UTAH'S REMPFER AND DAVIS NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE MEN'S SWIMMER AND DIVER OF THE WEEK

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – Utah junior Cody Rempfer and freshman Harley Davis have been named Mountain West Conference Men's Swimmer and Diver of the Week, respectively. This is the third career weekly award for Rempfer and the first for Davis.

Rempfer, a Lodi, Calif., native, won three individual events against conference foe UNLV in the Utes 157.5-83.5 dual match victory last weekend. He started the meet with a victory in the 200 breaststroke (2:04.34) and followed with a win in the 200 butterfly (1:49.06). He wrapped up the match winning the 200 individual medley in 1:53.82. The Utes are currently tied for the conference lead with BYU with a 1-0 mark.

Davis, a Salt Lake City, Utah, product, won both diving competitions against the Rebels, making it the first time in four years that Utah swept diving events in a dual match. He turned in a score of 247.25 in the 1-meter dive, 32.3 points ahead of the second place finisher. In the 3-meter, his score of 242.20 was 22.9 points ahead of the next finisher.
