Williams (Mass.) Takes Lead in First Winter Division III U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings

Cleveland, Ohio – With four winter NCAA Division III championships completed, Williams (Mass.) has taken the lead in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings. The Ephs, who were third in the final fall standings, now lead all institutions with 494.25 points.

Williams notched two top-10 finishes this winter, placing fifth in women's swimming and ninth in women's indoor track and field. The Ephs also tallied a 33rd place finish in men's indoor track and field and placed 47th in wrestling.

After finishing atop the final fall standings, Washington (Mo.) is now in second place, trailing Williams with 480.50 points. The Bears scored in two winter championships, finishing third in women's track and field and sixth in women's swimming.

Making impressive jumps into the top-five this winter are Wisconsin- La Crosse and Wartburg (Iowa), who are third and fourth, respectively. La Crosse, who was previously in 23rd place, tallied three top-five finishes in the winter championships to now have a total of 468.50 points. The Eagles captured the men's indoor track and field championship, placed second in wrestling and placed fourth in women's indoor track and field. They also placed 13th in women's swimming, bringing their winter points total to 330.50, nearly 100 points more than any other institution this winter.

Wartburg moved up 16 places from its fall finish after placing first in wrestling and second in women's indoor track and field. The Knights also placed 12th in men's indoor track and field for a total of 402.75 overall points.

Rounding out the top-five is Amherst (Mass.) with a total of 400.50 points. The Lord Jeffs, who finished the fall in second place, scored in two winter NCAA championships, placing second in women's swimming and 51st in women's indoor track and field.

Capturing Winter NCAA championships were: Kenyon (Ohio) (Women's Swimming), Illinois Wesleyan (Women's Indoor Track and Field), Wisconsin La Crosse (Men's Indoor Track and Field) and Wartburg (Iowa) (Wrestling).

The final Division III Winter U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings will be released on April 3, 2008, and will feature men's swimming, men's and women's basketball, as well as men's and women's ice hockey.

The Sports Academy Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. The United States Sports Academy, based in Daphne, Alabama, is the program sponsor. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 18 sports -- nine women's and nine men's.

Please note, standings published midseason are unofficial. Official standings will be published upon the completion of the spring season. Complete standings and the scoring structure can be found on NACDA's Web site at www.nacda.com.
