Mids Look To Break Two-Game Losing Streak

Coming off back-to-back losses for just the third time in the last five years, Navy (1-2) will play host to the Duke Blue Devils (1-2) Saturday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium (34,000). Kick-off is scheduled for 1 p.m. with Verizon Wireless serving as the game day sponsor. Tickets are still available and can be purchased at www.navysports.com, by calling 1-800-US4-NAVY or on the day of the game at the stadium box office, located in the North end zone.

Saturday's game will be televised nationally by CSTV with Pete Medhurst and Scott Zolak calling the action.

Bob Socci, John Feinstein and Omar Nelson will call the game on the Navy Radio Network, which includes WBAL in Baltimore (1090 AM), WNAV in Annapolis (1430 AM), 3WT in Washington, DC (1500 AM), WFED in Northern Virginia (1050 AM), WTRI in Frederick (1520 AM), The Game in Virginia Beach, Va. (102.1 FM) and Hampton Roads, Va. (1490 AM) and Sirius Satellite Radio (Channel 130). The game will also be streamed live on Navy All-Access, as well as on the web sites of the various stations carrying the game. The pregame show will air at 4 p.m.

Pete Medhurst and Joe Miller will host the Navy Tailgate Show on 1430 WNAV starting at 11 a.m.

Saturday's fly-over will feature a Boeing E-6B Mercury from the "Shadows" of Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron 4 stationed at Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma City. Piloting the aircraft will be Lt. Melanie "Hero" Zimmerman, USNA Class of 2002 and Lt. Brian Baumgaertner. The Shadows continue to perform their Strategic Communications Mission all over the world and in the Middle East in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

Mistakes Cost Mids In Overtime Loss

Two costly fumbles, two blocked field goals and the defense's inability to get a key stop added up to a 34-31 loss Saturday night in front of 32,087 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The Mids rushed for 521 yards in the game, the third most in NCAA history for a losing team.

The game was a track meet from the start as neither team could slow down the other. The two teams combined for 1,124 yards of total offense in the game.

Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada

(Kapolei, Hawaii) had touchdown runs of one and 80 yards in the first half, but did not play in the second half thanks to two sprained ankles. Ball State quarterback Nate Davis threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Darius Hill and a 50-yard touchdown pass to Dante Love to go along with a five-yard touchdown run to give Ball State a 21-14 halftime lead.

Navy tied the game at 21 on its first possession of the second half on a 24-yard touchdown run by Eric Kettani (Jr./Kirtland, Ohio) and on Ball State's ensuing possession, Ketric Buffin (Jr./Rowlett, Texas) intercepted a Davis pass in the end zone to give the Mids a chance to take control of the contest.

Back-up quarterback Jarod Bryant (Jr./Hoover, Ala.) methodically drove the Mids down the field, but on second-and-nine from the Ball State 15 junior slot back Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) dropped a perfect pitch from Bryant and Ball State recovered the fumble.

The Mids were able to retake the lead early in the fourth quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Matt Harmon (Jr./Taylors, S.C.), but the Cardinals came right back to tie it at 24 on a 27-yard field goal by Jake Hogue.

Navy came back on the next play from scrimmage as Kettani busted through the line of scrimmage and outraced the Cardinal secondary to the end zone for a 71-yard touchdown run to give Navy a 31-24 lead with 5:53 remaining in the game.

The defense, however, couldn't come up with the big stop when it was needed most, letting Ball State drive 69 yards on just nine plays. The big play of the drive was on third-and-nine from the Ball State 43 when Davis hit Hill for 30 yards. Three plays later, the game was tied at 31 on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Davis to MiQuale Lewis.

Navy still had an opportunity to win the game. The Mids took the ball over at their own 29 with 3:53 left in the contest and calmly marched down the field setting up Harmon's attempt for a game-winning field goal. Bryant hit White with a 13-yard pass to move the ball down to the Ball State 34 and then Bryant busted off a 13-yard run on the next play to move the ball down to the Ball State 21-yard line. After two Bryant runs put the ball in the middle of the field, Harmon came on with two seconds left to kick a chip-shot 31-yard field goal to win the game. Harmon's kick was a line drive that never got off the ground, as it was easily blocked by the Cardinals' Brandon Crawford sending the game into overtime.

Ball State won the toss and elected to go on defense

Johnson's Portfolio

► Has led Navy to an unprecedented four straight bowl games, posting a 2-2 record in the four games. The four games represent 30.8 percent of Navy's 13 bowl appearances in its 128-year history.

► Navy had never reached three, let alone four, bowl games in a row in its program history, prior to Johnson's arrival.

► The 35 wins from 2003-06 is the second most in school history in a four-year span, behind the span of 1905-08 (36). This year's squad needs seven more wins to equal the greatest five-year stretch in school history with 43 wins (1904-08).

► Engineered one of the most-remarkable turnarounds in college football history, becoming just the sixth team in NCAA history to go from a winless season (2001) to a bowl game (2003) in two years or less.

► Won 2004 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors after leading Navy to a 10-2 record and its first bowl win since 1996. The 10 wins marked just the second time in school history (1905) that Navy won double-digit games. The Mids ended that year ranked No. 24 in the country.

► His teams have led the nation in rushing in three of his five years in charge of the Navy offense. His squads have posted 10 of Navy's 24 all-time 400-yard rushing games. If you throw in the times the Mids ran for over 400 yards when he was the offensive coordinator, the total swells to 13-of-24 times. As a head coach or offensive coordinator, his teams own six of the top 10 marks.

► The last two times Navy has led the country in rushing, the Mids have accomplished the feat without a 1,000-yard rusher. That has happened just 12 times in NCAA history.

► With the win against Temple, Johnson won his 100th career game, reaching the mark as the 26th-fastest coach in NCAA history.

► Johnson has been dominant against the other service academies, owning a 9-1 record with nine straight wins and outscoring Air Force and Army by a combined 274-145 (30.4 - 16.1) margin during the nine-game streak.

► Even more impressive, Navy's graduation rate of 98 percent was tops in the country, ahead of Boston College, Notre Dame, Stanford and Air Force.

► Won a pair of Division I-AA National Championships at Georgia Southern in 1999 and 2000, while compiling an astonishing 62-10 record in five years at GSU. During his first four years, he went 50-8, becoming just the fourth coach in NCAA history to win 50 games in four years.

► While at Georgia Southern, his teams broke or tied 389 individual or team school, conference, playoff or stadium records, and amassed 400 yards of offense in 45 of the last 59 contests.

Johnson Ties Hardin on Navy List With Win Over Temple

Head football coach Paul Johnson is tied for third all-time at Navy in career wins with 38. Johnson is tied with the Wayne Hardin, who posted a 38-22-2 record from 1959-64. He is just the fourth Navy coach in the last 76 years and the seventh in the 126 years of Navy football to coach five or more years in Annapolis and post a winning record.

Johnson Tough With Time

Paul Johnson has posted a 16-7 record (.696) as Navy's head coach when having more than one week to prepare and is 14-5 (.737) with more than one week to prepare over the last five seasons.

In 2002, the Mids posted a 2-2 record, defeating SMU and Army and losing to Northwestern and Notre Dame.

In 2003, Navy was 4-1, defeating VMI, Eastern Michigan, Central Michigan and Army and losing to Texas Tech in the Houston Bowl.

In 2004, the Mids were 4-1, defeating Duke, Rutgers, Army and New Mexico and losing to Notre Dame, when having more than one week to prepare.

In 2005, Johnson was 3-1, losing to Maryland and beating Duke, Army and Colorado State.

In 2006, Johnson was 2-2, defeating East Carolina and Army and losing to Notre Dame and Boston College.

In 2007, Johnson is 1-0, defeating Temple.

Johnson Among the Nation's Top Coaches

Navy head coach Paul Johnson's .730 career winning percentage (100-37) is tied for 11th among all active Division IA coaches. Johnson has the highest career winning percentage among active coaches who have not coached at a BCS school.

Credential Requests

• Credential requests must be made to Scott Strasemeier no later than the Wednesday afternoon before all Navy home games (no exceptions). For Army, requests must be made by November 15.

For all Navy road games, please contact the host school's sports information director for credentials.

Working Press

• Admittance to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium press box is limited to the WORKING PRESS ONLY. The press box is located on the west side of the stadium. Beverages and a buffet are available two hours before kickoff and at halftime.

Telephones

• There are eight courtesy phone lines and high-speed internet connections available in the press box.

Radio

• There are two radio booths in the NMCMS press box. One booth is reserved for the Navy Football Network; the visiting team is assigned the other broadcast space. Six credentials will be allotted to each broadcast crew, plus one for each spotter.

Visiting radio stations may purchase the use of up to three phone lines already installed by contacting Eric Ruden, Deputy Director of Athletics at 410-293-8748.

Television

• All of Navy's home games will be televised live by CSTV.

Photographers

• Still and newsreel photographers with hand-held equipment may work the sidelines between the 25-yard line and the goal line in both directions. Sideline credentials are normally issued to photographers representing daily newspapers, wire services, magazines and television stations or networks. As a general rule, each properly accredited sideline photographer will be entitled to one caption write and one messenger.

Press Conferences

• Head Coach Paul Johnson will conduct a post-practice interview session, Monday-Wednesday, at approximately 6:00 pm. All players and assistant coaches will also be available at that time. Coach Johnson will be available via the phone Monday-Thursday from 2-3:00 pm. Please contact SID Scott Strasemeier with your interview request at least one day in advance.

Player Interviews

• All player phone interviews must be arranged through Strasemeier at least one day in advance. Players will do phone interviews during the day (Monday-Thursday) if their class schedule permits. Players will also be available after practice, Monday-Wednesday.

first. On the first play from scrimmage, the Mids had Ball State in a bad defensive alignment and should have scored a touchdown on the play, but Bryant's pitch to White was late and his fumbled pitch was recovered by Ball State.

Ball State ran four plays that moved the ball down to the Navy seven-yard line and Hogue came on to kick a 24-yard field goal to give Ball State the win.

Kettani led the Mids in rushing with 126 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. Kaheaku-Enhada rushed for 117 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries, while Bryant rushed for 77 yards on 13 carries. MiQuale Lewis led the Ball State ground attack with 161 yards on 27 carries.

Kaheaku-Enhada completed three of his seven pass attempts for 51 yards, while Bryant completed his only attempt for 13 yards. Davis was 19-33 for 277 yards with three touchdowns and one interception to lead the Cardinals. Love and Hill had six catches apiece to lead the Ball State receiving corps.

Sophomore Darius Terry (Houston, Texas), making his first-career start, recorded 12 tackles and two tackles for a loss. Sophomore Ross Pospisil (Temple, Texas) had eight tackles, while Buffin had seven tackles, a forced fumble, an interception and a pass break-up. Mike Dorulla led Ball State with 14 tackles, Bryant Haines had 12 and Chris Allen recorded 10 tackles, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble.

Playing the ACC

Navy is 3-4 against the ACC under head coach Paul Johnson with all three wins coming against Duke. The Mids have lost to N.C. State, Duke, Wake Forest and Boston College. The first three losses all came during the 2-10 season in 2002, while the Boston College loss was in last year's Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Series History

Navy leads the all-time series against Duke, 19-12-5, including last year's 38-13 victory in Durham. Navy has won three-straight over Duke and is 9-4 all time in home games against the Blue Devils.

Scouting Duke

Duke comes to Annapolis with a 1-2 record after snapping a 22-game losing streak last Saturday with a 20-14 road victory over Northwestern. The Blue Devils led 20-7 at the half and then held off a late Northwestern rally to pick up the win. The Wildcats had the ball first-and-goal from the Duke seven yard line in the final seconds, but threw four incomplete passes.

The Blue Devils are led by quarterback Thaddeus Lewis, who has completed 47 of his 81 pass attempts for 531 yards with five touchdowns and four interceptions. Wide receiver Jomar Wright leads the Blue Devil receiving corps with 14 catches for 126 yards and two touchdowns. Duke has rushed for just 162 yards in three games, averaging 1.7 yards per carry.

Linebacker Vincent Rey leads the defense with 34 tackles, four tackles for a loss, 1.5 sacks, four pass break-ups and a blocked kick. The Blue Devils have already blocked three kicks this year.

Duke is ranked 114th nationally in rushing offense (54 yards per game), 91st in passing offense (181.7 yards per game), 114th in total offense (235.7 yards per game) and 108th in scoring offense (15.7 points per game). Defensively, Duke is ranked 70th in rushing defense (153.3 yards per game), 103rd in pass defense (285.7 yards per game), 95th in total defense (439.0 yards per game) and 76th in scoring defense (27.7 points per game).

Hailing From Carolina

The Mids have five players and two coaches that either grew up or went to high school in North Carolina. Senior quarterback Troy Goss is from Shelby (Burns High School), freshman defensive back Kevin Edwards is from Charlotte (Vance High School), junior corner Rashawn King is from Raleigh (Ravenscroft), senior outside linebacker Matt Wimsatt is originally from Maryland but went to high school in Raleigh (Ravenscroft High School) and freshman wide receiver Mario Washington is from Boiling Springs (Crest.)

Navy head coach Paul Johnson is originally from Newland, N.C., and is a 1979 graduate of Western Carolina, while defensive coordinator Buddy Green is from Stanley and is a 1976 graduate of North Carolina State.

Sovie and Deliz Out For the Year

The Navy defense suffered a serious blow during the Rutgers game on Sept. 7 when the Mids lost senior defensive captain Jeff Deliz (Clinton Township, Mich.) and junior linebacker Clint Sovie (Jacksonville, Fla.) for the year. Deliz suffered a right foot injury and Sovie a left ankle injury. Both had season-ending surgery on Sept. 13.

On a Roll

The Mids are 36-17 (.679) over the last five years after posting a 3-30 (.091) record the previous three years. The 36 wins over the five-year stretch are the 20th most in the country.

Mids Usually Bounce Back

Since 2003, Navy is 12-3 (.800) in games following a loss. The Mids have lost back-to-back games just three times during that four-year span, losing to Maryland and Stanford to start the 2005 season, to Rutgers and Notre Dame in 2006 and to Rutgers and Ball State in 2007. The Mids stopped the first two losing streaks with victories over Duke, winning at Durham in 2005 (28-21) and 2006 (38-13). Navy has not lost three-straight games since the 2002 season when the Mids lost 10 in a row.

Navy - The Nation's Best Rushing Offense

In Paul Johnson's five years at the Naval Academy, the Mids have consistently been one of the top rushing teams in the country, never finishing lower than third. In 2002, Johnson's first year at the helm, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 270.8 yards per contest. In 2003, the Mids led the nation in rushing, averaging a then school-record 323.2 yards per game. In 2004, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 289.5 yards per contest. Last year, Navy led the country in rushing for the second time in three years, averaging 318.7 yards per game. Navy finished the 2006 campaign averaging a nation's-best and school-record 327 yards per game. The previous record was 323.2 set in 2003. The Mids are averaging 378.7 yards per game in 2007.

Rushing to History

Navy enters the 2007 campaign trying to become the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years. Navy was the 15th school to win two-straight rushing titles last fall, but no school has ever been able to win a third. Nebraska won six out of eight rushing titles from 1988-1995.

Mids' Rushing Total The Third Most in NCAA History For a Losing Team

Navy's 521 yards rushing against Ball State in a 34-31 overtime loss marked the third-most rushing yards by a losing team in NCAA history. Rice rushed for 570 yards in a 70-63 loss to San Jose State on Oct. 2, 2004, while Air Force rushed for 545 yards on Nov. 24, 2001, in a 50-32 loss to Hawaii.

Defense Giving Up Points

Navy has allowed 75 points over the last two games (41 to Rutgers and 34 to Ball State), the most points allowed in back-to-back games since 2002 when the Mids gave up 97 points over a two-game span (46 to Boston College and 51 to Tulane). The Mids have not won a game when allowing 30 or more points since 2005 when the Mids beat Colorado State, 51-30, in the Poinsettia Bowl. The Mids are 3-19 under Paul Johnson when allowing 30 or more points in the game. Navy gave up 30 or more points nine times in 2002 (0-9), three times in 2003 (1-2), once in 2004 (0-1), five times in 2005 (2-3) and twice in 2006 (0-2). The MIDs are 25-4 (.862) under Paul Johnson when scoring 30 or more points in a game. The losses have come to Northwestern (49-40) and Tulane (51-30) in 2002, Stanford in 2005 (40-38) and Ball State (34-31) in 2007.

Opposing Backs Go Over 150 Yards in Back-To-Back Games

Rutgers running back Ray Rice rushed for 175 yards on 37 carries in the Scarlet Knights 41-24 victory over Navy and Ball State's MiQuale Lewis rushed for 161 yards on 27 carries in the Cardinals' 34-31 overtime victory over Navy marking the first time two backs have rushed for over 150 yards in back-to-back games since 2003 when Notre Dame's Julius Jones rushed for 221 yards on 33 carries in a 27-24 Notre Dame win and Central Michigan's Jerry Seymour rushed for 154 yards on 33 carries in a 35-17 loss to Navy.

Big-Play Buffin

With his third quarter interception of Ball State quarterback Nate Davis, Ketric Buffin (Jr./Rowlett, Texas) recorded an interception for the third-straight game and for the fourth time in the last six contests dating back to last year. Buffin's three interceptions equals the most by a Navy player in a season since 2003 when Josh Smith and Eddie Carthan picked off four passes each. Buffin is averaging 1.0 interceptions per game this season, which is tied for the third-best average in the country.

Narrow Escapes

Navy is 9-7 (.563) over the last four years in games decided by five points or less.

All He Does Is Catch Touchdowns

Navy junior wide receiver Tyree Barnes (Hampton, Va.) has four-career touchdown catches on just 12-career receptions.

In The Red Zone

Navy has scored 10 of the 14 times (.714) it has reached the red zone this year, with six (.429) of those scores resulting in touchdowns. Last year, Navy scored on 40-of-51 red zone trips (.784), with 32 (.627) of those scores resulting in touchdowns. The Navy defense has given up 12 scores on 13 trips (.923) inside its red zone, with seven (.538) of those scores resulting in touchdowns. Last year, Navy opponents scored on 29-of-37 red zone possessions (.784), with 22 (.595) of those scores resulting in touchdowns.

300 The Number

Navy is 29-6 (.829) and has won 26 of the last 28 game when rushing for 300-plus yards.

100-Yard Rusher Key

Navy is 30-10 (.750) in the Paul Johnson era when at least one player rushes for 100 yards and is 9-2 (.833) when two players rush for over 100.

Kaipo Hits 100 For Fourth Time

Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii) topped the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth time in his career when he rushed for 117 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries in the first half against Ball State. He did not play in the second half because of two sprained ankles.

Ballard Nearing Top 10 Rushing List

Adam Ballard (Sr./Lewisville, Texas) is nearing the Navy top 10 list for career rushing yards. Ballard currently has 1,580 yards, needing just 164 yards to tie Chuck Smith (1984-87) for 10th place on the career list.

Special Drought

The Mids have played 128 games without returning a punt for a touchdown, the second-longest streak in the country. Navy last returned a punt for a touchdown on Oct. 5, 1996, when Ross Scott returned one 65 yards for a touchdown in a 64-27 Homecoming victory over Duke.

Navy has played 111 games without returning a kickoff for a touchdown, the eighth-longest streak in the country. Navy last returned a kickoff for a touchdown on Nov. 15, 1997, when Matt Nelson took a lateral and ran 58 yards for a touchdown in Navy's 52-24 victory over Colgate.

When Navy Passes For More Yards Than it Rushes, It Usually Means Defeat

Navy's 248 yards through the air against Stanford last fall are the most passing yards by a Navy team since Oct. 26, 2002, when Navy threw for 329 yards in a 51-30 loss to Tulane. Navy produced more yards through the air (248) than on the ground (235) for the first time since its 21-17 loss to Delaware on Nov. 1, 2003. The Mids are 0-3 under Paul Johnson when they accumulate more yards passing than rushing in a game.

Balanced Attack

Navy did not have a 1,000-yard rusher last season for the second-consecutive year, making last year's team just the 12th team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher. Navy also led the country in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher in 2005 and 1999. The Mids did get over 1,000 yards rushing at all three of the triple-option positions. Navy slot backs led the way with 1,619 yards rushing, the fullbacks bulled their way for 1,274 yards and the quarterbacks combined to rush for 1,248 yards.

Navy last beat a ranked opponent on Oct. 4, 2003, when the Mids defeated Air Force, 28-25 at FedExField in Landover, Md. Navy has beaten just one ranked team in the last 20 years, five in the last 30 years and nine in the last 40 years. Navy last beat a team ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on Sept. 28, 1985, when Navy upset No. 20 Virginia, 17-13.

Senior Class Has Shot at Wins Record

The 2006 Navy football season was the culmination of a remarkable four-year run by a group of 34 midshipmen that made up the Class of 2007, a class that will go down in history as one of the greatest to play football at the Naval Academy. Thirty-five wins (second most in school history), an 8-0 mark against the other two Service Academies (first time in school history), four-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophies (first time in school history), four-consecutive bowl bids (first time in school history) and two bowl wins in four years (second time in school history) leave a legacy that future classes will strive to achieve.

The first to take a crack at those marks will be this year's group of seniors. Though not as large in number (26), the Class of 2008 will have a chance to go undefeated against the other two Service Academies, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy all four years, go to four-straight bowl games, win three bowls games (would be the first class in school history) and with 28 career wins entering this season, will have a chance to become the winningest class in school history (need eight wins to tie the record and nine wins to break the record).

Service Academy Dominance

The Mids are 36-17 (.679) over the last five years and have proven to be the dominant service academy team over the time span. Navy has won nine-straight Service Academy games and is just three wins away from tying the all-time record for consecutive service academy wins. Air Force won 12-straight Service Academy games from 1997-2002.

Mids in the Midst of the Most-Dominant Era in the History of the Army-Navy Series

Navy's 26-14 victory over Army at the end of the 2006 season was its fifth-consecutive win over West Point, equaling the longest streak in series history. Only three other times in this historic rivalry has a team won five-straight games. Army won five straight from 1927-33 (the two teams did not play in 1928 or 1929) by an average margin of 9.2 points per game. Navy won five straight from 1939-43 (average margin of 12.2 points) and again from 1959-63 (average margin 13.6 points). Navy's current five-game winning streak has been by an average margin of 26.8 points per game (134 points in five games).

Johnson 9-1 in Service Academy Games and Has Won Nine Straight

With a 26-14 victory over Army last year, Navy head football coach Paul Johnson improved to 9-1 (.900) as a head coach against service academy teams (4-1 against Air Force and 5-0 against Army), the best start for a head coach in school history against the other two service academies. Johnson is just the second coach in school history to win his first-five games against Army, joining legendary head coach Wayne Hardin (won his first five, 1959-63). No Navy or Army coach has won six straight in the series. No Navy coach has beaten Army in the dominant fashion that Johnson has either, as the Mids have outscored the Black Knights, 202-68 (40.4-13.6), during his tenure.

Johnson's Teams Explode Down The Stretch

Over the last four years, Navy has posted a 10-2 (.833) record over the final three games of the season and has outscored the opposition, 464-246 (38.7-20.5).

Calls The Plays

Navy head football coach Paul Johnson is one of only 14 head coaches in the country that also calls all the plays. He also called the plays as the head coach at Georgia Southern. Johnson calls the plays without the help of any notes, charts or scripts.

Mids On TV

Navy has 11 games on national television this fall with only the Nov. 10 game at North Texas not currently scheduled to be televised. The Mids will appear on College Sports Television (CSTV) six times, ESPN twice and NBC, CBS and ESPNU once each. If the Mids win six games, they will qualify to play in the Poinsettia Bowl and make a third appearance on ESPN.

This will be the third year that CSTV has televised every home Navy football game and it is part of a long-term multi-media agreement that includes internet streaming, broadband, video-on-demand and high definition rights.

Four Bowls in Four Years

Navy's bid to the Meineke Car Care Bowl last fall marked the first time in school history the Midshipmen have gone to a bowl game in four-consecutive years. The Mids lost to Texas Tech in the 2003 Houston Bowl, 38-14, defeated New Mexico in the 2004 Emerald Bowl, 34-19, crushed Colorado State, 51-30, in the 2005 Poinsettia Bowl and lost a heartbreaking 25-24 decision to Boston College in 2006 in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Top 50 Rushing Games

Navy's 521 yards rushing against Ball State was the third-best rushing output since 1948. Paul Johnson has been either the offensive coordinator (1995-96) or head coach (2002-present) at Navy for 23 of the top-50 rushing outputs in school history, including 12 of the top-20 rushing performances.

Four Consecutive Bowls With Four Different Starting Quarterbacks

Navy appeared in its fourth straight bowl game with a fourth different starting quarterback, marking just the fifth time in NCAA history that a team has gone to four or more bowl games with a different quarterback leading it each year. UCLA holds the record with six-straight bowl games with six different starting quarterbacks.

Playing in the Big Time

Since the start of the 2003 season, Navy has played 14 games in 10 different big league stadiums (nine NFL and one MLB), posting a 8-6 record. No college team in the country has played in more NFL stadiums than Navy has over the last four years.

The Mids will play three and possibly four games in NFL stadiums in 2007, playing Temple at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh at Heinz Field in Philadelphia and Army at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore. The Poinsettia Bowl will be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego.

Elite Company

Navy is one of just four schools to produce a President of the United States (Jimmy Carter) and a Super Bowl winning quarterback (Roger Staubach). The other three are Michigan (Gerald Ford and Tom Brady), Stanford (Herbert Hoover and Jim Plunkett/John Elway) and Miami of Ohio (Benjamin Harrison and Ben Roethlisberger).

If you go a step further, Navy is one of just one of three teams (Michigan and Stanford are the others) to produce a Super Bowl winning quarterback, President of the United States and a Heisman Trophy winner.

Harper on the Watch List For Rimington, Outland and Lombardi Trophies

Navy senior center Antron Harper (Eastman, Ga.) has been selected to the Watch List for the 2007 Rimington Award, which recognizes the most outstanding center in college football, for the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the best interior lineman in college football and for the Lombardi Award, which is presented to the top lineman in college football.

Harper has arguably been Navy's best offensive lineman the past two seasons despite being one of the smallest offensive linemen in the country at 5-11, 257 pounds. Harper had started 25-consecutive games for the Midshipmen at guard over the last two years, but moved to center this spring. Navy has led the country in rushing the last two seasons and set a school record last year by averaging 327 yards per contest. He has been named to the ESPN.Com All-Bowl team the last two years.

The Remington trophy is presented by Canon, Cornhusker Marriott, and Logitech and is hosted by the Boomer Esiason Foundation. Esiason created his foundation in 1993 to support research and treatment of cystic fibrosis. Esiason and Dave Rimington were teammates on the Cincinnati Bengals from 1984-87. Rimington, the award's namesake, was a consensus first team All-America center at Nebraska in 1981 and 1982 during which he became the John Outland Trophy's only double winner as the nation's premiere college interior lineman. The winner is selected by determining the consensus All-American center pick from four existing All-America Teams including: American Football Coaches Association Walter Camp Foundation Sporting News Football Writers Association of America. The winner will be honored at an awards banquet at the Rococo Theater in Lincoln, Nebraska in January of 2008.

The 2007 Outland Trophy announcement will be on Dec. 6 in Orlando, Fla., on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show. The Outland Trophy presentation banquet, sponsored by the Greater Omaha Sports Committee, will be in January 2008 in Omaha, Neb. The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the FWAA since 1946. It is named after the late John Outland, a lineman at Pennsylvania at the turn of the century. Wisconsin offensive tackle Joe Thomas won the 2006 Outland Trophy.

The 2007 Rotary Lombardi Award, presented by Wachovia and benefiting the American Cancer Society, will be presented in Houston, Texas on December 5 at the Hilton Americas Hotel. The Rotary Lombardi Award was founded in the weeks following the death of legendary football coach Vince Lombardi from cancer in 1970. When Marie Lombardi granted the use of her husband's name to the Rotary Club of Houston, her only stipulation was that all net proceeds from the event be donated to the American Cancer Society.

Ballard Selected to East-West Shrine Game

Navy senior fullback Adam Ballard (Lewisville, Texas) has been selected to the 2008 East-West Shrine All-Star Game, which will be played Saturday, January 19 at the University of Houston. The game will be televised nationally by ESPN. The East-West Shrine Game is the premier All-Star Game in America, and has a long history of distinguished players and coaches in the game.

Ballard, who was ranked in the preseason as the third-best fullback in the country by The Sporting News, has rushed for 1,460 yards and nine touchdowns in his career. His career average of 5.5 yards per carry ranks fifth all-time at Navy. Ballard is the 21st player in school history to be selected to the East-West game. Outside linebacker Tyler Tidwell played in the game last year.

Campbell and Deliz Elected

2007 Team Captains

Navy head football coach Paul Johnson announced June 7 that slot back Reggie Campbell (Sr./Sanford, Fla.) and safety Jeff Deliz (Sr./Clinton Township, Mich.) have been elected team captains for the 2007 football season by their teammates.

"It's a great honor for Reggie and Jeff to be elected by their teammates and I know it's a role they won't take lightly," said Johnson. "I think the team made two great selections and I know both of these young men will do a great job."

Campbell, who has started 25-consecutive games for the Midshipmen, rushed for 706 yards and five touchdowns, caught 13 passes for 244 yards and two touchdowns and accumulated 1,362 all-purpose yards last fall as he was named Honorable-Mention All-East. He is one of the more explosive players to ever play at Navy, averaging 7.5 yards per carry (third-best in school history) and 22.6 yards per catch (second-best in school history) for his career.

Deliz played in 12 games last fall, mostly as a nickel back, and contributed 25 tackles, 3.5 tackles for a loss, one sack and an interception. He came on strong at the end of the year, recording his first-career sack and interception against Army and then tied his career-high for tackles with five against Boston College in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Bowl Eligible Navy to Play in the 2007 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl

The United States Naval Academy Midshipmen will play in the 2007 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl should they win six or more games in the regular season, San Diego Bowl Game Association President Rudy Castruita announced on April 11. The game will be played on Dec. 20 at 9 p.m. (EST) and the game will be televised nationally by ESPN.

"We're ecstatic the Midshipmen will likely be returning to San Diego for the third annual bowl game," Castruita said. "They created so much excitement in the inaugural game two years ago and we sincerely would look forward to their tradition-rich football program returning to San Diego this December."

The bowl game will match the Midshipmen against the second selection from the nine-team Mountain West Conference. The Pioneer Pure Vision Las Vegas Bowl has the first pick. Navy played in the inaugural San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl in 2005 defeating the Colorado State Rams 51-30 in front of 35,842 Qualcomm Stadium fans.

"The Navy family is still talking about the fantastic experience we had in San Diego for the inaugural game," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "The bowl staff makes this game a first class experience for our team and all who visit one of the finest destination cities in the country. We need to win games this fall to be rewarded, but our fans can be certain that having a trip to San Diego in December as a possibility will be more motivation than ever for our team to succeed."

Johnson Named the Most Underrated Coach in America by Athlon

Navy head football coach Paul Johnson was named the most underrated football coach in the country by Athlon Sports in their Eastern Football publication this fall. The top five consisted of Johnson, Chris Petersen of Boise State, Bill Cubit of Western Michigan, Bret Bielema of Wisconsin and Ralph Friedgen of Maryland.

It's no surprise that Athlon selected Johnson as the most underrated coach. After all, what he has accomplished at the Naval Academy in five seasons has been of historic proportions.

Johnson took over a program that had posted a 1-20 record the previous two years before his arrival in 2002. After a 2-10 mark in his first year, the Navy football program has achieved what many thought was no longer possible at an Academy, as Johnson has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 35-15 (.700) record over the last four years and has led Navy to a school-record four-straight bowl games and a school-record four-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophies. The 35 wins are the second most in program history over a four-year time span.

Johnson has dominated the other two Service Academies like no other coach in the school's annals posting a 9-1 (.900) overall record, including a perfect 5-0 mark against rival Army. Last year's senior class was the first in school history to post a perfect 8-0 mark against Army and Air Force.

Johnson's teams have been successful off the field as well, as Navy ranks No. 1 in the country in graduation rates.

Johnson's triple option offense has been the backbone to the program's success as the Mids have led the nation in rushing three of the last five years. Last year, the Mids averaged a school-record 327.4 yards per contest.

The Staff That Stays Together, Wins Together

One of Navy's strengths is an experienced coaching staff that has not only coached a significant amount of time at the Naval Academy, but has also coached together as a staff for a long time. This year's coaching staff combines for 10 years of coaching at the Naval Academy and has served 78 years under the direction of Paul Johnson, including 64 years under Johnson at the Naval Academy.

Naval Academy at the Head of the Class For Graduation Rates

For the second year in a row, the United States Naval Academy is at the head of the class for graduating NCAA student-athletes on the Division IA level. Navy graduated 100 percent of its student-athletes in 16 of the 19 sports reported on and no sport graduated lower than 97 percent.

"Our student-athletes continually strive to set the standard on the playing fields, in the classroom and in Bancroft Hall," said Navy

Staubach Named Co-Recipient of the National Football Foundation's Highest Honor

Roger Staubach and Pete Dawkins of Army are the co-recipients of the 2007 National Football Foundation's Gold Medal Award. The Gold Medal, the NFF's highest honor, has been presented to seven U.S. Presidents, four U.S. Generals, three U.S. Admirals, one U.S. Supreme Court Justice, 25 Corporate CEOs and Chairmen, John Wayne and Jackie Robinson. Dawkins and Staubach will become the 51st and 52nd recipients of the award, which has been bestowed since 1958. The awards will be presented at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner on December 4, 2007, at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

"The awards committee is incredibly proud to present the Gold Medal to Pete Dawkins and Roger Staubach," said NFF Awards Committee Chairman Bob Mulcahy. "Not only have they reached the pinnacle of collegiate football success as Heisman Trophy winners and members of the Hall of Fame, but they have proven themselves as selfless leaders through their courageous military careers and business endeavors."

A fixture in the Dallas area for more than 40 years, Roger Staubach has shined in everything he has pursued, and his drive for excellence has garnered him national attention as the consummate leader on and off the playing field. Staubach, a native of Silverton, Ohio, was a natural athlete and earned letters in three sports while attending the United States Naval Academy. As only a sophomore, Navy coach Wayne Hardin started Staubach in the second half of the Cornell game, hoping to give his Midshipmen a spark. Staubach led Navy to six touchdown drives that game, and a few weeks later, led his team to a 34-14 upset over Army. The following season proved even more successful, as he was named the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner and Maxwell Award recipient.

Although drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1964, Staubach did not start playing until 1969 due to military commitments. He chose to volunteer for a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam, then spent the rest of his Naval career in the United States, playing football on various Naval service teams. As a 27-year-old Vietnam Vet, Staubach rejoined the Cowboys just in time for training camp. He served as a back-up his first two seasons, but garnered the starting spot in 1972. He would go on to lead Dallas to two Super Bowl victories, claiming MVP honors in the 1972 victory. He also landed five trips to the Pro Bowl.

Staubach was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame four years later. Known for his humanitarian efforts, he has received numerous awards for civic service, most recently accepting the Natural Leader Award at the Billiard Ball to benefit the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Dallas. For over 25 years, he has been the chairman and CEO of The Staubach Company, a Dallas-based real estate strategy and service firm with 60 offices throughout North America. The company finished the 2006 fiscal year with 6,750 transactions totaling $26 billion.

Series Tidbits

- Saturday's meeting will be the 37th meeting all-time between Navy and Duke, and marks the fourth straight year the teams will play. Navy owns a 19-12-5 series advantage, including a 7-3 mark during the last 10 games.
- Just Army (107), Notre Dame (80), Air Force (39), Virginia (38) and Penn State (37) have been more frequent Football Bowl Subdivision opponents than Duke. The Duke game is the sixth-most played opponent in program history and will tie Penn State for fifth.
- Navy scored 64 points against Duke in the 1996 meeting, the most points scored by Navy at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- The Mids have averaged 31.0 ppg over the last three meetings, while giving up just 15.3. Navy has averaged 354.0 yards rushing per game over the same three-game span.
- Navy has had five different players (Kaheaku-Enhada, Ballard, Owens, Polanco and Eckel) rush over 100 yards against Duke during the last three years.
- Duke scored 43 points in 2002 at NMCMS during its last win in the series. Navy hasn't allowed a visitor to score that many points since.

Last Meeting ► Navy 38, Duke 13 ► Nov. 4, 2006

Navy scored 38-consecutive points and rolled up 435 yards rushing, as the Mids routed winless Duke, 38-13, in front of 17,782 fans at Wallace Wade Stadium in Durham. With the victory, Navy clinched a berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, which will take place Saturday, Dec. 30 at 1 p.m. at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hi.), making just his second-career start, rushed for 119 yards and a touchdown and completed two of his four pass attempts for 32 yards and a touchdown to lead the Navy offense.

Fullback Adam Ballard (Lewisville, Texas) carried the ball 27 times for 103 yards and two touchdowns, while slot back Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) tacked on 85 yards and one touchdown on just five carries. Slot back Reggie Campbell (Sanford, Fla.) caught a 19-yard touchdown pass from Kaheaku-Enhada and rushed for 40 yards on nine carries.

The Navy defense held Duke to 294 yards of total offense, including just 113 on the ground. Safety Jeremy McGown (Houston, Texas) led the Mids with 11 tackles, while safety Jeremy Miles (Sicklerville, N.J.) added seven tackles and forced a fumble. Linebacker Rob Caldwell (St. John, Ind.) added six tackles and a fumble recovery, while defensive end Tye Adams (Blackfoot, Idaho) recorded the first two-sack day of his career. Defensive end Andrew Tattersall (Fern Park, Fla.) blocked the second field goal of his career at the end of the first half.

#22 - Adam Ballard

Senior ► Fullback ► Lewisville, Texas

6-1 ► 236 ► English

At Navy: Ranked as the third-best fullback in the country by Sporting News ... missed the bowl game after breaking his right leg on his second carry of the game against Army ... had surgery on his leg December 4 and was back in time for spring practice ... averaging 5.5 yards per carry in his career, the fifth-best average in school history ... big, bruising runner that possesses outstanding speed ... played tailback and wide receiver in high school ... has earned two varsity letters.

2007: Started at fullback in all three games ... has collected 195 yards rushing on 48 carries with two touchdowns this season ... owns one reception for seven yards on the year ... pounded out 78 rushing yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns at Temple ... scored Navy's first touchdown on the year with a one-yard run in the first quarter ... the multi-touchdown effort was the third of his career ... ran 12 times for 42 yards against Rutgers ... churned out 75 yards on 15 rushing attempts, including a 24-yard scamper, against Ball State ... 69 of those 75 yards came in th opening half ... also corralled a seven-yard pass on a screen play.

2006: Started the first 12 games of the year before breaking his leg against Army ... led the team in rushing with 792 yards and three touchdowns ... picked up 97 yards on 13 carries against East Carolina, scoring on a 16-yard run in the third quarter ... saw a streak of three straight 100-yard rushing games snapped against the Pirates ... ran for 48 yards on 13 carries against UMass ... recorded his first 100-yard game of the season with a workman-like 120 yards on 26 carries against Stanford ... totaled 87 yards on 16 carries against Tulsa, going over 1,000-career yards in the loss ... ran for 88 yards on just three carries in the win over UConn ... recorded an 81-yard run against the Huskies, the fourth-longest run in school history, in the second quarter ... had a strong game against Air Force, running 27 times for 134 yards in the win over the Falcons ... ran for just 23 yards on six carries in the loss to Rutgers ... ran 10 times for 33 yards and caught one pass for six yards in the loss to Notre Dame ... rushed a season-high 27 times for 103 yards and two touchdowns against Duke ... the 103-yard outing was his third 100-yard game of the season ... ran just twice for 21 yards before leaving with an ankle injury against Eastern Michigan ... had nine carries for 28 yards against Temple ... rushed two times for 10 yards against Army before breaking his leg on his second carry of the game.

2005: Had a big season at fullback for the Mids ... ranked second on the team in rushing with 668 yards for a per-game average of 55.7 ... the 668 yards are the most by a sophomore since quarterback Brian Madden ran for 897 yards in 1999 ... finished the season by rushing for 488 (162.7 ypg) in the last three outings, including a team-high 192 yards and two touchdowns on just 18 carries against Army ... scored on runs of 28 and 67 yards against the Black Knights ... his 192 yards against Army were the most for a Navy player in the Army-Navy game since Chris McCoy galloped for 205 yards in the 1997 game ... ran for 167 yards and a touchdown against Temple in his first-career start ... also caught a pass for 33 yards against the Owls, giving him 200 all-purpose yards ... finished the season with his third-straight 100-yard game, running for 129 yards on 15 carries against Colorado State ... carried the ball nine times for 55 yards and a touchdown against Kent State ... picked up 45 yards and a score on nine carries against Notre Dame ... scored first touchdown of his career against Stanford, and added 37 yards on 13 carries.

2004: A member of the special teams the final 10 games of the year ... played in one JV game, rushing for 250 yards against Hargrave Military Academy.

High School/ Personal: Three-year letterwinner in football and track at Marcus High School ... district champ in the discus as a senior with a throw of 167'2" ... two-time all-district selection in football and was named all-state his senior year ... Adam Joseph Ballard ... Born-7/16/84.

MIDSHIPMEN GAME NOTES

Game 1 ► Navy 30, Temple 19

Aug. 31, 2007 ► Philadelphia, Pa. ► Lincoln Financial Field (30,368)

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	Final
Navy	14	10	0	6	30
Temple	0	10	3	6	19

Key Stat:

Rushing:

Navy - 56 carries, 361 yds.

Temple - 25 carries, 74 yds.

• The nation's top-ranked rushing attack from a year ago outrushed the Owls by 287 yards.

Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii) rushed for 102 yards and one touchdown and completed three of his seven passes for 78 yards to lead Navy to a 30-19 victory over Temple in front of 30,368 fans at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field in the season opener for both squads.

The Mids jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, scoring on their first two drives of the game. Senior fullback Adam Ballard (Lewisville, Texas) scored on a one-yard run on the Mids' first possession and then Kaheaku-Enhada ripped off a 44-yard touchdown run on Navy's next possession.

After Temple pulled to within 14-10 in the second quarter thanks to a Navy fumble that led to the Owls first touchdown, Ballard scored his second touchdown of the night on a nice five-yard run. Junior kicker Matt Harmon (Taylors, S.C.) drilled a 23-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to give the Mids a 24-10 halftime lead.

The Mids struggled in the second half and managed just two field goals thanks to a fumble and some costly penalties. Temple pulled to within 27-19 with 4:06 left in the game on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Adam DiMichele to Matt Balasavage, but sophomore nose guard Nate Frazier (Atlanta, Ga.) blocked the extra-point and then Harmon nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal with 1:07 left in the game to provide the final margin.

Junior Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) led the Navy rushing attack with 122 yards on eight carries. Ballard added 78 yards on 21 carries to go with his two touchdowns.

Junior linebacker Clint Sovie (Jacksonville, Fla.) led the Mids with 10 tackles, while senior co-captain Jeff Deliz (Clinton Township, Mich.) added nine tackles. Senior outside linebacker Matt Wimsatt (Raleigh, N.C.) recorded seven tackles and his first-career sack and interception. Junior safety Ketric Buffin (Rowlett, Texas) also recorded an interception.

Game 2 ► [15] Rutgers 41, Navy 24

Sept. 7, 2007 ► Piscataway, N.J. ► Rutgers Stadium (43,514)

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	Final
Navy	7	0	7	10	24
[15] Rutgers	14	10	3	14	41

Key Stat:

Points off Turnovers:

Navy - 3 TOs resulting in 17 pts.

Rutgers - 1 TO resulting in 0 pts.

• Rutgers took full advantage of turnovers, converting them into 17 points, the difference in the score.

Mike Teel completed 14 of his 19 pass attempts for 266 yards and three touchdowns to lead No. 15 Rutgers to a 41-24 victory over Navy in front of a sellout crowd of 43,514 at Rutgers Stadium. With the win, the Scarlet Knights improved to 2-0 on the year, while Navy fell to 1-1.

The Mids had 289 yards of total offense against a stout Rutgers defense, but three interceptions, including two in the end zone, by junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii) proved costly.

The Navy defense gave up 476 yards of total offense as the Scarlet Knights scored on seven of their nine possessions in the game.

Navy fell behind 14-0 thanks to a disastrous first quarter. After a Rutgers punt that left the Mids with the ball on their own four-yard line, the Mids were able to get one first down before having to punt. Senior Greg Veteto (Corpus Christi, Texas) got off just a 27-yard punt, giving Rutgers the ball on the Navy 40-yard line. Three plays later, Teel hit Shamar Graves with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Rutgers a 7-0 lead.

Rutgers took a 24-7 halftime lead, but Navy came out of the locker room to start the second half and drove 67 yards on seven plays with Kaheaku-Enhada scoring from the two to cut the Rutgers lead to 10.

Rutgers converted another interception in the endzone into points, as it drove 77 yards in 15 plays and Jeremy Ito nailed a 20-yard field goal with 2:34 left in the third quarter. Navy answered with a field goal of its own as Matt Harmon (Jr./Taylors, S.C.) was good from 34 yards out to make it 27-17, but that was as close as it would get.

Junior fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) led the Mids in rushing with 48 yards on nine carries, while Kaheaku-Enhada completed five of his 12 pass attempts for 35 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions.

The defense was led by freshman Wyatt Middleton (Norcross, Ga.), who recorded a career-high 11 tackles, while senior Irv Spencer (Oakwood Village, Ohio) had 10 stops.

Game 3 ► Ball State 34, Navy 31 (OT)

Sept. 15, 2007 ► Annapolis, Md. ► Navy-Marine Corps MS (32,087)

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Ball State	7	14	0	10	3	34
Temple	7	7	7	10	0	31

Key Stat:	Two costly fumbles, two blocked field goals and the defense's inability to get a key stop added up to a 34-31 loss Saturday night in front of 32,087 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The Mids rushed for 521 yards in the game, the third most in NCAA history for a losing team.
Third-Down Conversions	The game was a track meet from the start as neither team could slow down the other. The two teams combined for 1,124 yards of total offense in the game.
Navy: 5-11
Ball State: 11-15
• Navy couldn't get the big stop defensively when it needed it.

Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i) had touchdown runs of one and 80 yards in the first half, but did not play in the second half thanks to two sprained ankles. Ball State quarterback Nate Davis threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Darius Hill and a 50-yard touchdown pass to Dante Love to go along with a five-yard touchdown run to give Ball State a 21-14 halftime lead.

Navy tied the game at 21 on its first possession of the second half on a 24-yard touchdown run by Eric Kettani (Jr./Kirtland, Ohio) and on Ball State's ensuing possession, Ketric Buffin (Jr./Rowlett, Texas) intercepted a Davis pass in the end zone to give the Mids a chance to take control of the contest.

After a Ball State field goal tied the game at 24, Navy came back on the next play from scrimmage as Kettani busted through the line of scrimmage and outraced the Cardinal secondary to the end zone for a 71-yard touchdown run to give Navy a 31-24 lead with 5:53 remaining in the game.

The defense, however, couldn't come up with the big stop when it was needed most, letting Ball State drive 69 yards on just nine plays. The big play of the drive was on third-and-nine from the Ball State 43 when Davis hit Hill for 30 yards. Three plays later, the game was tied at 31 on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Davis to MiQuale Lewis.

Navy still had an opportunity to win the game. The Mids took the ball over at their own 29 with 3:53 left in the contest and calmly marched down the field setting up Harmon's attempt for a game-winning field goal. Bryant hit White with a 13-yard pass to move the ball down to the Ball State 34 and then Bryant busted off a 13-yard run on the next play to move the ball down to the Ball State 21-yard line. After two Bryant runs put the ball in the middle of the field, Harmon came on with two seconds left to kick a chip-shot 31-yard field goal to win the game. Harmon's kick was a line drive that never got off the ground, as it was easily blocked by the Cardinals' Brandon Crawford sending the game into overtime.

Ball State won the toss and elected to go on defense first. On the first play from scrimmage, the Mids had Ball State in a bad defensive alignment and should have scored a touchdown on the play, but Bryant's pitch to White was late and his fumbled pitch was recovered by Ball State.

Ball State ran four plays that moved the ball down to the Navy seven-yard line and Hogue came on to kick a 24-yard field goal to give Ball State the win.
