NAVY RETURNS TO THE ROAD FOR PAIR OF IVY LEAGUE SHOWDOWNS

Fresh off its 106-80 victory over Washington (Md.) Sunday afternoon, Navy will play its second and third games in five days when it travels to New Haven, Conn. Tuesday to face Yale (7:00 pm) and battles Brown Thursday at 6:00 pm. Both games will be carried live on 1430 WNAV with Pete Medhurst calling the action.

NAVY-WASHINGTON (MD.) HIGHLIGHTS

☆ Navy shot a season-best 54.0 (34-63) percent from the field en route to a 26-point win over Washington (Md.).

☆ It's the first time Navy has tripped the century mark since defeating Lehigh, 100-75, on Jan. 29, 2000 ... it's the most points by the Mids since their 109-73 triumph over Lehigh on Feb. 8, 1997.

☆ Six players turned in double-digit scoring efforts, including freshman Kaleo Kina who registered a career-high 19 points, while dealing out a career-best eight assists.

☆ The last time six Navy players scored in double digits in one game was on Jan. 27, 2001 when Jason Jeanpierre (15), Chris Williams (14), Robert Reeder (12), Kyle Barker (12), Demond Shepard (9) and John Williams (10) combined to score 73 of the Mids' 81 points in an 81-70 win over Colgate in Annapolis.

☆ Senior David Hooper had another strong performance, turning in his second-career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.

THREE IN A ROW, CAN THEY MAKE IT FOUR?

Navy owns a three-game winning streak for the first time since the 2001-02 campaign, in which the Mids put together two streaks of three wins each. The Midshipmen haven't won four-straight games since the 2000-01 season, accomplishing that feat three times. The last time Navy won four in a row was Feb. 21 through March 4 of 2001 when the Mids had their streak snapped at Holy Cross (68-64 OT) in the Patriot League Championship game.

ROAD WOES

Over the last six years, the Mids have posted a 24-57 (.296) record on the road, versus a 51-40 (.560) mark in games played at Alumni Hall. Over the last five seasons, Navy has won just nine of its 53 road games (.170).

NAVY-YALE SERIES

Navy and Yale meet for the 20th time, however, it's the first time since the 1988-89 campaign. The Midshipmen own a 14-5 advantage and have won four straight, including the last meeting in which Navy claimed an 80-75 victory over the Bulldogs in New Haven.

Yale's last win in the series was Jan. 19, 1980, beating the Mids by a bucket (60-58) in Annapolis. The only game in the series in which the Bulldogs have won on their home court was on Feb. 12, 1949, defeating Navy, 64-47.

NAVY VS. THE IVY LEAGUE

Navy has played all eight of the schools that make up the Ivy league and owns an 87-114 (.433) record against the conference members. The Mids have faced Penn the most, as the Quakers own a 55-22 advantage over Navy, including an 86-73 victory over the Mids earlier this month.

While the Mids have played every Ivy League school, it's been 51 years since Navy met Cornell, 28 years since the Mids faced Princeton and 17 years since Navy and Yale battled. Navy has played Brown, Columbia, Harvard and Penn in the last six years.

Navy's last win over an Ivy League team was in 2001 when the Mids scorched Harvard, 93-60, in Annapolis.

Opponent	Navy vs.	Last Mgt.

ABOUT YALE

- Yale enters Tuesday's contest with a 4-4 record, playing three of its eight games at home.
- The Bulldogs beat Louisiana Tech (69-68), Longwood (70-67) and Sacred Heart (72-67) by a combined nine points ... they blew out Hampton, 71-52, last Sunday.
- Yale has played two games against future Navy opponents ... it defeated Longwood, 70-67, on Nov. 20, and lost to Bucknell on the road, 87-60, on Nov. 26.
- Like Navy, Yale is in the midst of three games in five days ... the Bulldogs defeated Hampton (71-52) Sunday, play host to the Mids on Tuesday and travel to Providence on Thursday.
- Senior center Dominick Martin became eligible to play on Sunday against Hampton after sitting out the 2002-03 campaign because he transferred from Princeton.
- Yale was picked to finish fifth in the league behind Penn, Harvard, Princeton and Cornell.

ABOUT BROWN

- Brown currently owns a 2-5 record, but will play host to Maryland-Eastern Shore Tuesday (7:00 pm) before the Mids come to town on Thursday ... the Bears have not played a game since its 71-61 victory over Binghamton on Dec. 10.

- The Bears have played just one home game this season, a 72-59 loss to Wagner on Nov. 30 ... Tuesday's game against Maryland-Eastern Shore will be just its second and the first in the month of December.

- Brown has played one game against a future Navy opponent ... the Bears dropped a 64-41 decision at Holy Cross on Dec. 7.

- Brown has made (101) more free throws than its opponents have attempted (83) ... the Bears are shooting 70.1 percent from the charity stripe.

- Averaging just 56.6 points per game, Brown has topped 60 points in three of its seven games ... two of the three (Hartford and Binghamton) resulted in wins.

- Brown has played solid defense, giving up 70-plus points just once this season in a 72-59 loss to Wagner.

- Senior swing man Luke Ruscoe is fifth on Brown's career steals list with 128 ... he needs three to tie Chuck Savage (1988-92) in fourth.

- Brown is celebrating its 100th year of basketball ... Navy is in its 99th year.

CRASH THE BOARDS

Last season Navy was one of the top rebounding teams in the country, owning a +5.1 rebound margin and a No. 32 national rank. The Mids also paced the league with its 41.1 rebounds per game.

Despite losing two of its top four rebounders to graduation, Navy is right back at the top of the charts. The Mids lead the league, averaging 40.1 boards per game and their +9.5 rebound margin is also atop the league.

NATIONAL STATISTICS

The Mids are ranked among the top 100 (of 326 Div. I teams) in three statistical categories according to the last report on Dec. 13. Navy was 24th in rebound margin, outboarding its opponents by 8.3 thanks to a 27-rebound advantage over Morgan State Dec. 8. Navy has stretched that margin to +9.5 after its 47-30 rebound advantage Sunday against Washington (Md.). The Mids were No. 73 in three-point field goal percentage, shooting 38.0 (38 of 100) percent and kept that percentage after knocking down eight of its 21 triples against the Shoremen. Navy was also 98th in free throw percentage, making 71.1 percent of its attempts, but have improved to 72.5 (121 of 167) percent after shooting 76.9 from the charity stripe against Washington (Md.).

According to last week's report, sophomore guard Greg Sprink was second in the league and 11th nationally in free throw percentage, shooting 95.2 percent. Making all six free throws against Washington (Md.), Sprink is now shooting 96.3 percent, sinking 26 of his 27 tosses this winter.

SPECIAL K

Freshman guard Kaleo Kina is tied with Greg Sprink as Navy's leading scorer (9.9 pg), while also pacing the team in assists (3.7 apg). He currently leads the Patriot League in three-point field goal percentage, knocking down 48.0 (12 of 25) percent of his triples. In the Mids' nine-point loss to Academy rival Air Force (11/27), Kina led Navy in scoring (14), rebounding (5) and assists (4) in his first-collegiate start. In Navy's win over Washington (Md.) on Sunday, Kina topped the team in scoring (19, career high) and assists (8, career high), while adding a pair of steals and five boards.

NAVY'S 100-POINT GAMES

Navy has scored 100 or more points 28 times in its 99-year history. The Mids turned in 106 points against Washington (Md.) on Sunday, the first time it has turned the century mark since defeating Lehigh, 100-75, on Jan. 29, 2000. It's the most points by the Midshipmen since their 109-point outburst over Lehigh on Feb. 8, 1997.

THE 70'S GAME

Over the last five years, Navy has scored 70-plus points just 40 times in 121 games (.331). In the last four seasons, the Mids have scored 70 points just 25 times in 91 games (.275). In 2003-04, Navy scored 70-plus points just four times, while last season, the Mids topped 70 points in 13 of the 28 contests. Navy has scored 70-plus points in four of the seven games this season, including the last four.

PROTECT THE BALL

Navy turned the ball over a season-high 30 times against Howard (12/5), the most TOs by the Mids since their 72-67 loss to Lehigh (1/15/05) where Navy committed 25 turnovers.

Navy has turned the ball over 40 more times (147-107) than its opponents this season and owns 58 more turnovers than assists. In turn, the Mids have been outscored 116-95 in points off turnovers. Each of the Mids' opponents have turned in double-figure points off turnovers, including a season-high 29 points by Penn (12/2).

NAVY FOR THREE

Navy is leading the Patriot League in three-point shooting, connecting on 38.0 percent (46 for 121) of its triples. The Mids, meanwhile, have done a nice job defending the three, holding their foes to 28.7 percent shooting (37 for 129) from behind the arc. Navy is ranked No. 2 in the league in three-point field goal percent defense.

Twenty four of Navy's 46 three-pointers have been made by freshmen, including a team-best 12 by Kaleo Kina, who leads the league in three-point field goal percentage (.480). Teammate David Hooper owns the league's second-best percentage, hitting 47.6 (10 of 21) percent of his triples.

HOOPER FROM LONG RANGE

Senior guard David Hooper hit at least one three-pointer in 23 of the 28 games last season, and has made a triple in 58 of the 82 games (.707) during his career.

After connecting on two of four triples Sunday against Washington (Md.), Hooper is now tied with Erik Harris for fifth on the Mids' all-time three-point field goals list with 123. He trails fourth-place Joe Gottschalk by 13, while he is 78 away from Michael Heary's school-record of 201. He is one of only seven players in Academy history to make 100-career three-pointers. He accomplished this feat when he connected on a triple against Army in last year's Star Game.

MORE ON HOOPER

After opening the season with two scoreless contests, senior guard David Hooper has scored 55 points in the last five games, an average of 11.0 points per game during that stretch. He has turned in double-figure scoring in four of the last five games, including a season-high 16 points in the Mids' win at Morgan State (12/8). Also during that stretch, Hooper has connected on 10-of-21 three-pointers (.476). His rebound numbers have also been strong, collecting 4.1 boards per game this season, which featured 10 against Washington (Md.) Sunday afternoon. With 10 boards and 13 points against the Shoremen, it marked just the second time in his career he has turned in a double-double (Gettysburg in '03).

COLBERT PICKS UP THE SLACK

Freshman Clif Colbert played a combined 13 minutes in the first three games of the season which featured just a field goal. Since taking over the starting job Dec. 2 at Penn, the first-year player has averaged better than 30 minutes per game, while scoring 14.0 points and grabbing 4.0 rebounds per game. He scored in double digits in each of his first-three starts and is the only Navy player to break the 20-point barrier this season, notching a career-high 22 at Penn in his first-collegiate start.

FRESHMEN MAKE A STATEMENT

Head coach Billy Lange has wasted little time in getting his freshmen playing time. The Class of '09 has produced 204 points, 41.2 percent of the Mids' offense, and is averaging 29.1 points per game.

After scoring 39 of the Mids' 76 points at Penn (12/2), the rookies have continued to get better. In Navy's 106-80 win over Washington (Md.) on Sunday, the freshmen scored a season-best 46 points.

Four of the five freshmen have made starts this season, including Clif Colbert, Kaleo Kina and Adam Teague who have been in the starting lineup in each of the last four contests.

SPRINK RETURNS TO FORM

2005 Patriot League All-Rookie Team member Greg Sprink came to life at Penn (12/2) after struggling against UALR (11/22) and Air Force (11/27) where he scored a combined three points. In the last four games, Sprink has averaged 13.0 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game.

POUNDING THE PAINT

Navy pounded the ball inside in its 106-80 win over Washington (Md.) Sunday where it outscored the Shoremen, 44-20, in the paint. Starting forwards Matt Fannin and Adam Teague contributed 16 and 10 points, respectively, while junior Carlton Baldwin came off the bench to add a season-best 14 points.

QUICK RECOVERY

Junior forward Carlton Baldwin made a quick recovery after breaking his right ankle the weekend of Sept. 24-25. The two-year letterwinner had surgery on Sept. 26 and was expected to be out two months. He returned to practice on Nov. 3, roughly six weeks after his surgery and was in the starting lineup in the Mids' season opener.

It's the second-straight year in which Baldwin has suffered a preseason injury. In September of 2004, he fractured a toe in his left foot and was so severe, the doctors estimated three to six months of recovery time. Baldwin missed just the first-three games of the season.

JOHNSON HAS SURGERY TO REPAIR KNEE

Navy starting guard Corey Johnson tore the meniscus in his left knee in the Mids' loss against Academy rival Air Force Nov. 27. After sitting out two games, Navy's leading scorer underwent surgery on Dec. 6 to repair the tear. It is uncertain as to when or if Johnson will return this season.

LANGE'S 50TH WIN

Second-year Navy head coach Billy Lange claimed his 50th-collegiate win on Dec. 8, leading the Midshipmen to a 73-47 win over Morgan State. Lange owns a four-year coaching record of 51-52, posting a 39-19 record in two seasons at the Merchant Marine Academy and a two-year 12-23 mark at Navy.

SKED IS TOUGH TASK FOR MIDS

Navy has opened the 2005-06 with one of the tougher schedules in recent memory. Here are a few facts you should know about Navy's first four opponents — Georgetown, UALR, Air Force, Penn. ☆ The four teams own a combined 22-10 (.688) record this season, including Air Force with a 9-1 (.900) mark ... last year, the four teams produced a 75-44 (.630) mark.

☆ Last season, Georgetown earned an NIT berth and lost to eventual NIT winner South Carolina in the quarterfinals by three ... the Hoyas returned all five starters from that team, including Big East Rookie of the Year Jeff Green and All-East selection Brandon Bowman.

☆ UALR has won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference East Division titles ... Navy went on the road to play the Trojans where under Steve Shields, UALR owned a 25-3 record at home and last year posted a 13-1 home record ... the Trojans lost to 14th-ranked Michigan State by five Dec. 3. ☆ Air Force has turned its program around, reaching double digit wins in the last three seasons, including a 22-7 season in 2003-04 in which the Falcons reached the NCAA Tournament ... last season's team turned in an 18-12 record and finished third in the Mountain West.

☆ Penn has won the Ivy League title five times in the last seven years, including two of the last three ... in the last four years, the Quakers have reached 20-plus wins three times and in 2003-04, Penn posted 17 wins.

ALUMNI HALL: HOME OF THE MIDSHIPMEN

The Mids have traditionally been known as a strong home court team. Navy was 15-2 at Alumni Hall during the 2000-01 campaign, winning 15 in a row while boasting a 6-0 league mark at home. But recently Navy has struggled to defend its home court. Last season marked the first time since the 2000-01 season (5-1), in which Navy secured a winning home record in Patriot League action, posting a 4-3 record.

Since opening its doors for the 1991-92 season, Navy has produced a 125-69 (.644) record in Alumni Hall. Against Patriot League foes, the Mids are 55-33 (.625).

THE NATION'S FUTURE LEADERS

Three of Navy's four seniors recently received their service assignments for which they will fulfill upon graduation. Kelvin Boatner and David Hooper will pursue careers as surface warfare officers aboard a ship and team captain Matt Fannin will serve as a naval flight officer, the backseater in an aircraft. Leonard Green is still awaiting his assignment.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

Navy's 15 varsity players represent 12 different states — Arizona, California (2), Colorado, Indiana (2), Kansas, Maryland, North Carolina (2), Ohio, Oregon, Texas, Virginia and Washington.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Second-year head coach Billy Lange is one of the youngest Div. I men's basketball coaches in the country. Former Indiana University standout and first-year IPFW mentor Dane Fife is the youngest coach at 26 years old. Lange is the sixth-youngest coach among 326 Div. I programs. The oldest you ask? Temple's John Chaney is 73 years old and will turn 74 on Jan. 21.

COLBERT EARNS PATRIOT LEAGUE HONOR

Rookie Clif Colbert was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Week Dec. 12 after averaging 14.0 points and 4.0 rebounds per game and leading the Midshipmen to wins over Howard (12/5) and Morgan State (12/8).

Colbert was asked to take over the starting point guard position Dec. 2 after Corey Johnson suffered a knee injury against Air Force (11/27). Colbert led the Mids to their first victory of the season, an 82-73 win over Howard, at the BB&T Classic where he paced the Mids with 16 points and grabbed a career-high three steals. Three days later, Colbert dumped in 12 points and pulled down five boards in Navy's 26-point road victory over Morgan State.

OVERCOMING DEFICITS

The Mids overcame a nine-point halftime deficit in their win over Howard by opening the second half on a 16-0 run. It's the largest halftime deficit Navy has overcome since March 1, 2003, when the Mids trailed Army, 28-19, at the half before claiming the N-Star with a 62-56 win.

JOHNSON MAKES THE MARK

Second-year guard Corey Johnson eclipsed the 300-point plateau in Navy's loss to Air Force (11/27) after he, along with rookie teammate Kaleo Kina, led the Mids with 14 points apiece. Johnson led Navy in scoring (tied for lead in two games) in each of the first three games this season and is the only Mid to average double digits in the scoring column (14.7 ppg). He owns Navy's longest current consecutive games scored streak, producing points in 31-straight games.

Johnson also reached 60 steals for his career in the loss to the Falcons, swiping a team-best three passes. The two-year starter needs five assists to reach the century mark.

NAVY PICKED SIXTH IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

After finishing last season tied with Lafayette for sixth place, the Patriot League's coaches and sports information directors have picked Navy to finish sixth according to the 2005-06 Preseason Patriot League Men's Basketball Poll.

Behind the play of Patriot League preseason all-league pick Charles Lee and Preseason Player of the Year Chris McNaughton, Bucknell picked up 14 of the 16 first-place votes to pace the field, while Holy Cross, who won the regular-season title a year ago, accounted for the final two first-place votes and is picked to finish second.

ELITE EIGHT ANNIVERSARY

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the 1985-86 team's memorable run in the NCAA Tournament. Led by All-American David Robinson, the Mids disposed of Tulsa, Syracuse and Cleveland State before dropping a 71-50 decision to top-ranked Duke in the Elite Eight. Navy will welcome back the 1985-86 Elite Eight team on Jan. 7 to recognize their accomplishments.

NAVY TO NAME BASKETBALL COURT IN HONOR OF DAVE SMALLEY

Navy will name its basketball court at Alumni Hall after Dave Smalley, who has been associated with the Academy as a player, coach, physical education professor and administrator for more than 50 years. The official dedication ceremony will be held on Saturday, Jan. 7, when the Navy men's and women's teams play host to Patriot League rival Bucknell.

A 1957 graduate of the Naval Academy, Smalley won a combined six letters in basketball and baseball, while earning four N-Stars against arch rival Army. He is one of only four midshipmen in the 99-year history of Navy men's basketball to serve as team captain for two consecutive years. He was the Mids' top scorer during his sophomore and senior campaigns, while leading the team in free throw percentage as a junior and senior. He was also selected to play in the East-West All-Star Game in Kansas City his senior year.

Smalley scored 856 points during his three-year varsity career and twice won the Charles Evans McDonough Memorial Basketball Cup, awarded annually "to the member of the basketball squad deemed to have been the outstanding team player during the season."

Smalley was also a standout outfielder for the Navy baseball team. He won the Blair Bat, symbolic of the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League batting title, during his junior season with a league average of .419. He also led the league in RBIs with 12. In overall games that season, he led the squad in hits (30), homers (3), RBIs (25) and batting average (.448).

Smalley won the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword in 1957 as the midshipman of the graduating class who was considered "to have personally excelled in athletics during his years of varsity competition."

A native of Baltimore, Md., Smalley served five years in the United States Marine Corps, where he was named to the All-Marine Basketball Team four years.

In 1962, Smalley returned to the Academy as an assistant coach with the men's basketball team and as a member of the Physical Education Department. In 1966, Smalley succeeded Ben Carnevale as head coach of the Navy basketball team. Under his 10-year direction, Navy produced a 94-130 record and his Midshipmen teams were ranked among the top 10 in the country in team defense in three of his last six seasons.

In 1976, Smalley left his post as the men's coach and later that year was asked to lay the groundwork for a women's basketball program. His first season leading the women, competing at the junior varsity level, he led the Mids to a 10-1 record and won the Maryland AIAW state championship for small colleges. The program achieved varsity status in 1977, and he guided the Midshipmen to a 12-year combined record of 179-119 that featured 10 winning seasons. Smalley's teams recorded back-to-back 18-win seasons in 1981-82 and 1982-83, and the 1986-87 team finished 18-8 and captured the ECAC South Division II Championship.

Smalley held the title of Assistant Director of Athletics in charge of admissions since 1979 and was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Admissions, Academics and Compliance in 2001. In that capacity, Smalley handles the admissions process for recruited athletes in each of Navy's 30 varsity sports. Smalley and his staff also monitor the academic progress of Navy's 1500 student-athletes.

ROUGH STARTS

For just the third time in its 99-year history, Navy started its season 0-4. It's the third time in the last 14 seasons in which the Mids have gotten off to an 0-4 start.

✧ In Don DeVoe's first season as head coach (1992-93), the Mids lost their first five games before edging out Eastern Washington, 57-56, in a neutral site contest.

✧ In DeVoe's final season (2003-04), the Mids fell to 0-5 before squeaking out a 61-60 win over Gettysburg.

NAVY IN SEASON OPENERS

Navy is now 74-25 (.747) in season openers after a 72-49 loss to Georgetown last Friday in Annapolis.

Navy has won just two of its last nine and four of its last 11 season openers. In the last 11 years, Navy has opened at home just five times, including three times in the last eight years. Navy owns a 4-1 record in openers played in Annapolis over the last 11 seasons.

NAVY HEAD COACH BILLY LANGE

The 2004-05 campaign was the beginning of a new era for Navy basketball with first-year head coach Billy Lange at the helm. One that preached a commitment and the restoration of a tradition that has bled Blue and Gold for years.

With the new outlook came a new style of play, a new attitude — an aggressive, fast-paced, in-your-face, sense of panic which was welcomed not only by the team, but by Navy's faithful fans.

2004-05 NAVY HIGHLIGHTS

☆ Finished 9-19, winning four more games than in 2003-04 ... Navy's five conference wins were the most since the 2001-02 team owned a 5-9 league record.

☆ Won five of their last 10 games, including a 66-62 victory over Patriot League Tournament champion Bucknell, who defeated Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

☆ Finished 2004-05 ranked among the country's top 50 in rebound margin (32nd, +5.1) and steals (34th, 8.9 spg).

☆ Finished the 2004-05 campaign ranked No. 1 in the Patriot League in four statistical categories (overall games) — scoring offense, rebounding offense (41.1), offensive rebounds (16.11) and rebounding margin (+5.1).

☆ Displayed a +13.5 scoring gain over the previous season, while averaging just under six rebounds a game more than the 2003-04 campaign.

☆ In league games, paced the conference in rebounding offense (42.4) and offensive rebounds (17.14).

☆ Finished the season by setting three school records for Patriot League action — three-point field goals made (99), three-point field goals attempted (297) and rebounds (593).

☆ Helped mold Corey Johnson and Greg Sprink into Patriot League All-Rookie Team members ... the duo made Academy history as Johnson and Sprink became the first tandem to score 200 points each in their plebe season.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

☆ Part of a staff which led Villanova to three-straight appearances in the National Invitational Tournament, including the quarterfinals in 2004.

☆ Led the Merchant Marine Academy to two Skyline Conference crowns and a berth in the 2001 NCAA Division III Sweet 16.

☆ Named the New York Metropolitan Basketball Writers Division III Coach of the Year in 2001.

☆ In his first and only season as the head coach at Bishop Eustace, taking over for his father, Bill Sr., who was in a life-threatening accident just one week into the season, Lange led the team to a 20-6 record and an appearance in the state New Jersey State Championship game.

GAME 1 ☆ GEORGETOWN 72, NAVY 49 ☆ NOV. 18, 2005 ☆ ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Navy opened the season at home for the first time since the 2002-03 campaign when the Mids defeated UCF, 68-56 ... the Georgetown-Navy matchup renewed what was a fantastic rivalry ... the two teams played one another 53 times before the series was halted in 1978 ... the last time Navy played a Big East foe was Pitt in 1997 ... all six of Navy's freshmen played against the Hoyas, with four of the six scoring ... freshman Kaleo Kina led the Mids in assists with three ... senior Matt Fannin had a solid defensive showing, leading Navy in rebounds (8), steals (4) and blocks (tied with 2) ... sophomores Corey Johnson and Greg Sprink combined to score 28 of the Mids' 49 points.

GAME 2 ☆ UALR 61, NAVY 57 ☆ NOV. 22, 2005 ☆ LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

Naval Academy graduate Jack Stephens donated the money to build the home of the UALR Trojans, the Jack Stephens Center ... the Navy-UALR contest was the first men's basketball regular-season game contested at the arena at the request of the late Mr. Stephens ... despite outrebounding the Trojans by 10 and shooting a solid 76.2 percent from the charity stripe, the Mids dropped to 2-0 ... midway through the first half, head coach Billy Lange put five freshmen on the court together ... Navy's freshman class scored 30 points, while the freshman and sophomore class combined to score 49 of the 57 points ... freshman Kaleo Kina scored a then career-high 10 points, while fellow rookie Adam Teague grabbed a team-high tying eight rebounds ... the Mids turned the ball over 24 times and committed 26 fouls.

GAME 3 ☆ AIR FORCE 64, NAVY 55 ☆ NOV. 27, 2005 ☆ ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Air Force led from the opening basket and the game was tied just once (7-7) ... the Falcons pushed the lead up to 12 on four occasions, all in the second half ... Air Force shot 78.9 percent in the second half, missing just four of its 19 shots ... the Mids shot 51.9 percent in the second half ... Navy significantly cut down on its errors, turning the ball over a season-low 14 times ... Navy freshman Kaleo Kina turned in 14 points, and was the leader (tied) in scoring, rebounding (5) and assists (4) ... sophomore guard Corey Johnson turned in his third-consecutive double-digit scoring effort with 14 points ... Air Force's John Frye turned in a career-high 26 points after having scored a combined 19 points in five games coming into the Navy contest.

GAME 4 ☆ PENN 86, NAVY 73 ☆ DEC. 2, 2005 ☆ PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Navy and Penn rekindled their rivalry after a 13-year drought from playing one another with the Quakers pulling out an 86-73 win ... the two teams battled in Philly the night before the annual Army-Navy football contest ... second-year Navy assistant coach is a Penn grad and served as an assistant coach for the Quakers for two seasons (2001-02) ... freshman Clif Colbert replaced an injured Corey Johnson in the lineup as the Mids' point guard, only to produce a career-high 22 points ... Colbert knocked down 8 of his 12 shots and was 6 for 9 from the free throw line ... junior Carlton Baldwin turned in his first double-figure scoring game of the season, pouring in 12 points without missing a field goal ... sophomore guard Greg Sprink paced the Mids with a season-best nine boards, while adding 12 points, two assists and two steals ... Penn, meanwhile, shot a blistering 55 free throws, connecting on 39 ... the Quakers outscored the Mids, 39-14, from the charity stripe ... the Mids owned a 39-37 advantage at the half, their first lead at the half this season.

GAME 5 ☆ NAVY 82, HOWARD 73 ☆ DEC. 5, 2005 ☆ WASHINGTON, D.C. ☆ BB&T CLASSIC

Navy rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to claim its first win of the season in the opening game of a tripleheader played at the MCI Center ... the Mids opened the second half on a 16-0 run which featured four three-pointers, including two by rookie Kaleo Kina ... Navy shot 55.2 percent in the second, including 66.7 percent from three-point range, while holding Howard to 31 percent in the second stanza ... while the Mids outrebounded the Bison by 12 (43-31), Navy turned the ball over a season-high 30 times ... rookie Clif Colbert led the Mids in scoring for the second-straight game with 16, while Greg Sprink and David Hooper turned in 12 points apiece.

GAME 6 ☆ NAVY 73, MORGAN STATE 47 ☆ DEC. 8, 2005 ☆ BALTIMORE, MD.

It took Navy nearly five minutes to score, but once they put a bucket on the scoreboard, the Mids went on an 18-2 run between 15:23 and 7:35 in the opening half ... once Navy gained the lead, the closest the Bears would get was seven (26-19) with three minutes remaining in the opening half ... it was Navy's largest margin of victory since beating Washington College by 29 (95-66) on Dec. 18, 2003 ... Navy owned a blistering 20-7 advantage in second-chance points ... that might have been a result of Navy's commanding 20-8 edge on the offensive boards ... senior David Hooper came off the bench to lead the Mids with 16 points, which featured four three-pointers ... fellow senior Leonard Green was tough on the boards, grabbing a season-best nine

GAME 7 ☆ NAVY 106, WASHINGTON (MD.) 80 ☆ DEC. 18, 2005 ☆ ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Navy shot a season-best 54.0 (34-63) percent from the field en route to a 26-point win over Washington (Md.) ... it's the first time Navy has tripped the century mark since defeating Lehigh, 100-75, on Jan. 29, 2000 ... it's the most points by the Midshipmen since their 109-73 triumph over Lehigh on Feb. 8, 1997 ... six players turned in double-digit scoring efforts, including freshman Kaleo Kina who registered a career-high 19 points, while dealing out a career-best eight assists ... the last time six Navy players scored in double digits in one game was on Jan. 27, 2001 when Jason Jeanpierre (15), Chris Williams (14), Robert Reeder (12), Kyle Barker (12), Demond Shepard (10) and John Williams (10) combined to score 73 of Navy's 81 points in an 81-70 win over Colgate in Annapolis ... senior David Hooper had another strong performance, turning in his second-career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.
