Midshipmen Information

A Day in the Life with ...

MIDN 1/C Lauren Skrel

0645 -- Wake up from the plebes shouting their chow calls. That is something I don't think I'll miss after graduation.

0700 -- Morning formation with 2nd company and then some breakfast.

0755 -- I attend my aviation practicum class in Luce Hall. We learn about everything associated with the aviation community that will help us once we graduate.

0855 -- I have my leadership class which is a good time.

0955 -- I attend my Weapons class which I wouldn't say is one of my favorite classes. :)

1055 -- My last class for the day is Industrial Economics as an elective for my Economics major.

1205 -- Lift with Coach Folk and NWB in Halsey. Then its off to lunch in King Hall with the team. Mmm Mmm.

1300 -- Run some errands or take a nap before practice. I would have to say nap time usually takes priority.

1600 -- Practice time. Working toward P.L.C.!!

1900 -- Go out to get some dinner with some friends and watch some T.V. Usually we watch our favorite show, 24 (Gotta love Jack Bower), or some college basketball.

2130 -- Get back to school to do some work.

2330 -- Bed time!

Navy Head Coach Tom Marryott

Tom Marryott begins his third season as head coach for the Navy women's basketball team this fall.

After posting a 6-8 Patriot League record during his initial 2003-04 season with the program, Marryott guided a lineup last year consisting of just one returning starter and only three players who had scored more than 100-career points to an identical 6-8 record and to the program's first victory in the Patriot League Tournament in six years.

While he has been working with the women's program for only a brief period of time, Marryott is no stranger to Naval Academy basketball, having served as an assistant coach with the men's program since the fall of 1998. Navy made three Patriot League championship game appearances and reached the 1998 NCAA Tournament during his five years with the program. The Midshipmen also won a pair of league regular-season titles and amassed an 80-65 overall record during his stint with the team.

Prior to his beginning his tenure at the Naval Academy, Marryott served as both head coach and athletic director for 10 seasons at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I. His basketball teams recorded a 124-75 (.623) record in that decade, during which time he coached future Naval Academy standouts Hassan Booker, Skip Victor, Jehiel Lewis, Victor Mickjel and Matt Sladky.

A 1985 graduate of Castleton (Vt.) State, Marryott helped lead the Spartans to the NAIA Tournament during his final season and was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2001.

He began his coaching career by serving as a graduate assistant at Vermont during the 1985-86 season. After then spending one season as an assistant coach at Genesee Community College (Batavia, N.Y.), he joined the staff at Providence for the 1987-88 season. It was in the fall of 1988 that he moved on to NAPS.

★ Navy's field goal percentage of 54.4 percent was the third-highest recorded by a Navy team during a Patriot League game.

★ Carly Meyer tied a career-high with 25 points and hauled in a career-best 16 caroms for her second double-double in three games. The 1 rebound is tied for the second-most rebounds in a Navy Patriot League game.

★ Betsy Burnett made 7-of-8 (87.5%) of her shots from the field to set a career-high with 17 points.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "We did a nice job defensively, especially early in the game. We limited them to one shot on many of their possessions. Offensively, we were real crisp right from the start. We moved the ball really well. Everyone was looking for an open player. We didn't force shots."

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "Kate made some tough baskets. I'm happy she's getting to the free throw line because that shows she's taking the ball strong to the basket. I also thought she was very aggressive on the glass."

★ "All in all, I thought we played very well today. We had some big performances from a lot of people, but we also had nice balance in our scoring."

★ "Senior days are different. You never know what's going to happen because it's such an emotional day. It was good to see all of our seniors play well."

Game Notes

★ Army made 8 of its first 11 shots from the field; Navy missed 9 of its first 13.

★ Army led by as many as 18 points in the first half and by 16 points early in the second half.

★ The Mids missed a three-pointer which would have cut the deficit down to five points with less than four minutes to play.

★ Kate Hobbs scored a career-high 28 points; Betsy Burnett dished out a career-high nine assists.

★ Navy shot a season-low 25 percent (5-of-20) from behind the three-point line. Ashley Pelzek was 0-of-8 in three-point attempts, only the second game this season she failed to make a three-pointer.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "Army came out at the start of the game and really took it to us offensively. Our defensive intensity did not match their offensive intensity. We also missed some shots we normally make, which only made the hole we dug for ourselves even deeper. We spent the next 35 minutes climbing back into the game, and you can't do that against a team as good as Army is."

Game Notes

★ Navy led by 12 points early in the second half and by nine with 3:49 to play.

★ The Mids led by one point with 10 seconds to play when Lauren Skrel was fouled and made both free throws. The Leopards forced OT on a three-pointer with five seconds left on the clock.

★ Lafayette scored the first five points of OT, but the Mids scored 13 of the game's final 17 points to pick up the win. Skrel hit a three-pointer and was 4-of-4 from the line in the extra period.

★ Skrel's 22 points was a new career best for a league contest, while Betsy Burnett made 6-of-6 field goal attempts on her way to tying a career high with 16 points.

★ Navy was 22-of-28 from the foul line, while Lafayette was 13-of-24.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "This was a great character win for us. We let a lead disappear in regulation and then quickly fell behind in overtime, but our players showed a lot of resilience in finding a way to win. We went back to ding all of the little things needed to be successful. We became more aggressive on offense and did a better job on defense."

★ "To win back-to-back road league games in overtime shows a lot of character and is a great display of a winning attitude by our players."

Game Notes

★ Lafayette jumped out to an early 14-point lead at 29-14, but Navy outscored the Leopards 58-34 over the remainder of the game.

★ Kate Hobbs and Carly Meyer both scored 21 points and tallied a double-double. Hobbs led all players with a career-high 12 caroms, with Meyer adding 10 rebounds.

★ Navy's junior class totaled 56 points and 32 rebounds.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "I thought we had a pretty good game, both as individuals and as a team. I think our defense got Lafayette out of rhythm a bit as the game went on. We played very smart on that end of the floor, both containing and contesting on every possession."

★ "Carly has worked so hard over the last few weeks. She has put in a lot of extra work and it was nice to see that effort in practice coming through in the game."

A trio of Mids received academic honors from the USNA for the 2005 fall semester.

Meredith Addington (international relations) was named to both the Dean's and Commandant's lists after posting a 3.53 GPA during the term, as was Kate Hobbs (economics) with a 3.4 GPA, while Ashley Pelzek's (international relations) 3.38 GPA placed her on the Commandant's List.

Preparing to Serve

The senior class at the Naval Academy made their service selections for their upcoming military careers and each of the three seniors on the women's basketball team received naval aviation. Meredith Addington, Ashley Pelzek and Lauren Skrel will all be commissioned as Ensigns in the Navy in May and head to flight school at some point in the next nine months.

Addington and Skrel will be pilots, while Pelzek will be a flight officer.

U.S. Naval Academy Tops in APR

The U.S. Naval Academy's athletic program was ranked as the best in the nation among the 117 schools with Division I-A football programs in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate. Navy also ranked seventh out of 328 Division I institutions.

The APR is the fulcrum upon which the entire academic-reform structure rests. Developed as a more real-time assessment of team's academic performance than the six-year graduation rate calculation provides, the APR awards two points each term to student-athletes who meet academic-eligibility standards and who remain with the institution. A team's APR is the total points earned by the team at a given time, divided by the total points possible.

The Naval Academy had 10 sports ranked first with an APR of 1,000, meaning every student-athlete on their respective roster remained at the Naval Academy and was also eligible to compete or graduate.

Each of Navy's 23 varsity sports sponsored by the NCAA ranked above the national Division I average of 950 and Division I-A average of 947. The women's basketball team at Navy totaled a mark of 972.

Dave Smalley Court

As part of the men's and women's double-header against Bucknell on Jan. 7, the Naval Academy dedicated the floor in Alumni Hall as Dave Smalley Court in honor of his more than 50-year association with Navy athletics as a midshipman, coach, instructor and administrator.

A 1957 graduate of the Academy, Smalley earned six letters as a standout on the basketball and baseball teams. One of only four players to serve as team captain in two seasons, Smalley totaled 856 points during his three-year varsity basketball career. An outfielder in baseball, he hit .419 as a junior to win the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League batting title.

Smalley was awarded the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword at the end of his senior year, presented annually to the member of the graduating class to "have personally excelled in athletics during his years of varsity competition."

Upon graduation he was commissioned into the Marine Corps, then returned to Navy in 1962 as a physical education instructor and assistant basketball coach. Smalley would eventually take over as the head coach of the program in 1966 and compiled a 10-year record of 94-130.

After stepping down as head coach for the men's team, Smalley became the initial coach for the Navy women's team in 1976. He guided the Mids to a 10-1 record as a junior varsity team, then posted 10 winning seasons and a 179-119 record in 12 campaigns on the varsity level.

Smalley received the title of Assistant Director of Athletics in charge of admissions in 1979 and was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Admissions, Academics and Compliance in 2001. In that capacity, Smalley handles the admissions process for recruited athletes in each of Navy's 30 varsity sports. Smalley and his staff also monitor the academic progress of Navy's 1,500 student-athletes.

Junior Class

The foursome of players comprising Navy's junior class had a significant impact during Navy's 73-63 victory over Lafayette Feb. 11 in Alumni Hall. Betsy Burnett, Kate Hobbs, Margaret Knap and Carly Meyer combined for 56 of Navy's 73 points and hauled in 32 of Navy's 37 rebounds.

On the season, the junior class has scored nearly half of Navy's points and totaled over half of Navy's rebounds.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "I'm happy with the way we responded after falling behind early. We did a terrific job of sticking with the game plane and I thought our press really wore them out in the second half. It was nice to see us make plays with the game on the line."

★ "Lauren Skrel played like an All-American in the first half. She really kept us in the game when nobody else was playing well."

★ Navy trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half, but was able to slice the deficit down to four points on three occasions.

★ Navy shot only 35.7-percent from the field in the second half, while the Hawks converted 48.3-percent of their attempts from the field.

★ Carly Meyer led Navy with 20 points, with Ashley Pelzek connecting on five three-point field goals and adding 19 points.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "Our defense let us down in the first half. We allowed too many layups and open looks. Also, we are starting a bad habit with falling behind by too many points at halftime."

★ "I thought Ashley Pelzek had a very productive first weekend of the season. We felt she could score, and she has, but what has impressed me the most has been her play on defense."

Game Notes

★ Navy led by 12 points early in the second half and by nine with 3:49 to play.

★ The Mids led by one point with 10 seconds to play when Lauren Skrel was fouled and made both free throws. The Leopards forced OT on a three-pointer with five seconds left on the clock.

★ Lafayette scored the first five points of OT, but the Mids scored 13 of the game's final 17 points to pick up the win. Skrel hit a three-pointer and was 4-of-4 from the line in the extra period.

★ Skrel's 22 points was a new career best for a league contest, while Betsy Burnett made 6-of-6 field goal attempts on her way to tying a career high with 16 points.

★ Navy was 22-of-28 from the foul line, while Lafayette was 13-of-24.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "This was a great character win for us. We let a lead disappear in regulation and then quickly fell behind in overtime, but our players showed a lot of resilience in finding a way to win. We went back to ding all of the little things needed to be successful. We became more aggressive on offense and did a better job on defense."

★ "To win back-to-back road league games in overtime shows a lot of character and is a great display of a winning attitude by our players."

Game Notes

★ Army made 8 of its first 11 shots from the field; Navy missed 9 of its first 13.

★ Army led by as many as 18 points in the first half and by 16 points early in the second half.

★ The Mids missed a three-pointer which would have cut the deficit down to five points with less than four minutes to play.

★ Kate Hobbs scored a career-high 28 points; Betsy Burnett dished out a career-high nine assists.

★ Navy shot a season-low 25 percent (5-of-20) from behind the three-point line. Ashley Pelzek was 0-of-8 in three-point attempts, only the second game this season she failed to make a three-pointer.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "Army came out at the start of the game and really took it to us offensively. Our defensive intensity did not match their offensive intensity. We also missed some shots we normally make, which only made the hole we dug for ourselves even deeper. We spent the next 35 minutes climbing back into the game, and you can't do that against a team as good as Army is."

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "We really struggled at the start of the game on the offensive end. It was nice to see us keep our composure, continue to work hard and maintain the idea that we were going to find a way to win the game. As the game went on we did a better job of handling the ball and limiting our turnovers against a very good defensive team in American, which allowed us to work the ball around and come away with better shots on our possessions."

★ Navy shot only nine free throws in the game to 20 for Holy Cross. The Mids turned the ball over 22 times.

★ Navy outrebounded Holy Cross by 10 boards and shot a higher percentage from the field, behind the three-point line and the foul line than the Crusaders did.

★ Lauren Skrel led all players with 20 points and knocked down a career-high tying four three-pointers.

★ Kalen Kropa set a career high with 11 points, while Ali Currier added a career-best five rebounds in only 11 minutes of playing time.

Tom Marryott's Comments

★ "I thought we did a very good job defensively against a very good offensive team. On our end of the floor, we went up against a very aggressive defense which forced us into turnovers or out of rhythm. Their perimeter pressure really kept the ball out of the hands of our post players."

★ "Turnovers have been a problem all year. We gave them nine more possessions than we had, which is huge in a game like this."

★ "It was a great defensive effort of our players. They came into the game as focused on that end of the floor as they have been all season. yes, Lehigh missed some shots, but our defense was dog-gone good."

★ "In the past when we would get frustrated on offense, it would reflect on defense. That was not the case tonight."

★ "Even though we did not score much, I was very pleased with how we ran the offense tonight. I have no complaints about our shot selection. They just didn't go in."
