The 49ers Finish Season At C-USA Tournament

Freshman Laura Swain earned third team All-Conference USA honors. She is the first 49er women's tennis player to be named All-Conference USA.

Charlotte lost both of their Conference USA Tournament matches to finish, tied for 13th in Conference USA. The 49ers lost a hard fought match to fourth seed Houston, 4-3. Charlotte won the doubles point with victories at number one and three doubles. Then, Charlotte's Lauren Hastings and Stacie Luders won their singles matches. Luders won her match by default but Hastings won her match in straight sets. Then, the 49ers lost three singles matches in three hard fought sets.

Charlotte then lost their final tournament match to East Carolina. The doubles team of Alice Hansen and Laura Swain won their number one doubles match.

Fall Tournament Wrapup

This marked the first season that the women's tennis teams in Conference USA have competed in a fall individual tournament which ended the fall season. The inaugural Conference USA Individual Tournament was hosted by TCU in Fort Worth, Texas.

Five Charlotte players (Alice Hansen, Jana Cucciniello, Jennifer Hatch, Lauren Hastings and Courtney Clifford) competed in the championships. All five players recorded at least one singles win in the championships. Clifford and Hatch led the team with two singles wins in the championships.

Two members of the team competed in this Southeast Regional Championships. Alice Hansen competed in the singles competition. She lost her first round match. Then, she teamed with Jana Cucciniello and they won their first round doubles match, 8-4, over a team from Davidson. Then, they lost their next match to a team from Furman.

Three members of the team (Jennifer Hatch, Lauren Hastings and Courtney Clifford) competed in the Louisville Invitational.

The highlight of the Invitational was Hatch won her first round match in three sets over a player from Tennessee-Chattanooga in Flight A singles.

The Campbell Invitational was only a one day tournament as inclement weather cancelled the second day of the tournament.

Four Charlotte players won a match at the Campbell Invitational. Jana Cucciniello reached the semifinals of the Flight A consolation bracket before having the tournament cancelled.

Five Charlotte players (Alice Hansen, Jana Cucciniello, Jennifer Hatch, Stacie Luders and Lauren Hastings) competed in the UNC Wilmington flighted singles and doubles tournament. This was the first tournament of the fall.

Five of the players posted at least one win in the tournament. Jana Cucciniello and Jennifer Hatch each won two matches at the Invitational. Hatch defeated Conference USA foe Lyndsey Molony of Cincinnati in her first Flight B consolation match.
