BACKCOURT TO LEAD NAVY AGAIN IN 2006-07

Navy's backcourt is expected to once again be the strength of the team in 2006-07.

Leading the returnees will be junior Greg Sprink. The 6-5, 205-pound guard led the Mids with a 14.9 ppg and 4.9 rpg average in 2005-06 and ranked 32nd nationally (third among sophomores) in free throw percentage (.856). He poured in over 30 points twice last season, including a breakout 34-point performance against Brown in which he set school records for points in a half (31; 2nd) and points coming off the bench (34). He also tied a school record with nine three-pointers in the contest. Two games after the Brown performance, Sprink dumped in 31 points against The Citadel. His 14.9 ppg average was the highest for a Navy sophomore since the 1988-89 season and the ninth-best total by a sophomore in school history.

Sprink will be aided in the backcourt by fellow classmate Corey Johnson. Johnson averaged 9.5 ppg last year, despite missing nine games with a knee injury suffered against Air Force. Johnson is a workhorse, having played an average of 34.0 minutes per game in his first 47 games at Navy. The total would rank him second all-time in career minutes played per game had he played enough games. As it is, he owns the No. 7 (34.2) and No. 9 (33.9) totals on the single-season minutes played list at Navy. Johnson was a 2005 Patriot League All-Rookie Team selection and he should enter the career top 10 for steals and assists at Navy by the end of the year.

Sophomore guard Kaleo Kina turned in one of the finest freshman seasons in school history and returns after averaging 10.4 ppg in 2005-06 en route to All-Patriot League Rookie Team accolades. His scoring average by a freshman was the sixth best by a freshman in school history.

He was the only freshman in the league to average double figures in the scoring column and was one of three rookies to lead his team in assists.

A pair of sophomores Cliff Colbert and Bryce Brigham will provide added offense and depth. Colbert was selected as a Patriot League Rookie of the Week selection twice last year and Brigham was one of the top three-point shooters in the league a year ago. Colbert averaged 4.6 ppg and 2.3 rpg and connected on .833 of his free throw attempts (40-of-48), while Brigham posted a 3.9 ppg average, while hitting on .377 percent of his three-point tries (26-of-69).

FRONTCOURT LOOKS TO GAIN EXPERIENCE

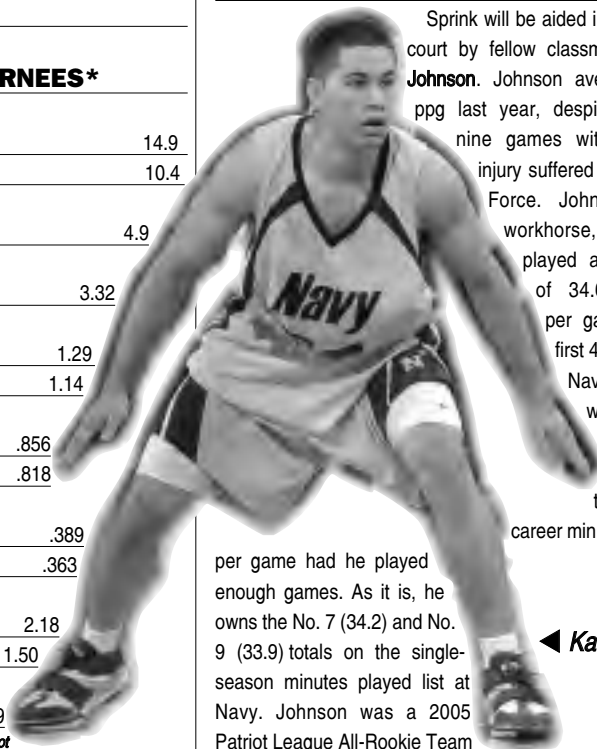

Five of Navy's frontcourt players that started the year last year are no longer with the program, as Billy Lange will need to call on three returnees and a host of newcomers to hold down the fort in the lane.

Leading the returnees will be 6-8 sophomore guard / forward combo Adam Teague. Teague started 17 games a year ago, averaging 4.7 ppg, including a career-best 19 points in Navy's first-ever Patriot League win over American, earning Patriot League Rookie of the Week. Teague enters the season having hit a three-pointer in eight straight games.

Ben Biles, a 6-10 junior forward, will be called upon to play a bigger role in the paint this year.

Biles saw action in 17 games last year, averaging 1.1 ppg and 1.8 rpg. He shot .471 from the field (8-of-17), but showed much improvement in preseason workouts.

The final big man in the mix is senior Calvin White. The 2006-07 Preseason Notebook

6-7 forward appeared in a career-high 11 games last year, averaging 0.3 ppg and 0.5 rpg. White will give much-needed depth to the frontcourt this winter.

NEWCOMERS IN THE FRAY

Six freshmen will join the roster, giving head coach Billy Lange a boost in size and talent. Four of the six newcomers are 6-6 or taller, including 6-10 forward Trey Stanton.

Two guards, Chris Harris and Derek Young, will give Lange added depth and ballhandling at the guard position, and can both play either position in the backcourt. Both players come from highly successful programs as Young attended Archbishop Spalding High School (Md.), while Harris competed at Fork Union Military School (Va.).

Scott Brooks, a 6-6, 184-pound forward, gives the Mids a lanky, athletic presence. Brooks cherished pressure situations in high school, hitting the game-winning shot in the state finals, then blocking a potential game-winning attempt in the late seconds to give Wakefield (N.C.) the state title.

Bobby Fenske, a 6-8, 196-pound forward, earned All-State honors (Texas) as a senior and chose Navy over Air Force and several Ivy League schools. Fenske is a strong perimeter player as well as a force inside. He connected on over 40 percent of his three-point attempts and averaged 22.0 ppg and 12.5 rpg per outing.

Stanton averaged 16.2 ppg, 8.3 rpg and 3.1 bpg as a high school senior at Friendswood High School (Texas). Stanton is another combo forward that can step out and hit the three-pointer. He was 6-3 as a sophomore in high school, but has since grown seven inches and has elevated his game. He received recruiting interest by Texas A&M and Rice and received offers from Colgate and Air Force.

The last big man is 6-7 T.J. Topercer. Topercer spent the last season at the New Hampton School (N.H.), where he helped guide the Huskies to a 24-10 record, one of the best marks in school history. He was named one of the top 125 fifth-year players in the country a year ago.

CLOSE CALLS

Twelve of Navy's 28 games last season were decided by single digits, including four by five points or fewer. The Mids were 5-7 in single-digit decisions last winter, including 2-4 in games played in the Patriot League.

SUCCESS AT THE STRIPE

Navy entered the Patriot League Tournament on pace for a school record in free throw percentage. However, an 8-for-19 performance against Holy Cross dropped the 2005-06 team into a tie for fourth on the all-time list (.722). Nevertheless, the total is the best for a Navy team since the 1984-85 team shot .726 from the free throw line.

The percentage was also good for 67th in the country and second behind Lafayette (.740) in the Patriot League.

Individually, Navy had two players rank in the top 100 of the NCAA as Greg Sprink (32nd) and Kaleo Kina (85th) were in the top 100. The duo ranked second and fourth respectively in the Patriot League.

The seven returnees managed to shoot .788 (278-353) from the free throw line, while the eight players that left after last year shot .633 (164-259).

NAVY OFFENSE CONTINUES TO PICK UP PACE

The Navy offense continues its improvement under head coach Billy Lange, averaging 67.8 ppg in all games played in 2005-06. The total led the Patriot League in all games played.

However, in league play, the Mids averaged just 63.4 ppg, ranking sixth in the conference. Navy reached 70 points just five times in the last 16 games. Prior to its scoring drought, Navy topped 70 points in nine-consecutive games, beginning with its 73 points at Penn on Dec. 2.

THE 70'S GAME

Over the last five years, Navy has scored 70-plus points just 50 times in 142 games (.352). In the last four seasons, the Mids have scored 70 points just 35 times in 113 games (.310). In 2004-05, the Mids reached 70 points in 13 of the 28 contests. Navy scored 70-plus points in 14 of the 28 games in 2005-06.

SPRINK LEFT OFF ALL-LEAGUE LIST

Junior guard Greg Sprink was left off the All-Patriot League team despite possessing one of the most well-rounded games in the league.

- He scored in double figures in 23 of Navy's 28 games, including a pair of 30-plus point games at Brown (12-22-05) and against The Citadel (12-31-05).

- Scored 20-plus points seven times last season, including four times in league action.

- Averaged 14.9 points per game, the highest by a Navy player since three-time First-Team All-Patriot League swing man Chris Williams averaged 17.9 points as a senior in 2000-01.

The total was the highest for a Navy

since Eddie Redick averaged

15.1 ppg in the 1988-89

and the ninth best by a sophomore in school history.

- He was the league's third-leading scorer in all games played.

- In Patriot League play, he was fourth in scoring, as he averaged 15.5 points.

- He was one of only four players (Mike Heary did it twice) in program history to score 200 or more points during the Patriot League slate. He finished league play by scoring 217 points, just 12 shy of the school record set by Heary (229 pts.) in 1996-97.

- In conference action, Sprink was ranked among the top 15 in free throw percentage (3rd), three-point field goals made per game (T3rd), scoring (4th) and rebounding (14th).

SPRINK PUTS THE SPRING BACK IN HIS JUMPER

Junior Greg Sprink scored 30-plus points twice last season — 34 at Brown (12-22-05) and 31 against The Citadel (12-31-05). The following are a few facts about Sprink's record-setting performances.

- Sprink is the first Navy player to score 30-plus points twice in a season since Mike Heary scored 31 against Harvard on Jan. 2, 1997, and 38 against Holy Cross on Jan. 29, 1997.

- He is one of only nine players in school history to score 30 points multiple times in their career.

- Sprink is Navy's first 30-point scorer since Scott Long dumped in 31 against Eastern Michigan on Dec. 28, 2002.

- The 34 points are the most by a Navy player since All-Patriot League guard Mike Heary turned in 38 against league foe Holy Cross on Jan. 29, 1997.

- Sprink tied the school record for three-pointers (9 vs. Brown) set by Michael Burd 15 years ago (11-26-90) against Mount St. Mary's.

- The performance against Brown set school records for points in a half (31; 2nd half) and points for a player coming off the bench (34).

ANOTHER 30-POINT NOTE

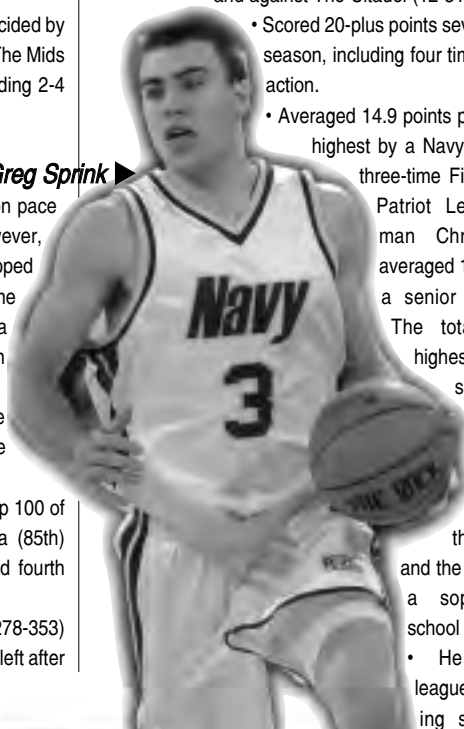

Since David Robinson's senior year ('87), Navy has had just three seasons in which there have been two 30-point efforts — 1996-97 (Mike Heary - 31 vs. Harvard, Mike Heary - 38 vs. Holy Cross); 2002-03 (Kyle Barker - 31 vs. Davidson, Scott Long - 31 vs. Eastern Michigan); 2005-06 (Greg Sprink - 34 at Brown, Greg Sprink - 31 vs. The Citadel).

400 POINTS AND COUNTING

Junior guard Greg Sprink joined an elite club at the Academy by scoring his 400th point of the season on Feb. 25, 2006, against Colgate. In 99 years of basketball at the Academy, he is just the 18th different player to score 400-plus points in a season. Several players have achieved this feat multiple times in their careers, including David Robinson, Vernon Butler and John Clune who did it three times each. Sprink finished 2005-06 with 416 points, the 27th most in a single season in school history.

The following is a list of Navy's 400-point scorers listed chronologically — 1951-52 John Clune (487), 1952-53 John Clune (440), Don Lange (467), 1953-54 John Clune (634), Don Lange (542), 1967-68 John Tolmie (461), 1968-69 John Tolmie (464), 1969-70 Jack Conrad (448), 1970-71 Jack Conrad (401), 1977-78 Hank Kuzma (443), Kevin Sinnett (453), 1978-79 Kevin Sinnett (483), 1982-83 Dave Brooks (492), 1983-84 Vernon Butler (469), Clif Maurer (407), Rob Romaine (437), 1984-85 Vernon Butler (590), David Robinson (756), Kylor Whitaker (435), 1985-86 Vernon Butler (557), David Robinson (796), Kylor Whitaker

NO TIME TO BE A FRESHMAN

The Class of '09 averaged 27.5 points per game in 2005-06, which was .407 percent of the Mids' offense. The rookies combined to score 30 or more points 10 times this season, including a season-best 46 points in Navy's 106-80 victory over Washington (Md.).

The 27.5 per game scoring average set a school record for a freshman class, surpassing the 1992 class that averaged 24.5 ppg.

The 2005 class of Sprink, Johnson and Biles ranked fifth (20.0 ppg).

NONCONFERENCE SUCCESS

Navy, who rounded out last year's nonconference slate on Jan. 17, 2006, with a 71-65 victory over Longwood, owned a 7-6 record (.538) against non-Patriot League foes. It's the first time since the 2000-01 season that Navy has recorded a .500 record in nonconference action. In 2000-01, the Mids finished 8-8, while in 1999-00, Navy produced a 10-4 record against non-league competition.

ALUMNI HALL: HOME OF THE MIDSHIPMEN

The Mids have traditionally been known as a strong home court team. Navy was 15-2 at Alumni Hall during the 2000-01 campaign, winning 15 in a row while boasting a 6-0 league mark at home. But recently Navy has struggled to defend its home court. The 2004-05 season marked the first time since the 2000-01 season (5-1) that Navy secured a winning home record in Patriot League action, posting a 5-2 record.

Since opening its doors for the 1991-92 season, Navy has produced a 131-74 (.639) record in Alumni Hall. Against Patriot League foes, the Mids are 58-37 (.610).

ON THE ROAD IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Having won just 11 of its last 53 road games (2001-02 to the present), it's no shock that Navy owns a 7-29 (.194) road record in Patriot League action during that same period.

Prior to Navy's Star Game win over Army on Feb. 5, the Mids had not won a Patriot League game away from Annapolis since their 76-75 victory over Lehigh in February of 2005. The last time the Midshipmen owned a winning Patriot League road record was in 2000-01 when Navy claimed a 4-2 record en route to finishing 9-3 in the league.

ROAD WOES

Over the last seven years, the Mids have posted a 26-65 (.286) record on the road, versus a 57-45 (.559) mark in games played at Alumni Hall. Over the last five seasons, Navy has won just 11 of its 53 road games (.208). However, last year's three road wins equaled the most for a Navy team since the 2000-01 season. The 2004-05 team also won three road games.

| YEAR | HOME | ROAD | NEUTRAL |
