The June edition of NCAA On Campus makes stops in Boston, Massachusetts; Cedar City, Utah; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

In Boston at Tufts University, siblings Paula and David Dormon star on the track as "throwers." They also star on the stage as "FunkSoulLove", an award winning R&B / HipHop / Soul band that represented Tufts in a citywide Battle of the Bands.

Then in Cedar City at Southern Utah University, runner Graham Cheever talks about how a prank by others turned into a near death experience for him. Also, we will talk to Southern Utah's baseball coach David Eldredge, who had a famous high-school basketball teammate, a guy by the name of President Barack Obama.

And finally, in Indianapolis, we will visit the remodeled NCAA Hall of Champions to check out the new interactive displays and talk to some young visitors about their experiences with the new Hall.

In "Mascot Mania", you will see the only NCAA Mascot that is kept in a jar. In our NCAA Retro segment, we will profile former NCAA Teddy Award winner Jack Kemp. Plus, there is "Ask Myles" and, as always, NCAA student-athletes will tell you "What's On – On Campus."

This month's NCAA On Campus premieres Wednesday, June 17, at 12:30 PM Eastern on ESPN Classic, and will re-air on ESPNU. Please check local listings for the most up-to-date dates and times.
