The second-seeded Navy baseball team will look to win its sixth Patriot League Championship this weekend, when it hosts fourth-seeded Bucknell in a best-of-three series. The two teams will meet for a single game at 3 p.m. on Friday, followed by a 12 noon start on Saturday. If the series is tied after two games, the Mids and the Bison will play a third and deciding game 30 minutes after the first contest on Saturday.

Navy earned a spot in the championship series by rallying to win the final-two games to knock off third-seeded Holy Cross, two games to one. Bucknell traveled up to top-seeded Army and took two-of-three from the Black Knights on their home field.

BUCKNELL ... A CLOSER LOOK

The Bucknell Bison, the No. 4 seed in this year's Patriot League Tournament, took two-of-three on the road at top-seeded Army to advance to the Patriot League Championship series. The Bison sport a 24-22-2 record on the spring, including a 10-10 mark in league play.

Earlier this season, Navy and Bucknell split a four-game series up at Depew Field in Lewisburg, Pa. The Midshipmen swept the Bison, 4-0 and 16-6, in a Saturday doubleheader before dropping 8-2 and 5-4 decision on Sunday and Monday, respectively.

The Bison come down to Annapolis with a potent offensive attack, as they lead the league with a .309 team batting average. Patriot League Player of the Year Jason Buursma leads the way at the plate, hitting .374 with 11 home runs and 34 RBIs. In total, six starters for Bucknell are hitting above the .300 mark.

On the mound, Buursma has been effective as a starter and a reliever. He started and completed all-five of his league starts and won both games at Army last weekend out of the bullpen. All of Bucknell's starting pitchers boast an ERA under 4.50. However, the Bison own a 5.48 team ERA, as their relievers have combined for a 8.33 mark with 102 walks and 101 strikeouts in 155.2 innings this spring.

NAVY vs. BUCKNELL ... APRIL 19

Navy starting pitcher Mitch Harris (Sr./Mt. Holly, N.C.) fired a complete shutout in the opener and the offense exploded for 21 hits in the night-cap as the Midshipmen swept Bucknell, 4-0 and 16-6. Mike Guadagnini went 6-for-8 on the day, while the offense totaled 29 hits. In game two, Navy's cleanup through ninth hitters combined to go 19-for-30 (.633) with 15 runs scored and 15 RBIs.

NAVY vs. BUCKNELL ... APRIL 21

The Navy baseball team scored twice in the final inning and loaded the bases with two outs, but a groundout cut the comeback short as the Midshipmen dropped the baseball series finale, 5-4, at Bucknell. Navy's offense out-hit Bucknell, 13-6, drew four walks and was hit by a pitch, while striking out only twice on the day. The Bison turned two double plays and came up with the key pitch in forcing the Midshipmen to strand 12 runners on base. Thomas Hamilton led the offensive attack with a 4-for-5 effort at the plate with three RBIs.

Navy head coach Paul Kostacopoulos is in his third season as the head coach of the Navy baseball program, a team that won just 26 games in the two years prior to his arrival. In his first-two years, the Midshipmen registered a 67-41-1 mark, the highest two-year win total in the program's storied 112-year history.

The Midshipmen have made significant improvement in all four elements of the game -- hitting, running, pitching and fielding. Below is the chart comparing Navy's production in the two year's prior to Kostacopoulos's arrival versus his first-two years at Navy:

MIDS MARCH ON TO LEAGUE FINALS

The Navy baseball team took two-of-three from Holy Cross last weekend in Annapolis to earn a spot in the Patriot League Championship series this weekend at home against Bucknell.

Facing elimination twice after dropping the opener, 6-0, the Midshipmen rallied with back-to-back victories, 12-1 and 9-5.

Game One - Saturday, May 10

Holy Cross 000 042 000 - 6 11 1 (21-26)
 Navy 000 000 000 - 0 5 1 (30-23-1)
 W-Bobby Holmes (5-4) L-Mitch Harris (2-2)
 T-2:50; A-561

In the opener, both teams had opportunities to strike early, but could not deliver with runners on base as the score remain tied at zero after four frames. The Midshipmen had the bases loaded with one out in the third and fourth innings, but Holy Cross starter Bobby Holmes got out of both jams unscathed. In the third, Holmes used a strike-out and a groundout to avoid damage, followed by a line drive double play to first base in the fourth.

The Crusaders jumped on the board with four runs and sent nine batters to the plate in the fifth inning against Navy starter Mitch Harris. Holy Cross chased Harris in the sixth and provided insurance with two more runs.

Harris fell to 2-2 on the year, as he allowed seven hits and five runs, four of which were earned, over 5.1 innings with two walks and five strikeouts.

Thomas Hamilton was the lone Navy batter to record a multi-hit performance, as he went 2-for-4.

Game Two - Saturday, May 10

Navy 200 127 000 - 12 17 0 (31-23-1)
 Holy Cross 000 000 010 - 1 8 0 (21-27)
 W-Oliver Drake (6-3) L-Matt Shapiro (4-2)
 HR-Jeff Bland (Navy)
 T-2:46

With Navy's season riding on the arm of Oliver Drake, the Navy right-hander once again came through for the Mids. He scattered seven hits and one run over 7.2 innings with no walks and nine strikeouts to improve to 6-3 on the year. Over his three career starts against Holy Cross, Drake is 3-0 with a 0.76 ERA over 23.2 innings with one walk and 24 strikeouts.

The Midshipmen blew the game open in the sixth inning, scoring seven runs on seven hits and sending 12 batters to the plate. Mike Guadagnini had two hits in the inning with a run scored and two RBIs, while Thomas Hamilton and Kendall Bolt each had run scoring doubles. Navy's offense chased Holy Cross starter Matt Shapiro, the Patriot League Pitcher of the Year, out of the game in the inning. Shapiro gave up 12 hits and nine runs, all earned, over five-plus innings to pick up the loss.

Navy pounded out 17 hits compared to Holy Cross's eight base knocks in the nightcap. Bolt led the way with a 4-for-6 effort, including a pair of runs scored and RBIs. Renaldo Hollins and Guadagnini both had three hits in the first and second spots in the order, respectively. Mitch Harris and Nick Driscoll each delivered two singles, while Hamilton scored twice and drove in two runs.

 T-2:56; A-495

The Navy baseball team rallied from two early deficits to defeat Holy Cross, 9-5, in the third and deciding game of the Patriot League Semifinal series on Sunday at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium.

Navy's three through five hitters - Thomas Hamilton, Michael Speciale and Kendall Bolt - combined to go 10-for-14 at the plate with four doubles, five runs scored and three RBIs. Bolt led the group with a 4-for-5 showing with a double, while Speciale went 3-for-4 with two doubles and Hamilton finished 3-for-5 with a two-bagger.

Mark McCoy battled back from a tough start over the first-three innings - a span in which he threw 75 pitches - to finish the contest with six-plus innings of work to earn his sixth win of the year. He scattered 10 hits and five runs, only two of which were earned, with one walk and three strikeouts in a 111-pitch afternoon. Reliever Drew Carlson fired three shutout innings with four strikeouts to earn his third save of the year.

PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP IN ANNAPOLIS

The Navy baseball team will play host to the Patriot League Championship for the sixth time in school history this weekend, the most among any school in the league. After Navy's six tournaments in Annapolis, Bucknell and Army each have hosted the league championship on three occasions.

The Midshipmen are 6-4 (.600) in league championship games on their home field and have won the league title in Annapolis three times, with the last coming in 2002 against Lehigh.

Since the Patriot League Tournament's inception in 1993, the championship host has come away with the title 11 out of the 14 years. Navy was awarded the league title in 1995 when weather forced the cancellation of the league's postseason tournament.

The higher-seeded team in the Patriot League Championship series has come away victorious in each of the last-six years. The last lower-seeded team to win the league title was Bucknell in 2001, when it defeated Navy in Annapolis. Navy was the first lower-seed to win a league championship, as it defeated Bucknell in Lewisburg in 1999.

NAVY-BUCKNELL BATTLE FOR THE TITLE YET AGAIN

The Navy-Bucknell matchup in the Patriot League Championship series has become a familiar one in the course of league history. The two teams will square off for the league title for the sixth time this weekend, marking the most matchup in league history.

Bucknell holds a slim 7-6 edge in the league championship series against Navy. In Annapolis, the Midshipmen are 2-2 against the Bison in championship play. Navy won the league title in 1998 over Bucknell and fell to the Bison on its home field in 2001.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNEY REGULARS

The Navy baseball team is in its 13th and second-straight visit to the Patriot League Tournament this year since joining the league during the 1993 campaign. In their previous 12 trips, the Midshipmen have come away as the league champion five times.

The Mids are 16-14 (.533) all-time in Patriot League Tournament contests, including a 8-5 (.615) mark on their home field in Annapolis. Navy has won the Patriot League Championship three times at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium (1994, '98 and '02).

This year marks the first year in which the Patriot League has employed a four-team tournament. The winners of each semifinal series will meet next weekend in a best-of-three championship series. The 2008 Patriot League Champion will earn an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament, which starts with regional play on May 30-June 2.

SUCCESS IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

The Navy baseball team has enjoyed significant success since joining the Patriot League in 1993. Over that span, Navy has gone 191-131 (.593) in league play and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times. The Midshipmen have won the league postseason title five times, more than any other school in the league.

NAVY PRESEASON PATRIOT LEAGUE FAVORITE IN MANY CIRCLES

The Navy baseball team was tabbed to win the Patriot League Championship and earn an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament by a slew of preseason publications.

The Midshipmen were picked to finish first in the Patriot League by the league's coaches and sports information contacts in the preseason poll. The Mids claimed 43 points and four first-place ballots to lead the way, while Lafayette came in a close second with 42 points and four first-place votes.

Navy has also been picked to win the Patriot League according to Baseball America, CollegeBaseballInsider.com and CSTV.com. In CSTV.com's preseason prediction, the Mids will advance to the NCAA Tournament and compete in the Columbia, S.C., regional against No. 8 national seed South Carolina.

League teams. The five first-team selections were most in the league and tied for the most by a Navy team in school history, as the 1996 Midshipmen also had five first-team picks.

Three of the five First-Team All-Patriot League infield positions were filled by the Midshipmen - first baseman Thomas Hamilton, second baseman Mike Guadagnini and third baseman Kendall Bolt. Relief pitcher JD Melton was named a first-team all-league member, as was outfielder Michael Speciale. Fellow Navy outfielder Renaldo Hollins earned Second-Team All-Patriot League kudos.

THREE-STRAIGHT 30-WIN SEASONS

For the first time in school history, the Navy baseball team has won 30 games in three-consecutive years -- all under Navy third-year head coach Paul Kostacopoulos. In fact, prior to Kostacopoulos's arrival, Navy had posted just three 30-win campaigns in 110 years of the program.

Coming into this week, the Midshipmen are one of just 47 Division I teams in the nation to have won 30-plus games in each of the 2006, '07 and '08 campaigns. Among that elite list, only four teams are located within the Northeast and East Regions, as declared by the NCAA (Navy, UNC Charlotte, St. John's and Louisville).

KOSTACOPOULOS GETS CAREER WIN NO. 600

Navy head coach Paul Kostacopoulos claimed his 600th career victory in just 19 seasons as a head coach with a 17-5 victory over Delaware State on April 29. The third-year Navy skipper owns a career record of 603-396-4 (.603). Kostacopoulos has won 30-plus games in each of his last-eight seasons and 12 times in his career.

KOSTACOPOULOS NEARING WIN NO. 100 WITH NAVY

Navy head coach Paul Kostacopoulos is approaching another milestone mark in 2008, attempting to become the fourth Navy coach to earn 100 career victories with the Mids. Over his first-two-plus seasons in Annapolis, he owns a career mark of 99-64-2 (.606).

MIDS ON A TEAR

Navy has played some solid baseball over the last-13 games and have been rewarded with a 9-3-1 record over that span to carry itself into the Patriot League Championship series.

During this stretch, the Midshipmen are collectively hitting .343 with a .472 slugging percentage and a .420 on-base percentage. As a result of that, Navy has averaged 7.0 runs per game.

Four Navy starters are hitting over .400 during this span -- Thomas Hamilton (.500), Bill Maugeri (.419), Kendall Bolt (.415) and Mike Guadagnini (.411). Hamilton has also scored 14 times, driven in 14 runs and boasts a .576 on-base percentage.

While the offense has done its part, the pitching staff has also held up its end. The Midshipmen own a 2.89 ERA and have limited the opposition to a .254 batting average. They have also only walked 27 and struck out 98 in 112.0 innings.

HOME SWEET HOME

Navy owns a 21-14-1 (.597) record at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium this spring. The 21 home triumphs are one shy of tying the school record of 22 wins by last year's squad. Navy's win total at home in 2008 also marks the third 20-win home slate in program history.

Navy has already played more home games this season than any other team in school history. This weekend's series against Bucknell will be Navy's 37th, 38th and possibly 39th home games of the spring. The previous mark of 33 games was set by last season's squad.

Since the installation of FieldTurf at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium before the start of the 2006 season, Navy has gone 59-36-2 (.619) in its 97 home games.

RECORDS WERE MADE TO BE BROKEN

The Navy baseball team has set seven school records as a team this spring -- games played, at bats, hits, doubles, home runs, saves and innings pitched. This year's squad also ranks among the top 10 in eight other categories -- strikeouts (2nd), wins (3rd), RBIs (3rd), runs (4th), triples (4th), slugging percentage (7th), batting average (8th) and stolen bases (9th).

OUT WITH THE OLD, IN WITH THE NEW

Coming into the 2008 season, the Navy single-season hits record had stood firmly at 71, a mark achieved by Andy Loferski in 1983. This year, two Mids have already surpassed that mark and a third could do so this weekend.

Team captain Thomas Hamilton first broke the record and currently leads the way with 84 base knocks. Michael Speciale soon followed and ranks second on the team with 78 hits. Kendall Bolt enters the weekend with 68 hits, three shy of Loferski's total.

Hamilton's hit total has also made waves in the Patriot League record book. His 84 hits are only four shy of matching the league record of 88 base knocks by Lehigh's Matt McBride in 2006. McBride was taken in the second round of the MLB draft following that season.

FOUR MIDS WITH 60+ HITS ... AND COUNTING

Four Navy hitters -- Thomas Hamilton (84), Michael Speciale (78), Kendall Bolt (68) and Jonathan Wright (63) -- have surpassed the 60-hit mark this season. It second the first time in school history that four Mids have eclipsed the 60-hit mark in one season.

Prior to this season, the 2006 Midshipmen had four of its own go over 60 hits in a year -- Jared Munde (64), Jonathan Johnston (64), Renaldo Hollins (62) and Ryan McGinn (62).

In addition to the quartet this year, Mike Guadagnini (54) and Renaldo Hollins (52) are also eyeing the mark heading into this weekend's Patriot League Championship series.

BULLPEN SAVING THE DAY

Navy's bullpen has racked up 15 saves this season, breaking the school record of 14 saves by the 2006 Midshipmen.

Against Patriot League foes, Navy's corps of relievers have boasted a 2.57 ERA over 63.0 innings. The Midshipmen limited the opposition to a .235 batting average and issued just 17 walks. As a result, the relievers picked up five wins and recorded a save in six other games.

Overall this year, Navy's relief pitchers on this week's active roster combined for a 3.55 ERA in 157.0 innings of work with 12 wins and 15 saves. The Midshipmen have held the opposition to a .263 batting average with just 48 walks and 100 strikeouts.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES!

One year after hitting just one home run in 33 home games, the 2008 Midshipmen have belted 13 home runs in their first-36 games on its home field. The most prolific shot came against Rhode Island on March 8, when Steven Soares smashed a 420-foot shot over the scoreboard in left-center. Mitch Harris has gone deep at home four times this spring, while Michael Speciale has homered three times in Annapolis.

Below is a listing of the 31 home runs hit by Navy in its last-171 games in Annapolis, dating back to the start of the 2002 season:

HARRIS GOES DEEP IN THREE-STRAIGHT GAMES ... AGAIN!

Navy power hitter Mitch Harris (Sr./Mt. Holly, N.C.) hit a home run in three-consecutive games for the second time in his career during an impressive tear on March 13-15.

Harris smashed a 410-foot blast over the centerfield fence at Maryland-Eastern Shore before going deep twice against Monmouth in Annapolis. The multi-home run performance at home was the first by a Navy hitter since Tony Mauro against Lafayette on April 3, 1999. Harris blasted his fourth long ball in three days against Maine, this time over the fence at the deepest part of the ballpark, approximately 410 feet.

The Navy slugger hit a home run in three-consecutive games during a series sweep against Holy Cross at Fitton Field last season.

Only one other Navy hitter has ever hit a round-tripper in three-straight games. Mark Zematis first accomplished the feat on the road at East Carolina on March 4-5, 2000.

ROOKIE ROCKETS TWO HOME RUNS

Navy freshman Mike Guadagnini belted two towering home runs at UMBC on April 8. Guadagnini became the second Navy freshman and the first in 34 years to belt two long balls in the same game. Terry Cook first achieved the feat against Towson on April 30, 1974.

Guadagnini joins Navy slugger Mitch Harris as Mids that have posted a multi-home run effort this season. Prior to this year, only two other Midshipmen went deep twice in the same game since the 2002 campaign.

BACK-TO-BACK IS TWICE AS NICE

Four Navy hitters have gone deep in back-to-back games this season. Mitch Harris homered in three-consecutive games (March 13-15), while Thomas Hamilton (April 6 at Lehigh), Michael Speciale (April 6 at Lehigh, April 8 at UMBC) and Kendall Bolt (April 22 vs. UMES, April 24 at Coppin State) have all homered in back-to-back games.

MIDS POUND OUT 16 RUNS IN A PATRIOT LEAGUE GAME

The Navy offense cranked out 21 hits in defeated Bucknell in Lewisburg, Pa., 16-6, on April 19. The 16 runs scored by the Mids are the most in a Patriot League regular season games since a 17-2 win at Holy Cross on April 21, 2001. It was also Navy's highest run output against a league opponent since a 16-3 triumph at Bucknell in the 2003 Patriot League Tournament.

NAVY'S OFFENSE EXPLODES AT UMES

The Navy offense produced offensive figures it had not seen in five years during its 20-6 victory at Maryland-Eastern Shore on March 13.

The 20 runs scored were the most by the Mids since they plated 24 runs against Hartford on March 22, 2003. The 24 base knocks, 10 of which went for extra bases, were the most by a Navy team since they tallied 24 hits against Bucknell in the 2003 Patriot League Tournament.

MARATHON BASEBALL

In a clash among the Patriot League's top-two teams in the league's preseason poll on March 29-30, Navy and Lafayette played a four-game set that will be remembered for some time.

The Midshipmen and the Leopards battled over 37 innings in the four-game set, the longest Patriot League weekend in Navy's program history. The previous longest league weekend for the Mids came last year at Army, when they squared off for 35 innings.

The series finale between Navy and Lafayette lasted 13 innings, the longest game in league play for the Mids. The contest lasted four hours and six minutes, as the Midshipmen came away with a thrilling 6-5 win. The 13-inning ballgame was the longest for Navy since a 7-6 loss to UMBC in Annapolis on March 31, 1993.

PLAYING FIVE-STRAIGHT DAYS

Due to heavy rains that forced the second game of the April 12 doubleheader against Army to be postponed until April 14, the Navy baseball teams played on five-consecutive days between April 12-16.

It marked the second time this season that the Midshipmen hit the diamond over five-straight days and just the sixth time in school history. In fact, it was the first time that the Midshipmen played on five-consecutive days in the month of April.

Below is the list of five-straight days of baseball in the program's 113-year history:

MARCH MADNESS

Navy played 17 home games this spring in the month of March, all within a span of 26 days. The Midshipmen compiled a record of 11-6 on their home field during that span.

In the midst of that wild stretch, Navy also played two road games. The Mids played at 16th-ranked Virginia on March 12, before driving during the night to take on Maryland-Eastern Shore at Princess Anne, Md. The Midshipmen would not have an opportunity to relax, as they immediately came back to Annapolis to host a round-robin tournament over the following three days.

THE YOUNG MIDS

Navy's 2008 roster is comprised of a combined 31 freshmen and sophomores out of its 40 roster spots. The Midshipmen boast the youngest squad in the Patriot League with 15 freshmen and 16 sophomores, while Lehigh follows in a close second with its 13 freshmen and 12 sophomores. Below is the list of the Patriot League's roster breakdown:

MIDS GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM, TOO

Being a member of a league that prides itself on maintaining high academic standards while pursuing athletic success, Navy certainly lives up to that standard in the most recent Academic Progress Rates released by the NCAA.

The Midshipmen earned a mark of 981, which places them among the nation's top-10th percentile in baseball. Navy's athletic program also ranks among the premier institutions in each sport across the board. The Midshipmen boasted a mark higher than the Division I average in all-23 of their NCAA sports, including the nation's highest score in four sports (each with a perfect 1,000). The Midshipmen also led the nation with 12 of their teams ranking in the top-10 percent of their respective sports.

The APR is the fulcrum upon which the entire academic-reform structure rests. Developed as a more real-time assessment of teams' academic performance than the six-year graduation-rate calculation provides, the APR awards two points each term to student-athletes who meet academic-eligibility standards and who remain with the institution. A team's APR is the total points earned by the term at a given time divided by the total points possible.

ACCELERATING THEIR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Each of Navy's seven seniors on this year's baseball team are going to serve their country in a variety of roles following commissioning in May. Graduates from the United States Naval Academy will begin their military careers as either an Ensign in the United States Navy or a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

This year, each of Navy's seniors will be commissioned as Ensigns in the United States Navy, entering the Surface Warfare, Aviation, Submarine (Nuclear) and Civil Engineering Corps communities. The following is a list of each senior's service selection:

NAVY SENIORS' SERVICE SELECTIONS

Name	Service Selection
Mark Guadagnini	Navy Pilot
Thomas Hamilton	Surface Warfare
Mitch Harris	Surface Warfare
Kevin Heasley	Submarine (Nuclear)
Renaldo Hollins	Surface Warfare
Bill Maugeri	Surface Warfare
Mark McCoy	Civil Engineering Corps

JONATHAN JOHNSTON '06 MINOR LEAGUE UPDATE

Former Navy baseball catcher Jonathan Johnston '06 is currently assigned to the Kane County (Ill.) Cougars of the Class A Midwest League in the Oakland Athletics farm system. Johnston participated in Oakland's Minor League Spring Training Camp earlier this year.

Through 11 games, Johnston is hitting .171 (7-for-41) with seven runs scored, one double, four RBIs, seven walks and five stolen bases.

Last June, Johnston was selected in the 43rd round of the MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Athletics, becoming the first position player and just the third player in school history to be drafted.

While most players find out by watching the results in one form or another, Johnston was aboard the USS Peleliu in the western Pacific Ocean. The gunnery officer in charge of eight sailors heard the news when he called his mother, Glory, from the ship.

The USS Peleliu is an amphibious assault ship based out of San Diego, as well as the U.S. Military All-Stars team that Johnston played on. It was his time with that team, alongside his four-year playing career in Annapolis, that caught the attention of Oakland A's area scout Craig Weissman.

While donning the Navy blue and gold with the Midshipmen baseball squad, Johnston played in 145 games and set the school record for career stolen bases with 59 swipes. As a senior in 2006, Johnston earned Second-Team All-Patriot League honors while batting .317 with 51 runs scored and a program-record 35 stolen bases.

ON THE WATCH LISTS

Navy pitcher/designated hitter Mitch Harris and relief pitcher JD Melton have been named to a variety of national watch lists this spring.

Harris was named a preseason candidate for the Brooks Wallace Award for the second-straight year, which is handed out to the top collegiate player in the country. For the third time in his career, the Navy right-hander has also been selected to the Roger Clemens Award Watch List, which is awarded to the best collegiate pitcher in the nation.

Melton was among a group of just 45 relievers in the country to be named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List. The Navy sophomore was also selected to the list during his rookie year at Navy in 2007.

MITCH HARRIS ... 29TH BEST COLLEGE PROSPECT BY BASEBALL AMERICA

Navy baseball right-handed pitcher Mitch Harris has been tabbed as the nation's 29th-best college prospect for the 2008 MLB First-Year Player Draft, it was announced by Baseball America. The rankings were compiled by Baseball America through discussions with scouts and represent overall future potential.

Harris ranks as the second-highest collegiate prospect among seniors in this year's draft class. Only Georgia senior right-handed pitcher Joshua Fields placed ahead of Harris, coming in at 27th on the list.

In the 2007 MLB First-Year Player Draft last June, Harris was selected in the 24th round by the Atlanta Braves organization. This past summer, he played in the prestigious Cape Cod League with the Bourne Braves. Facing some of the nation's best collegiate hitters, he started seven contests and boasted a 3.94 ERA in 29.2 innings with 25 strikeouts. With the help of the Navy right-hander, Bourne won the Western Division regular season title with a 25-17-2 record.

Harris was selected Second-Team All-Patriot League as both a starting pitcher and a designated hitter last May, becoming the first player in school history to earn all-league accolades at two different positions within the same year. One month later, he became the first player in school history to earn ABCA all-region accolades multiple times during his career, as he was first-team selection in 2006 and a second-team member in 2007.

Prior to the start of the 2008 season, Harris was selected as a candidate for the 2008 Brooks Wallace Award, which is awarded to the nation's top-collegiate player. Last year's Brooks Wallace award went to Vanderbilt pitcher, David Price. Price was the first overall pick in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft and is pitching in the Tampa Bay Rays organization. The 2006 winner was standout pitcher/designated hitter Brad Lincoln of Houston. Nebraska's Alex Gordon, currently with the Kansas City Royals, took home the 2005 trophy. The inaugural award was given in 2004 to Kurt Suzuki of Cal State Fullerton, who is now catching for the Oakland A's.

NAVY'S HOME SELECTED AS LEAGUE'S FAVORITE ROAD STADIUM

Navy's home field, Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium, was voted as the favorite road stadium in the Patriot League, voted by the league's coaches on CollegeBaseballInsider.com.

This does not particularly come as a surprise, as the $2.5-million renovation process at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium commenced in October 2005 and featured a variety of upgrades that make the home of Navy baseball one of the finest facilities in the East to play and watch a game. The multi-million dollar baseball facility is named after the longtime baseball coach Max Bishop (1937-61) and the Terwilliger family for their generous support of the Naval Academy and the Naval Academy Athletic Association.

The facility's biggest improvement was the installation of a new playing surface, as the natural grass was dug up and 124,000-square feet of FieldTurf was put in January 2006. FieldTurf is the same surface used by Major League Baseball's Minnesota Twins, Tampa Bay Rays and Toronto Blue Jays, as well as Navy's Jack Stephens Field at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Terwilliger Brothers Field became only the third field in college baseball to feature FieldTurf over the entire playing surface, with the exception of the pitcher's mound and home plate.

In spring 2007, a 5,000-square foot, heated indoor hitting and pitching facility was constructed, enabling the Midshipmen to work on their skills, rain or shine. The 50-foot wide, 100-foot long, 16-foot high indoor facility features two pitching mounds and a state-of-the-art hitting screen. The Pro Batter Professional PX2 Video Pitching Machine allows hitters to bat against a simulated pitcher with several different pitches and a wide range of velocities.

The roof of the hitting and pitching facility has been surfaced with railings surrounding its perimeter, serving as a hospitality venue that provides an outstanding view of the entire ballpark and the Naval Academy.

Concurrent with the field transformation, 1,000 chair-back seats have been installed with brick archways surrounding the stadium. Behind the left field fence, one can find a state-of-the-art LED matrix scoreboard with a video screen. Also, a concession stand located on the concourse level behind home plate and a patio area help create an intimate surrounding to watch and enjoy a game.
