Friday Night Lights

For the fourth time since 2005, Rutgers will play on ESPN or ESPN2 under the lights on Friday night. The Scarlet Knights are 2-1 on Friday night national television games on the ESPN Networks, including last season's exciting 22-20 victory at South Florida. Junior CB Jason McCourty broke up a pass on a two-point conversion in the closing seconds to preserve the RU victory last year.

In the Nation's Spotlight

For the 13th time in its last 15 games, Rutgers will play on the ESPN family of networks Friday vs. Navy. ESPN televised four RU games in 2006 and is scheduled to televise at least three games this season.

Eight Straight

The Scarlet Knights have won eight straight home games (school-record at the "new" Rutgers Stadium), with their last loss coming at home on November 5, 2005 vs. USF.

During the eight-game winning streak, Rutgers has averaged 35.6 points per game, including two consecutive games with 38 points (38-3 vs. Buffalo; 38-7 vs. Syracuse). On defense, Rutgers has yielded just 8.5 points per game during the streak.

The eight-game home winning streak is the longest for the Scarlet Knights on-campus since a 20-game streak from Nov. 16, 1974-Nov. 25, 1978. Rutgers won 20 straight games at the "Old Rutgers Stadium" during that time span. The overall winning streak during that time period was 24 games, including four wins during the streak that took place at Giants Stadium.

Rice is also ninth in BIG EAST history in career rushing yards (3,098).

Schiano's Recruiting Proves Fruitful

All-American Foster Anchors the Defense

Senior DT Eric Foster - Rutgers' first defensive first-team All-American since 1976 - returns in 2007 as one of the nation's best at his position.

The Homestead, Fla., native totaled 51 tackles, 14 for loss and 6.5 sacks last season en route to All-America honors by the Football Writers Association of America (First-Team) and the Associated Press (Third-Team).

Teel Continues Winning Ways

Junior QB Mike Teel enters his second full season as the starter at Rutgers with a sparkling 14-3 record as the Scarlet Knights' starting quarterback.

In his career as a starting quarterback on the high school and college level, Teel is 37-3 behind center.

Settling in Under Center

Mike Teel has started the 2007 season the same way he ended 2006 - as one of the most productive quarterbacks in the nation.

Teel started the season with his best game of career statistically, going 16-for-23 passing for a career-high 328 yards and two touchdowns. He ranks fifth nationally in passing efficiency (second in the BIG EAST) and 11th in the NCAA in total offense (third in the BIG EAST).

Over Teel's past four games, he is 61-of-92 for 1,020 yards with seven touchdowns and no interceptions. He is averaging 255.0 yards per game during the streak and is completing 66 percent of his passes.

Not in a Rush

Since head coach Greg Schiano took over as defensive coordinator for the Scarlet Knights, Rutgers has yielded just 114.6 rushing yards per game in 26 games.

In 12 games, Schiano's defense has limited the opposition to less than 100 yards rushing, including three games with negative yards rushing.

Below 200

Seven times during Schiano's tenure as defensive coordinator, the Rutgers defense has yielded less than 200 yards of total offense to an opponent.

2007 Captains Named

Three seniors - OT Jeremy Zuttah, DT Eric Foster and LB Brandon Renkart - along with junior QB Mike Teel were named the 2007 Rutgers' captains during preseason camp. Captains were determined in a team-wide vote during training camp.

Plenty of Experience Returns Up Front

The offensive line for Rutgers in 2006 allowed just eight sacks - the fewest total in the nation - in addition to laying key blocks for the nation's second-leading rusher in Ray Rice.

Three starters return in 2007 up front for Rutgers, including left tackle Pedro Sosa and right tackle Jeremy Zuttah. Sosa, a 2006 BIG EAST Second Team performer, has started 25 consecutive games at left tackle for the Scarlet Knights. He allowed just one sack in 2006.

Zuttah, a 2006 BIG EAST First Team selection, has started 14 consecutive games on the offensive line.

Senior LG Mike Fladell also returns up front. The New York native started all 13 games last season.

The three players have combined for 67 starts during their careers "On the Banks."

Four Games and Counting

The Rutgers offensive line has not allowed a sack of QB Mike Teel in four consecutive games dating back to last season. The last time a Rutgers QB was sacked was Nov. 18, 2006 at Cincinnati. Teel was sacked just eight times last season, the fewest amount in the nation.

From the Sunshine State to New Jersey

Head coach Greg Schiano has taken full advantage of his ties to Florida as the Scarlet Knights have 18 Florida native on their roster. Schiano, a former defensive coordinator at Miami, has had great success in recruiting the Sunshine State.

The "Chop Shop"

A school-record crowd of 44,111 witnessed the biggest victory in school history as Rutgers topped third-ranked Louisville 28-25 on Nov. 9, 2006. The Scarlet Knights posted five of the top 10 crowds in school history last season and established a single-season attendance record. RU averaged 41,112 fans per game in 2006 - the best total in school history.

Looking at the Depth Chart

On the current depth chart, 19 of Rutgers' 22 starters are natives of New York or New Jersey. All 11 starters on offense are from the region, including nine from the Garden State.

With just 11 scholarship seniors on the roster, Rutgers' depth chart features 21 freshmen or sophomores among the top 44 players on offense and defense.

Look Out for Greene

Courtney Greene, rated No. 4 in the nation at his position by Phil Steele, has started every game in his 26-game career. Greene earned honors on the All-BIG EAST Team after leading the team with four interceptions and finishing second with 82 tackles (team-best 49 solo). A consensus preseason First Team All-BIG EAST selection in 2007, Greene was named a freshman All-American after leading the Scarlet Knights with 116 tackles in his first season.

More Notes from the Buffalo Win

Rutgers did not punt in a game for the first time since September 5, 1993, when they also went without a punt against Colgate in 68-6 win at Giants Stadium.

The season opener saw nine first-time starters with four Scarlet Knights earning the start on offense and five getting the starting nod on defense.

Sophomore DE George Johnson posted a career-high two sacks in his first career start.

Ten true freshmen played in the opener for the Scarlet Knights:

Scouting This Week's Opponent: Navy

The Midshipmen enter Friday's game 1-0 overall following a 30-19 victory at Temple on Friday, Aug. 31.

Last season, Navy finished 9-4, earning a trip to the Meineke Car Care Bowl. The Midshipmen took on Boston College in the final game of the season and was edged out by one point on a field goal in the final seconds of the game.

Navy returns a total of 11 starters from last year's squad including seven on offense, and a pair each on defense and special teams.

Among the Midshipmen's key returnees is starting quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada, who led Navy to four consecutive victories to close out the season.

On the defensive side of the ball, Navy will look to revamp its entire unit after losing nine starters. The Mids suffered the biggest hit at the linebacker position, losing four-year starter David Mahoney and two-year starters Tyler Tidwell and Rob Caldwell.
