WNIT - The 49ers have now reached postseason play in a school-record five straight seasons. The 49ers reached the 2003 NCAA Tournament. They have played in the WNIT in 1990, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007. The 49ers 72-45 win over High Point evened Charlotte's all-time postseason record at 5-5. Charlotte has won at least one postseason game in 1990, 2004, 2006 and 2007. For the second straight year and the third time in the last four years, the 49ers have reached the second round of the WNIT. Last season, Charlotte reached the second round of the WNIT after recording the first postseason home win in the program's history with a 70-62 win over James Madison, March 17, 2006. The 49ers win over High Point (March 15) was the program's second ever home postseason win. Senior Courtney Williams joins former 49ers stalwarts Pam Brown, Sakellie Daniels and Andrea Davidson as the only four players in the program's history to play in four postseason tournaments.

vs. Virginia - The 49ers travel to ACC foe Virginia, Monday, March 19. This game will mark the fourth meeting between the two teams. Virginia has won all three meetings. Virginia defeated Charlotte at home, 57-56, December 8, 1984. Then, the Cavaliers defeated Charlotte at home, 88-65, January 4, 1986. Virginia won the last meeting between the two teams, 77-74, in Hilton Head, South Carolina, December 29, 1992. Virginia is the third ACC team that the 49ers have played this season. Charlotte lost at Virginia Tech, 80-68, December 2. Then, Charlotte defeated Clemson on the road, 65-62, January 2. Charlotte has played 11 of the 12 teams in the ACC at least once in the program's history. Boston College is the only ACC school that Charlotte has not played.

All-Atlantic 10 Honors- Junior guard Sabrina Gregory and sophomore center Danielle Burgin were named third-team All-Atlantic 10. The 49ers have now had two players named all-conference in the same season in three of the last five years. Freshman guard Wendy Stywalt was named to the A-10 All-Rookie team. Stywalt is the first 49er to earn all-freshmen team honors since former 49er stalwarts Pam Brown, Sakellie Daniels and Andrea Davidson were named to the Conference USA All-Freshmen team in 2003. Gregory was named to the A-10 All-Defensive team as well as the A-10 Academic All-Conference team. Charlotte has now had a player named to the All-Defensive team in each of the program's two-years in the A-10 since Daniels was named to the All-Defensive team last season.

Gregory Double-Figure Scoring Streaks - Junior guard Sabrina Gregory has scored in double-figures in 24 of Charlotte's 31 games including 13 straight games entering the WNIT. She needs 66 points to become the 15th player in the program's history to score 1,000 points in their career. She scored a career-high 26 points against Old Dominion (December 17). She scored 22 points against Arkansas State (November 10) and UNC Greensboro (November 20) and then she recorded 18 points at Minnesota (Novem-

Halton Arena- The 49ers have won 26 of their last 30 home games including a school-record 22-game home winning streak. This season, the 49ers have defeated Arkansas State, St. Francis, UNC Greensboro, Charleston Southern, Old Dominion, Houston, Winthrop, Saint Louis, Dayton, Xavier, Duquesne, Fordham and High Point. The 49ers last home loss before the George Washington loss (February 15) came against Old Dominion, December 18, 2005. Halton Arena has proven to be a tough place to get a win for opponents since Amanda Butler has been at Charlotte. Since 2001-02, the 49ers are 68-12 at home. The 49ers average 73.0 points per game at home will holding their opponents to 58.3 points per game in Halton Arena.

Triple-double - Sabrina Gregory nearly recorded the program's second-ever triple-double in the Duquesne (January 21) game. She scored 18 points, grabbed a career-high nine rebounds and tied her career-high with eight assists in the game. Former 49er Sakellie Daniels (2002-06) came the closest of any 49ers of recording a triple-double over the past couple of seasons until Gregory's performance against Duquesne. Daniels nearly recorded a triple-double several times over the past couple seasons. The only triple-double in the program's history came from Patricia Walker with 13 points, 10 rebounds and 15 assists vs. Campbell, February 5, 1982.

A-10 Player of the Week Honors - Sophomore center Danielle Burgin earned A-10 Player of the Week honors (February 5) for her efforts in the 49ers 77-65 win over Saint Louis (February 3). She scored a career-high 24 points on 10-for-12 shooting while grabbing seven rebounds with a career-high tying four blocked shots. Junior guard Sabrina Gregory earned A-10 Player of the Week honors (December 18) for her efforts in the 49ers, 68-64, win over Old Dominion (December 17). She scored a career-high 26 points on 10-for-15 shooting from the field and recorded a career-high six steals in the game. Burgin and Gregory join former 49ers stalwart Sakellie Daniels as the only three 49ers to claim A-10 Player of the Week honors. Daniels claimed the honor last season (February 4, 2006). Four different 49er players earned Conference USA Player of the Week honors during the 49ers tenure in C-USA.

Double-Figure Home Winning Streaks In The Program's History
Length - Date Streak Started and Ended
 22 games - 12/28/05 - 2/8/07
 20 games - 2/8/02- 12/1/04
 16 games - 2/2/86-2/8/87
 14 games - 11/29/78 - 12/1/79
 14 games - 12/5/80 - 1/18/82
 11 games - 2/3/90 - 1/16/91
 11 games - 2/27/04 - 1/30/05

A-10 Rookie of the Week - Freshman guard Wendy Stywalt became the first player in the program's history to be named A-10 Rookie of the Week (January 15). She averaged 12.3 points and 7.3 rebounds per game in the 49ers three Atlantic 10 games that week. She recorded her second career double-double with a career-high 22 points and 10 rebounds in the 49ers 82-70 win over Dayton (January 12).

Then, she scored the game-winning basket in the closing seconds of the 49ers 61-59 win over Xavier (January 14).

Largest Half Scoring Output - The 49ers scored a season-high 48 points in the first half of their 74-49 victory over Saint Louis in Halton Arena, January 9, 2007. The 49ers 48 point first half was their largest output in a half since scoring 49 points in the first half of their 81-50 win over Saint Joseph's, January 20, 2006.

School-Record Free Throws - The 49ers attempted a school-record 55 free throws against St. Francis (November 17). The previous school-record was 53 attempts vs. North Carolina A & T, November 24, 1984. The 49ers connected on 37 of those free throws attempts which is one shy of the school mark set against North Carolina A & T, November 24, 1984.

50 Boards - The 49ers grabbed a season-high 57 rebounds against St. Francis (November 17). This game marked the first time since the 2004-05 season that the 49ers have grabbed at least 50 rebounds in a game. The last time that Charlotte had grabbed 50 boards in a game was against Tulane, January 28, 2005. Charlotte collected 50 rebounds in that game. The last time the 49ers grabbed at least 57 rebounds in a game came against Puerto Rico, December 20, 2004. Where Charlotte grabbed 57 rebounds. Charlotte recorded their second 50-rebound performance of the season with 51 boards against Houston (December 21). The 49ers added their third 50-rebound game of the season with 52 boards against High Point (March 15).

Double-doubles - Sophomore center Danielle Burgin recorded her first career double-double with 14 points and a career-high 16 rebounds at Clemson (January 2). Burgin's double-double was the first for the 49ers since Pam Brown scored 16 points and grabbed 11 rebounds at Xavier, February 5, 2006. Freshman guard Wendy Stywalt recorded the 49ers second straight double-double with the first one of her career with 11 points and 11 rebounds against Winthrop (January 5). Stywalt recorded her second double-double of the season with a career-high 22 points and 10 rebounds against Dayton (January 12). Burgin collected her second career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds at Richmond (January 18). Burgin tallied her third career double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds against High Point (March 15).

Ray scored 12 points on four three-point baskets in the second half.

Reaching the 70-point mark - The 49ers are 13-2 this season when they score at least 70 points. The 49ers scored 76 points in their season opening victory over Arkansas State, 82 points in their win over St. Francis, 86 points against UNC Greensboro, 82 points against Charleston Southern, 81 points against Houston, 85 points against Tulsa, 72 points against Ball State, 74 points against Saint Louis, 82 points against Dayton, 74 against Duquesne, 78 at Rhode Island, 77 points at Saint Louis, 78 against Fordham, 86 at St. Bonaventure and 72 against High Point. Charlotte has reached the 80-point plateau seven times this season and the 49ers won all seven of those games. This season, the 49ers led the Atlantic 10 in scoring at 70.9 points per game. Over the past six seasons, which is the time that Amanda Butler has been associated with Charlotte, the 49ers are 74-11 when they score at least 70 points. In the program's history, Charlotte is 319-79 when they score at least 70 points.

400 And Counting: Charlotte earned the 400th win in program history on Dec. 7, 2003, beating Virginia Commonwealth, 81-72. The first in school history came at Salem, Jan. 27, 1976, a 58-43 decision. The 49ers currently have 475 wins. In the 31 years since, the program has moved to division I and changed conferences four times. Six coaches have led the team, starting with Judy Wilkins, now director of athletics Judy Rose through current coach Amanda Butler.

Packing Them In: The Niners have made a habit of drawing big crowds at Halton Arena in recent years. The Temple game (February 18) set a women's basketball attendance record for a stand alone game. With 4,501 people turning out for the team's game with Temple, February 18, 2007, Charlotte set a school record for attendance at a women's game in Halton. Twenty-three of the top 24 attendances for a women's game have come while Amanda Butler has been a part of Charlotte's coaching staff. The record for a women's game, 4,893, was set Jan. 23, 1987 against UAB at the Charlotte Coliseum. It was part of a doubleheader with the men.

"I was very pleased with our effort tonight," Charlotte coach Amanda Butler said. "We came out with a win over a very talented Arkansas State team. They will contend for their league championship this season. So I am pleased that we opened the season with a win. If we have the same effort all season we are going to win a lot of games."

Junior Sabrina Gregory led the 49ers with a career-high 22 points, eight rebounds, five assists and four steals. Junior Tameka Smith added 10 points and eight rebounds while freshman Wendy Stywalt had 11 points, six rebounds and four assists for the Niners. Freshman Aysha Jones added 10 points to the 49ers attack.

Charlotte used their aggressive defense to force 25 Arkansas State turnovers, which they converted into 29 points. The Niners notched 13 steals and held the Lady Indians to 38 percent shooting from the field. Charlotte was able to overcome a sluggish start to shoot 40 percent from the field for the game.

The Niners started the second half on an 8-0 run and stretched their lead to 18 at 44-26 on a Gregory lay-up at the 17:21 mark of the second half. Charlotte played steady throughout the half as the lead never slipped below nine.

Charlotte used their size and speed to their advantage as they won the battle in the paint 34-

Gregory paced the 49ers with her second straight double figure scoring game with 18 points on 7-for-9 shooting from the field. Traci Ray and Whitney Hoey each added nine points to the 49ers attack. Ashley Spriggs tossed in a season-high seven points.

The 49ers scored the game's first basket but then Minnesota went on a 24-9 run over the first ten and half minutes of the game taking a 24-11 lead half-way through the first half.

With 6:49 left in the first half, Minnesota had their largest lead of the game with a 31-17 advantage. Then, Charlotte went on an 11-2 run cutting the Golden Gophers lead to 33-28 with five minutes left in the half. Ray, Spriggs, Courtney Williams and Wendy Stywalt scored during the 49ers run.

Minnesota pushed their lead back to double-figures at 40-30 with just over three minutes left in the half. Then, the 49ers behind the scoring of Hoey and Gregory scored eight of the half's final 10 points cutting Minnesota's lead to 42-38 at half-time.

At the start of the second half, the 49ers exploded on a 14-4 run taking a 50-46 lead at the 16:30 mark. Gregory scored six points and Burgin scored four points during the 49ers run.

The game remained tight for the next nine minutes with four ties. Then, with the score tied at 59 with just over seven minutes left in regulation, Minnesota would score the next five points taking the lead for good at 66-61 with just over four minutes left in the contest.

Ray paced the 49ers with 13 points with 11 of those points coming in the first half. Sophomore center Danielle Burgin added 12 points and freshman guard Wendy Stywalt chipped in 11 points.

Then, Virginia Tech went on a 9-0 run taking a 9-6 lead at the 15:32 mark.

The 49ers would regain the lead a couple of times over the next couple of minutes taking their final lead of the game Burgin connected on a short jump shot in the lane giving the 49ers an 18-17 lead at the 10:31 mark.

Virginia Tech would then take the lead back when Kirby Copeland knocked down a three point field goal with just over ten minutes left on the clock.

The Hokies would lead by as much as eight points on three occasions in the first half including the halftime lead of 42-34.

The 49ers would cut their halftime deficit to four points when Williams connected on a layup at the 17:25 mark of the half.

Then, Charlotte scored seven straight points cutting the Hokies lead to 54-53 with 11:15 left in the half. Stywalt connected on a three and Aysha Jones and Burgin scored during the 49ers run. Charlotte had a chance to tie the score when Burgin was fouled connecting on a layup. But Burgin missed the free-throw.

That would be as close as the 49ers would get as Virginia Tech took control of the game with 10-0 run pushing their lead to 65-53 with 8:34 left in the second half.

Hoey paced the 49ers with 16 points for her 16th career double-figure scoring game. Sabrina Gregory recorded her sixth double-figure scoring game of the season with 13 points. While, Ashley Spriggs recorded her first career double-figure scoring with 10 points on 5-for-7 shooting from the field. Danielle Burgin recorded a team season-high 11 rebounds in the game.

Davidson began the game by scoring 18 of the first 20 points taking an 18-2 lead just over six minutes into the game.

The 49ers got back into the game with a 15-3 run over the next four minutes cutting the Davidson lead to 21-17 with 10:49 left in the half. Hoey paced the 49ers with seven points during the run... Spriggs, Wendy Stywalt and Aysha Jones also scored during Charlotte's run.

Davidson pushed their lead by seven points on Katie Hamilton's three-point basket at the 9:50 mark.

The Wildcats maintained a lead of 5-7 points over the next five minutes. Then baskets by Spriggs, Burgin and Traci Ray cut the Davidson lead to 31-29 with 3:53 left in the first half.

Davidson would score six of the half's final ten points giving them a, 38-33, halftime lead..

The 49ers would open the second half with a 10-3 run over the first five minutes taking a 43-41 lead on Hoey's jump shot at the 14:26 mark.

Charlotte maintained their lead for the next twelve minutes even pushing it to six points, 59-53, when Hoey connected on another jump shot with just over six minutes left on the clock.

Davidson would then regain the lead on Jessica Mitchell's three-point basket, 62-60, with 3:38 on the clock. Charlotte's Gregory would tie the game on a layup with 2:43 on the clock.

Game Recap - Behind the scoring of Sabrina Gregory and Traci Ray, the Charlotte 49ers (5-5) rallied from a 16-point first half deficit to win their 15th straight home game, 68-64, over perennial NCAA Tournament participant Old Dominion (3-5) in Halton Arena.

After the game was tied, 5-5, at the 16:51 mark, Old Dominion would outscore the 49ers 25-9 over the next 12 minutes taking a 30-14 lead at the 4:47 mark.

The 49ers would then go on a 5-0 run behind the scoring of Gregory, Wendy Stywalt and Tameka Smith cutting Old Dominion's lead to 30-21 with 2:53 on the clock.

The 49ers would start the second half on fire after going on a 10-2 run over the first three minutes of the half tying the game, 36-36. Gregory scored four points during the 49ers run and Whitney Hoey knocked down a three-point field goal tying the score.

Old Dominion would regain the lead with seven straight points, 43-36, with 13:56 left on the clock.

Charlotte cut Old Dominion's lead back down to two points on several occasions over the next six minutes. Then, Gregory connected on a fast break layup giving the 49ers their first lead of the game, 49-48, with 6:23 left in the second half.

Old Dominion would regain the lead, 50-49, about thirty seconds later. Then, Ray knocked down a three-point field goal giving the 49ers the lead for good, 52-50, with 5:47 left in regulation.

Ray and Gregory would combine to score the 49ers next 11 points pushing their lead to as much as seven points on several occasions over the next five minutes of the game.

Timely free throw shooting by Gregory, Hoey and Ray during the final minute of the game preserved the 49ers victory.

Whitney Hoey came off the bench to lead a balanced attack with 17 points. Aysha Jones added 15 points while Wendy Stywalt had 12 points. Traci Ray was the fourth Niner to score in double figures with 10. Ashley Spriggs had eight points and seven rebounds. All ten 49ers that played scored at least two points and grabbed at least one rebound. Eight of the ten players recorded at least one assist.

"I am very proud of every one on our team," Charlotte coach Amanda Butler said. "I am really proud of our post players. I challenged them before the game and they responded. I told them if they rebounded the basketball we would score 80 points and they responded. If we play this balanced the rest of the way out we are going to make good things happen."

Hoey hit a three to give Charlotte a 26-16 midway through the first half. The lead would remain in double figures for the rest of the game. Houston trailed by 14 at halftime and a Ryan Bradley's lay-up cut the lead to 12 three minutes into the second half. Charlotte answered back with an 11-0 run to stretch the lead to 56-33 at the 14 minute mark.

Charlotte was very efficient in other parts as they committed just 14 turnovers and shot 44 percent from the floor. The Niners were also a near perfect 14-15 from the free throw line and out-rebounded Houston 51-33. They held a 19-7 advantage in second chance points, and a 22-4 advantage in fast break points.

Whitney Hoey paced the 49ers with a season-high 24 points. Sabrina Gregory added 18 points to the 49ers attack. Traci Ray tied her career-high with 16 points while recording a career-high eight steals. Wendy Stywalt recorded her first career double-figure rebounding game with 10 boards and she also scored nine points. While Danielle Burgin grabbed 10 rebounds as well for her second double-figure rebounding game of the season. Burgin also scored nine points in the game.

The 49ers forced 26 turnovers in the game leading to a 33-13 scoring advantage in points off turnovers which was the main key to the 49ers victory.

The game was close for the first eight minutes with several lead changes and four ties. With the score tied, 9-9, the 49ers would score 18 of the next 26 points taking control of the game, 27-17, at the 5:37 mark. Erin Floyd, Burgin, Gregory, Stywalt and Ray scored during the 49ers run.

Tulsa would score five unanswered points cutting Charlotte's lead to five points, 27-22, over the next minute. Then, Charlotte would increase their lead to 14 points with a 9-0 run over the next two and half minutes. Courtney Williams, Hoey and Gregory led the 49ers on their run.

The 49ers halftime lead would balloon to 15 points, 43-28, when Hoey knocked down a three-point field goal with five seconds left on the clock.

Tulsa started the second half with an 8-0 run cutting Charlotte's lead to seven points, 43-36, with 17:46 left in the half. But that would be as close as Tulsa would get as the 49ers would blow the game open by scoring 19 of the next 24 points taking a 62-41 lead with 12:45 left on the clock. Hoey scored 10 of her 24 points during the 49ers second half run.

The 49ers would hold a 24-point lead on several occasions in the final 11 minutes of the second half cruising to the 85-65 victory.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers despite four double-figure scorers led by Traci Ray's career-high 18 points fell to Ball State, 82-72, in the championship game of the Aeropostale/St. Peter's Holiday Classic.

With the loss, the 49ers fall to 7-6 on the season. While, Ball State improved to 9-2 on the season.

"I am disappointed in the loss," Charlotte coach Amanda Butler said. "I have a tremendous amount of respect for Ball State. We knew going into the game that this was going to be a tough challenge for us. We just did not step up to meet the challenge. We did a great job on the boards tonight. But Ball State was more aggressive than we were and that is not acceptable."

Ray's career-high 18 points came on six three-point field goals. Danielle Burgin scored 14 points. While, Wendy Stywalt tied her career-high with 12 points to go along with four steals. Sabrina Gregory joined Ray on the all-tournament team after scoring 11 points.

Ball State started the game by scoring 18 of the first 25 points taking an 18-7 lead with 12:22 left in the first half.

The 49ers cut the Ball State lead to four points by going on a 17-10 run over the next five minutes. Aysha Jones, Whitney Hoey, Gregory, Ray and Stywalt scored during the 49ers run.

The 49ers started the second half on fire by going on a 15-7 run over the first four and half minutes of the half tying the score, 51-51. Ray, Burgin, Stywalt and Gregory scored during the 49ers' run.

Then, Ball State would regain control of the game for good with 11 unanswered points taking a 62-51 lead with 12:09 left in the second half.

Ashley Spriggs and Stywalt would score back-to-back baskets cutting Ball State's lead to seven points, 62-55, with 9:20 left in the half. But that would be as close the 49ers would get to Ball State in the game.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers behind the play of Danielle Burgin and Wendy Stywalt overcame an early second half deficit to topple ACC foe Clemson, 65-62, on the road. With the win, the 49ers improved to 8-6 on the season. While, Clemson falls to 8-7.

Burgin recorded her first career double-double with 14 points and a career-high 16 rebounds. Her 16 rebounds were the most by a 49ers in five years. Stywalt recorded a career-high 19 points. While, Gregory recorded nine points, six assists and five steals.

In the first half, the two teams exchanged baskets for the first ten minutes of the game. Then with the 49ers leading 15-14 halfway through the half, Charlotte would go on a 6-0 run taking a 21-14 lead with just over seven minutes left in the half. Whitney Hoey, Erin Floyd and Stywalt scored during the 49ers run.

Later in the half, Clemson's Susan Yenser knocked down back-to-back threes cutting Charlotte's lead to one point, 28-27, with 30 seconds left in the half. Hoey scored the 49ers final basket of the half and Clemson's Morganne Campbell made the halftime score, 30-29, with a basket in the final seconds of the half.

Clemson started the second half on a 12-2 run over the first four minutes taking a 41-32 lead with 16:21 left in the half.

Clemson maintained their lead of 7-9 points over the next couple of minutes. Then with the Tigers leading, 45-36, with 14:22 left in regulation, the 49ers would go a 12-2 run regaining the lead 48-47 on Floyd's jump shot with 10:08 on the clock. Hoey, Ashley Spriggs, Burgin and Stywalt would also score during the 49ers run.

Charlotte pushed their lead up to five points, 52-47, when Aysha Jones connected on a free throw at the 8:10 mark.

However, Clemson would tie the score, 56-56, with 5:32 on the clock by scoring nine of the game's next 13 points. The lead would exchange hands a couple of times over the next few minutes until Burgin connected on a jump shot in the lane giving the 49ers the lead for good, 63-61, with 1:33 on the clock.

Clemson had a chance to tie the game at 62 with 13 seconds left but Moreemi Davis was only able to convert on one of two free throws. Burgin would ice the game with two free throws with 11 seconds on the clock.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers got off to a quick start and never looked back as they topped the Saint Louis Billikens, 74-49, in the Atlantic 10 opener for both teams Tuesday night in Charlotte. With the win, Charlotte improves to 10-6 on the season and 1-0 in the conference. With the loss, the Billikens fall to 8-7, and 0-1 in the A-10.

"Whitney Hoey came out of the gate sending a message that she was going to lead our team tonight," Charlotte coach Amanda Butler said. "It was her show tonight and she accepted that challenge. She knocked down the mid-range jumpshot like it was her job tonight."

Hoey led the way for the 49ers with 18 points, 15 of which she had in the first half. Aysha Jones added 17 while making three of five three pointers. Sabrina Gregory chipped in with 11 points, five assists and two steals. Wendy Stywalt came off the bench to add eight points, seven rebounds and three assists.

The Niners got off to a hot start, racing out to a 24-7 lead. Charlotte would continue to steadily increase their lead as Saint Louis never got closer than 12. The 49ers shot a blistering 54 percent from the field in the first half, while draining four of nine from three point range. The Niners took a 48-25 lead into halftime. That is their highest point total in any half this season. The 23 point margin is also their largest halftime lead of the season.

Charlotte would cruise in the second half, their lead never dipping below 20, and getting as large as 29. Saint Louis came into the game averaging 73.9 points per game, tops in the Atlantic 10. The Niners held them to 49 points on 39 percent shooting while forcing 21 turnovers. The 49ers also controlled the glass, out-rebounding the Billikens 39-30. They had 15 offensive rebounds and 16 second chance points.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers behind the scoring of Wendy Stywalt, Danielle Burgin and Sabrina Gregory overcame a slow start to defeat the Dayton Flyers, 82-70, Friday night in Halton Arena for their 19th straight home victory. With the win, Charlotte improves to 11-6 overall and 2-0 in the Atlantic 10. With the loss, Dayton falls to 5-12, and 0-2 in the conference.

Stywalt led the way for the 49ers with a career high 22 points to go along with 10 rebounds, four assists and three steals. It is her second career double-double. Burgin chipped in with 16 points and eight rebounds and Gregory added 15 points and seven rebounds. Courtney Williams added eight points on 4-for-4 shooting and grabbed six rebounds.

Dayton came out hot, getting out to a 14-6 lead by hitting six of their first nine shots from the field including two from beyond the arc. They held a five point lead just under the 12 minute mark before Charlotte started to rally.

The Niners would go on a 23-13 run to take a 10 point lead with 4:31 left in the first half. The Flyers cut the Charlotte lead to seven, but the Niners would stretch it back out to 11 points just before halftime for their largest lead of the first half. Charlotte shot 55 percent from the field in the first half while draining four three pointers.

Dayton kept it close in the second half, led by Strong the Flyers would get as close as 62-60 with 9:53 left in the half. But the Niners again answered back as they closed the game on a 20-10 run. Charlotte, who leads the A-10 in steals, used their aggressive defense to fuel their final run. The Niners had 12 steals and forced a total of 16 Dayton turnovers to pull away down the stretch.

Charlotte shot 52 percent from the field for the game, while out-rebounding Dayton 38-31 and outscoring the Flyers 50-30 in the paint.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers behind a near triple-double from Sabrina Gregory topped the Duquesne Dukes, 74-65, for their school-record 21st straight home victory. Charlotte has won seven straight games and 10 of their last 11 to improve to 14-6 on the season and 5-0 in Atlantic 10 play. With the loss, the Dukes fall to 7-10 and 2-2 in the A-10.

Gregory nearly had the program's second ever triple-double with a team-high 18 points, nine rebounds and eight assists. Aysha Jones and Danielle Burgin added 10 points apiece and Whitney Hoey scored all nine of her points in the second half. Courtney Williams added nine points to the 49ers attack. While Traci Ray and Erin Floyd tossed in eight points apiece.

Duquesne came out on fire and led throughout much of the first half. A Hall tip-in gave the Dukes a 33-30 lead nearing the end of the half. The Niners would close the half on an 8-4 run to take a one point lead into intermission. Duquesne shot 59 percent in the first half while Charlotte shot 45 percent. The 49ers stayed in it by controlling the glass, grabbing 11 offensive rebounds and holding a 16-4 advantage in second chance points.

The game would stay tight for the first part of the second half. Duquesne held a 51-49 lead with 9:16 left in the game. Charlotte would then go on an 11-0 run over the next three minutes taking control of the game. Hoey led the way by scoring seven of Charlotte's points during the run.

Duquesne shot 50 percent from the field for the game, but the Charlotte defense, which leads the conference in steals, had 12 more in this game and forced 22 turnovers. They converted those turnovers into 25 points. Charlotte out-rebounded the Dukes 38-34, including a 19-11 edge in offensive rebounds. For the game they had a 24-10 advantage in second chance points.

The first half was a half of runs. The 49ers started the game by scoring ten of the game's first 14 points. Aysa Jones scored Charlotte's first points.

UMass would score six straight points tying score at 10-10 with 10:57 left in the half. The teams would exchange the lead and baskets for the next six and half minutes. Then, UMass finished the half on a 9-2 run over the final three and half minutes taking a 31-24 halftime lead.

At the start of the second half, UMass pushed their lead to a game-high 11 points, 35-24, with 17:50 left in the game. Then, the 49ers went on a 9-2 run cutting UMass' lead to 37-33 with 16:19 on the clock. Gregory, Ray, Courtney Williams and Ashley Spriggs scored during the 49ers run.

Massachusetts maintained the lead for the next three minutes until Gregory knocked down two free throws tying the score for the first time in the second half, 44-44, with 13:22 left in the game.

The two teams would exchange the lead a couple of times over the next four minutes. With the score tied, 49-49, with just over 10 minutes left in the game, the 49ers would take the lead for good with a 9-0 run over the next three minutes. Ray scored seven of the 49ers nine points during their run.

The 49ers would make some timely baskets down the stretch holding off UMass, 67-60.

Game Recap - Danielle Burgin scored a career-high 24 points to lead four 49ers in double-figures as Charlotte defeated Saint Louis, 77-65, on the road. With the win, the 49ers improved to 16-7 on the season and 7-1 in the Atlantic 10.

Burgin's career-high 24 points came on 10-for-12 shooting from the field. She also grabbed seven rebounds. While, Wendy Stywalt scored 13 points with seven rebounds off the bench. Whitney Hoey added 11 points and five assists off the bench. Sabrina Gregory rounded out the 49ers double-figure scorers with 11 points and six assists.

Charlotte behind the scoring of Hoey and Stywalt enjoyed a dominating advantage in points off the bench, 35-11.

Burgin scored the game's first two points on a layup in a game that the 49ers would never trail.

However, the game was tight for the first ten minutes with Charlotte's lead fluctuating between two and four points. Charlotte would push their lead to six points, 15-9, with 12:42 on the clock. Then, Saint Louis went on a 6-0 run over the next two minutes tying score at 15.

Charlotte would then go on a 12-0 run over the next three minutes taking a 27-15 lead with seven and half minutes left in the half. Stywalt paced the 49ers with six points and Burgin added four points during run.

Saint Louis would not go away as they cut Charlotte's lead to three points on several occasions over the final couple minutes of the first half. Saint Louis' Katie Paganelli connected on a three-point field goal with two and half minutes left in the half cutting Charlotte's lead to three points. Then, Burgin would knock down two free throws giving the 49ers a 37-32 lead at the half.

Charlotte would put the game away with a 16-4 run over the first six and half minutes of the second half giving the 49ers their largest lead of the game, 53-36, with 14:34 left in the second half. Ashley Spriggs and Stywalt would each score four points during the run.

Game Recap - Behind the balanced scoring of the entire roster and a 15-0 run to the end the first half, the 49ers cruised to their 22nd straight home win with a 78-46 win over Atlantic 10 foe Fordham. With the win, the 49ers improved to 17-7 overall and 8-1 in the Atlantic 10.

"What a great team effort tonight," Charlotte coach Amanda Butler said. "Everyone scored and rebounded tonight. We had 18 assists with only seven turnovers which is fantastic. I am so proud of the entire team's performance tonight."

Sabrina Gregory paced the 49ers with 20 points on 9-for-12 shooting from the field. Wendy Stywalt and Erin Floyd scored 11 points in the game. Floyd's career-high 11 points came on 5-for-8 shooting from the field. All ten players that played for the 49ers scored at least two points and grabbed at least two rebounds.

The 49ers forced 19 Fordham turnovers which led to a 24-9 advantage of points off turnovers. The 49ers bench which has been a strong point all season continued their strong play with a 44-4 advantage in points off the bench.

The 49ers, who never trailed in the game, scored 18 of the game's first 26 points taking an 18-8 lead just over six and half minutes into the game. Gregory scored six of her 20 points during the 49ers early run.

However, Fordham did not go away as they cut Charlotte's lead to 25-19 with 5:51 left in the first half. But that would be as close as Fordham would get as the 49ers would explode on a 15-0 run over the final five minutes of half giving Charlotte a 40-19 lead at the intermission. Gregory scored eight points during the 49ers run. Ashley Spriggs, Stywalt and Floyd also scored during the run.

Gregory would score the first four points of the second half pushing Charlotte's lead to 44-19 just over a minute into the half.

Charlotte would push their lead to a game-high 34 points when Whitney Hoey knocked down a short jump shot making the score, 66-32, with 9:41 left in regulation.

Game Recap - The George Washington Colonials topped the Charlotte 49ers, 64-59, in Atlantic 10 action Thursday night in Halton Arena. With the win George Washington improves to 22-2 overall and 11-0 in the conference. Charlotte falls to 17-9 and 8-3 in the A-10. They also had their school-record 22-game home court winning streak snapped.

Sabrina Gregory led the way for Charlotte with 17 points, five assists and four boards. Danielle Burgin added 12 points and eight rebounds. Wendy Stywalt and Traci Ray chipped in with 12 and 11 points respectively.

Both teams had a five-point lead at one point in the first half, but no lead would ever get above that number. The Colonials shot 46 percent in the first half and held a 21-12 advantage on the boards. They held a 16-8 lead in points in the paint at the midway mark. Charlotte shot 41 percent from the field, but were able to hang tight by forcing 13 turnovers.

The Colonials took a 49-44 lead midway through the second half, but the Niners answered back with a 9-2 run to take two point lead, the capper was a three by Ray to take the lead, 53-51, with 6:25 left in the second half.. George Washington answered back with a 9-1 run of their own. Lisa Steele scored five of the points in the run, including a three-point play that gave the Colonials a lead they would never surrender.

The lead grew to as big as seven at 61-54, but George Washington struggled from the free throw line down the stretch. The Niners were able to get the lead back down to four at 61-57, with 24 seconds left in the game, but the Colonials were able to hold on for the win.

Game Recap - Junior Sabrina Gregory scored a game-high 20 points but it was not enough as the Charlotte 49ers fell to Atlantic 10 foe Temple, 72-55, in their final home game. With the loss, the 49ers fall to 17-10 on the season and 8-4 in the Atlantic 10. While, Temple improved to 22-5 on the season and 12-0 in the Atlantic 10.

Gregory's 20 points was her ninth straight double-figure scoring game. Erin Floyd chipped in eight points to the 49ers effort.

The game was tight for the first 13 minutes with neither team having a lead of more than four points. When Charlotte took their largest lead of the game, 19-15, at the 8:59 mark, Temple would then close the half on a 25-8 run pushing their lead to 40-27 at halftime.

Temple maintained their double-figure lead for the first four and half minutes of the second half. Then, Charlotte would go on an 11-2 run cutting Temple's lead to five points, 49-44, with 10:38 on the clock. Floyd and Gregory scored four points apiece during the run. Traci Ray's three-point field goal at the 14:18 mark started the Charlotte run.

However, that would be as close as the 49ers would come as Temple then scored eight straight points pushing their lead back to 13 points, 57-44, with 7:17 left in the game.

Sabrina Gregory paced the 49ers with 19 points with three steals and three assists. Danielle Burgin added 10 points and seven rebounds to the 49ers attack.

The 49ers enjoyed a 37-31 advantage on the boards which led to a 17-4 advantage in second chance points.

The 49ers led for the majority of the first nine minutes of the game. Gregory, Burgin, Aysa Jones and Ashley Spriggs scored during the early going for the 49ers.

Then, with the Explorers leading, 31-24, with 2:39 left in the half, the 49ers would close out the half by scoring six of the half's final eight points. Erin Floyd, Traci Ray and Gregory scored two points apiece to close out the half.

The 49ers quickly tied the score, 35-35, behind baskets from Jones and Burgin in the first minute and half of the second half.

La Salle would then score four unanswered points regaining the lead, 39-35, at the 15:24 mark. La Salle would maintain their lead for the next five minutes until Gregory knocked down a jump shot giving the 49ers their first lead since early in the game, 48-47, with 9:57 on the clock.

The lead would go back and forth for the next three minutes. With the score tied, 52-52, La Salle's Carlene Hightower scored a layup giving the Explorers the lead for good with 6:21 left on the clock.

La Salle pushed their lead to six points but the 49ers behind the scoring of Burgin and Wendy Stywalt cut the deficit to one point, 58-57, with 2:35 left on the clock.

La Salle would push their lead back to four points on a Hightower three-point play. Then, Ray knocked down the 49ers only three of the game with 1:58 left cutting the deficit back to one point, 61-60.

The two teams would exchange baskets until La Salle's Jenna Graber knocked down a three-point field goal with 44 seconds left and the 49ers would not be able to get any closer.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers behind four-double figure scorers and a dominating effort in the paint defeated the St. Bonaventure Bonnies, 86-74, in the final regular season game for both teams.

Wendy Stywalt paced the 49ers with 21 points to go along with five rebounds. Sabrina Gregory recorded her 11th straight double-figure game with 20 points. She also contributed eight assists to the 49ers attack. Ashley Spriggs scored a career-high 12 points to go along with five rebounds. Danielle Burgin rounded out the 49ers double-figure scorers with 12 points. Courtney Williams tossed in eight points for the 49ers.

The 49ers behind the scoring of Burgin, Spriggs and Williams dominated play in the paint with a 58-28 advantage on points in the paint.

Charlotte jumped out to an early eight point lead after scoring 12 of the game's first 16 points in the first three and half minutes of the game. Ray knocked down two threes and Gregory added four points for the 49ers during their opening run.

Charlotte's lead would fluctuate between four and eight points for the next eight minutes. With the 49ers leading, 25-17, at the 9:07 mark, the Bonnies would go on a 7-0 run cutting the 49ers lead to one point, 25-24, at the 7:18 mark.

Charlotte behind the scoring of Stywalt and Spriggs quickly answered the Bonnies with an 8-0 run of their own over the next two half minutes giving Charlotte their largest lead of the half, 33-24, at the 5:15 mark.

Then, St. Bonaventure scored 11 of the next 13 points tying the score, 35-35, with just over three minutes left in the half.

Charlotte would push their lead to five points behind the scoring of Gregory, Spriggs and Stywalt over the next couple of minutes.

For the first nine minutes of the second half, the lead exchanged hands several times with several ties.

Then, with St. Bonaventure leading, 60-59 at the 12:08 mark, the 49ers would go on a 13-0 run taking control of the game, 72-60, with 7:20 on the clock. Williams would score four points and Aysa Jones chipped in with a three-point field goal during the run. Stywalt and Gregory also scored during the run.

St. Bonaventure would cut Charlotte's lead to 76-70 with 3:54 left on the clock but that would be as close as the Bonnies would get as scoring from Gregory and Stywalt down the stretch pushed the final margin to 12 points.

Game Recap - The Charlotte 49ers (18-12) had four players in double-figures but it was not enough as the Saint Joseph's Hawks (18-12) overcame an early deficit to defeat the 49ers, 76-64, in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic 10 Tournament.

Wendy Stywalt paced the 49ers with 16 points, seven rebounds and six assists. Sabrina Gregory recorded her 12th straight double-figure scoring game with 15 points. Traci Ray added 14 points on four three-point field goals. Danielle Burgin rounded out the 49ers double-figure scorers with 10 points.

The 49ers jumped out to an early 12-point lead by scoring 15 of the game's first 18 points over the first six minutes of the game. Gregory scored seven points and Erin Floyd and Stywalt each added four points apiece during the 49ers early run.

Saint Joseph's cut the 49ers lead to six points with a 8-2 run over the next three minutes cutting Charlotte's lead to 17-11 with 10:50 on the clock.

A three-pointer from Ray, a jump shot from Gregory and a free throw from Stywalt pushed the 49ers lead back to 12 points, 23-11, with 5:42 on the clock.

Then the Hawks would close out the half by scoring 17 of the final 22 points tying the score, 28-28, at intermission.

Gregory knocked down two free throws at the start of the second half giving the 49ers their final lead of the game, 30-28, just thirty seconds into the half.

The two teams would exchange basket over the next minute and a half. With the score tied, 32-32, Saint Joseph's would score eight of the next 11 points pushing their lead to 40-35 with 15:38 on the clock.

A Burgin layup and another three from Ray tied the score for the fourth and final time, 40-40, with 13:46 on the clock.

Saint Joseph's would then take control of the game for good with an 8-0 run over the next three minutes.
