NAAC will host an online webinar regarding:

Best practices for the role of the Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR)

Wednesday, April 27, 2011 @ 4:00 pm (EDT)

This webinar is designed to serve as an educational tool. Our goal is to provide Presidents, Chancellors, Faculty Athletics Representatives (FAR's), Compliance Administrators, Athletic Administration senior staff, and other relevant staff with a best practice model for the role of the FAR on your campus, and best practices to engage faculty on your campus on intercollegiate athletics issues.

Webinar Overview:

- » Who: Presidents, Chancellors, Faculty Athletics Representatives, Senior Athletics Administration staff, Compliance Administrators,
- » What: Best practices on the role of the FAR / Engaging faculty on intercollegiate athletics issues
- » When: April 27, 2011 @ 4:00 pm (EDT)
- » Where: In the comfort of your office, we will provide you with a unique on-line webinar and a live Q&A.
- » Why: Wisdom and knowledge from your peers about the role of the FAR and how to engage faculty on intercollegiate athletics issues.

The "Top Five" reasons for participating on the "FAR Best Practices" webinar.

1. FAR's are ESSENTIAL: FAR's provide a very key role on your campus. This presentation will help outline the scope of the FAR's role and provide best practices from some of the best FAR's/administrators in the business!
2. It's all in the details: Specific examples of how the FAR relates to violations, eligibility certification, waivers, rules exams, and much more!
3. Peer expertise: Hear from well-respected peer FAR's and athletic administrators who will provide best-practice models that you can take back to your campus!
4. Savvy people who share: Excellent peer institution models that are defined in detail!
5. Q&A: Speak with FAR's and athletic administrative staff after the presentation!

Registration is easy:

- » Cost: $35.00 for NAAC members / $50.00 for non-members.
