Irish Wrap Up Fall Season With Trip To Greensboro

It's been an unusual season for Notre Dame thus far, as the Irish have blended success in road trips to Minnesota and Duke with perplexing setbacks in their home tournament and a rain-shortened event at Vanderbilt last week-end. Notre Dame will hope to end its fall season on a high note, and in the process build momentum for the coming spring campaign, when it heads to Greensboro, N.C., Monday and Tuesday for the third annual UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship at Forest Oaks Country Club.

In spite of their up-and-down season, the Irish currently boast a 292.20 stroke average that ranks with the best marks in school history. Notre Dame has gotten its biggest contributions from its underclassmen, led by freshman Tyler Hock (72.00) and sophomore Doug Fortner (72.50), while junior Josh Sandman, a Greensboro native, has a 74.50 mark and has shot 73 or lower in eight of 10 rounds this season.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"Greensboro, similar to Duke, offers us another 'bounce-back' opportunity. We were obviously disappointed in having a rain-shortened event at Vanderbilt. We had a tough starting time draw in round one, but were playing well in round two. The heavy rain just made finishing even 36 holes impossible. We'll put it behind us and are excited about Forest Oaks, not only because of its history, but because it's also the home course of our own Josh Sandman.

"We'll go with the same five as we did at Vanderbilt and expect to see a solid finish. In addition to Josh, I feel Greg Rodgers will play very well and Tyler Hock has been playing great, too. With Doug (Fortner) and Kyle (Willis), I think we'll post four good scores each round, which is always the key."

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Dates and Times

Teams will play two rounds (36 holes) on Monday before returning for the final round on Tuesday morning. Monday's rounds will feature a shotgun start with all teams scheduled to tee off at 8:30 a.m. (ET) — Notre Dame will be paired with Memphis and the College of Charleston for the first two rounds. A split-tee format will be used for Tuesday's third round, with start times based upon the team standings at the conclusion of Monday's action. The first teams will go off from the first and 10th tees at 8:30 a.m. (ET) and continuing at nine-minute intervals. All times and formats are tentative and subject to change.

Following The Irish

Live scoring for the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship will be provided through the Golfstat web site (www.golfstat.com). In addition, complete results will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com). The latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, also will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

Furthermore, results will be available via the Irish ALERT text-message system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress at the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship through text messages sent to their cell phone. For more information or to sign up, visit the men's golf page of the official Notre Dame athletics web site (UND.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of 15 five-man teams (75 participants, plus a handful of additional golfers competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host UNC Greensboro, the remaining teams in the field for the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship are: Arkansas, Central Florida, College of Charleston, Indiana, Kent State, Louisville, LSU, Maryland, Memphis, Mississippi State, North Carolina, Toledo and Wake Forest.

According to the Oct. 17 edition of the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 coaches' poll, No. 14 Wake Forest is the only ranked team scheduled to take part in this week's tournament. However, four other teams received votes in the latest coaches' survey — Indiana (66 votes; tie-26th place), Louisville (53 votes; 28th), North Carolina (21 votes; 37th) and Arkansas (one vote; tie-48th).

Meanwhile, the Oct. 21 ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that 11 of the top 50 Division I teams will be on hand for the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship. Leading the way is 17th-ranked Indiana, followed by No. 18 Wake Forest, No. 22 Arkansas and No. 23 North Carolina. Also on the first page of the Golfweek rankings are: No. 27 Louisville, No. 33 UCF, No. 37 Mississippi State, No. 39 Memphis, No. 43 Kent State, No. 47 LSU and No. 49 Notre Dame.

In addition, the Oct. 24 Golfstat rankings indicate eight of this week's participants are appearing in that service's Top 50. No. 8 Wake Forest sets the bar, with No. 22 Indiana and No. 24 North Carolina on the top half of the leaderboard. Five other squads — No. 26 UCF, No. 28 Arkansas, No. 36 Louisville, No. 39 Kent State and No. 40 Mississippi State — aren't far off the pace.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has had some exposure with the rest of the participants in this week's UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship. The Irish have a 5-4-1 (.550) record against the UNCG field — Arkansas (0-2), College of Charleston (1-0), Indiana (0-0-1), Louisville (0-1), Maryland (1-0), Mississippi State (0-1), UNC Greensboro (2-0) and Toledo (1-0). For the season, the Irish are 29-19-4 (.596), with a 4-12-1 (.265) record against Top 50 clubs (1-8-1 vs. the Top 25).

The Course

Forest Oaks is rated by PGA TOUR members as a favorite stop on the PGA TOUR. Carved from North Carolina hardwoods by noted architect Ellis Maples, Forest Oaks opened in 1962 to wide acclaim. It was already known as one of the best tests of golf in a state known for great golf tests when it became the home course of the venerable Greater Greensboro Open (now known as the Wyndham Championship) in 1977. As the golf course matured, alterations to the course were necessary. In 2002, the job of restoring the course to all its glory was assigned to Davis Love III's Love Design Group. At its absolute longest length, it can play to more than 7,400 yards, although this week's tournament will play a layout that measures just under 7,200 yards.

Noting The UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship

- ◆ Notre Dame will be making its first-ever appearance in the UNCG Bridgestone Collegiate Championship, which is in its third year of existence, but its first as a fall tournament.
- ◆ The Irish are playing in the state of North Carolina for the second time this fall. Back on Oct. 7-8, Notre Dame shot a season-low 857 (-7), the fifth-lowest score in school history, and finished third in the 15-team Coca-Cola Duke Golf Classic, played at the Duke Golf Club in Durham, N.C.
- ◆ Junior Josh Sandman returns not only to his hometown of Greensboro, but also to his home course at Forest Oaks. Sandman graduated from Greensboro's Southeast Guilford High School in 2005 after winning the Class 3A individual state title as a senior (first in school history) and leading his team to a share of first place in the state finals (lost on a scorecard playoff). Sandman was a two-time all-state and four-time all-conference selection, with his 2003 all-state plaque being the first by a Southeast Guilford golfer in 21 years.
- ◆ Senior tri-captain Eddie Peckels now resides in Pinehurst, N.C., having moved there just before beginning his freshman year at Notre Dame.
- ◆ Fourth-year Irish head coach Jim Kubinski spent a year and a half (2003-04) as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Duke. During his tenure, the Blue Devil women were ranked No. 1 in the nation, won the 2004 NCAA East Regional title and finished third at the NCAA Championships. Meanwhile, the Duke men placed 12th at the '04 NCAA East Regional (just missing advancement to the national finals) and were ranked 13th at the end of the fall 2004 season.

Last Time Out: Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate

Mother Nature turned out to be the only real winner, as persistent heavy rain wiped out the final two rounds of the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate on Oct. 23 at the Vanderbilt Legends Club of Tennessee/Roper's Knob Course (par 71/7,100 yards) in Franklin, Tenn. Tournament officials declared the first-round results would serve as the final standings for the event, with Notre Dame tying for eighth place in the 18-team field after carding an eight-over par 292. Ole Miss edged in-state rival Mississippi State by one stroke with a score of 283 (-1) to take the team title, while Augusta State's Jake Amos was the tournament medalist by virtue of its opening-round 67 (-4).

Irish Among Nation's Elite Programs In Golf Digest Rankings

The Notre Dame men's golf program has been rated ninth in the nation, according to the latest in-depth Golf Digest rankings released in the August 2007 issue of the magazine. The Irish were cited for their impressive combination of athletic and academic success, as well as the quality of the program's new facilities and the accomplishments of its coaching staff.

Notre Dame was ranked among the top 35 in all three categories evaluated in the Golf Digest study. In the "golf-first" rating, which heavily weights a program's performance on the course through both adjusted scoring average and player growth during the past four seasons (2003-04 through 2006-07), the Irish checked in at No. 35. Under the "academics-first" classification, which depends largely on the school's standing in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings and the golf program's graduation rates, Notre Dame was 14th in the nation. However, when combining those two rankings and factoring in facilities, coaching and climate (location) — the components of the "balanced" Golf Digest ranking — the Irish made their biggest impression, placing ninth in the country, second among all programs north of the Mason-Dixon Line, and tops in the BIG EAST Conference.

"We are understandably thrilled with the 2007-08 Golf Digest program rankings," Notre Dame head coach Jim Kubinski said. "We think this only confirms what we've believed for quite a while — that we have the pieces in places to compete as one of the elite programs in the country, both on the course and the classroom. The greatest days for Fighting Irish golf are still to come and we couldn't be more excited about what lies ahead."

In addition, Notre Dame's facilities were singled out as the third-best college golf footprint in the nation with a 98 rating — only Stanford and Duke had higher totals. The Irish have made tremendous strides in their physical plant during the past decade, beginning with the 2000 debut of the on-campus Warren Golf Course, designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour great Ben Crenshaw and rated among the nation's top college and public layouts. The course already has hosted five BIG EAST Championships, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship qualifier, and three Western Amateur Championship qualifiers in its seven-year existence.

Notre Dame's latest facility addition opened in September 2006, with the completion of the $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, located on the grounds of the Warren Golf Course. The Rolfs Facility features a 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, six covered tee stations that include state-of-the-art video equipment for instant coaching feedback, office space for the Irish men's and women's coaching staffs, and a fully-furnished lounge area with separate locker room areas for both teams.

The complete 2007-08 Golf Digest rankings in all three categories, as well as a full explanation of how the ratings were determined, can be found by going on-line at <http://www.golfdigest.com/rankings/college/2007/09/collegegolfrankings>.

Freshman Tyler Hock was the top Irish individual, tying for 13th place with an opening-round 71 (E). Junior Josh Sandman tied for 32nd place after shooting a two-over par 73. Sophomores Doug Fortner and Kyle Willis ended up one shot further back in a tie for 41st place. Senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers tied for 77th place following his first-round 78 (+7). Senior tri-captain Mike King played as an individual participant and wound up in 87th place at nine-over par 80.

Young Guns

Notre Dame has gotten a significant boost from its underclassmen, with its two lowest scorers (and four of the top five) being either freshmen or sophomores. Rookie Tyler Hock is setting the pace for the Irish so far this season with a 72.00 average, followed by sophomore Doug Fortner, who has a 72.50 stroke rate while posting three top-20 finishes in four outings. Freshman Jeff Chen has seen action in one "B" event and once as an individual, amassing a 73.33 average that is fourth-best on the team, while sophomore Kyle Willis rounds out the five best stroke averages for Notre Dame with a 73.86 mark.

Captains Courageous

Notre Dame's three seniors have been selected as team captains for the 2007-08 season. Mike King, Eddie Peckels and Greg Rodgers all are serving in that capacity for the first time in their careers.

The .500 Rule

According to a new rule passed by the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, teams must finish their season with a winning head-to-head record (i.e. better than .500) in order to be considered for a berth in postseason play.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame has won six BIG EAST Conference titles in its 12-year league affiliation, stringing together three consecutive crowns from 1995-97 and again from 2004-06. The Irish also have made 33 NCAA postseason appearances in their history (most recently in 2006 with a trip to the NCAA East Regional), winning the 1944 national title and finishing second in 1937.
- ◆ Notre Dame has taken its play to new levels in recent years, posting three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history since head coach Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005. The Irish also have carded nine of the top 12 tournament scores (54 holes) in program history during the Kubinski era, including a school-record 842 (-22) at the 2006 BIG EAST Championship.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Kubinski arrived under the Golden Dome, the Irish have defeated 13 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek) and posted 14 top-five tournament finishes, including three event titles (most recently the '06 BIG EAST Championship).
- ◆ Kubinski himself was nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith.

Next Up: John Hayt Collegiate Invitational (Feb. 17-19)

Notre Dame opens its spring season at the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational on Feb. 17-19, 2008, in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The Irish tied for 13th in last year's event, which is hosted by North Florida at the Sawgrass Country Club.

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Fourth Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski is in his fourth season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 78-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White said.

It hasn't taken long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities.

In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a stellar four-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles in 2005 and 2006, and back-to-back NCAA regional appearances both years. He also has a four-year record of 253-225-14 (.528) record and 13 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the Golf World/Nike Golf Top 25 poll and has risen as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 14 top-five finishes in 37 tournaments, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded three of the top seven single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (seventh all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 in '05-06 and a 295.71 mark last season (second all-time). In addition, Notre Dame has fired nine of the top 12 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the Irish men's golf program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Cole Isban became the first three-time PING All-Midwest Region selection (2005-07) in program history under Kubinski's tutelage, and graduated in May 2007 as the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.71 in 2006-07), and career stroke average (73.76). Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in '05-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.71 career stroke average in 59 rounds (21 tournaments) that puts him on pace to threaten Isban's school record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski was nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve that goal."

Kubinski was a three-year golf letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Kelly, in September 2007.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame has participated in all three years the Gopher Invitational has been in existence, posting two top-five finishes (fifth in 2005) ... the Irish three-round total of 891 was two shots better than its previous low score at the Gopher Invitational (893, +29 in 2005) ... senior tri-captain Greg Rodgers picked up where he left off at last year's BIG EAST Championship (tie-11th), collecting his first career top-10 finish with his highest individual showing ever (the '07 BIG EAST placement had been his best) ... Rodgers' opening-round 69 matched his lowest 18-hole mark, previously carded twice (last in the final round at the '07 BIG EAST Championship) ... sophomore Doug Fortner notched his second career top-20 finish and first since a fourth-place outing in the 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley ... freshman Connor Alan-Lee was making his collegiate debut ... Irish assistant coach Steve Colnitis piloted the team at the tournament while head coach Jim Kubinski was home for the birth of his first child, daughter Kelly.

Tournament Notes: This was the second year for the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic ... for the second consecutive year, a Notre Dame golfer tied for second place (Cole Isban - 2006) ... sophomore Doug Fortner's finish, single-round and tournament scores all were personal bests (previous: 69 and 212 to finish fourth in 2007 Triumph at Pauma Valley) ... sophomore Kyle Willis carded the best 18- and 54-hole scores of his career (had shot 72 three times before, while best tourney score had been 224 at last year's Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic) ... senior Mike King and freshman Tyler Hock made their season debuts ... MSU's Ryan Brehm shot a second-round 64, which would be one stroke off the course record but the round was played under "lift, clean and place" rules due to wet conditions.

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame's first appearance in the tournament was cut short when the final two rounds were washed out by thunderstorms ... it also was the first time the Irish had ever played in the metro Nashville area ... freshman Tyler Hock took team-best scoring honors for the second consecutive event ... sophomore Kyle Willis made his first start as a member of the Notre Dame travel squad ... junior Josh Sandman now has carded 73 or lower in eight of 10 rounds this season ... for the first time in 10 rounds this year, senior Greg Rodgers didn't have his score count to the team total.
