Navy Head Coach

- ◆ Now in his 34th year at Navy, is the longest-serving head coach in the 136-year history of the program.
- ◆ His Navy teams have compiled a 185-81-1 record. His overall 39-year record is 225-82-1.
- ◆ Since returning to the Intercollegiate Rowing Association National Championship in 1980, Navy has won seven Jim Ten Eyck Trophies (the second-highest total of any school during this time), three Varsity Challenge Cup titles for varsity eights (tied for second) and five Kennedy Trophy Cups for second varsity eights (tied for first). Navy boats have totaled 28 gold medals at the IRA meet during this time.
- ◆ Over the last five seasons, Navy is tied for fifth place for the average placement of its first varsity crew at the IRA regatta. Navy's second varsity crew has averaged a fifth-place finish at the IRA's over the last 27 years.
- ◆ Since 1980, 28 Navy oarsmen have successfully rowed their way onto U.S. National Teams for world-level meets including the Olympics, the Pan American Games and the World University Games.

International Experience

- ◆ Has served as the head coach of the U.S. teams at Pan American Games in 1975 and '83. Led the U.S. to a total of four gold medals.
- ◆ Coached a pair of U.S. small boats to the finals at the 1987 World University Games in Yugoslavia, the first year the U.S. competed at the event.

Assistant Coach at Washington

- ◆ Served as a coach for five years at his alma mater, Washington.
- ◆ His lightweight squads posted a 14-0 record in 1970 and '71, while his freshman heavyweight crews posted a combined 26-1 record over the next three seasons.
- ◆ His freshman and lightweight crews won five-straight Western Sprint Championship titles from 1969-73.

Previously Coached at Navy

- ◆ Upon graduating from Washington, served three and one-half years as a reserve officer in the Marine Corps. His final tour during this time was at Navy as the plebe crew coach and athletic recruiting coordinator.

Rowing Experience

- ◆ Won a pair of varsity letters while a student at Washington.
- ◆ Coxed the school's IRA winning junior varsity crew in 1964 and the '65 varsity boat that won the Western Sprints title and placed third at the IRA.
- ◆ Holds both a B.A. in physical education and an M.S. in physical education (with an emphasis in athletic administration) from Washington.

Mike Guerrieri
Assistant Coach
Third Season
UCLA '95

- ◆ His top freshman boat placed ninth at the 2007 Eastern Sprints.
- ◆ Served as the head coach at Hobart for three years prior to his arrival at Navy in the fall of 2006.
- ◆ His Hobart crews totaled three medals at the Intercollegiate Rowing Association National Championship and won titles at both the New York State Championship and the Head of the Charles Regatta.
- ◆ Received Liberty League Coach-of-the-Year accolades in each of his final two seasons.
- ◆ Began his coaching career in 1998 at Holy Spirit High School (Absecon, N.J.) before moving on to the collegiate level the following year as the coach of the Michigan freshman team.
- ◆ His freshman eight crews won Big Ten titles in 2001 and '02 and placed second at the '02 IRA Regatta.
- ◆ Guerrieri himself competed at the Junior World Championship in 1987 and '88 and at the '89 Henley Royal Regatta in England.
- ◆ Earned a bronze medal at the 1990 Intercollegiate National Rowing Championship as a member of the UCLA varsity eight crew.

2008 Spring Outlook

- ◆ Navy returns 10 of its 18 letterwinners from the 2007 season, including five of the nine members of the varsity crew that competed at the Eastern Sprints and IRA championship regattas.

Heavyweight Crew History

One of the oldest sports at the Naval Academy, the crew program began over 135 years ago when intramural crews raced in craft similar to whale boats.

A gale carried the Navy boathouse and equipment away in 1877 and it wasn't until 1892 that the sport resurfaced at the Academy under the leadership of future noted American author Winston Churchill. In 1893, Navy purchased its first eight-oared shell from contributions made by the Brigade of Midshipmen. A year later, a new boathouse was built and two new eights added.

Navy began to row against outside competition again in 1897, beating Pennsylvania in a three-length victory over a three-mile course.

The crews were given a new boathouse at the mouth of Dorsey Creek in 1899 at a site not far from the present Navy rowing facilities. For the next two decades, there was a buildup of intercollegiate competition that was broken by World War I. In 1907, Navy made its first appearance in the Poughkeepsie Regatta, today's IRA, finishing third.

For five years around the turn of the century, Navy had a new coach each year, including the well-known Jim Ten Eyck. Finally in 1904, some stability was infused when Richard A. Glendon took over and laid the groundwork for Navy's winning heritage.

When World War I ended in 1919, Glendon had more men out for the sport than he could seat in shells.

Thus, he was able to come up with his strongest eight, recording an undefeated season. A year later, Navy lost only to Syracuse but rebounded to defeat the Orangemen in the National Regatta in Worcester, Mass., thus earning the right to represent the United States in the 1920 Olympics in Belgium.

Navy rowed to the Olympic Gold Medal by driving past Great Britain in the final 500 meters. The Midshipmen who rowed in the boat were the toast of the Brigade and in 1921 and '22, Navy won the Poughkeepsie Regatta.

A year later, young Dick Glendon took over for his father as Navy crew coach and the Midshipmen responded with an undefeated season, but were second at Poughkeepsie to a Western crew, Washington. The younger Glendon directed Navy to another unbeaten season in 1925 and its third varsity championship in five years at Poughkeepsie. After the season, he departed for Columbia.

Navy crews for the next several years were thwarted in their endeavors, just missing wins in several key races, but winning at Poughkeepsie in 1931. In 1932, Buck Walsh stepped in as head coach and the Midshipmen once more were among the eastern powers, winning the IRA in 1938.

2008 NAVY CREW

The war years of the 1940s were lean for Navy crew and saw several opponents drop the sport and the cancellation of the Poughkeepsie Regatta for four years. There was one spark when in 1947, the Mids were the Poughkeepsie winners. In 1950, Walsh passed away, and the reins of Navy's crew program being handed to his close coaching associate, Russell "Rusty" Callow.

Callow became a popular figure at the Academy. After winning only one race in 1951, his varsity crew went unbeaten in 1952, '53 and '54. The 1952 eight was the U.S. Olympic crew and went on to claim a gold medal in Helsinki, Finland. During those three seasons, the Navy crews won 23 consecutive collegiate races (29 races overall) and three-straight IRA Varsity Eight Championships.

In 1960, Callow was succeeded by Louis Lindsay. His crew that year finished second at the IRA, but a week later reversed its placing and beat California to win the Olympic Trials and the right for a Naval Academy eight to once again represent the United States in the Olympics. Navy and the University of California are the only two rowing organizations to have been the U. S. eight-oared representative three times in the Olympic Games.

In the 1960s, Navy continued to vie for national honors under Paul Quinn, who had taken over from Lindsay. The Mids won the Eastern Sprints in 1961 and the Varsity Challenge Cup at the IRAs in 1965.

In 1969, Carl Ullrich became the mentor at The Boathouse. The man who later would become Assistant Director of Athletics at Navy, Director of Athletics at Army and Executive Director of the Patriot League, guided the Midshipmen to the Eastern Sprints title in 1971.

In 1974, one of Ullrich's former plebe coaches, Rick Clothier, returned to the Academy as head coach. Under Clothier, Navy has added another starry chapter to its crew history. The varsity eight has placed among the top-six crews at the IRA 15 times over the last two decades, winning the championship three times and placing second five times. Also in that time frame, the second varsity also won its event at the IRA five times and placed second three times. In addition, the Midshipmen have also won the Jim Ten Eyck Trophy for overall team performance at the IRA seven times in 26 years, while placing second eight times.

In fall competition, the Midshipmen have finished in the top five in the Championship Eight Event at the prestigious Head of the Charles Regatta in Boston in 13 of the past-26 seasons, including a string of four-consecutive championship titles in the 1980s. Navy has recorded the top collegiate finish in this race in 13 of the past-22 years. Navy has finished first or second in the Championship Eight event at Philadelphia's Head of the Schuylkill Regatta in 16 of the past-20 years, including eleven first-place finishes.

In addition, 28 Navy oarsmen since 1980 have been members of United States national teams representing their school and country in world-wide competitions, including the Olympic and Pan American games.
