Mountain West Academic All-Conference Men's and Women's Tennis Team Announced

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The Mountain West Conference announced its 2001-2002 Academic All-Conference team today for the sports of men's and women's tennis. To be eligible for selection to the academic team, a student-athlete must have completed at least one academic term at the member institution, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better and be a starter or significant contributor to the team.

Forty-seven student-athletes earned MWC academic honors in 2001-2002 for the sports of men's and women's tennis. New Mexico had the most honorees with 10, followed by San Diego State with nine. Utah was next with seven, while BYU and Wyoming each had six. The Air Force Academy and Colorado State round out the list with five and four, respectively.

Following is a list of Academic All-Mountain West Conference selections grouped alphabetically by school, with women first and men following (*notes repeat selection).
