35. (tie) Tom Usher	79	74	73	226 (+10)

Tournament Notes: Max Scodro claimed his second straight BIG EAST Championship individual medalist honors after carding a 54-hole score of 210 (-6) ... he becomes the first Irish golfer ever to medalist at the BIG EAST Championship and the first golfer from any BIG EAST institution to accomplish the feat since St. John's Pat Fogarty won three titles from 1982-84 ... Notre Dame also became the first team to claim back-to-back titles since the Irish last accomplished that with three straight wins from '04-06 ... the 16 shot margin of victory is the widest margin since Virginia Tech won by 17 shots at the '02 Championship at the Warren Golf Course ... the Irish were also the first team since Louisville in '09 to post three straight team rounds of 286 or better (284-286-282) ... it is the first time this season that four different Irish golfers (Max Scodro, Paul McNamara III, Chris Walker, Niall Platt) all posted one round in the 60's at the same tournament ... Chris Walker was one of just three golfers in the tournament field to score all three rounds at even-par or better (72-72-68).
