

Coordinator of Game Day Productions. Central Michigan University, an FBS member of the Mid-American Conference is seeking applicants to for Game day video board preparation and operation; this person will be responsible for live web streaming of events and equipment maintenance and engineering. Job responsibilities are: Assist in planning and executing game day video board scripts; pre-produce game day content for video boards; direct video staff for live event productions; responsibility for all phases of the game day experience related to video boards, including stats and timing interface; maintain in-house video feeds and adapt to changing environment; engineer and trouble-shoot all video operations equipment; responsible for creating work orders and follow thru with Daktronics on equipment maintenance; work closely with and serve as a backup to the Coordinator of Multimedia. Required: Bachelor's degree in broadcasting, digital media, or related field; 1 year experience in live sports videoboard production; experience in collegiate athletics or professional sports; experience with Daktronics equipment; submit demo of work, including application of treatments to multiple size displays. Successful applicant will display editing skills and graphical capabilities. Candidate must be deadline-oriented, have solid communication skills, and work well under pressure. Preferred: working knowledge of intercollegiate athletics and sports photography. Screening of candidates will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Anticipated start date is Feb 15, 2012. Candidates must submit an on-line application in order to be considered as an applicant for this position. Go to: www.jobs.cmich.edu to apply. CMU, an AA/EO institution, strongly and actively strives to increase diversity within its community. (See <http://www.cmich.edu/aeo/>) CMU serves more than 27,000 students and is classified by the Carnegie Foundation as a doctoral research university.