

Tuesday, February 27
Charlotte 49ers (7-2) at
Wake Forest Demon Deacons (4-3)

Gene Hooks Stadium (1995) - Winston-Salem, N.C.
Game 10 of 53 Road Game 6 of 25

Niner Notes

Just Charlotte, Please

When referring to the team, please use "Charlotte 49ers". The official name of the school is the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, or UNC Charlotte. However, the athletic teams all go by "Charlotte 49ers." Niners is also a correct second reference.

Road Warriors

Charlotte will play its first 25 games away from home in some form or fashion. With construction ongoing at Robert and Mariam Hayes Stadium, the Niners will play the first 14 "home games" off campus. Charlotte is scheduled to play on campus March 30 in the conference home opening series against Massachusetts. The Niners take to the road for weekend series as they face James Madison for a weekend series at Fieldcrest Cannon Stadium in Kannapolis, home of the South Atlantic League's Single-A Kannapolis Intimidators.

The Teams

Charlotte finished 35-20-1 last year (tied for third-most wins in program history), leading the Atlantic 10 in 10 of 13 offensive categories. Charlotte finished tied for third in the A-10 with an 18-9 record in league play. The pitching staff was tops in four categories, while second only in two others. Charlotte's pitching staff finished the season 19th in the NCAA in ERA, and the offense was 22nd in runs scored. Charlotte returns one weekend starter, and eight of the nine batters from the starting lineup.

Wake Forest started the season with a sweep of Kent State at home, but stumbled over the weekend at San Diego, going 1-2. The Deacons were 33-22 last season, including a 16-3 mark in ACC play.

The Series (see series game-by-game on page seven)

Charlotte has a 21-27-1 record all-time against Wake Forest, with the Demon Deacons taking the last two. Charlotte won the three previous meetings, but Wake had won the four prior to that string. The Niners have won four of the last ten overall meetings between the schools. Charlotte is 9-14-1 against Wake on the road.

Probable Pitching Match-Ups

Charlotte will throw senior Spencer Steedley this afternoon. Steedley got a no-decision in Charlotte's extra-inning loss at Furman last Wednesday. Steedley has already thrown one complete-game shutout this season and Wake Forest counters with freshman lefty Alex Wiesner. He was a 7.36 ERA (3 ER in 3.2 IP) with no record this season.

Enough Bagels for a Sandwich Shop

Charlotte had its scoreless innings pitched streak ended in last Tuesday's game against Furman. Charlotte was one out away from tying the school record, but Furman scored in the third inning, ending the streak at 34 innings pitched without allowing a run. Seven pitchers currently still have an active inning or more of scoreless work in the books, including 19.1 by Adam Mills. Charlotte had shut out the previous three opponents before Furman, one shy of the school record four games, which took place in 1990. The Niners had their only other three-game sweep in school history at Old Dominion, pitching three straight road shutouts in 1988. This marks the first time in Loren Hibbs' head coaching career that his team has not allowed a run in three consecutive contests. Charlotte already has more shutouts (five) this season than all of last year (three). On the flip side, Charlotte has not been shutout since April 8, 2005 versus Tulane, an 89-game streak.

National Player of the Week

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) released the first Pro-Line Cap National Player of the Week awards of the season. Charlotte senior lefty Spencer Steedley was named National Pitcher of the Week for his complete-game shutout at Campbell on February 10. Steedley allowed seven singles but no walks, and struck out a career-high 13 batters. He was also named to the College Baseball Foundation's National Honor Roll and was the Insidepitching.com Southeast Regional Pitcher of the Week.

Senior Adam Mills would not be denied. The righty tossed a one-hit, one-walk performance against Radford, striking out a career-best 14 batters in seven innings. For his efforts, he was among just six players in the country named to the Louisville Slugger Player of the Week List. As was Steedley, Mills was named to the College Baseball Foundation's National Honor Roll as well as Insidepitching.com's Southeast Regional Pitcher of the Week.

Neither pitcher has left with anything less than a tie ballgame so far in 2007.

For the Record

The Niners broke two school records on Sunday, 2/18, Charlotte belted nine doubles for one record and won by 24 runs, the second record, in a 24-0 win against Radford. The shutout was the third straight for Charlotte, one shy of the school record of four games in a row (1990).

Rally With Two

With the score 5-0 Charlotte in the second Campbell contest, the Niners plated all of their runs with two outs in each inning in which they scored. This season, Charlotte is batting .278 (30-for-108) as a team with two outs, and Charlotte is outscoring opponents 28-4 in two-out situations.

Dueling Strikeout Totals

Over their last two starts, starting pitchers Adam Mills and Spencer Steedley played a game of "top this." Mills tied a career-high with 12 strikeouts on 2/9 against Campbell. Mills struck out the last ten batters in a row that he faced before being lifted for exceeding his pitch count.

Steedley bested Mills' performance by striking out a career-best 13 batters in his victory the next day of the series. In 18 career starts, it was Steedley's first complete game. Steedley's previous long outing was six innings (twice) and his previous strikeout high was seven.

Mills went one better again and struck out a career-high 14 batters in the Radford game on 2/18 in seven innings of work. The strikeout total was just two shy of the school record. He followed that up with 13 more K's against Campbell last Friday. In four starts, Mills has fanned 45 in 29 innings pitched.

A-10 Players of the Week

Charlotte has garnered all four Pitchers and two of the four Position Players of the Week so far this season...

Head Coach Loren Hibbs Over the 400 Mark

Now in his 15th season at the helm, Loren Hibbs is the all-time winningest coach in the program's history. His record now stands at 410-375-3 (.523) overall. Hibbs was an assistant at his alma mater, Wichita State, prior to being named head coach of the Niners. He is still the NCAA's all-time single-season leader in runs scored with 125 (1982). He was a member of the College World Series all-tournament team that year for the Shockers.

Home Grown Talent

Of the 31 players currently on the numerical roster, 19 hail from the state of North Carolina. Included in that mix are seven position player regulars: Aaron Bray (Charlotte), Chris and Cory Lane (twins from Kernersville), O'Brien Taylor (Winston-Salem), Chris Taylor (Mt. Pleasant), Alex Bryant (Ellerbe), and Spencer Steedley (Granite Quarry). On the mound, North Carolina natives include relievers Matt Foard (Indian Trail), Zach Rosenbaum (Huntersville) and Sam Pierce (Davidson).

Stocked Trophy Case

Nine different players earned All-Atlantic 10 honors, the most in school history. The school-record 1998 team (43 wins) had eight players honored by Conference USA. Mike Ambrose (1st), Spencer Steedley (1st), Cory Lane (2nd), Chris Taylor (2nd), O'Brien Taylor (2nd), Aaron Bray (2nd, All-Rookie), Derek McDaid (Hon. Mention), Adam Mills (Hon. Mention) and Kyle Pfirman (All-Rookie) were all honored by the A-10 coaches. Mike Ambrose and Spencer Steedley became the first 49ers to earn first-team all-conference honors since John Maine (New York Mets) was C-USA Pitcher of the Year in 2001. Aaron Bray become only the program's second Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American, joining Mike Taylor from 2000. The program extended to 16 straight years its streak of having at least one player honored in the conference post-season awards (1991-06). Charlotte has now won 74 All-Conference awards in 28 seasons, including 54 in Coach Loren Hibbs' 14 seasons with the Niners.

Prognosticator's Corner

No season has ever been successful on paper, but the Niners are picked to win the Atlantic 10 by several sources. First, the A-10 coaches selected Charlotte as the preseason favorite to win the championship, the second time in the Niners' two seasons in the league to be so honored. Perfect Game Crosschecker selected Charlotte as the top team in the league, and the only A-10 qualifier to the NCAA Regionals. The publication also put the Niners in the "Top 100 teams of 2007" section, one of only two league teams to make an appearance. Baseball America also lists the Niners as the favorite to win the A-10, going so far as to project Charlotte's post-season appearance. The publication shows Charlotte heading north to the Chapel Hill regional, along with projected teams East Carolina, Elon and host North Carolina in the national tournament.

Postseason History

Charlotte has played in a post-season conference tournament 21 times in the first 27 years of the program's history (1979-2006). The 49ers were in the Conference USA Tournament seven times in 10 years of membership in the league, posting an 11-12 record in that tournament overall. They made two championship game appearances, and advanced to the NCAA's as an at-large selection out of C-USA in 1998 after losing to top-seeded Tulane in the league's title game. The Niners' inaugural season in the Atlantic 10 netted Charlotte a berth in the six-team post-season festival at the Bronx.
