan roster features seven players from Michigan, six from California, three from Georgia, and one each from Arizona and Illinois. The Spartans played games this season in three of the five states - MSU had a three-game series at Loyola Marymount in late February and 11 games in Georgia over Spring Break.

- The 2017 Michigan State schedule featured teams from 15 different Division I conferences, 12 games against eight NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago, and nine games at Secchia Stadium. MSU had Big Ten series on the slate at Purdue, Rutgers, and Indiana, home series vs. Maryland and Ohio State, and had to relocate BIG series against Penn State and Illinois and a home game vs. Michigan due to flooding at Secchia Stadium.

- MSU returns at least part-time starters in every field position, as well as four pitchers (out of five) who have had a collegiate start. Due to injuries, the Spartans had two players or more start at six of the eight defensive positions a year ago. Lea Foerster was the only player on the 2016 roster to play and start all 55 games, and all in center field. Gutknecht started 52 at first, and Lindsey Besson 52 behind the plate. Seven different players got a start in left, and four each at third and in right. Meanwhile, 10 different players started at DP.

- The Spartans had eight players earn Academic All-Big Ten honors a year ago (of a possible 12 eligible), and four earned Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors (3.7 GPA in 2015-16). In addition, eight players earned NFCA Scholar-Athlete distinction, (3.7 GPA in 2015-16), Lea Foerster was a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, and Kristina Zalewski has maintained a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average over seven collegiate semesters.

- MSU has three players from the Atlanta Vipers organization - pitchers Bridgette Rainey and Jordan Watson, along with sophomore Ebonee Echols. The Spartans have three who also played for Finesse Fastpitch (Mich.) - redshirt junior Kristina Zalewski, sophomore Lexi White, and freshman Summer Callahan. White and Callahan were also high school teammates at Huron High School in New Boston, Mich.

2017 HIGHLIGHTS

PLAYER NOTES - PITCHERS

• Over the course of the Big Ten schedule, Kristina Zalewski was generally the game one starter, Bridgette Rainey in game two, and a staff outing in game three, with freshman Jordan Watson available for a relief stint in any of the three games. Zalewski went the distance in five of her 15 Big Ten starts, and Rainey had two complete games in seven starts. Watson appeared in 15 of MSU's 23 Big Ten contests.

• Kristina Zalewski owns a 3.35 ERA on the season, with a 6-7 overall record, 93 strikeouts in 104.1 innings, and six complete games. She is tied for eighth in the Big Ten in saves (2), and her 10 career saves is tied with Jessica Beech for third place in the MSU record book.

• Zalewski threw nine innings over the weekend at the Big Ten Tournament, starting all three games. She had eight strikeouts and allowed 13 hits, and her only runs given up against Ohio State in a three-inning outing was a first-inning two-run homer to Lilli Piper.

• Zalewski missed much of the pre-Big Ten schedule completing her rehab from off-season surgery, and threw 72 of her 95 innings in Conference play. Despite missing more than half of the overall Spartan schedule, she ranks 10th in the Big Ten in strikeouts (93), is 12th in strikeouts looking (27), and is tied for eighth in saves (2).

• With 450 career strikeouts, Zalewski is now second all-time at MSU and ranks 45th among active pitchers in Division I softball, one of 14 juniors on that list. She is one of five pitchers at MSU to have reached the 400-strikeout mark - Jessica Beech is the all-time leader with 659.

• Bridgette Rainey has logged the most innings of anyone on the staff, compiling a total of 130.2, good for 13th in the Big Ten. She owns an ERA of 3.96 with five complete games, ranks sixth in the BIG in wins (15), fourth in strikeouts (134), 12th in starts (21) and ninth in total appearances (35). Her 15 victories and 134 strikeouts are both career highs.

• Rainey had the second-most strikeouts of any pitcher in the Big Ten Tournament - she had 144, second to Minnesota ace Sara Groenewegen. In the tournament, Rainey had a 4.08 ERA and earned two wins, surrendering just two extra-base hits in 12 innings.

• Jordan Watson is tied for second in the Big Ten in saves (4), which is tied for third in a single season in MSU history. She is also the Big Ten leader in relief appearances (25) and is 15th in the BIG with 32 total appearances.

• In 15 Big Ten appearances, Watson owns a 3.23 ERA and three saves, tossing 30 innings and giving up 14 earned runs.

• Redshirt junior Valerie Kaff had her senior day on April 21 vs. Ohio State, as injuries will not allow her to continue her pitching career. Kaff missed the 2016 season with a pair of surgeries, and has decided to retire from pitching. The consummate teammate, Kaff has been used as a pinch runner during the Big Ten season, and scored the winning run on April 22 vs. Ohio State. She appeared as a pinch runner in all three games at the Big Ten Tournament.

HEAD COACH JACQUIE JOSEPH

Jacquie Joseph has instilled core values in the Michigan State softball program, developing student-athletes that are successful on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Under Joseph's leadership, these values allow her players to not only become successful during their college career, but in their future endeavors as well. Joseph's impact as a mentor and coach has been felt for years not only within the program, but in the collegiate fastpitch game as a whole.

Since taking over the Spartan program in 1994, the head coach has become the winningest coach in program history, guiding MSU to a 663-676-1 record and four NCAA Regional appearances in 24 seasons. She earned her 650th victory at MSU on March 29, 2017 when her team defeated Western Michigan, 7-3 at Secchia Stadium.

Joseph eclipsed the 700-win plateau in 2013, and through April 11, owns a 798-809-1 career mark (24 seasons at MSU, and five at Bowling Green).

Joseph was a December 2016 inductee in to the into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame. She was recognized as part of the Pioneer category of the NFCA Hall of Fame, which recognizes a member that has contributed above and beyond to the sport of fastpitch softball through service, leadership, coaching and/or participation.

When Joseph was named the fifth head coach in school history, she immediately raised the expectations for the program. MSU has steadily improved under her tutelage, posting three 40-win campaigns and 13 25-win seasons, including eight in the past 14 years.

Joseph's players have performed at a high level her entire career, leading to individual accolades as well as team success. She has coached six All-Americans and her players have earned All-Big Ten honors 45 times and All-Great Lakes Region honors 30 times. In the classroom, an impressive eight student-athletes have been named Academic All-America in her tenure, the most of any active coach in the Michigan State Athletics Department. Her players are a regular on the Academic All-Big Ten Team, earning conference honors more than 100 times.
