HEAD COACH

BRUCE BURNETT...

Navy wrestling coach Bruce Burnett enters his sixth season at the helm of the Navy wrestling program. Burnett came to Annapolis fresh off a coaching stint in Sydney, Australia, where he served as the United States Olympic Freestyle Coach at the 2000 Olympic Games. His athletes captured one gold, two silver and two bronze medals.

The 2004-05 edition of the Navy wrestling team was among the best in school history, posting a 12-3 overall record, losing to top ten-ranked foes Oklahoma, Nebraska and Lehigh. Navy finished third at the EIWA Championships, its highest finish since the 1995 tournament and sent six wrestlers to the NCAA Tournament, the most since 1991. Navy also claimed the top spot in the Navy Classic (first time since 1997) and placed third at the extremely-competitive Southern Scuffle.

In 2003-04, Burnett led the Mids to a 12-4 overall mark, their third straight season with at least 10 dual wins. The Mids finished sixth in the EIWA Tournament, its third top-six finish in four years under Burnett. It was a sign of things to come in 2004-05.

Three years ago, Burnett coached Frank Edwards to a seventh-place finish and All-America honors at the NCAA Championship.

Burnett has helped prepare the United States' elite athletes for world and Olympic competition as the national freestyle coach since 1992.
