

Question:

Any recommendations for printing companies (everything from schedule cards to media guides)?

Kurt Esser, University of New Mexico

Answers:

This is our go to guy for ticket brochures and media guides (everything but our posters and schedule cards). Marketing, Ticket office, Media Relations, Development and Academic Support all use him.

Top-quality, competitive pricing, great turnaround and unmatched customer service!

Try Skinner Printing in Montgomery, Alabama. Great service, quick turnaround, and they decimate most companies prices. Let them know what you currently pay (or the lowest quote you have received) and they will, probably beat it. Ask for Joe Pickett. Their number is 334-213-1116.

There is Kelly Press in Columbia, Missouri – I think they usually have a booth at NACMA. Also, I've been using a company down here in Biloxi, MS that has done a GREAT job for my stuff, including mailouts, database management, etc. They do a lot for the casinos who are even pickier than I am! The company is Knight-Abbey Commercial Printing and my contacts there are Susan Church (Acct. Exec.) or Tonya Spiers (Business Sales Manager...and owners daughter). Tonya and her dad are Southern Miss grads so if you call them (1-800-844-6552) tell them I recommended them of you don't mind.

Our athletic department uses a great company located here in Lubbock called Copy Craft. They do an incredible job. (schedule cards, posters, roster cards, exit coupons)

They have a very informative website:

We use Sport Productions out of Overland Park, Kansas. They handle the design work and the printing of all of our materials (schedule cards, magnets, poster & media guides). They are very easy to work with and produce high quality designs and produce them in a timely manner as well. We've never had a problem with them and have been using them for at least 5 years.

Butler primarily uses Sport Graphics, a printing company based out of Indianapolis that handles most all the printing for the NCAA championships, the Horizon League and the Indiana Pacers. They have been fantastic to work with, and can do turn most things around in a day if necessary. Their website is <http://www.sportg.com/>.

Lindsay Martin, Butler University

Arrowhead Printing in Superior, WI...we used them when I was at Minnesota-Duluth...solid company and worked great under the crunch...best rates around our area as well. They do some of the larger products around that area.

Just started working with a great company for our new schedule cards. Multi Ad is the company, Dave Mateer is the contact. They did Alaska-Fairbanks' brand new schedule cards, and they look so sharp! We will be going to the same style. I know they do media guides and calendars as well. His contact info:

At Colorado State they used Multi-Ad. They were very good to work with! At Nebraska I believe we use our local printing services.
