* - Statistics for 2007-08 season at Providence College

Season-Openers - Charlotte has won five of their last six season openers including a 62-60 win over Southern Cal in last season's first game, November 15, 2008. Charlotte is 7-3 in home openers since the 2000 season. The 49ers are 20-14 all-time in season openers. In last season's opener, Shannon McCallum recorded her first career double-double with 16 points and 11 rebounds in the 49ers victory over USC.

vs. East Carolina - Charlotte was a charter member of Conference USA. East Carolina, who is currently a member of Conference USA, joined the league in 2001. So Charlotte and East Carolina faced each of other for four years as members of Conference USA. The 49ers lead the all-time series, 22-7. Charlotte has won seven of the last eight meetings between the two teams including a 68-66 win at East Carolina in their last meeting, February 26, 2005. Former 49ers standout Sakellie Daniels led the 49ers with 16 points and eight rebounds in their last game at East Carolina. Assistant coach Krystion Obie Nelson and director of operations Sabrina Gregory both played for the 49ers in their last game at East Carolina.

Preseason All-Atlantic 10 - The Charlotte 49ers, who captured the program's first conference tournament title when they won the A-10 Tournament title last season, were picked second in the preseason Atlantic 10 coaches poll. Senior guard Aysha Jones, who earned second-team All-Atlantic 10 honors last season, was a preseason first-team All-A-10 pick. Then, junior guard Shannon McCallum, who was named A-10 Sixth Player of the Year last season, was a preseason second-team All-Atlantic 10 selection.
