Washington (Mo.) Regains Lead in Final Winter Division III U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings

Cleveland, Ohio – Following the completion of 10 winter NCAA Division III championships, Washington (Mo.) has regained the lead in the final winter U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings. The Bears, who have a total of 693.50 points, recently captured the men's basketball title, placed 13th in men's swimming and 17th in women's basketball. They also scored in two previous winter championships; finishing third in women's track and field and sixth in women's swimming to bring their winter total to 371.50.

Jumping three spots from the first winter standings is Amherst (Mass.), who is in second place with a total of 647.00 points. In the most recent Division III championships, the Lord Jeffs placed second in men's basketball, fifth in women's ice hockey, ninth in women's basketball and 10th in men's swimming. Earlier, they finished second in women's swimming and 51st in women's indoor track and field for a total of 356 points this winter.

In third place in the final winter standings is Williams (Mass.). The Ephs, who were the previous standings leader, placed fifth in men's swimming and 14th in the national collegiate sport of skiing to bring their point total to 617.25. Earlier this season, Williams placed fifth in women's swimming, ninth in women's indoor track and field, 33rd in men's indoor track and field and 47th in wrestling.

Moving into the top five in the final standings is New Jersey and Middlebury (Vt.), who are currently fourth and fifth, respectively. New Jersey jumped two spots from the previous standings after placing seventh in men's swimming and 17th in women's basketball. The Lions also placed 24th in women's indoor track and field and wrestling, and placed 33rd in women's swimming.

On the strength of fifth place finishes in women's ice hockey and the national collegiate sport of skiing, as well as a 17th place finish in men's swimming and a 33rd place finish in men's basketball, Middlebury College jumped from 11th to fifth place in the final winter standings. The Panthers have a total of 508.50 points after placing seventh in women's swimming and 51st in women's indoor track and field.

Capturing NCAA championships this winter were: Washington (Mo.) (men's basketball), Howard Payne (Tex.) (women's basketball), Plattsburgh State (N.Y.) (women's ice hockey), St. Norbert (Wis.) (men's ice hockey), Kenyon (Ohio) (men's and women's swimming), Illinois Wesleyan (women's indoor track and field), Wisconsin La Crosse (men's indoor track and field) and Wartburg (Iowa) (wrestling).

The first spring Division III U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings will be released on May 22, 2008, and will feature men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and women's lacrosse.

The Sports Academy Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. The United States Sports Academy, based in Daphne, Alabama, is the program sponsor. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 18 sports -- nine women's and nine men's.

Please note, standings published midseason are unofficial. Official standings will be published upon the completion of the spring season. Complete standings and the scoring structure can be found on NACDA's Web site at www.nacda.com.
