GAME PREVIEW

• Eighth-ranked Navy (11-3 overall, 6-0 Patriot League) will make its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance on Saturday when it travels to Chapel Hill, N.C. to battle eighth-seeded North Carolina (9-5, 0-3 ACC) ... Game time is set for 5:00 pm at UNC's Fetzer Field.

• The Mids put together back-to-back wins over Army and Colgate two weeks ago to capture their fourth-consecutive Patriot League Tournament title and earn the Patriot League's automatic bid to play in the NCAA Tournament.

• Navy battered Army in a 12-1 victory, while five different players pitched in two or more goals in Navy's title victory (15-9) over Colgate, including a career-high four markers for tournament MVP Nick Mirabito.

• Like Navy, Carolina has been off since the weekend of April 28&29 ... the Tar Heels dropped their opening-round contest in the ACC Tournament to Duke, 13-9, in Durham on April 27 ... four of UNC's five losses have come against members of the ACC, while its other loss was at the hands of the Midshipmen.

• Saturday's NCAA Tournament contest will be televised live on ESPN with Dave Cohen (play by play) and Mark Dixon (analyst) calling the action.

• The Voice of Navy Lacrosse Pete Medhurst will handle the play by play on 1430 WNAV and Navy All-Access via the Mids' web site at www.NavySports.com(.)

NAVY VS. NORTH CAROLINA — THE SERIES

• Navy took an 11-10 series lead after producing the most lop-sided win in series history, a 19-8 victory in Annapolis earlier this season.

• Carolina owns a 3-1 advantage over the Midshipmen in NCAA Tournament action, though the last time the two met in postseason play was 25 years ago ... UNC defeated Navy, 16-2, in Chapel Hill in the quarterfinals of the 1982 NCAA Tournament.

• The two teams have squared off against one another during the regular season in each of the last 12 years ... the inaugural meeting was in 1975 when the Mids earned an 11-4 win in Annapolis.

• The Midshipmen have won five in a row against the Tar Heels, the longest winning streak in the series by the Mids ... the longest winning streak by either team is six by UNC (1980-81-82-84-85-96).

• North Carolina owns a 7-3 advantage in games played on its home field, though Navy has won two in a row in Chapel Hill ... three of the last four games played in Chapel Hill have not only been decided by one goal, but have gone into overtime, including the 2002 game that was won by North Carolina in the sixth overtime period.

• Five of the last eight games in the series have been decided by one goal.

CAROLINA TIES

• Navy head coach Richie Meade is a 1976 graduate of North Carolina, where he served as an assistant coach in 1978 and again from 1988-90.

COUNTDOWN TO FACE-OFF

10 • Navy has scored 10 or more goals in eight of its 14 contests this spring ... the Mids own an 8-0 record in those games.

9 • Senior Ian Dingman has turned in a team-best nine goals in his five NCAA Tournament appearances.

8 • Navy keeper Colin Finnegan has played just eight minutes in goal in NCAA Tournament action, the final eight minutes against Syracuse in the 2004 National Championship game as a freshman.

6 • Six different players on the Navy roster produced two or more goals in the Mids' 19-8 victory over North Carolina earlier this season.

4 • Freshmen Basil Daratsos (16G, 2A) and Tim Paul (12G, 7A) have each scored just four points in games played on the road.

3 • Navy's three losses in '07 are by a combined three goals.

2 • Navy's man-down defense has given up just two goals in the last 20 opportunities (7 games).

1 • All-American midfielder Billy Looney needs one point to become the second player this year and the 28th overall to score 100-career points in school history.

RECAPPING THIS YEAR'S REGULAR-SEASON GAME — COMPLETE BOX SCORE ON PG. 20 OF NOTES

- Seventeen different players produced a goal or an assist to lead 12th-ranked Navy to a 19-8 route over No. 5 North Carolina at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on March 2.
- It's the most goals scored by Navy against a nationally-ranked team since handing 18th-ranked Army a 19-9 setback on April 7, 1990 ... it's the most they have scored in the 21-game series, improving upon the previous record of 16 set in 1978.
- The 11-goal win is Navy's largest margin of victory in the series, bettering last year's eight-goal decision in Chapel Hill.
- Attackmen Ian Dingman and Nick Mirabito paced the Mids with hat tricks of the season, while Mirabito tacked on an assist to lead the team with four points ... rookies Basil Daratsos, Patrick Moran and Tim Paul, along with senior middle Tommy Wallin each pitched in a pair of goals.
- The Mids scored back-to-back goals just 47 seconds apart to take an early 2-0 lead 5:08 into the contest and never looked back as Navy never trailed in the game.
- The Tar Heels closed to within one on three different occasions, including a goal by junior midfielder Brian Connors with just 11 ticks remaining in the opening period.
- Navy dashed any momentum UNC had gained, as a Wallin fired in his second goal of the game off an assist from junior Matt Guido with just one second left in the period.
- The teams traded goals early in the second period, but Daratsos' unassisted marker at 7:54 sparked a 5-0 run for the Mids.
- One of the reasons Navy was put in goal-scoring position was because of the play of its face-off team ... six different Midshipmen took draws, including Mikelis Visgauss who won 11 of the 15 face-offs he took, while William Wallace won four.
- Senior Colin Finnegan played a fantastic game in goal for the Midshipmen, making a career-high 14 saves, while giving up seven of the eight goals.

TOURNEY TALK

- Navy is making its fourth-straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament and its 24th overall ... Navy has played in the fifth-most NCAA Tournaments behind Johns Hopkins (36), Maryland (29), Virginia (29) and Syracuse (26) ... UNC is making its 22nd appearance.
- The last time Navy qualified for four-consecutive NCAA Tournaments was 1986-89 ... the Mids received a bye in the '86 tournament, while winning their first-round games in 1987-88-89.
- Navy owns a 5-5 record in first-round contests ... Navy has won two of its last three.
- Navy has been unseeded in each of the last two years and will face the No. 8 seed for the second year in a row.
- Navy is 1-4 as an unseeded team and 1-1 against the eighth seed all-time.
- Navy is 4-4 in tournament action under head coach Richie Meade.
- Navy came into the NCAA Tournament a year ago with the exact same record as this year, 11-3 ... the Mids, however, had their championship dreams shattered after eighth-seeded Georgetown earned a come-from-behind victory, 9-7.
- UNC owns a 3-1 advantage over Navy in NCAA Tournament action, though the last time the two met in postseason play was 25 years ago ... Carolina defeated Navy, 16-2, in Chapel Hill in the quarterfinals of the 1982 NCAA Tournament.
- Senior Ian Dingman has scored a goal in four of the five NCAA Tournament games in which he has played ... in those four games he has scored two or more goals in all of them, including two in the National Championship Game against Syracuse in '04 ... he did not score a goal, but did produce an assist in Navy's win over Princeton in the '04 semis.
- Senior Billy Looney has scored a goal in six of the seven NCAA Tournament games he has played in, including a hat trick against Virginia in the 2005 quarterfinals ... the only game he did not score a goal in was the 2004 first-round game against Penn at home.
- Junior Nick Mirabito has scored five goals and added an assist in the three NCAA Tournament games in which he has played, including his hat trick against Delaware in the first round of the 2005 tournament ... it was his first-collegiate NCAA Tournament contest.
- Senior keeper Colin Finnegan played the final eight minutes of the '04 National Championship Game as a freshman after starting keeper Matt Russell had to come out of the game with a broken collarbone.
- Seniors Billy Looney and Tommy Wallin are the only players on the roster to play in all seven of Navy's NCAA Tournament contests over the last four seasons.

JUST THE FACTS

- Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy has put together a 49-14 record ... the 49 wins are the most by any team in the country and the .778 winning percentage is third behind Johns Hopkins (47-11, .810) and Cornell (44-11, .800).
- Behind a 12-1 win over Army in the Patriot League Tournament semifinals, the Mids picked up their 10th win of the season, marking the fourth-consecutive year that Navy has registered 10-plus wins ... it's only the second time in program history and the first time since 1975-78, the Mids have strung together double-figure wins in four-straight years (15 in 2004, 12 in 2005, 11 in 2006).
- A Navy player has produced a hat trick in 12 of the 14 contests this season — Ian Dingman 7x, Nick Mirabito 4x, Billy Looney 2x, Basil Daratsos 1x, Rob Lenseth 1x, Bruce Nechanicky 1x, Tim Paul 1x, William Wallace 1x.
- Navy's defense is ranked second in the country, giving up 6.21 goals per game ... the Mids have given up double-figure goals four times (Army in '06, Colgate and Georgetown in '07) in its last 29 games and six times in the last 44.
- The Mids have held seven of their 14 opponents to five or fewer goals this season, including a one-goal output by archrival Army in the Patriot League semifinals ... dating back to 2003, Navy has won 28-straight games when holding its foes to five or fewer goals.
- Navy has held the lead at halftime in every game this season ... the Mids have lost 12 in a row when trailing at the break and 59 straight when trailing after three quarters of play.
- Over the last seven games, Navy's opponents have scored just two goals on 20 extra-man opportunities (.100).
- Navy is one of just three teams in the country to have both its extra-man and man-down units ranked among the top 11 ... the Mids are 11th on extra-man and tied for eighth on man-down ... joining Navy is Duke (7th & 3rd) and Cornell (10th & 7th).
- Navy is one of five teams in the nation who is ranked among the top 10 in both scoring offense and defense ... Navy is 10th in scoring offense and second in scoring defense ... joining the Midshipmen are Cornell (1st & 5th), Duke (3rd & 8th), Notre Dame (5th & 4th) and Virginia (6th and 10th).
- Navy has scored a goal in 1000-consecutive games dating back to 1910.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT — WHAT THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT

- Navy outscored Army (12-1) and Colgate (15-9) 27-10 to win its fourth-straight Patriot League Tournament crown and boast an 8-0 Patriot League Tournament record in four years.
- Eight different players scored the 12 goals against Army and seven different players scored the 15 goals against Colgate ... all told 12 different players either scored a goal and provided an assist in the two tourney games.
- Junior attack Nick Mirabito was named the tournament MVP after posting six goals and three assists for nine points ... he turned in four goals and two assists in the championship game.
- Ian Dingman (3G, 4A), Tommy Wallin (3G, 3A), Colin Finnegan (5.16 GAA, 13Sv) and Jordan DiNola (held Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Brandon Corp to one assist) were named to the Patriot League All-Tournament Team.
- Navy dominated the Patriot League's major award winners in the league tournament two weeks ago ... junior Jordan DiNola held the league's offensive player of the year, Brandon Corp from Colgate, to just one assist ... senior Ian Dingman scored a pair of goals and added two assists against the league's defensive player of the year, Colin Hulme, of Colgate ... Navy rang up 12 goals on the Army's Adam Fullerton, the goalkeeper of th year.
- Junior Rob Lenseth was moved to the second-line midfield where he recorded his first-collegiate hat trick in the championship game against Colgate ... going into the league tournament, Lenseth had scored just one goal in his career, a marker against Holy Cross in '06.
- Navy's defense held Army to just one goal in its Patriot League Tournament semifinal win ... it's the fewest goals scored by a Navy opponent since the Mids held Lafayette to just one goal in a 14-1 victory on March 15, 2005 ... it's the fewest goals scored by Army in the series since 1989.

PATRIOT LEAGUE SUCCESS

- Since joining the Patriot League in 2004, Navy is 31-2 (.938) against opponents from the league, including an 8-0 mark in the Patriot League Tournament ... the Mids lost to Bucknell in 2005 and Colgate in 2006.
- The Mids have produced undefeated marks in conference action in two of the last four years ... 7-0 in '04 and 6-0 in '07.
- Navy has won at least a share of the Patriot League regular-season title in each of its four years as a member of the league ... additionally, the Mids have claimed the league's tournament crown all four years.
- 24 different Midshipmen have garnered All-Patriot League recognition since 2004, while 13 of the 24 have earned honors multiple times.
- A Navy player has earned three of the four major awards, including senior All-American Billy Looney, who was named the 2004 Patriot League Rookie of the Year.
- Richie Meade was named the 2004 Patriot League Coach of the Year after leading the Mids to a flawless 7-0 mark in league competition ... on Thursday, he received the award a second time from his peers after guiding the Mids to a 6-0 record this spring.

A DOMINANT STRETCH

- Navy is in the midst of one of its most dominant four-year runs in school history ... since the start of the 2004 season, Navy owns a 49-14 record (.778).
- During that same stretch, Navy is 22-12 (.647) against ranked opponents and 27-2 mark (.931) against unranked foes.
- Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy owns a 7-5 (.583) record against teams ranked higher than the Mids in the USILA Coaches Poll ... against lower ranked or unranked teams, Navy is 42-9 (.824).
- The Mids have posted a 25-6 record at home, outscoring their foes, 352-205 (11.4 to 6.6 gpg) during that span ... just four teams have reached double digits on Navy's home field during that stretch.
- The Mids may be even better on the road since the 2004 campaign, owning a 16-6 record and defeating 11 ranked teams in the process ... ironically, two of Navy's five road losses have come to unranked Patriot League opponents.
- In the last three-plus seasons, the Midshipmen have produced the top-three win totals in school history ... in 2004, Navy won 15 games en route to its NCAA Championship game appearance and in 2005, the Mids produced 12 wins in earning their second-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth ... last spring, Navy claimed wins in 11 contests.
- The Class of 2007 became the winningest class in school history on March 21 when it claimed its 45th win in 56 contests ... heading into the weekend, the Class of '07 has won 49 of its 63 contests (.778) ... last year's graduating class turned in a 44-18 record (.710).

NATIONAL NOISE

- Navy is ranked among the top 10 in five statistical categories and the top 5 in two.

- The Mids are second in the country with their smothering defense, giving up 6.21 goals per game ... Princeton is pacing the nation with its 6.00 GAA.

- Thanks to its 27-10 scoring advantage in the Patriot League Tournament, Navy moved up to third in scoring margin (+5.00) ... Cornell is atop the list with a +8.00 margin, followed by Notre Dame at +5.43.

- Navy also owns the nation's sixth-best win percentage (.786) and eighth-best man-down defense (.783).

- Senior goalkeeper Colin Finnegan is ranked No. 1 in goals-against average (6.06) and eighth in save percentage (.602).

- Senior midfielder William Wallace is No. 3 in the country in face-off win percentage (.651) and is 16th in ground balls, grabbing 5.07 per contest.

- Senior Ian Dingman is punching in 2.21 goals per game and is ranked 18th in the nation.

TOUGH "D"

- Since 2000, Navy's defense has been ranked No. 1 in the country three times, including 2005 and '06 ... after holding Army to just one goal in the Patriot League Tournament, the Mids jumped from No. 5 to No. 2, giving up 6.21 goals per game.

- Senior keeper Colin Finnegan also moved up from third to No. 1 in the national rankings, giving up 6.06 goals per game ... he is ranked eighth in save percentage (.602).

- Navy has held 27 of its last 63 opponents to five or fewer goals, and only nine foes (Ohio State, Army and Syracuse in '04, Georgetown and Virginia in '05, Army '06 and Colgate, Georgetown and Johns Hopkins in '07) have managed to reach double figures.

- Since 2004, Navy has held 30 of its 63 opponents to 25 or fewer shots ... during that time frame, Navy is 27-3 (Ohio State 2004, Colgate 2006, Maryland 2007) when holding its foes to under 25 shots.

- Navy has lost just seven games when holding foes to nine or fewer goals since 2004, posting a 42-7 mark ... two of the losses came in overtime during the 2005 campaign (Bucknell and Johns Hopkins), losses in '06 were to Colgate, Georgetown (twice) and Johns Hopkins, while Maryland managed to nip the Mids in overtime two weeks ago.

- Navy's defense held Army to just one goal in its Patriot League Tournament semifinal win ... it's the fewest goals scored by a Navy opponent since the Mids held Lafayette to just one goal in a 14-1 victory on March 15, 2005 ... it's the fewest goals scored by Army in the series since 1989.

BALANCED SCORING

- 19 players have scored goals for the Midshipmen this spring, while another five have posted assists, bringing the total to 24 different players having a role in Navy's scoring.

- Navy is one of nine schools to have 24 or more players produce a point this spring ... Delaware leads all schools with 29 players scoring.

- Of the 24 players who have scored for Navy, 14 of them have found the back of the goal at least twice this spring.

- Nine Navy players have reached double digits in the points column ... only Denver (11) and Delaware (10) have more players with double-digit point production ... Albany, Cornell, Manhattan, North Carolina, Ohio State, Towson and Virginia join Navy with nine players who have recorded 10-plus points this year.

- Last year, only seven Navy players reached double figures in the points column ... while Navy currently has nine players with double digits, junior attack Matt Guido is on the cusp with eight points.

- Seven different players have accounted for the Mids' 11 game-winners ... First-Team All-Patriot League selections Ian Dingman and Tommy Wallin have each scored three game-winners.

COMPARE AND CONTRAST

- When comparing the stats from Navy's 11 wins vs. the three losses, perhaps the most significant difference is extra-man production ... Navy has scored 16 of its 17 extra-man goals in games in which they have won.

- The Mids are 1 for 9 (.111) on extra-man opportunities in the three games they have lost.

- There is also a noticeable difference in Navy's clearing game ... Navy owns an 83 percent success rate in games it has won, but has cleared just 63 percent in losses.

- Navy's defense has limited its foes to 5.4 goals per game in wins and is giving up an additional four goals in losses.

A CLOSER LOOK AT NATIONAL EXPOSURE

- Since the start of 2004, Navy has been on television 24 times (7 appearances in '04, 6 in '05 and '06, 5 in '07).

- The Mids own a 12-12 record when their games are televised ... Navy is 8-5 on CSTV all-time and 4-5 on the ESPN family of networks ... the Mids are also 0-1 on Time-Warner Sports and 0-1 on MASN.

- The Midshipmen own a 36-2 record in games that have not been televised since the start of 2004.

- Navy made four regular-season television appearances this spring ... Navy partner CSTV carried the Mids' heartbreaking loss to Maryland, Navy's 12-9 Star Game victory over academy rival Army, as well as the Patriot League Championship Game in which Navy defeated Colgate, 15-9 ... MASN televised the Mids' game at Georgetown (3/31), while ESPNU carried the Navy-Johns Hopkins (4/21).

NAVY'S 2007 SCHEDULE

- The Midshipmen have played six ranked teams this spring, taking wins over then-ranked No. 5 North Carolina (19-8), No. 16 Bucknell (6-3) and No. 19 Colgate (15-9) ... Navy dropped back-to-back one-goal games to No. 7 Georgetown (10-9) and No. 11 Maryland (8-7, 2OT) and a third against No. 7 Johns Hopkins (10-9).
- Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy has played 34 of its 63 games against teams ranked in the top 25, posting a 22-12 record ... two of the losses have come against the No. 1-ranked team in the country at the time (Johns Hopkins twice) ... meanwhile, four of the losses have been at the hands of Georgetown (2005, 2006 2x, 2007) ... other losses to ranked teams in that span were against No. 20 Ohio State (2004), No. 4 Syracuse (2004), No. 7 Georgetown (2005), No. 6 Virginia (2005), No. 5 Georgetown (2006), No. 12 Johns Hopkins (2006), No. 5 Georgetown (2006), No. 7 Georgetown (2007), No. 11 Maryland (2007) and No. 7 Johns Hopkins (2007).
- In fact, since the start of the 2000 campaign, 64 of Navy's 115 games (.557) have been against ranked teams ... in those games against ranked opponents, Navy is 34-30 (.531), with eight of those losses against Johns Hopkins.
- In games against unranked foes since 2000, Navy is 46-5 (.902) ... the losses have come to UMBC (2001), Air Force and Penn State (2003), Bucknell (2005) and Colgate (2006).

FAN SUPPORT SECOND TO NONE

- The Mids have led the country in regular-season home attendance in each of the last three years ... in 2005, Navy averaged 5,332 fans per game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and in 2006, the Mids drew 4,321 per contest ... this spring more than 33,000 fans came out to watch Navy's six regular-season home games (5587.3).
- On March 6, 14,625 fans crowded into Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to watch one of the most hotly-contested battles in Div.-I lacrosse this season, as Maryland took the Mids to double OT ... it was the third-largest documented crowd to watch a Navy lacrosse game at the stadium.
- A week later, 11,370 fans cheered the Mids on to a 12-9 win over arch rival Army ... it marked the seventh-largest crowd.
- In April of 2005, 14,124 fans cheered the Mids on to victory over Maryland, 9-8 ... it was the largest crowd to watch a regular-season Division I lacrosse game in 2005.
- In the following home game, a crowd of 12,117 watched Navy beat arch rival Army, 12-9, in the Star Game ... it was the sixth largest in school history and it marked the first time in that Navy drew over 10,000 fans in back-to-back games ... additionally, it was the largest documented crowd to see an Army-Navy lacrosse game.
- Over 13,000 fans braved rainy conditions to see Navy play Johns Hopkins last spring ... the crowd of 13,857 was the fifth largest in school history and largest to witness a regular-season Division I lacrosse game in '06.

SENIOR SALUTE

- In four years, the Class of 2007 — team captain Andrew Dow, Victor Barger, David Cohn, Ian Dingman, Lyon Ellison, Colin Finnegan, Billy Looney, John Reichert, William Wallace, Tommy Wallin and Patrick Winter — has accomplished quite a lot, including a 49-14 record, 23-2 Patriot League mark. The following are some of the achievements by the Class of '07 ...
- The most wins over a four-year period.
- The most wins by a Div. I lacrosse program in the last four years.
- At least a share of four regular-season Patriot League crowns.
- Four Patriot League Tournament titles.
- Four-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances ... the first time since 1986-87-88-89.
- Four-straight years with 10-plus wins ... the second time in program history and first time since 1975-76-77-78.
- A school-record 15 wins in 2004.
- An NCAA Championship appearance for just the second time in school history and first time since 1975.
- The program's first win over a No. 1-ranked team, a 9-6 win at Maryland in 2004.

LOONEY AMONG TEWAARATON'S FINAL 17

• Senior midfielder Billy Looney is among 17 players to make the initial cut for the 2007 Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded annually to the nation's top lacrosse player.

- Looney was among 51 players named to the original preseason watch list released Feb. 23.
- A two-time All-American, Looney has played in every game since arriving at the Academy (63 gms) and has produced either a goal or an assist in 49 of those contests.
- Navy's top scorer out of the midfield, Looney is third overall on the team in scoring this spring, turning in 30 points on 17 goals and 13 assists
- He is just one point shy of becoming the 28th player in program history to reach 100 points ... he has scored 70 goals and added 29 assists.

MEADE NAMED US LACROSSE COACH OF THE WEEK

- After orchestrating the Mids' 19-8 rout over fifth-ranked and previously unbeaten North Carolina, 13th-year Navy lacrosse coach Richie Meade was named the US Lacrosse Men's Coach of the Week on March 5.
- Seventeen different Midshipmen produced a goal or an assist to lead then No. 12 Navy to a 19-8 route over No. 5 North Carolina at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- It's the most goals scored by Navy since ringing up 23 against Holy Cross in 2004 and the most against a nationally-ranked team since handing 18th-ranked Army a 19-9 setback on April 7, 1990.
- It's the second-consecutive year in which Meade has been lauded for his efforts by US Lacrosse ... last April he was tagged the coach of the week after leading the Midshipmen to a 7-6 victory over fourth-ranked Maryland in College Park.

HOME COOKIN'

- Navy owns a 25-6 record (.806) in games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium since the start of the 2004 campaign, outscoring its foes, 352-205 (11.4 to 6.6 gpg).
- Navy has not lost a Patriot League game at home in its four years as a member of the conference.
- The Mids have allowed just four teams (Colgate in '07; Georgetown in '05; Ohio State and Johns Hopkins in '04) to reach double digits in games played on their home field over the last four seasons ... Navy has held 12 of its 30 opponents to five or fewer goals since 2004.
- Navy owns a 7-1 record at home this season, dropping an 8-7 double overtime decision to Maryland on April 6.
- Navy owns a 65-28 (.699) record at home under the direction of head coach Richie Meade ... the Mids have reached four wins at home every season Meade has been the head coach ... Navy has recorded five or more wins at home in six of Meade's 13 seasons, including seven wins in 2004, '05 and '06.

DINGMAN AMONG NATION'S BEST

- It took senior All-American attack Ian Dingman just two games to produce the four goals he needed to become only the eighth player in school history to reach the 150-point plateau.
- A week later against No. 5 North Carolina, he registered his second hat trick of the year and became the fifth player in program history to score 100 goals.
- Dingman is only the third player in Navy's history to score 100 goals and deal out 50 assists ... with 123 goals and 62 assists, he joins Hall of Famer Mike Buzzell (111G, 111A) and four-time All-American Mike Herger (107G, 90A).
- With four goals at Georgetown, Dingman moved past 1980 Turnbull Award winner and Hall of Famer Mike Buzzell (1977-80) for second on Navy's career goals list where he has amassed 123.
- Dingman moved into fourth on the Mids' career points list after producing a pair of goals and assists in Navy's Patriot League Championship Game victory over Colgate ... with 185 points, he trails four-time All-American Mike Herger by 12 points.
- With a pair of assists against Maryland, Dingman took sole possession of 11th on the career assists list with 62.
- He is tied for fifth among the nation's active players with 185 points, he is fourth with 123 goals and tied for eighth with 62 assists.
- He has produced 49 multi-point games during his career, as well as 39 multi-goal performances and 22-career hat tricks ... he has produced two or more assists 20 times during his career.
- Dingman is ranked 55th in the nation in points per game (2.79) and 18th in goals per game (2.21).

FRESHMEN A FORCE

- 13 freshmen have played for the Mids this season with four scoring goals ... six of the 13 have played in over half of the games, including Basil Daratsos, Joe McAuliffe, Tim Paul and Jaren Woeppel who have played in every game.
- Freshman Basil Daratsos has started all 14 games for the Midshipmen as a member of the midfield.
- He owns 18 points on 16 goals and two assists and is the team's sixth-leading scorer ... he has turned in a goal or an assist in 11 of the 14 games.
- Daratsos was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Week on March 26 after producing a career-high four goals in Navy's win over Colgate ... he is Navy's first rookie of the week since Nick Mirabito in 2005.
- The four goals scored by Daratsos and William Wallace against Colgate are the most by a Navy player since last year's Star Game against Army when Billy Looney scored four times ... it's also the first time since the 2004 Navy-Colgate encounter that two Midshipmen have registered at least four goals in a game.
- It's the most goals by a Navy freshman since Ian Dingman scored four goals and added three assists in a 10-6 win at Stony Brook on March 22, 2003.
- Rookie attack Tim Paul has scored 14 points on nine goals and five assists since stepping in for the injured Bruce Nechanicky nearly a month ago (5 gms) ... he has produced 19 points on 12 goals and seven assists this season and is the Mids' fifth-leading scorer.
- Paul was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Week on April 24 after posting three goals against Johns Hopkins.

FACE-OFF FACTS

- Navy is ranked No. 13 in the country in face-off percentage, winning 56.5 percent (165-292) of its draws this spring ... Delaware is pacing the nation (.731).
- Senior face-off specialist William Wallace is ranked No. 3 in the country, winning 97 of his 149 draws (.651) ... he trails Delaware standout Alex Smith who is winning 74.1 percent of his face-offs.
- Wallace turned in an 8-for-8 performance against Bucknell earlier this spring ... during his career, he has won 26 of 28 draws against the Bison.
- With his eight face-off wins at Bucknell, Wallace took sole possession of second on Navy's career face-off wins list ... behind his 10 for 16 effort against Colgate in the Patriot League Tournament title game, he became only the second player in program history to win 300 draws during his career (306), joining Chris Pieczonka (2002-05, 363 wins).
- Additionally, Wallace moved into seventh on the Mids' single-season face-off wins list with 97 ... Jason Hull (1998) stands sixth with 101 victories.
- Ranked 16th in the nation in ground balls per game (5.07) this spring, Wallace became Navy's all-time ground balls leader when he scooped up seven against Colgate in the league tourney ... with five grounders against Georgetown, he became just the third player in program history to grab 200 loose balls.

Celebrating 100 Years of Navy Lacrosse

Richie MEADE

HEAD COACH
North Carolina '76
13th Season at Navy
17th Season as a Collegiate Coach

Back To National Prominence

After leading Navy to three-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time since the 1992, '93 and '94 seasons, 2004 National Coach of the Year Richie Meade enters his 17th season as a collegiate head coach and 13th at the Naval Academy knowing there is unfinished business.

Meade has led the Mids to eight or more wins in six of the last seven seasons, including each of the last three years in which Navy has record double-digit wins. It is only the second time in program history (1975-78) that Navy has produced double-figure wins in three-consecutive seasons. Navy posted a school-record 15 wins in 2004 and the second-most wins in 2005 with 12. Last spring, the Mids turned in an 11-4 record dropping a 9-7 contest to fourth-ranked Georgetown in the NCAA Tournament Quarterfinals. In addition, Navy owns a remarkable three-year 17-2 record in Patriot League action, winning at least a share of the regular-season title three times and the tournament all three years since joining the league in 2004.

The Rise of Navy Lacrosse

After playing in the 2004 National Championship, the hunger to make a return trip was a driving force throughout the 2005 campaign. It was that drive that helped the Mids overcome obstacles thrown their direction every step of the way, which included multiple injuries.

Despite being short-handed most of the season, the Mids produced a 12-4 record, claimed their second-consecutive Patriot League Tournament title and made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament as the fifth seed. The Mids produced a first-round victory over Delaware at home, but dropped a two-goal decision against sixth-ranked Virginia at Hopkins' Homewood Field in the quarterfinals. The last time Navy won back-to-back first-round games was the 1987, '88 and '89 seasons in which the Mids claimed opening-round wins over Brown, Harvard and Penn, respectively.

Seven of Navy's last eight games of the season were against nationally-ranked opponents with the Mids recording a 4-3 record which featured a pair of victories over arch rival Army. The Mids also posted a 9-8 win over Maryland, their first win over the Terps in Annapolis since 1985. It also marked the first time since 1980 and '81 in which Navy has won back-to-back contests against Maryland. Nine Mids were named to All-Patriot League teams, while six players garnered All-America recognition.

In 2006, Navy battered 14th-ranked North Carolina, defeated arch rival and nationally-ranked Army twice and picked off fourth-ranked Maryland in College Park en route to making its third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Despite winning a share of its third-straight Patriot League regular-season crown, Navy was forced to defend its title on neutral territory when the Mids cruised past Lehigh and Army to win their third-consecutive Patriot League Tournament and earned the league's automatic bid to play in the NCAA Tournament. It was in Washington, D.C. where the Mids' season was cut short by a come-from-behind win by fourth-ranked Georgetown in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Eleven Mids were named to All-Patriot League teams with seniors Jon Birsner and Matt Russell picking up

Offensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year awards, respectively. Additionally, five players garnered All-America recognition, including Billy Looney and Jordan DiNola who will carry the torch in 2007.

2004: A Season to Remember

The year 2004 will forever be etched into the Navy lacrosse annals. Most considered the Mids' season a Cinderella story. But the blood, sweat and tears spoke volumes for the Navy squad that fought to play in the program's first National Championship game since 1975.

Over the course of the season, several milestones were achieved, including a school-record 15 wins. In addition to recording the most wins in Academy history, Navy earned its highest ranking — No. 2 — for five-consecutive weeks. Its win over Maryland was the program's first win over a top-ranked program and one-of-six Navy wins over top-10 ranked teams. The Mids also attracted better than 18,500 fans to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to witness No. 1 Johns Hopkins battle No. 2 Navy in a 10-9 overtime Blue Jay decision. Along the way, Meade helped orchestrate Navy's seventh-consecutive Star Game victory against arch rival Army.

After sweeping through the Patriot League with a 7-0 record in its first season as a member of the league, Navy conquered Colgate and Hobart in the league's postseason journey to earn the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, its first appearance since 1999. The Hobart win came with an added bonus, marking Meade's 100th-career victory.

The Mids went on to gain the nation's support as they fought their way through the NCAA Tournament. First defeating Penn at home and then surviving a battle against seventh-seeded Cornell on the Big Red's home turf. Navy made it to the coveted national semifinals where it beat eighth-ranked Princeton, 8-7, before succumbing to Syracuse by a goal in the finale with better than 40,000 fans looking on.

By year's end, seven Mids garnered All-America kudos, including keeper Matt Russell who was named a First-Team All-American and the winner of the Markland Kelly Award as the nation's top goalkeeper. Meade was the recipient of the Morris Touchstone Memorial Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. He is just the fourth Naval Academy coach to earn the Touchstone Award.

The Journey to Navy

A native of Williston Park, N.Y., Meade played at Nassau Community College before transferring to North Carolina where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1976, as well as a Master of Science degree in 1979.

After working in the recreation field and as an assistant coach at Duke, he was named an assistant at North Carolina in 1978. A year later, he earned his first head coaching job at the University of Baltimore, where he had a four-year record of 27-23. The school dropped its athletic program in 1983. He then came to Navy for five years (1983-88) as an assistant lacrosse coach and Assistant Professor of Physical Education. During that period, he served as defensive coordinator for the lacrosse program.

From 1988-90, he was an assistant at North Carolina, serving as offensive coordinator and attack and midfield coach. Meade moved on to Army in 1991 as offensive coordinator and attack position coach.

Meade serves as President of the Intercollegiate Men's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IMLCA). He is the Director of the Navy Lacrosse Camp and is a tenured full professor in the Naval Academy Physical Education Department. In the fall of '06, he was invited by the Brigade of Midshipmen to speak at the Corbin Leadership Conference. He was the head coach for the South Team in the '95 North-South Lacrosse All-Star Game.

Meade and his wife, Sue, have three daughters, Jillian, Shannon Grace and Cassidy.

Sixth-ranked Navy scored eight-unanswered goals, seven in the second quarter, to rally back from an early 3-0 deficit and defeat Patriot League foe Lehigh, 9-5, at Ulrich Sports Complex in Bethlehem, Pa. Six different players scored goals for the Mids as Navy improved to 4-0 on the year, including a 2-0 record in Patriot League action.

The Mids were led by senior Billy Looney who picked up his first hat trick of the season, while becoming the third different player this season who has pitched in three-plus goals in a game for Navy. Fellow first-line midfielder senior Tommy Wallin turned in a pair of goals and added an assist, while attackmen Nick Mirabito and Bruce Nechanicky each scored a goal and assisted on a pair. Stephen Marino paced Lehigh with a pair of goals, while Matthew Diehl, Chris Linko and Ricky Cornetta each scored.

Shots were few and far between in the opening quarter as the two teams combined for just 10. It wasn't until the 3:11 mark that either team got a solid shot off, as Lehigh rookie Chris Linko curled around the left side and poked in his first-collegiate goal to give the Mountain Hawks a 1-0 lead. Less than a minute later, Jeff Wiener fed Marino who scored from five yards out on the left side. The Mountain Hawks pushed their lead to three when Cornetta came around the left side of the goal and rolled the ball in with just under a minute to play in the opening quarter.

Just 26 seconds elapsed in the second quarter before Wallin fed Looney for a 10-yard power shot up the middle on an extra-man opportunity. That goal was the first of eight in a row for the Midshipmen, including seven straight in the second quarter.

After more than a 35-minute scoring drought, Lehigh put its fourth goal on the board as Marino shot up the gut as he was spinning to the middle of the field. The Mountain Hawks scored off a Navy error at the 8:53 mark in the fourth quarter as Diehl intercepted a pass by Finnegan and popped the ball right back into the net.

Both teams finished the contest with 35 shots, while the Mids claimed the ground ball war with a 32-25 advantage. Navy won 10 of the 17 face-offs with senior William Wallace taking eight of the 11 draws he took. Finnegan played an impressive second half where he made 12 of his career-high tying 14 saves.

Ian Dingman, Billy Looney and Bruce Nechanicky each produced a hat trick to lead the fifth-ranked Navy men's lacrosse team to a 13-5 victory over Canisius at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The Mids are off to a 5-0 start for the second-straight season and only the second time in the last 18 years.

In addition to Dingman, Looney and Nechanicky's combined nine goals, junior attack Nick Mirabito pitched in a pair of goals and assists, while Basil Daratsos and Matt Guido each scored. Looney led all scorers, adding a pair of assists for his first-collegiate five-point contest. Five different players scored for Canisius, including senior Kevin Ross who led the team with a goal and an assist.

Canisius looked to take the early lead in the game when attack Michael Blocho scored. However, the goal was waived off after the officials ruled the stick illegal, sending him to the sideline to serve a three-minute unrelaxable penalty.

Dingman curled around the left side of the cage and stuck in the game's first goal at the 6:37 mark in the first quarter. The Navy lead would be short-lived, as Ross answered for Canisius 33 seconds later, as he, too, came around the left side of the goal to sneak in a shot.

The Golden Griffins took their only lead of the contest at 2-1 when Brad Favero sent a bouncer from 10 yards out on the right side into the net with four minutes to go. Nechanicky evened the score with just seven ticks remaining in the opening stanza, as he found the back of the net from five yards out.

Navy took a 3-2 lead when Looney hooked up with Mirabito for an extra-man strike at 6:22 in the second period. Unable to shake the Griffins, rookie Michael Benzinger sent a shot from 10 yards out to the upper right-hand corner to post his first-collegiate goal.

The Mids would take a 4-3 lead going into the half as Mirabito scored in transition off an assist from junior midie Terence Higgins. That score would be the first of six unanswered goals for the Midshipmen, as they led Canisius 9-3 with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter.

Navy went on to give up one goal in each of the final two quarters to seal the victory.

Navy won just two of the nine face-offs in the opening half, but came back to claim eight of the 13 second-half draws. For the game, the Mids were 10 for 22 with William Wallace finding the most success at 6 for 11.

In addition to the possession game, the Mids also found the clearing game to be a struggle.

Junior Nick Mirabito scored three goals and assisted on two others to lead the fifth ranked Navy Midshipmen to an easy 12-2 Patriot League victory over Holy Cross in front of a terrific crowd of 4,482 fans at Gerald J. Ford Stadium on the campus of Southern Methodist University. The game was the first Division I lacrosse game played in the Dallas Metroplex area.

Mirabito, who has scored a goal or handed out an assist in each of the 37 games he's appeared in, scored an unassisted goal in the first period, scored off an assist from Terence Higgins in the second, scored off an assist from Billy Looney in the third and then assisted on back-to-back goals by Ian Dingman to end the third period. It's the third time this season that Mirabito has recorded a hat trick and it's the ninth hat trick by a Navy player this year.

The Mids defense was sensational all day, shutting out the Crusaders until late in the fourth period. Senior goalie Colin Finnegan came up with nine saves and did not allow a goal before leaving the contest with 3:46 left.

The Navy offense also got goals from Higgins in the first, Basil Daratsos and Matt Guido, off an assist from Dingman, in the second, Gregory Clement, who was returning to his hometown, scored two fourth quarter goals, Joe McAuliffe scored his first-career goal off the first-career assist from Dan Vassar in the fourth and Andy Tormey scored his first-career goal on a man down situation to round out the scoring.

Basil Daratsos, William Wallace and Ian Dingman combined for 11 goals to lead fourth-ranked Navy to a 15-10 victory over Patriot League foe Colgate at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Navy utilized a 5-0 run in the opening quarter to help seal its seventh-straight win of the season, giving the Mids their best start since 1986 when Navy opened the year 8-0.

After dropping a 6-3 decision to the Raiders last year, the Mids came out with one thing on their mind - revenge. Just 14 seconds into the game, Daratsos stuck in his first of four goals on the afternoon. He followed up with a second goal just over a minute later, firing in a shot from the left side, 10 yards out. By the 12:21 mark, Navy held a 3-0 lead as sophomore attack Bruce Nechanicky produced his seventh goal of the year.

Navy extended its lead to 4-0 when senior Tommy Wallin fed Billy Looney on an extra-man goal at 5:03. On the ensuing face-off, Wallace won the draw, picked up the grounder and headed straight to the goal where he scored the first of his four goals on the day at the 4:57 mark.

The Mids opened up a 6-0 lead when Wallace took a pass and poked it past Colgate keeper Tom Harrington just 2:40 into the second period.

The Raiders finally got on the scoreboard with 10:20 remaining in the half as a Joshua Back goal staged a mini run by Colgate. The Raiders went on to score back-to-back extra-man goals at 9:23 and 7:02 by Nick Monastero and Kevin Colleluori, respectively, in what turned out to be a penalty-plagued afternoon. In all, 16 penalties were called against teams that came into the contest as the two least penalized teams in the Patriot League.

Navy answered with a pair of goals by Dingman and Wallace before Colgate's Brendan Hurley scored the final tally of the half at 1:13, as Navy held a 9-4 advantage at the intermission. Dingman ended the game with three goals and in doing so he moved past Mike Herger (1987-90, 107 goals) into third place on the Mids' all-time goals scored list with 108.

Navy salted the game away with four-consecutive goals, including a score by junior attack Nick Mirabito who extended his consecutive games with a point streak to 38 in a row, the second longest in the country.

Navy outscored the Raiders, 5-2, in the third quarter and while Colgate pitched a 4-2 advantage in the goal column in the fourth quarter, it was too little, too late.

The 10 goals by Colgate marks the first time since last year's Army-Navy game that a team has been able to put up double-digit goals against the Midshipmen and just the third time in the last 22 games.

Senior attack Ian Dingman scored three goals, including a critical fourth-quarter goal with 5:20 left that stemmed a Bucknell rally, to help lead Navy to a 6-3 victory over Bucknell at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium. With the win, the Mids improve to 8-0 for the first time since 1986 and for only the second time since 1965.

Navy dominated play in the first half and through much of the third quarter, scoring five of the first six goals of the game.

Dingman got Navy on the board with a man-up goal with 7:56 left in the first quarter off an assist from junior Nick Mirabito. The assist marked the 39th-consecutive game that Mirabito has scored a goal or dealt out an assist in a game, the second-longest such streak in the country.

Dingman made it 2-0 with 3:28 left in the first quarter off an assist from second-year attack Bruce Nechanicky and then Nechanicky scored a goal of his own early in the second period off an assist from senior William Wallace to make it 3-0 Navy.

Nechanicky made it 5-1 with 10:58 left in the third quarter off an assist from Mirabito, before Bucknell worked its way back into the game on back-to-back goals by Joe Mele and Brian Gargan. Gargan's goal came with 33 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Navy man-down defense was tested in the fourth quarter as the Mids were hit with four penalties in a two-minute span. Navy was two men down for one minute and then had to kill a 30-second penalty and a one-minute penalty in succession.

After returning to full strength, the Mids reassumed control of the game and Dingman's unassisted goal put the game away.

The Navy defense was sensational once again, allowing just nine shots on goal. Senior goalie Colin Finnegan made four saves. Another key facet was face-off game as the Mids won all 12 draws, including an 8-for-8 performance by Wallace, while Mikells Vlskausis was 4-4.

Seventh-ranked Georgetown scored six second-half goals, including five in the third quarter, to come from behind and defeat No. 4 Navy, 10-9, at Multi-Sport Field. Navy suffered just its first loss of the year, snapping an eight-game winning streak.

Navy had the hot hand early as senior Billy Looney fired off a shot from eight yards out on the left side, rippling the net just 33 seconds into the contest. The Mids tacked on a second goal three minutes later when Ian Dingman picked up a loose ball and poked it in.

Navy took the momentum into the second quarter when senior Tommy Wallin curled around the right side of the cage to give Navy a 3-1 lead.

The Hoyas closed to within one when Brendan Cannon fed Craig Dowd six minutes into the second stanza.

On the ensuing face-off, Looney intercepted a GU pass and quickly threw the ball to Dingman. Miles Kass came out of the goal to challenge Dingman, who faked and then tucked the ball in for a 4-2 lead. The Mids pushed their lead to 5-2 with 5:15 remaining in the half when Looney found an open Nick Mirabito at the crease.

Georgetown staged a run at the end of the first half as attack Jake Samperton stuck in a pair of goals to trim the Mids' lead to just one, 5-4, at intermission.

Cannon stepped up his game in the second half, scoring all three of his team-high goals, including back-to-back strikes just 22 seconds apart in the third to give the Hoyas their first lead of the game with 11:27 left in the third period. Dingman answered less than a minute later, as Mirabito fed him at the crease to tie the game.

Georgetown again staged a run, scoring a pair of goals, both set up by Cannon passes, to take a 9-7 lead at the end of three periods.

Dingman fired in his fourth goal of the game, but Cannon attacked the crease and bullied his way in to give the Hoyas a two-goal margin with 7:41 to go.

Senior William Wallace won the draw and fed junior Terence Higgins, who had a great look at the goal, but Kass came up with a big save to preserve the win.

Second-year midfielder Dan Groot's goal 42 seconds into the second overtime period snapped Navy's three-game stronghold over Maryland, as the 11th-ranked Terps upset No. 6 Navy, 8-7, at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in front of 14,625 fans. It is the third-largest documented crowd to see a game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and the 11th largest in NCAA Div. I history (regular-season game).

Despite a two-goal deficit with just under six minutes remaining in the contest, Maryland kept its composure. The Terps trimmed the lead to one with 4:53 left when Michael Phipps fed Jeremy Sieverts who was slashing in front of the crease and one-timed it past Navy keeper Colin Finnegan. Minutes later, junior midfielder Drew Evans sent the game into overtime after his low-to-high shot sailed over Finnegan's right shoulder from more than 10 yards out with just seven seconds remaining in regulation.

Navy had its best opportunity to score when rookie midfielder Basil Daratsos fired off a shot in the first overtime period, only to have it stuffed by Terrapin goalkeeper Brian Phipps, who had a sensational game in goal with 13 stops.

Navy rookies Daratsos and Tim Paul, starting his first-collegiate game in place of the injured Bruce Nechanicky, turned in solid performances for the Midshipmen, including early in the contest when Paul fed Daratsos for the game's first goal with just 1:42 elapsed. Daratsos finished the game with a pair of goals, while Paul scored back-to-back markers early in the third quarter.

On the heels of Paul's two goals, senior attack Ian Dingman fired off his lone goal of the game at the 8:27 mark to give the Mids a 6-4 lead. Dingman added a pair of goals in the loss.

Navy outshot the Terps, 30-24, including a 15-5 advantage after the first two quarters. Maryland turned the tables in the second half, owning a 16-13 advantage, including a 10-5 edge in the third quarter. Navy face-off specialists William Wallace and Mikells Visgauss did a fantastic job of giving the Midshipmen possession. The two combined (Wallace 7-11, Visgauss 6-7) to win 13-of-18 draws with the 19th taken by close defenseman Andy Tormey.

Seniors Tommy Wallin, Ian Dingman and Billy Looney scored goals in the final nine minutes to lead No. 8 Navy to a 12-9 victory over arch rival Army in front of 11,370 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Seven different Midshipmen scored goals, while another two chipped in assists as Navy concluded the Patriot League portion of its schedule undefeated at 6-0.

It looked as though it would be a blowout early on as the Mids opened up a 3-0 lead seven minutes into the game. Army briefly stopped Navy's momentum at the 6:20 mark when sophomore attackman Brooks Korvin fired off a shot from seven yards out.

Navy took a 6-2 lead when Wallin found midfielder William Wallace cutting to the middle with just 32 seconds remaining in the half.

On the ensuing face-off, the Mids failed to get a specialist out in a reasonable amount of time and Army was awarded possession. The Black Knights wasted little time in setting up, as rookie Brandon Butler found Jason Peyer who tucked in his first-collegiate goal against the Mids with just five ticks left in the opening half.

Navy scored back-to-back goals just 29 seconds apart in the first three minutes of the second half to open up a five-goal lead, its largest of the game. Army, though, went on a five-goal run to knot the score at the end of the third quarter. After a goal by Justin Bokmeyer at the 12:17 mark, the Black Knights scored three-straight goals in unique fashion. Wigdzinski fired off a shot that was initially saved by Navy keeper Colin Finnegan, but the ball popped up and Finnegan lost site of it as it fell to the ground and literally rolled across the line.

Five minutes later, Ryan Chase sent a shot that again was initially saved by Finnegan, but Peyer snatched it out of the air and poked it in the open net. At the 3:43 mark, Korvin got off a slow bouncing shot as he was falling to the ground that somehow found its way into the goal.

Army knotted the game at eight-all when second-year middle Alex Rhoads punched in a shot from 10 yards out. The regained the lead, when Mikells Visgauss won the draw to start the fourth quarter and fed senior Victor Barger who raced to the left side of the field untouched and found a gap.

Army tied the game at 9-9 (10:43) when Bokmeyer threaded a pass from the left side of the field that went right through a pack of players and LoRusso dunked it in as he sat on the crease.

Wallin gave the Mids the lead for good with 8:31 to go as he fought off a triple-team that sent him to the ground as he release a shot from five yards out.

Johns Hopkins junior middle Paul Rabil scored two of his game-high three goals in the fourth quarter, including the game-winner to lead the seventh-ranked Blue Jays to a 10-9 victory over No. 9 Navy at Homewood Field. With the win, Johns Hopkins has now defeated Navy in 33-consecutive meetings, meanwhile it marks the fourth-straight one-goal decision by the Blue Jays in the series.

After Hopkins rookie midfielder Michael Kimmel scored the game's first goal at 13:39, Navy went on a three-goal run, spearheaded by a William Wallace goal at the 11-minute mark. Freshman Basil Daratsos hit a sick shot as he rolled to his left and threaded it past Hopkins keeper Jesse Schwartzman. Senior Billy Looney made it a 3-1 game when he fired off an unassisted shot from 15 yards.

Hopkins, though, closed the first quarter with a goal by Kevin Huntley, who faked defender Andrew Dow and poked the shot in at the crease.

The Blue Jays scored the first-two goals of the second quarter to regain the lead. The tying goal was set up by an errant pass by Navy keeper Colin Finnegan who overthrew Geoff Leone behind the Navy cage and Jake Byrne quickly picked up the ball and tossed it into the open net.

Navy knotted the score at four apiece when senior Tommy Wallin found Ian Dingman on the crease, and Dingman scored on an extra-man goal. Navy rookie Tim Paul scored the first of his game-high three goals with just 18 ticks remaining in the first half.

Hopkins struck first in the second half with Kimmel posting his second goal of the day off an assist from Steven Boyle. Just over a minute later, Navy took the lead once again on a loose ball that was rolled in by Paul.

Brian Christopher's goal with 4:04 left in the third sparked three unanswered goals by Hopkins, as it took a 8-6 advantage. Navy answered with back-to-back goals by Looney and Wallin to knot things up with nearly eight minutes remaining in the game. Rabil, though, scored just 50 seconds after Wallin to give the Blue Jays a 9-8 advantage. He tacked on a second goal with four minutes to go, firing in a 10-yarder from the right side.

Navy narrowed the lead to one when Paul took a pass from attack Nick Mirabito and sent it past Schwartzman.

Hopkins won the ensuing face-off, but turned the ball over in an attempt to get it to the offensive side of the field. However, time ran out on the Midshipmen.

Paul paced Navy with his first-collegiate hat trick, while Mirabito added a team-best three assists and became the 26th player in program history to reach the 100-point milestone. Six different players accounted for Navy's nine goals in the contest.

Tenth-ranked Navydominated Army from the opening face-off, as the Midshipmen defeated the fourth-seeded Black Knights, 12-1, in the first of two Patriot League Tournament semifinal games in Annapolis. The 11-goal victory ties the series record for largest margin of victory which it has accomplished five times in the 85-game history. The one-goal output by Army marks the fewest goals it has scored against Navy since 1989 when the Mids defeated the Black Knights, 12-1.

Eight different players put goals on the scoreboard for the Midshipmen, including four who each tucked in a pair. Seniors Tommy Wallin and Billy Looney, along with Tim Paul and Nick Mirabito each scored two goals and added an assist, while senior Ian Dingman punched in a goal and dealt out a pair of assists.

Navy scored just 45 seconds into the contest as Wallin fed Paul as he was cutting to the middle of the field, just two yards outside of the crease. Wallin poked in his first goal of the game at the 8:41 mark, triggering five goals over the next five minutes by five different players. One of the highlights of the opening quarter was when Dingman fed All-Patriot League long stick midfielder Victor Barger for his fourth goal this spring off four shots. After a lengthy scrum ensued off a face-off, Navy picked up the loose ball with Dingman finding Barger on the doorstep.

Mirabito scored the last goal of the first quarter and the first marker in the second quarter to push Navy's lead to 7-0 with just over seven minutes to play in the opening half. Paul fed Mirabito at the top of the crease when Mirabito was met by an Army defender who sent him airborne. Mirabito, though, stuck the goal.

Army finally got on the scoreboard with 6:19 to go in the second quarter when middle Kevin LoRusso rippled the back of the net off a shot from nearly 10 yards out.

Navy then scored back-to-back goals by Looney and Paul to head into the locker room with a 9-1 advantage.

The Mids went on to score three in the final quarter, including the first-collegiate goal by sophomore Sean Standen.

Navy's defense, led by All-Patriot League players Jordan DiNola, Andrew Dow and Brendan Teague, held Army scoreless in the second half.

The Mids more than doubled-up Army's shot production as they scored 12 goals on 33 shots against Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year Adam Fullerton, while the Black Knights put up just one goal on 14 shots.

Patriot League Tournament MVP Nick Mirabito scored four goals and added a pair of assists to lead top-seeded Navy to a 15-9 victory over No. 19 Colgate in the championship game of the Patriot League Tournament.

Mirabito produced six goals and three assists in Navy's two tournament wins, including a career-high four-goal performance in the championship contest. Navy got a phenomenal effort from third-year midfielder Rob Lenseth, who scored a career-high three goals, off the Mids' second midfield line. Lenseth came into the contest having scored just one-collegiate goal.

Navy finally got on the scoreboard when Paul fed Terence Higgins at the 5:06 mark, but Colgate's Ian Murphy answered with a goal just over a minute later to stretch the lead out to two once again.

Mirabito scored the first of his four goals with 2:51 to play in the opening quarter, but once again, the Raiders responded with Brendan Hurley punching in his 28th goal of the season 50 seconds after Mirabito's goal.

With just five seconds left, Wallin spotted Mirabito who sat on the door step and narrowed Colgate's lead to just one (4-3) heading into the second quarter.

Dingman knotted the game when he threaded a shot between the keeper's shoulder and the right post. Three minutes later, Navy took its first lead of the game when Daratsos fired off a shot from 10 yards out.

Navy scored the final three goals of the first half, including Lenseth's first goal at 3:43 that sparked the run, to take an 8-5 lead at the intermission.

After surviving successive man-down possessions to start the third quarter, Navy gave up back-to-back even strength goals at 12:39 (Lalli) and 10:31 (Kevin Colleluori) to led the Raiders back into the game at 8-7.

Lenseth helped Navy stretch its lead to two when he took a Paul pass and fired off a shot with 1:30 left in the quarter. Colgate got the final say of the period as Lalli made a head-up play firing off a shot from 25 yards out to score the goal with just one second remaining.

Navy took control of the game early in the fourth quarter when Dingman and Daratsos scored goals less than two minutes apart and Paul punched a goal with 7:50 remaining to give the Mids a 12-9 lead.

Colgate scored one last time (7:09), but Navy produced the final three goals to earn the victory.
