Irish Look To Strike The Right Chord In The Music City

Following a strong third-place finish at the Coca-Cola Duke Classic two weeks ago, Notre Dame aims to keep trending upward when it makes its first appearance in the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate Sunday-Tuesday at the Vanderbilt Legends Club of Tennessee in Franklin, Tenn. The Irish are coming off the fifth-lowest tournament score in school history (857, -7 at Duke) and may have found another weapon in their arsenal in freshman Tyler Hock, who owns a team-best 72.17 stroke average early in his rookie season.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"We're looking forward to our first trip to Vanderbilt this weekend. Having worked in the Tennessee Section as a PGA assistant professional, I had an opportunity to play Vanderbilt's Legends Golf Club on multiple occasions. It's a fun layout with a nice mix of holes and is always in great condition. It should serve as an ideal venue for the teams this weekend.

"We'll face a number of NCAA contenders and have an opportunity to face off with our BIG EAST rival, Louisville, for the first time this year. We'll also try to keep the momentum going from our Duke trip, which was a nice bounce-back event. We want to start to sustain our good play and become more consistent, and Vanderbilt will be a good place to test us.

"Our lineup will remain the same in terms of our top four. We'll be giving Kyle Willis an opportunity this weekend in the fifth spot. Kyle is a pretty steady player with a nice short game. I think he'll give us that round or two which keeps all five players in the mix for a team score. That's really the key as we look to start winning events with a young group (only one senior in the lineup). We need to have five good scores to choose from. I'm excited about that likelihood this weekend."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play single rounds each day of the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. Sunday's opening round will feature a split-tee format, with the Irish slated to go off from the No. 1 tee beginning at 9:30 a.m. CT (10:30 a.m. ET in South Bend). The split-tee format will be used for the remaining two rounds, with start times based upon the team standings at the conclusion of the previous day's play. All times and formats are tentative and subject to change.

Following The Irish

Complete results following each day's action at the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). The latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, also will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

Results also will be available via the Irish ALERT text-message system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress at the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate through text messages sent to their cell phone. For more information or to sign up, visit the men's golf page of the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 17 five-man teams (85 participants, plus a handful of additional golfers — including Irish senior Mike King — competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host Vanderbilt (which will field a "B" team in addition to its varsity unit), the remaining teams in the field for the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate are: Augusta State, Belmont, Chattanooga, Iowa State, Louisville, Mercer, Middle Tennessee, Mississippi, Mississippi State, UNC Greensboro, North Florida, South Alabama, Southeastern Louisiana, Toledo and Western Kentucky.

According to Thursday's edition of the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 coaches' poll, No. 16 Chattanooga is the only ranked team scheduled to take part in this weekend's tournament. However, no less than five other teams received votes in the latest coaches' survey — Louisville (53 votes; 28th place), Middle Tennessee (44 votes; 31st), South Alabama (22 votes; tie-35th), Mississippi (five votes; tie-44th) and Iowa State (three votes; tie-46th).

Meanwhile, the Oct. 14 ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that five of the top 50 Division I teams will be on hand for the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. Leading the way is seventh-ranked Chattanooga, followed by No. 26 Louisville, No. 39 Mississippi State, No. 42 Middle Tennessee and No. 43 Mississippi. Two other teams could move on to the first page of the Golfweek ratings with a strong performance this weekend — Notre Dame (56th) and South Alabama (59th).

In addition, the Oct. 17 Golfstat rankings indicate three of this weekend's participants are appearing in that service's Top 50. No. 10 Chattanooga sets the bar, with No. 28 Mississippi and No. 36 Virginia Tech among the national leaders through the first month of play. Four other squads — No. 51 Notre Dame, No. 52 Augusta State, No. 58 North Florida and No. 60 Middle Tennessee — aren't far off the pace.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame is not particularly familiar with the other opponents in this weekend's Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate. In fact, the Irish have a 1-2 record in limited action against Chattanooga (0-1), UNC Greensboro (1-0) and North Florida (0-1). For the season, the Irish are 22-12-2 (.639), with a 4-8-1 (.346) record against Top 50 clubs (1-5-1 vs. the Top 25).

The Course

Making its debut in 1992, the Vanderbilt Legends Club of Tennessee is located in Franklin, Tenn., less than 20 miles south of downtown Nashville. The twin 18-hole layouts (Ironhorse Course and Roper's Knob) each measure at 7,100 yards as par-71 courses, co-designed by renowned course architect Bob Cupp and 1992 U.S. Open champion Tom Kite. The facility has hosted several high-profile events, including the LPGA's Electrolux USA Championship (presented by Vince Gill and Amy Grant) and the 1997 USGA Girls' Junior Championship.

Noting The Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate

- ◆ Notre Dame will be making not only its first-ever appearance in the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate, but the first trip to the metro Nashville area in program history.
- ◆ In the eight decades of Irish golf, four players have come from the state of Tennessee. William Breen (Nashville/1949), Joel Hepler (Nashville/1994-97), John Montedonico (Memphis/1932-34) and Robert Wilson (Memphis/1968-70) all came to Notre Dame from the Volunteer State.
- ◆ Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski had the opportunity to play at the Legends Club of Tennessee several times during his tenure as a PGA assistant professional in the Tennessee Section during the mid-1990s.

Last Time Out: Coca-Cola Duke Golf Classic

Notre Dame shot a season-best 284 (-4) and moved up three spots to finish third at the Coca-Cola Duke Golf Classic, which wrapped up Oct. 8 at the Duke Golf Club (par 72/7,063 yards) in Durham, N.C. The Irish wound up with a 54-hole score of seven-under par 857 (287-286-284), its best mark since shooting 856 (-8) at last year's BIG EAST Conference Championship, and it also goes down as the fifth-lowest tournament score in school history. Sixth-ranked Chattanooga and No. 20 Duke shared the title in the 15-team event at 842 (-22), while Chattanooga's Jonathan Hodge earned medalist honors at 12-under par 204.

Freshman Tyler Hock capped off an outstanding performance in his debut with the Notre Dame travel squad, tying for 11th place in the 84-man field at a season-low three-under par 213 (76-68-69). Playing for the first time back in his home state, junior Josh Sandman matched Hock's final-round effort and posted his own season-best score of 213 (71-73-69). Senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers jumped up into a tie for 15th place with a career-low score of two-under par 214 (70-74-70), two strokes better than his previous best mark of 216 that he shot as a freshman at the 2004 Nelson Invitational (held on a shortened par-69 Stanford Golf Course that was being renovated). It's also the second top-20 outing of the year for Rodgers, who posted a career-best tie for seventh at the season-opening Gopher Invitational.

Sophomore Doug Fortner earned his third top-20 finish in as many events this fall, tying for 20th place at one-over par 217 (70-71-76) after succumbing to the 90-degree heat late in the final round with five bogies in his final six holes. Senior tri-captain Eddie Peckels was the other Irish golfer in this weekend's lineup, ending up tied for 80th place at 17-over par 233 (77-79-77).

Irish Among Nation's Elite Programs In Golf Digest Rankings

The Notre Dame men's golf program has been rated ninth in the nation, according to the latest in-depth Golf Digest rankings released in the August 2007 issue of the magazine. The Irish were cited for their impressive combination of athletic and academic success, as well as the quality of the program's new facilities and the accomplishments of its coaching staff.

Notre Dame was ranked among the top 35 in all three categories evaluated in the Golf Digest study. In the "golf-first" rating, which heavily weights a program's performance on the course through both adjusted scoring average and player growth during the past four seasons (2003-04 through 2006-07), the Irish checked in at No. 35. Under the "academics-first" classification, which depends largely on the school's standing in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings and the golf program's graduation rates, Notre Dame was 14th in the nation. However, when combining those two rankings and factoring in facilities, coaching and climate (location) — the components of the "balanced" Golf Digest ranking — the Irish made their biggest impression, placing ninth in the country, second among all programs north of the Mason-Dixon Line, and tops in the BIG EAST Conference.

"We are understandably thrilled with the 2007-08 Golf Digest program rankings," Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski said. "We think this only confirms what we've believed for quite a while — that we have the pieces in places to compete as one of the elite programs in the country, both on the course and the classroom. The greatest days for Fighting Irish golf are still to come and we couldn't be more excited about what lies ahead."

In addition, Notre Dame's facilities were singled out as the third-best college golf footprint in the nation with a 98 rating — only Stanford and Duke had higher totals. The Irish have made tremendous strides in their physical plant during the past decade, beginning with the 2000 debut of the on-campus Warren Golf Course, designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour great Ben Crenshaw and rated among the nation's top college and public layouts. The course already has hosted five BIG EAST Championships, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship qualifier, and three Western Amateur Championship qualifiers in its seven-year existence.

Notre Dame's latest facility addition opened in September 2006, with the completion of the $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, located on the grounds of the Warren Golf Course. The Rolfs Facility features a 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, six covered tee stations that include state-of-the-art video equipment for instant coaching feedback, office space for the Irish men's and women's coaching staffs, and a fully-furnished lounge area with separate locker room areas for both teams.

The complete 2007-08 Golf Digest rankings in all three categories, as well as a full explanation of how the ratings were determined, can be found by going on-line at <http://www.golfdigest.com/rankings/college/2007/09/collegegolfrankings>.

Young Guns

Notre Dame has gotten a significant boost from its underclassmen, with its two lowest scorers (and four of the top five) being either freshmen or sophomores. Rookie Tyler Hock is setting the pace for the Irish so far this season with a 72.17 average, followed by sophomore Doug Fortner, who has a 72.33 stroke rate while posting three consecutive top-20 finishes. Freshman Jeff Chen has seen action in one "B" event and once as an individual, amassing a 73.33 average that is fourth-best on the team, while sophomore Kyle Willis rounds out the five best stroke averages for Notre Dame with a 73.83 mark.

Captains Courageous

Notre Dame's three seniors have been selected as team captains for the 2007-08 season. Mike King, Eddie Peckels and Greg Rodgers all are serving in that capacity for the first time in their careers.

The .500 Rule

According to a new rule passed by the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, teams must finish their season with a winning head-to-head record (i.e. better than .500) in order to be considered for a berth in postseason play.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame has won six BIG EAST Conference titles in its 12-year league affiliation, stringing together three consecutive crowns from 1995-97 and again from 2004-06. The Irish also have made 33 NCAA postseason appearances in their history (most recently in 2006 with a trip to the NCAA East Regional), winning the 1944 national title and finishing second in 1937.
- ◆ Notre Dame has taken its play to new levels in recent years, posting three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history since head coach Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005. The Irish also have carded nine of the top 12 tournament scores (54 holes) in program history during the Kubinski era, including a school-record 842 (-22) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Kubinski arrived under the Golden Dome, the Irish have defeated 13 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek) and posted 14 top-five tournament finishes, including three event titles (most recently the '06 BIG EAST Championship).
- ◆ Kubinski himself was nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith.

Next Up: UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship (Oct. 29-30)

Junior Josh Sandman will take his Notre Dame teammates and coaches back to his hometown as the Irish close out the fall portion of their schedule Oct. 29-30 at the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship in Greensboro, N.C. Some of the other featured teams at this tournament will include: Wake Forest, Mississippi State, LSU, Louisville, Arkansas and North Carolina.

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Fourth Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski is in his fourth season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 78-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White said.

It hasn't taken long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities.

In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a stellar four-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles in 2005 and 2006, and back-to-back NCAA regional appearances both years. He also has a four-year record of 246-218-12 (.529) record and 13 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 poll and has risen as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 14 top-five finishes in 36 tournaments, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (seventh all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 in '05-06 and a 295.71 mark last season (second all-time). In addition, Notre Dame has fired nine of the top 12 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the Irish men's golf program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Cole Isban became the first three-time PING All-Midwest Region selection (2005-07) in program history under Kubinski's tutelage, and graduated in May 2007 as the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.71 in 2006-07), and career stroke average (73.76). Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in '05-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.72 career stroke average in 58 rounds (20 tournaments) that puts him on pace to threaten Isban's school record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski was nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve that goal."

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Kelly, in September 2007.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame has participated in all three years the Gopher Invitational has been in existence, posting two top-five finishes (fifth in 2005) ... the Irish three-round total of 891 was two shots better than its previous low score at the Gopher Invitational (893, +29 in 2005) ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers picked up where he left off at last year's BIG EAST Championship (tie-11th), collecting his first career top-10 finish with his highest individual showing ever (the '07 BIG EAST placement had been his best) ... Rodgers' opening-round 69 matched his lowest 18-hole mark, previously carded twice (last in the final round at the '07 BIG EAST Championship) ... sophomore Doug Fortner notched his second career top-20 finish and first since a fourth-place outing in the 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley ... freshman Connor Alan-Lee was making his collegiate debut ... Irish assistant coach Steve Colnitis piloted the team at the tournament while head coach Jim Kubinski was home for the birth of his first child, daughter Kelly.

Tournament Notes: This was the second year for the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic ... for the second consecutive year, a Notre Dame golfer tied for second place (Cole Isban - 2006) ... sophomore Doug Fortner's finish, single-round and tournament scores all were personal bests (previous: 69 and 212 to finish fourth in 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley) ... sophomore Kyle Willis carded the best 18- and 54-hole scores of his career (had shot 72 three times before, while best tourney score had been 224 at last year's Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic) ... senior Mike King and freshman Tyler Hock made their season debuts ... MSU's Ryan Brehm shot a second-round 64, which would be one stroke off the course record but the round was played under "lift, clean and place" rules due to wet conditions.
