Washington (Mo.) Holds onto the Top Spot in the Final Fall Division III U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings

Cleveland, Ohio – With all seven of the fall NCAA championships complete, the top four spots saw no change in the final U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings. Washington (Mo.) held onto first place with 322 total points. The Bears completed the fall season with four top-10 finishes, placing first in women's volleyball, third in women's cross country, fifth in men's soccer and ninth in women's soccer.

Amherst (Mass.), who led after the first Directors' Cup standings, finished the fall in second place. The Lord Jeffs tallied a total of 291 points after capturing the women's cross country title, placing fifth in women's volleyball, ninth in men's soccer and 12th in men's cross country.

One point still separates third and fourth place, as Williams (Mass.) leads Calvin (Mich.) with 286 total points. The Ephs notched five top-20 finishes this fall, including ninth place in both men's and women's soccer. Williams also finished 10th in men's cross country, 14th in women's cross country and 17th in women's volleyball. The Knights of Calvin scored a total of 285 points this fall, placing fourth in both men's and women's cross country, 17th in women's soccer and volleyball and 33rd in men's soccer.

Moving into the top-five is New Jersey with 254 points. The Lions jumped from ninth to fifth after placing ninth in football. New Jersey also took third in women's soccer, fifth in women's field hockey, 22nd in women's cross country and 28th in men's cross country.

Capturing Fall NCAA championships were; Wisconsin-Whitewater (football), Amherst (women's cross country), New York (men's cross country), Bowdoin (women's field hockey), Washington (women's volleyball), Middlebury (men's soccer) and Wheaton (women's soccer).

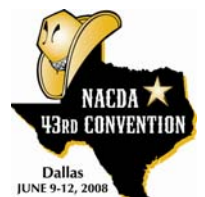

The first Division III Winter U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings will be released on March 20, 2008, and will feature men's and women's track, women's swimming and wrestling.

The Sports Academy Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. The United States Sports Academy, based in Daphne, Alabama, is the program sponsor. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 18 sports -- nine women's and nine men's.

Please note, standings published midseason are unofficial. Official standings will be published upon the completion of the spring season. Complete standings and the scoring structure can be found on NACDA's Web site at www.nacda.com.
