

My Tot & Me Snowplow Sam

2017-2018

We offer sessions on Wednesday mornings from 11:15-11:45 am for our youngest learn to skate participants. This class is open to skaters 3 years old and above.

We have a parent accompany the skater onto the ice during the lesson to ease any anxiety the skater might have. Parents must be in ice skates.

If a participant wants to continue skating, they may stick around for public skate from 12:00-1:20 pm. The public skate is free for the participant and their one parent. It will be an additional $5 (includes rental) for any family/friends that want to join them.

Cost is $55 for 5-week session.

All participants and parent must register for a Learn to Skate USA membership: $16.00 (register at learntoskateusa.com)
