THIS WEEK IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West Conference will send a record three teams to postseason play as BYU, San Diego State and Utah will represent the league in the 2006 NCAA Softball Championship. The Utes earned the automatic bid to the championship with their 5-4 win over the Aztecs in last week's Mountain West Conference Softball Championship in Las Vegas. BYU and San Diego State were at-large selections.

The Division I championship consists of 64 teams. Eight teams will participate at each of eight regional sites in a double-elimination tournament. The top 16 teams were seeded nationally and will play at campus sites this weekend.

Team pairings were determined by geographical proximity, with the exception that teams from the same conference were not paired during regional competition, when possible. The regional winners will advance to the super regional competition for a best-of-three series May 26-27 (Memorial Day Weekend) at eight campus sites.

The Super Regional winners will advance to the Women's College World Series (WCWS), for a double elimination tournament. The championship final will be a best-of-three-series. The WCWS will be conducted June 1-7 at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Okla.

- * Most Valuable Player

MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK
ERIN FLOROS, SAN DIEGO STATE

MWC PITCHER OF THE WEEK
SUMMER TOBIAS, BYU

San Diego State freshman Erin Floros and BYU senior Summer Tobias were named the Mountain West Conference Softball Player and Pitcher of the Week, respectively. It marked the first career honor for Floros and fifth career honor for Tobias.

Floros, a native of San Diego, Calif., batted .615 (8-for-13) to help the Aztecs clinch their third Mountain West title in the last five seasons. She also led the team in hits (8), runs (6), doubles (2), total bases (10) and putouts (31) over the week. Defensively, Floros threw out two of three runners trying to steal second base. Over the final three games, she batted .800 (8-for-10) and went 3-for-3 with two RBI and a career-high four runs in SDSU's 8-3 title win over Utah.

Tobias, hailing from Temecula, Calif., earned the decision in each of BYU's five games last week. She led the Cougars to a 4-0 record on the road against Mountain West Conference rivals San Diego State and UNLV. Tobias pitched complete game shutouts in game one against both San Diego State and UNLV. After shutting out the Aztecs in game one, Tobias earned the win in relief in game two. She broke her own BYU school record for wins in a season (20) with the game one victory over the Aztecs. She also broke the career victories (42) mark in only two seasons with the Cougars.
