2006 Navy opponents in italics

• The four No. 1 seeds are North Carolina, Notre Dame, Santa Clara and Texas.

• North Carolina and Connecticut are the only two teams who have been invited to the tournament every year since its inception in 1982.

• The ACC and Big East are represented by a tournament-best seven teams.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

• Unseeded Navy met fifth-seeded Penn State on Nov. 14, 2003, in the Mids' first NCAA Tournament appearance.

• The Nittany Lions defeated the Midshipmen, 5-1, in State College, Pa.

• PSU scored the opening-three goals of the game, including a strike by All-American Tiffany Weimer just 1:18 into the contest.

• Navy's goal (71:53) was scored by 2006 team captain MOLLY BURD, lobbing a shot over the keeper's head who was pulled out of the goal.

• Penn State outshot Navy 21-6 and took a 5-2 advantage in corners ... Burd took two of the Mids' six shots, including two on goal.

REPRESENTING THE MID-ATLANTIC REGION

• Eight teams in the Mid-Atlantic Region earned NCAA Tournament bids.

• Four of the eight teams will face one another with first-round match-ups between West Virginia and Virginia, along with Navy vs. William & Mary.

• Penn State (vs. Niagara), Rutgers (vs. Hartford), Villanova (vs. Toledo) and Old Dominion (vs. Wake Forest) are the other teams representing the Mid-Atlantic Region.

A WIN OVER WILLIAM & MARY WOULD...

• be the soccer program's first NCAA Tournament victory

• be the second time a Patriot League team has earned a victory in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament

• give the Mids a program-record 22 wins.

NAVY VS. WILLIAM & MARY — THE SERIES

• Friday's Navy-William & Mary match-up will mark the inaugural meeting between the two programs.

SCOUTING THE TRIBE

- William & Mary received one of the 34 at-large bids
- William & Mary is making its 14th NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 15 years and has received an invitation to the national tournament 21 times.
- Three of the last four NCAA Tournament appearances by the Tribe have begun with opening-round matches in Chapel Hill.
- The Tribe are 16-1-3 recording and produced a 10-0-1 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association.
- William & Mary was undefeated in conference action, winning the regular-season crown.
- The Tribe are unbeaten in their last 16 matches, a program record.
- Their only loss of the season was a 2-1 decision at Auburn on Sept. 3.
- William & Mary is coming off a 1-1 tied against Old Dominion in the CAA Tournament semifinals ... ODU advanced to the CAA Championship Game and eventually won the conference title by edging William & Mary in penalty kicks, 6-5.
- Sophomore forward Claire Zimmeck, the 2006 CAA Player of the Year, is pacing the Tribe with 32 points on 14 goals and four assists ... she has driven in six of the team's 16 game-winners.
- Junior Donna Mataya is the team's second-leading scorer with 24 points on 11 goals and a pair of assists ... she has booted in four game-winners.
- Second-Team All-CAA keeper Meghan Walker has given up 15 goals and owns a 0.72 goals-against average ... she has produced an 83.7 save percentage (77 saves) and has led the Tribe to 10 shutouts.

COMMON OPPONENTS

- Navy and William & Mary share just two common foes from the 2006 campaign — Colgate and George Mason.
- Navy produced a 2-0 record against Colgate, including a 1-0 win over the Raiders in the Patriot League Tournament Championship Game ... additionally, the Mids defeated George Mason, 1-0, on Sept. 15.
- William & Mary dispatched Colgate, 2-0, on Sept. 10, and edged the Patriots, 3-2, in Fairfax on Oct. 15.

NAVY IN THE NATIONAL POLLS

- The Mids have appeared in the Soccer America poll in each of the last seven weeks
- Navy earned the program's highest ranking on Monday as the No. 11 team in the Soccer America poll.
- On Oct. 23, Navy cracked the top 20 in the Soccer Buzz poll (No. 19).
- The Mids have been ranked 16th by Soccer Buzz in each of the last two weeks.
- Navy is ranked No. 21 in the Soccer Times poll after making its first appearance in program history on Oct. 23 (No. 25).
- Navy's seven-week stay in the rankings is the longest a Patriot League team has been ranked
- The Mids' No. 11 this week is the highest ranking a league team has achieved.
- Last week, Navy received votes in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America poll for the first time since 1998 when the Mids were ranked 26th in the Nov. 2 rankings ... the Mids again received votes this week.
- Navy is ranked No. 21 in the Oct. 31 edition of the NCAA's Ratings Percentage Index (RPI).

READ IT IN THE NCAA RECORD BOOK

- Navy's 0.227 goals-against average is the fourth-lowest in NCAA history ... the 1987 North Carolina team owns the record having given up just two goals for a 0.082 GAA.
- Navy's .818 shutout percentage is the fourth-best in NCAA history ... the 1987 North Carolina squad shut out 22 of its 24 opponents (.917) to set the record.
- Navy's 18 shutouts are the 11th most (tied) in NCAA history ... the 1987 and '97 North Carolina teams turned in 22 shutouts.
- The Mids' 10-consecutive shutouts between Oct. 24-26 are the fifth most in NCAA history ... Santa Clara blanked 16 straight in 1998.
- LIZZIE BARNES' 859:23 consecutive shutout minutes (Sept. 17-Oct. 29) is the seventh-longest mark in the NCAA record book.
- Navy's .944 save percentage is the second best in the NCAA record book ... the Patriot League's Lehigh set the record last fall (.946).
- Navy is one of the most improved teams in the country ... they have a nine-game improvement over last year's 10-8-2 record.

HIGH-POWERED OFFENSE / STIFLING DEFENSE

- The Mids are ranked sixth in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 3.18 goals per game.
- Navy's defense is ranked No. 1, giving up 0.23 goals per game.
- Navy has outscored its opponents 70-5 this fall with 17 of its 20 field players scoring at least one goal.
- All 20 players, as well as starting keeper LIZZIE BARNES, have turned in a goal or an assists this season.
- Navy has set school records for goals (70), assists (79) and points (219).
- The Mids have shut out 18 of their 22 foes this fall, also a program record.
- Navy's 0.810 shutouts per game average is No. 1 in the nation and the fourth-best shutout percentage in NCAA history.
- Navy is also pacing the country in save percentage, stopping 94.3 percent of the shots it has faced.

RECEIVING NATIONAL RECOGNITION

- ESPN.com has twice written pieces on the Navy women's soccer program this season.
- Its initial story focused on senior MEGGIE CURRAN and appeared on the internet on Sept. 13.
- On Nov. 1, Graham Hays wrote a riveting piece on the rise of the Mids' soccer program.
- Sophomore keeper LIZZIE BARNES appears in the Nov. 6 issue of Sports Illustrated's Faces in the Crowd, available on newsstands now.
- Freshman LAUREN BRESNAHAN'S appearance on the Soccer America National Team of the Week on Sept. 4, marked the first time a Mids has received national recognition since 2000 when Rebecca Gould was named to the Soccer America Team of the Week.
- Junior BRIGITTE FOX garnered Soccer America, Soccer Buzz and Soccer Times recognition on Oct. 16 ... it's the first time in program history that a player has been named to all three teams in the same week.
- Newcomer SHELLY MOELLER earned a place on this week's Soccer America and Soccer Buzz Teams of the Week after scoring both game-winners for the Mids in the Patriot League Tournament ... Moeller and Bresnahan are the first Navy freshmen to earn national recognition.

21 WINS AND COUNTING

- The Mids' 21 wins are a program record ... the previous record of 17 was set in 1998 and matched in '03.
- Navy owned the nation's longest winning streak with 19-consecutive victories before Bucknell handed the Mids their first blemish of the season on Oct. 29.
- Navy was the only team, men or women, that had not been beaten or tied heading into the last weekend of regular-season play.

12 IN A ROW

- Navy is one of just 12 programs in the country to produce 10-plus wins in each of the last 12 years.
- The others in order of wins are: North Carolina (282), Notre Dame (248), Penn State (223), Santa Clara (221), Portland (216), Connecticut (214), Texas A&M (212), Florida (210), UCLA (209), Virginia (164) and Stanford (160).
- The Mids have three more wins than Stanford with 163, and trail Virginia by just one.

BEATING THE BEST

- Navy's 1-0 win over ninth-ranked Penn State on Oct. 26 marked the program's first win over a ranked team.
- Sophomore KRISTEN LARAWAY'S shot in the 80th minute sailed past the outstretched arms of the Nittany Lions' keeper to give the Mids the go-ahead goal.
- The Mids own a 1-8 all-time record against ranked opponents.
- Navy has played at least one ranked opponent in each of the last four seasons, including Penn State each of those years.
- The highest ranked opponent the Mids have played is No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 2003 ... Navy held the Tar Heels scoreless until the 73rd minute when Jordan Walker scored her first goal of the season.

NO OT FOR THE MIDS

- Navy has not played an overtime game since Sept. 11, 2005, when the Mids tied Seton Hall, 2-2 (2OT).
- The Mids have played an overtime game in 12 of their 14 seasons ... in 1993, Navy played a partial seven-game Div. I schedule and did not play an OT game.
- Navy owns a 12-9-16 record in overtime contests and has been forced into 15 double OT games.

GOALS GALORE

- Navy owns a +313 goal differential in its 14-year history ... the Mids have outscored their foes, 608-295.
- This season, Navy has outscored its opponents 70-5.
- For just the second time in program history, Navy has held its foes to single-digit goals for the entire season ... in 2002, the Mids surrendered just eight goals.

ON THE ROAD

- Navy owns an all-time record of 72-53-8 (.571) in games played away from Annapolis ... Navy is 7-0 this fall.
- The Mids are 55-42-8 (.562) in true road games, including 4-0 this season.
- Navy owns a 17-11-0 record in neutral site match-ups, including a 3-0 mark in '06.
- Navy has played 139 home games in its history to 133 road/neutral site contests.

MIDSHIPMEN HONORED BY THE LEAGUE

- Four Midshipmen garnered major awards at the Patriot League Women's Soccer Banquet on Nov. 2, while 14th-year Navy head coach CARIN GABARRA was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year.
- Senior MEGGIE CURRAN was named the offensive player of the year, freshman SHELLY MOELLER shared the defensive player-of-the-year award, sophomore LIZZIE BARNES was the goalkeeper of the year and midfielder CASSIE BARBARESI was the co-rookie of the year.
- In addition to the major award winners, nine Mids earned All-Patriot League kudos.
- Navy's first-team members included Barbaresi, Barnes, Curran, Moeller, LAUREN BRESNAHAN and BRIGITTE FOX. KRISTI COONFARE, JULIE REYNOLDS and BRITANNY WHITE were named to the second team.
- Navy topped the list of 2006 selections with nine, including six first-teamers ... the last time six Mids earned first-team recognition was in 1998.
- Eight of Navy's nine all-league picks were first-time winners, including four freshmen ... the last time a Navy rookie earned All-Patriot League kudos was in 2001 when Xochitl Piedra was a second-team selection and was named the co-rookie of the year.
- It's the most Navy freshmen to earn postseason recognition since 1996 when Shannon Filbin, Michelle Nance and Kristen Riismandel were honored.

MIDS EARN ACADEMIC ACCOLADES

- LIZZIE BARNES, KARI WENIGER and CARMEN MYERS were named to the CoSIDA Women's Soccer Academic All-District II team on Nov. 2.
- All three players are first-time academic all-district honorees.
- The CoSIDA Women's Soccer Academic All-District II team is comprised of 22 players, 11 each on the first and second teams, honoring academic and athletic achievements from institutions in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.
- The 11 first-team honorees, which includes Barnes and Weniger, will go on to be listed on the national ballot.
- Barnes owns a 3.68 GPA in information technology, Weniger boasts a 3.96 GPA in ocean engineering and Carmen Myers has a 3.60 GPA in systems engineering.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT ODDS & ENDS

- The second-seeded Midshipmen earned their 10th appearance in the Patriot League Tournament and their second Patriot League Tournament title.
- Navy did not qualify in 2004 and '05 after claiming the program's first Patriot League Tournament title in 2003.
- Navy was the No. 2 seed for the third time in league history ... the last time the Mids were seeded second, they won the tournament crown (2003)
- Navy has advanced to the championship game in six of its 10 Patriot League Tournament appearances.
- Of the 24 players on Navy's varsity roster, only the four seniors had played in a Patriot League Tournament game prior to this season.
- In the 16 Patriot League Tournaments played, the No. 1 seed has won only five times and once in the last six years (Colgate in 2004) ... the No. 2 seed has won seven times, the third seed has won twice and last season Bucknell won the tourney as the No. 4 seed.
- Navy has scored a goal in each of its last eight Patriot League Tournament contests ... the last time the Mids did not score in the tournament was in 1999, when Colgate shut out Navy, 2-0, in the championship game.

RECAPPING NAVY'S PL CHAMPIONSHIP WIN

- A goal in the eighth minute by freshman SHELLY MOELLER led Navy to its second Patriot League Tournament title with a 1-0 victory over fourth-seeded Colgate in Lewisburg, Pa. on Nov. 5.
- The Mids scored on their first shot of the afternoon, with all-time assists leader MEGGIE CURRAN setting up the goal on a free kick from 20 yards out on the left sideline ... Curran sent the ball to the opposite post where Moeller, the 2006 Patriot League Co-Defensive Player of the Year, drove in her eighth goal of the year and her second game-winner of the Patriot League Tournament.
- Colgate put its first shot on goal with 12 minutes remaining on a Josie Johnson shot that was stopped by Navy keeper LIZZIE BARNES ... the deflection was then shot wide right by Kelly Niland.
- Navy sophomore KRISTEN LARAWAY saw a pair of second-half shots turned away ... in the 70th minute, her shot was headed out of the goal by Kathleen Head ... four minutes later, she crossed over her defender and shot left where Raiders' keeper Carly Sousa stretched out to save the ball from rolling in.
- Colgate took back-to-back corners in the final 13 minutes, the second resulting in a ping-pong match between the two teams before the Raiders' Jackie Burch finally got a foot on it and sent a shot off the cross bar ... Johnson's follow-up shut sailed wide right.

RECAPPING NAVY'S PL SEMIFINAL WIN

- Rookie defender SHELLY MOELLER broke a scoreless tie in the 62nd minute to lead second-seeded Navy to a 2-0 victory over third-seeded Lehigh.
- Navy was held to just one shot in the opening half, a header by Patriot League Co-Rookie of the Year CASSIE BARBARESI that bounced off the cross bar.
- Lehigh nearly put a goal on the board five minutes into the second half when Melissa Montalvo took a shot from 15 yards out on the left side of the box, but was denied by LIZZIE BARNES' diving save.
- At the 61:31 mark, Barbaresi set up Navy's corner from the left side, sending the ball to the middle of the box where Moeller made contact and headed in her seventh goal of the season and gave Navy a 1-0 lead.
- Ten minutes later, teammates CIANNA WEIKLE and KARI WENIGER worked together to serve forward KRISTEN LARAWAY in the box ... Laraway misdirected her defender and crossed over to shoot over the right shoulder of the Lehigh keeper to give Navy its final 2-0 decision.

Carin Gabarra is a proven winner. Not only was she a success as a forward on the UC-Santa Barbara soccer team and later in her career playing for the United States National Team, but Gabarra also had the golden touch to lead others by example.

It is the gift of leadership which has led her to become one of the household names within the collegiate coaching ranks. Not because she was an eight-time All-America (four in high school and four at UC-Santa Barbara), and not because she was a member of the 1996 gold-medal winning U.S. national team, but because she has developed the Navy soccer program from ground level to one of the most competitive teams in the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Since taking over the Navy program in 1993, she has taken the Midshipmen from a club-level organization to an NCAA Tournament team.

Building from the Beginning

Gabarra arrived at Navy in 1993, and led the Mids to a 2-5 mark in their first season as a varsity sport. In the process, Navy gained valuable playing experience before beginning Patriot League competition in 1994. The Mids showed great progress in their inaugural season in the league, as they missed the Patriot League playoffs by one game and finished with a 7-9-2 record. The improvement continued in '95 with Navy boasting a record of 10-7-1. With a third-place regular-season finish that season, the Mids made their first Patriot League Tournament appearance, falling in the championship contest. The team's success didn't stop there. The '96 squad produced an 11-6-2 record, finished fourth in the league and was invited to appear in its first postseason tournament with a game against Monmouth in the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament. Gabarra guided the 1997 team to a 10-8 record and a third-place finish in the Patriot League, registering a 4-2 mark. Six Mids earned All-Patriot League recognition, including Defensive Player of the Year and Academic All-America honoree, Nicole Aunapu.

The 1998 season fulfilled dreams of many, as Gabarra led the Mids to a school-record 17 wins, 14 shutouts, 52 goals and Navy's first regular-season Patriot League title. Navy also knocked off Colgate for the first time in its history and broke the Red Raiders' 16-game winning streak versus league foes. In addition, an unprecedented nine Mids earned all-league honors, including eight first-team members. Justine Fisher earned rookie-of-the-year accolades, while Aunapu was dubbed Defensive Player of the Year for the second-consecutive season. Aunapu was just the sixth player in league history to earn First-Team All-Patriot League recognition all four years and concluded her season as an Academic All-American.

In 1999, Navy again made a run at the league crown, as the Mids shared the regular-season title with a 5-1 Patriot League mark. The Mids scored 51 goals on the season, nearly doubling their opponents' total of 26. In league action, Navy scored 17 goals, while holding its opponents to just two and without an assist in six games. While making a return trip to the Patriot League Tournament Championship contest, six Mids were dubbed all-league, including Fisher who became Navy's first player to be honored as the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year.

The year 2000 brought Fisher her third all-league honor, as the Mids captured a 10-9-2 record and earned a bid to the Patriot League Tournament for the sixth-consecutive season. Meanwhile, two rookies showed a glimmer of greatness to come in the likes of Amelia Sheveland, who tied the school record for goals in a game with four, and Stacy Finley who started 17 games and played virtually every position.

Just one win shy of the school record, the 2001 team found its share of success as it claimed a share of the Patriot League Regular-Season title with a 16-5-1 overall mark and 6-1 league record. Fisher became Navy's all-time leading scorer, while Gabarra claimed her 100th-career victory all in one eventful day — Oct. 28, 2001, against George Mason. Navy swept the all-league honors, as Finley earned the offensive player-of-the-year title, Kate Macfarlane was deemed the defensive player of the year and Xochitl Piedra was co-rookie of the year. Meanwhile, both Macfarlane and Fisher gamed Academic All-America recognition.

The Mids posted the program's first undefeated regular season at 16-0-4, before American upset Navy in the Patriot League Tournament to leave the only blemish on the Mids' 2002 record. Navy was the only Div. I school that finished the 2002 season without a loss in regular-season play. Finley garnered her second-straight Patriot League Offensive Player-of-the-Year award after setting single-season school records with 45 points and 19 goals. Defensively, Kim Bonafede was among the top three in the nation throughout the year in goals-against average, setting the Navy record at 0.36. Nadia Sheikh earned First-Team All-Patriot League recognition after breaking the Navy assist record with 27 in her last game of her career.

In 2003, Navy claimed its first Patriot League Tournament title and became the first Naval Academy women's team in any sport to earn a bid to play in the NCAA Tournament. En route to their 17-5-1 record, the Mids owned the nation's longest regular-season unbeaten streak (35 games) before dropping a one-goal decision to eventual national champion North Carolina. Over 6,500 fans witnessed the game, breaking the NCAA single-game attendance record. Stacy Finley was named First-Team All-Patriot League after becoming the Mids' all-time leader in career scoring, goals scored and shots taken. Classmate Amelia Sheveland garnered Patriot League Tournament MVP recognition, finishing her career as Navy's fourth-leading scorer all-time.

The year 2004 was a year of rebuilding on the offensive side of the field and its two marquee players came into the year having undergone knee surgeries, and Molly Burd missed the entire season with a broken foot. Navy dropped its opening-three games in Patriot League play, but responded by winning four straight. Defender Xochitl Piedra closed out her career by being named to the Patriot League First Team, just the third player in Academy history to be named all-league all four years. Curran and midfielder Stephanie Parker were named to the first team, while midfielder Sarah Hessinger and keeper Kim Bonafede garnered second-team recognition.

Injuries were the continued theme as forwards Brigitte Fox and Kari Weniger fell victim to knee injuries, while four-year starting defender Lindsay Adlam broke her foot in the Mids' league opener at American. But for junior Meggie Curran, she finally was healthy and it showed on the playing field. Curran, a First-Team All-Patriot League selection, led the league with 32 points on nine goals and a school-record 14 assists. She will head into her senior campaign in a three-way tie as the program's leader with 27-career assists. Junior midfielder Molly Burd and sophomore defender Lauren Griebel also garnered all-conference recognition, as both were named to the second team.

A Star in the Making

A native of Palos Verdes, Calif., Gabarra graduated from California at Santa Barbara in 1987 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in business management. A standout forward for the Gaucho soccer team, she became the NCAA's all-time leading scorer with 102 goals and 60 assists. She held that post until 1993 when fellow Olympian Mia Hamm broke Gabarra's record. Gabarra was a four-time All-America honoree and UC-Santa Barbara's Woman Athlete of the Decade in 1987, as well as Scholastic Athlete of the Year. In October of 1991, she was inducted into the UC-Santa Barbara Athletic Hall of Fame. She remains the record holder in every individual category at Santa Barbara excluding goalkeeper records — most goals in a game, season and career; most assists in a season and career; most points in a season and career; most shots in a season and career; and most games played in a career.

A standout at Palos Verdes High School, as well, she led the nation in scoring from 1980-83 by netting 226 goals and garnered high school All-America accolades four times.

Coaching Roots

Gabarra began her coaching career in 1987 as the head coach at Westmont College in Santa Barbara. There she guided the Warriors to a 6-10-0 record. She moved on to Harvard in 1988, serving as an assistant coach.

Pride of the United States

While coaching at Harvard, Gabarra continued competing on the international level where she led the U.S. to its first-ever World Championship title in 1991 by scoring six goals and was the recipient of the "Golden Ball," presented to the outstanding player of the championship. She garnered United States Soccer's Female Athlete-of-the-Year honors in 1992, after winning the award for the first time in 1987. She was also tagged the 1987 and '92 United States Olympic Committee Player of the Year. Though retired from professional soccer these days, Gabarra was named to the Stars of the Century Team in the summer of 1999. The role call includes the best 11 players in the history of women's soccer in the United States — Gabarra, Michelle Akers, Brandi Chastain, Joy Fawcett, Julie Foudy, Mia Hamm, April Heinrichs, Kristine Lilly, Tiffeny Milbrett, Carla Overbeck and Briana Scurry. Gabarra and her 1996 gold medal-winning teammates were inducted into the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame last June.

In addition to her coaching duties at Navy, Gabarra is active with the Olympic Development Programs that scout prospective national team players and is a member of the U.S. Soccer Athlete Advisory Council. She serves on the Athlete Advisory Board Project 2012 and is a member of the U.S. Olympic Committee Athlete Advisory Council. Additionally, Gabarra is a member of the Maryland Physical Fitness Council. She is also an honorary member of Habitat for Humanity: Women Building a Legacy.

The Legacy Continues

Despite retiring from international competition in late 1997, Gabarra's legacy continues to live on. The first U.S. player to be named MVP of the Women's World Cup, Gabarra, along with former New York Cosmos superstar Giorgio Chinaglia, were inducted at a public ceremony Oct. 28, 2000, at the National Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y. She is just the second woman player to be inducted, as former World Cup teammate April Heinrichs was the first to be enshrined in 1998.

The Gabarras

While her decision to leave the playing realm of soccer, the sport would remain an integral part of her future. In 1992, the former Carin Jennings married Jim Gabarra, no stranger to the soccer world, and incorporated her competitive spirit both as a player and now a collegiate coach. A former captain of the U.S. Indoor National Team, Jim played on the 1988 Olympic team, was a member of the 1990 World Cup-qualifying team and competed in the '89, '92 and '96 Futsal World Championships. He served as the head coach of the WUSA's Washington Freedom. The couple resides in Arnold with their son, Tyler (9), and daughters, Abigail (7) and Talia (5).
