IRISH TAKE THREE-GAME WINNING STREAK INTO FINAL HOME WEEK-END VERSUS BOWLING GREEN

Goaltender Morgan Cey gives up just one goal in weekend sweep at Lake Superior.

- Next Games: Notre Dame Fighting Irish (12-15-5/10-12-4) vs. Bowling Green Falcons (9-21-6/7-16-3)
- Date/Site/Times: Fri.-Sat., March 1-2, 2002 - Joyce Center (2,713) - 7:05 p.m.
- Broadcast Information: The games can be heard live on WDND South Bend's ESPN Radio 1620 with Dave Mager calling the action.

FINAL COUNTDOWN: Notre Dame closes the regular season this weekend, March 1-2 with a visit from the Bowling Green Falcons. Game time on Friday and Saturday night is 7:05 p.m. The Irish come into the weekend looking to nail down the eighth spot in the CCHA playoff race. The Irish were eliminated from a shot at home ice advantage last weekend when Western Michigan swept Ferris State. Ohio State locked up seventh with Monday's 4-1 win over Miami. The Irish are one point ahead of ninth-place Ferris State. The Bulldogs have a home-and-home weekend series with Michigan State. To finish eighth, the Irish need any combination of three points from Notre Dame wins and ties or Ferris State wins or ties. Ferris State would control the first tie-breaker (league wins) if the two teams end up tied in points. Heading into the final weekend, the Irish could play at any of the following five schools: Alaska Fairbanks, Northern Michigan, Nebraska-Omaha, Western Michigan and Ohio State.

CCHA Schedule Breakdown:

CCHA TIEBREAKERS: Here is the tie-breaking procedure for CCHA tournament seeding (all positions).

1. Most league wins
2. Head-to-head record
3. Goal differential in head-to-head games
4. Record (winning percentage) vs. other CCHA teams beginning with first place
5. Coin toss

IRISH VERSUS FALCONS: The two teams have met 57 times in the all-time series with Bowling Green holding a 29-24-4 edge. Notre Dame traveled to Bowling Green in December where the Irish split the weekend series, winning 6-3 on Dec. 7 before losing 4-2 the following night. Since Notre Dame returned to the CCHA in 1992-93, the Falcons have a 15-12-2 edge in the series. At the Joyce Center, Notre Dame leads the series 13-10-1 and is 7-4-1 since rejoining the CCHA. The two teams met just twice last year at the Joyce Center with Notre Dame taking 3-2 and 5-2 wins. The Irish are 4-0-1 in the last five games at the Joyce Center going back to the 1996-97 season.

SCOUTING THE FALCONS: Bowling Green enters the weekend series in 11th place with a 9-21-6 overall record and a 7-16-3 mark in CCHA play. The Falcons are coming off a home split with Northern Michigan - losing 4-1 on Feb. 22 and then shutting out the Wildcats 6-0 on Feb. 23. Offensively, Bowling Green is led by forwards Greg Day (17-16-33), D'Arcy McConvey (8-16-24) and Scott Hewson (8-13-21). The goaltending is in the capable hands of Tyler Masters who has played in 28 games with a 7-16-4 overall record. Masters, who blanked Northern Michigan with 36 saves, has a 3.36 goals against average and a .905 save percentage. Earlier this season, he made 45 saves in a 4-2 win over the Irish. BOWLING GREEN GAME NOTES: March 1-2, 2002

LAKE SUPERIOR STATE RECAP: The Irish swept the weekend series at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., with 3-1 and 6-0 wins. The two victories last weekend gives the Irish four wins this season versus the Lakers. Goaltender Morgan Cey (Fr., Wilkie, Sask.) surrendered just one goal on 37 shots in the series picking up his second career shutout in Saturday's 6-0 win. Both shutouts have come versus Lake Superior. On Friday, the Irish scored first with freshman Cory McLean (Fargo, N.D.) getting his first collegiate goal at 15:33 of the first period. Defenseman Brett Lebda (So., Buffalo Grove, Ill.) made it 2-0 at 8:26 of the second period, collecting his second game-winning goal in as many games. LSSU's Will Magnuson cut the lead to 2-1 at 10:21 of the second and from there, Cey held off the Lakers' attack. John Wroblewski (Jr., Neenah, Wis.) closed the scoring with an empty-net goal at 19:18 to give the Irish the 3-1 win. Notre Dame outshot the Lakes 32-21 in the game with Cey making 20 stops and LSSU's Matt Violin stopping 29. On Saturday night, Cey kicked out all 16 shots he faced for his second shutout of the season versus the Lakers. The freshman goaltender got all the offensive support that he would need from Yan Stastny (Fr., St. Louis, Mo.) who scored a pair of first-period goals. His game-winner came at 1:32 with his second at 13:29. The Irish led 2-0 after one. Brad Wanchulak (Fr., Edson, Alb.) broke a 17-game goal scoring drought with a lamplighter at 4:41 of the second period. Lebda got his third goal in as many games at 6:15 of the third, David Inman (Sr., Toronto, Ont.) made it 5-0 at 16:03 and Wroblewski closed the scoring at 18:02 for the final of 6-0. The Irish outshot the Lakers 38-16 in the game as Violin made 32 saves in the loss.

HEAD COACH DAVE POULIN: Irish head coach Dave Poulin is now in his seventh season behind the Notre Dame bench. He owns a 93-136-34 (.418) overall record and is 67-102-30 (.412) in CCHA contests. Against Bowling Green, Poulin-coached teams are 9-5-2.

OUT OF THE LINEUP: Freshman left wing Alex Lalonde (Newmarket, Ont.) has been ruled academically ineligible for the spring semester.

CEY IS HE HOT: Notre Dame goaltender Morgan Cey has had quite a turnaround in the last four games. After giving up 12 goals in 71:45 in the previous three games (vs. Miami 1/26, UAF 2/1 and UAF 2/2), Cey has surrendered four goals in his last four outings covering 239:02 minutes. He is 3-1-0 with a 1.00 goals against average and has stopped 112 of 116 shots for a .965 save percentage. For the season, Cey is 11-12-3 with a 2.96 goals against and a .903 save percentage. He has started 18 consecutive games for the Irish going back to Dec. 7 at Bowling Green.

LONG TIME COMING: The Notre Dame sweep at Lake Superior (Feb. 22-23) marked the first Irish CCHA weekend sweep versus the same team since Feb. 12-13, 1982 when Notre Dame won two at Ferris State. That streak in CCHA play covers 42 series and 12 seasons in the league. The sweep was Notre Dame's second road sweep this season as the Irish won twice at Princeton (Dec. 28-29).

LETHAL LEBDA: After going 15 games without a goal (Nov. 16-Feb. 9), defenseman Brett Lebda has found the scoring touch by scoring a goal in each of his last three games, including game-winners at Michigan State and Lake Superior. A CCHA all-rookie selection as a freshman, Lebda now has six goals and seven assists for 13 points. His three-game goal streak is the longest of his career.

PROLIFIC POINT PRODUCER: With three assists on the weekend at Lake Superior State center Connor Dunlop has 31 assists on the year. The 31 assists ties Jamie Ling (1994-95) for the most assists by a Notre Dame player in a season since the Irish returned to the CCHA in 1992-93. Dunlop, an all-CCHA and all-America candidate leads Notre Dame with eight goals and 31 assists for 39 points and ranks fourth in the CCHA in scoring. His 31 assists are third in the league. Dunlop turned in a seven-point (two goals, five assists) weekend series with Alaska Fairbanks (Feb. 1-2) including his second four-point game of the season. For the season, Dunlop has recorded two four-point games, two three-point games and 12 multiple-point games in all. He has career-highs in goals (8), assists (31) and points (39).

DOUBLING UP: Connor Dunlop came into the 2001-02 season with 10 goals and 25 assists for 35 points in the first 65 games of his Irish hockey career. Dunlop has more than doubled his points total this season with eight goals and 31 assists for 39 points. His career totals stand at 18 goals and 56 assists for 74 points in 97 career games.

WROBO-MATIC: Junior right wing John Wroblewski continued his career season with a goal in each of the wins at Lake Superior. For the year, Wroblewski has career-highs in goals (10), assists (6) and points (16). Wroblewski is also one of the top defensive forwards in the CCHA and has won 54.9% of his face offs.

- Joe Zurenko - 1st assist (1/26 at Miami)
- Derek Smith - 1st goal (11/2 at No. Michigan)
1st assist (11/10 vs. Ferris State)
- Cory McLean - 1st goal (2/22 at Lake Superior)

IRISH VERSUS RANKED TEAMS: Notre Dame picked up its third win of the season against a nationally ranked team when the Irish defeated #3/#4 Michigan State 3-2 at Munn Arena. The win improved the Irish to 3-6-1 on the season versus ranked teams. The win was the first for the Irish versus a team ranked higher than third in the national rankings since Jan. 3, 1999 when Notre Dame won 4-3 at number one North Dakota. The other two Irish wins versus ranked teams this season came versus Northern Michigan (Nov. 2) and (Jan. 11). A year ago, Notre Dame's top win against a ranked team came on Jan. 12, 2001 when the Irish upset fifth-ranked Western Michigan at the Joyce Center 4-1. Last season, the Irish were 2-8-2 in games versus ranked teams ... the Irish are 1-4-1 at home and 2-2-0 on the road versus ranked teams in 2001-02 ... OUT OF ACTION: Irish defensemen Neil Komadoski (So., Chesterfield, Mo.) and Joe Zurenko (Fr., Arlington Heights, Ill.) will miss the first game of the Bowling Green series as they serve game disqualification penalties for fighting majors they received in the Feb. 23 game at Lake Superior State.

YOUNG GUN: Freshman forward Yan Stastny picked up the first multiple-goal game of his career when he scored the first two goals of the game in the 6-0 win over Lake Superior State. The goal was also Stastny's first career game-winner. Stastny now has points in five of his last seven games (5-3-8). He leads the Notre Dame freshmen with six goals and 10 assists for 16 points this season.

SCORING BY CLASS: The Notre Dame junior class leads the Irish in scoring through 32 games this season.
 Juniors 37 goals, 62 assists, 99 points
 Sophomores 31 goals, 58 assists, 89 points
 Freshmen 16 goals, 24 assists, 40 points
 Seniors 18 goals, 21 assists, 39 points

SHARE THE WEALTH: Notre Dame has had 11 different players score game-winning goals this season. Brett Lebda leads the team with two while 10 others have one winning goal each.

ROAD WARRIORS: Notre Dame finished the regular season with an 8-7-3 record. The last time the Irish had a winning record on the road was 1997-98 when they were 12-11-0. Notre Dame is 4-8-2 at home this season.

STREAK BUSTERS: Besides stopping Michigan State's 33-game home unbeaten streak at Munn Arena (Feb. 9), the Irish also stopped several other streaks between the two schools. The Feb. 9, 3-2 win at Munn, snapped a six-game losing streak at East Lansing for the Irish. Their last win there came on Nov. 1, 1997. The Feb. 9 win was just the second for Notre Dame at Michigan State (2-14-0) since the Irish returned to the CCHA in 1992-93 and was only ND's third in that same span (3-22-5). The win snapped a five-game winning streak and a seven-game Spartan unbeaten streak (6-0-1) versus the Irish. Notre Dame's last win versus Michigan State came on Dec. 4, 1999 - a 1-0 Tony Zasowski shutout at the Joyce Center. The Spartans lead the all-time series 49-29-6.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK, PART II: Notre Dame's freshman goaltender Morgan Cey (Wilkie, Sask.) was selected as the CCHA's Rookie of the Week for the week ending Feb. 10. The 6-3, 174-pound netminder stopped 75 of 78 shots in helping the Irish to a split at #3/#4 Michigan State. In Friday's 2-0 loss to the Spartans, Cey made a career-high 41 saves while giving up just a second-period power play goal. Michigan State added an empty net goal with 12 seconds left for the 2-0 final. In Saturday's 3-2 win, Cey made 34 saves, 19 in the second period to help snap Michigan State's 33-game (30-0-3) home unbeaten streak. On the weekend, Cey was 1-1 with a 1.51 goals against average and a .962 save percentage. The rookie goaltender was also named the CCHA Rookie of the Week for the week ending Dec. 31.

THE DEFENSE MAKES IT'S CASE: Defense was the name of the game in Notre Dame's weekend series at Michigan State. Besides the fact that the two teams combined for just seven goals (including one empty-netter), both offenses had little to do in the outcome. Of the seven goals scored on the weekend, defensemen accounted for five of them. Michigan State's defense scored three of its four goals (John-Michael Liles, Duncan Keith and Brad Fast), while Neil Komadoski and Brett Lebda had two of Notre Dame's three goals on the weekend.

RACKING UP THE POINTS: Notre Dame defenseman Neil Komadoski is known for his hard-hitting, bone-crunching checks, but as of late he is becoming an offensive force on the Irish blueline. Komadoski has picked up points in six of his last nine games (2-4-6). For the season, Komadoski has career-highs in assists (9) and points (11) while equal-ling his goal total of two as a freshman.

HAVING A SEASON: Senior forward David Inman, an all-CCHA candidate, scored his career-high 16th goal of the season in Notre Dame's 6-0 win over Michigan State. On Feb. 2, Inman picked up his second four-point game of the season in the 7-5 loss to Alaska Fairbanks. Inman chipped in a goal and three assists in the game. His first four-point game came on Nov. 2 at Northern Michigan when he had two goals and two assists in that game. His 16 goals this season are a career-best as are his 18 assists, 34 points and seven power play goals. For the year, Inman now has eight multiple-point games. He collected his second two-goal game of the season and the sixth of his career on Jan. 4 versus Michigan. He has had one three-point game (1g, 2a) in the 4-1 win over Northern Michigan (Jan. 11) and a four-point night (2g-2a) at Northern Michigan (Nov. 2). His 21 career power play goals rank him 11th on the school's all-time power play goal list.

RIGHT ON THE CHIN: Junior left wing Michael Chin (Jr., Urbana, Ill.) has career-highs in goals (13), assists (8), points (21) and power play goals (3) this season. His 13 goals rank him second on the team in that category. Chin's two-goal game at Miami (Jan. 25) was the second of Chin's career as he had one his freshman year versus Nebraska-Omaha (2/12/00). Versus Miami (Jan. 25), he equalled his career-high with nine shots on goal.

BOWLING GREEN GAME NOTES: March 1-2, 2002

NIFTY NIELSEN: Defenseman Evan Nielsen (Jr., Evanston, Ill.) equalled his career-high with three points (a goal and two assists) in the 7-5 loss to Alaska Fairbanks (Feb. 2). The 6-3, 212-pound blueliner also had a three-point game versus Nebraska-Omaha on Feb. 12, 2000. The junior captain added an assist in the second game of the series with Alaska Fairbanks to give him a four-point weekend. For the season, Nielsen has career-highs in goals (5), assists (12) and points (17).

DON'T LOOK NOW: Sophomore forward Rob Globke has begun to find his scoring touch. While getting stopped goal scoring-wise at Michigan State, Globke set up the game-winning goal in the 3-2 win versus the Spartans. Globke took an outlet pass from Yan Stastny and used his speed to turn it in to a two-on-one that Brett Lebda converted for the game-winning goal. 29). Cornelius followed the goal versus Princeton by helping set up Michael Chin's goal in the 2-1 loss to Michigan. A converted defenseman, Cornelius has now scored three goals in his career with two of them being game-winners. His first game-winner came during his freshman year (1998-99) versus Ferris State.

END OF THE LINE: Notre Dame goaltender Morgan Cey recorded a career-best shutout streak of 11:24 between Nov. 17 and Dec. 7. Cey stopped Western Michigan for the final 13:40 of the third period on Nov. 17 and then followed that with a Dec. 1 shutout of Lake Superior State. The streak was snapped when Bowling Green scored at 17:44 of the second period in the 6-3 win over Bowling Green on Dec. 7.

CAREER BESTS: Michael Chin, Yan Stastny and Tom Galvin all had career-best games in the 6-3 win over Bowling Green (Dec. 7). Chin (a goal and two assists) and Stastny (three assists) each had career-high three-point games. Galvin had the first two-goal game of his career.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Defenseman Evan Nielsen (Jr., Evanston, Ill.) was selected the CCHA's Defensive Player of the Week for the week ending Dec. 2. Nielsen anchored Notre Dame's in the 7-0 shutout and a 5-2 win over Lake Superior State. He was also part of a penalty-killing unit that killed 14 consecutive Laker power play chances. The Irish captain also joined the offensive attack scoring a goal and adding an assist in the 7-0 win. For the weekend, Nielsen was a +5. He is the first Notre Dame player to take defensive player of the week honors since Feb. 20, 2000 when Tony Zasowski was selected for the honor.

CEY CAN YOU SEE: Freshman goaltender Morgan Cey recorded his first Notre Dame shutout by making 20 saves in Notre Dame's 7-0 win over Lake Superior (12/1). The shutout was the first by an Irish goaltender since Dec. 4, 1999 when Tony Zasowski blanked Michigan State, 1-0. The shutout was the 27th in Notre Dame history and the 10th by an Irish goaltender in CCHA play. The 7-0 win was the largest margin of victory by an Irish goaltender against a CCHA team.

MARGIN OF VICTORY: The seven goals scored by Notre Dame in the 7-0 shutout of Lake Superior State is the largest margin of victory the Irish have ever had in a CCHA contest. The seven-goal win was the biggest by Notre Dame since a 10-2 win over St. Francis Xavier on Oct. 14, 1994.

WCHA TOP 50: Irish hockey great Bill Nyrop has been selected to the WCHA's Top 50 all-time players list that will be announced throughout the 2001-02 season, the 50th anniversary of the league. Nyrop was included in the first list of 10 players announced on Nov. 29. The Irish were members of the WCHA from 1971 through 1981. Nyrop played at Notre Dame from 1970-74 and was Notre Dame's first All-American - selected first team All-America and second team all-WCHA following the 1972-73 season. During his Notre Dame career, he played in 132 games with 17 goals and 72 assists for 89 points. Selected in the fourth round of the 1972 NHL Entry Draft, he played on three Stanley Cup championship teams (1976, 1977 and 1978) with the Montreal Canadiens. He died at the age of 43 in December of 1995.

FIVE IN A ROW: Goaltender Morgan Cey started the first five games of his Notre Dame career to join Greg Louder (1990-94) as the only two goaltenders to play the first five games of their careers. Cey and Louder are the last two rookies to start a season opener in goal at Notre Dame. Cey made 28 saves in a 2-1 loss to Union College on Oct. 11. Louder made 36 saves in a 7-2 loss at Minnesota on Oct. 23, 1990. Cey's streak was stopped after five games when junior Tony Zasowski made his first start of the season versus Northeastern. Louder went on to start all 33 games that season, missing just 30 minutes of play, while turning in a 16-15-2 record. For the year, Cey has started 15 of Notre Dame's 18 games on the season.

ONE FOR ZASOWSKI: Goaltender Tony Zasowski picked up his first win of the season in Notre Dame's 5-2 win over Lake Superior State. The junior goaltender made 17 saves. The start versus the Lakers was his third of the season. He recorded ties at Northeastern (Oct. 27) and versus Ferris State (Nov. 10). For the year, Zasowski is 1-0-2 with a 2.53 goals against average and a .900 save percentage.

FOUR-POINT WEEKEND: Sophomore defenseman Tom Galvin (So., Miller Place, N.Y.) scored as many points in two games versus Ferris State (Nov. 9-10) as he did in 26 games last year. Galvin turned in the first two multiple-point games of his career with a pair of assists in each contest. Last season, the 5-9, 187-pound blueliner had four assists for the year. Galvin leads Notre Dame defensemen with three goals and 11 assists for 14 points.

CAREER FIRSTS: T.J. Mathieson (So., Clarksville, Md.) and Kyle Dolder (So., Hutchinson, Minn.) each scored their first collegiate goals in the 5-2 win over Ferris State (11/9). For Dolder, his goal was also the first game-winning goal of his career. Defenseman Tom Galvin also had the first multiple point games of his career collecting two assists in each of the Ferris State games (11/9 and 11/10). Goaltender Tony Zasowski (Jr., Darien, Ill.) recorded the first assist of his Notre Dame career when he helped set up Brett Lebda's second period goal in the 3-3 tie with Ferris State (11/10). Zasowski picked up his second assist of the season versus Alaska Fairbanks (2/1/02).

LEBDA FOR THE DEFENSE: Sophomore defenseman Brett Lebda turned in the first two-goal game of his career in the 5-4 win over Northern Michigan. For the offensive-minded blueliner, the two goals were his first of the season. In the win over Northern, Lebda also had a career-high 10 shots on goal, passing his previous best of eight set in his rookie year versus Niagara at the Maverick Stampede.

IRON MEN: Sophomore defenseman Brett Lebda (So., Buffalo Grove, Ill.) saw his streak of 55 consecutive games snapped when he did not play for the Irish at Princeton (12/28-29). His streak was broken while he played for the U.S. Junior National Team at the World Junior Championships. Lebda had the longest streak of consecutive games for the Irish since graduated right wing Ryan Dolder played in 103 consecutive games over a three-season period including every game in 1999-00 and 2000-01. Lebda has now played in 67 of 71 games in his career. Dolder's teammate, Dan Carlson was the only other Irish player to played in every game over his last two seasons. Carlson finished his career playing in 101 consecutive games. For his career, Carlson played in 158 of a possible 160 games. The only two he missed came while playing at the World Junior Championships in 1998-99. Notre Dame's consecutive game leaders (as of Feb. 12, 2001):

- Jake Wiegand - 69 games
- Evan Nielsen - 68 games
- John Wroblewski - 67 games
- Neil Komadoski - 60 games
- David Inman - 59 games

PENALTY MARK: With 24 penalties for 78 minutes in the loss to Northern Michigan, the Irish set school records for both penalties and minutes. The previous record for penalties was 22 at Michigan State (3/4/00). The previous penalty-minute record was 77 and was also set versus Northern Michigan on Dec. 12, 1981. Rob Globke (So., West Bloomfield, Mich.) led the Irish with six penalties for 31 minutes.

CLOSING THE DEAL: After going 50 games (42-0-8) without losing when taking a lead into the third period, the Irish lost two in a row with a third-period lead. The losses at Ohio State (10/21) and Boston College (10/26) snapped the 50-game unbeaten string that went back to Jan. 9, 1998. Prior to this season, that was the last time the Irish lost when leading after two periods. In that game, UAF's Sean Fraser tied the game (2-2) with a power-play goal in the third minute of the final period before Chris Kirwan converted a breakaway with 0:45 left in overtime. Since the loss at Boston College, the Irish are now 10-0-1 in games that they lead after two periods of play.

FOR OPENERS: Notre Dame's 2-1 season-opening loss to Union College on Oct. 11 makes the Irish 17-18-0 in season openers in the 35 years of hockey during the modern era at Notre Dame. Notre Dame is 0-3 in its last three season openers with the last win coming on Oct. 2, 1998, a 2-1 win over Wisconsin in the first game played at the Kohl Center in Madison, Wis. Notre Dame is also 20-15 in its first 35 home openers. The Irish opened with a win at home last season, a 2-1 overtime win versus Wayne State.

FIVE-GOAL PERIOD: Union College exploded for five third-period goals in the 7-4 win over the Irish on Oct. 12. The last time the Irish surrendered five goals in a period was on Nov. 20, 1998 when Western Michigan scored five goals in the third period of a 9-5 Notre Dame victory.

BLOODLINES: Four current members of the Notre Dame hockey program - senior forward Jon Maruk, junior center Connor Dunlop, sophomore defenseman Neil Komadoski and freshman forward Yan Stastny - hold a unique connection, as each of their fathers enjoyed a lengthy career in the National Hockey League.

Dennis Maruk played 14 NHL seasons-with the California Golden Seals ('75-'76), Cleveland Barons ('76-'78), Minnesota North Stars ('78-'79, '83-'88) and the Washington Capitals ('78-'83)-and finished as the NHL's fourth-leading scorer in 1982 (60G-76A) while compiling 878 career points (356G-522A) in 888 games.

Blake Dunlop played 11 seasons in pro hockey ('73-'84), including NHL stints with the Minnesota North Stars ('73-'77), Philadelphia Flyers ('77-'79), St. Louis Blues ('79-'84) and Detroit Red Wings ('83-'84), while totaling 130G-274A in 550 career NHL games.

Neil Komadoski, Sr., played eight NHL seasons as a defenseman with the Los Angeles Kings ('72-'78) and the St. Louis Blues ('77-'80), totaling 16G-76A and 632 penalty minutes in 501 career games.

Rounding out the quartet is Peter Stastny who played 15 seasons in the NHL with the Quebec Nordiques ('80-'90), the New Jersey Devils ('90-'93) and the St. Louis Blues ('93-'95) is currently the 23rd all-time scorer in league history with 450 goals, 789 assists and 1,239 points in 997 games. A six-time NHL all-star, Stastny is the highest scoring European-born player in NHL history and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1998. The 1981 NHL rookie-of-the-year, Stastny is currently a special assignment scout for the St. Louis Blues and will serve as general manager for the 2002 Slovakia Olympic team.

Notre Dame's NHL connection doesn't stop there. Senior Brett Henning who suffered a career-ending neck injury last season is the son of former NHL player and coach Lorne Henning who played nine seasons with the New York Islanders ('72-'81) and has been involved in coaching over the last 15 years. An original member of the Islanders, Henning compiled 73 goals and 111 assists as a forward over his 543-game career and played a major role in a four-year Stanley Cup dynasty ('80-'83). Henning served as an assistant with the Islanders from '80-84 and '87-'94, as head coach for the Minnesota North Stars ('85-'87) and the Islanders ('94-'95), and as a Chicago Blackhawks assistant from '95-'98 before returning in '98-'99 to the Islanders, as associate coach.

Freshman forward Alexander "Newsy" Lalonde also has NHL lineage as he is a distant relative of NHL pioneer and Hall of Famer, Edouard "Newsy" Lalonde. Lalonde played for the Montreal Canadiens and the New York Americans between 1917 and 1927 for a total of six seasons in which he scored 124 goals and 41 assists for 165 points in 99 games.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS: Notre Dame is the nation's only Division I hockey program to produce a Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-American during each of the past five seasons (as part of the fall-winter at-large program). Dan Carlson kept the streak going in 2000-01 by earning third team honors with a 3.49 gpa and a double major in finance and computer applications. He joins two-time selection Steve Noble who took second-team honors in 1996-97 and first-team honors in '97-'98, goaltender Forrest Karr who was a second teamer in '98-'99 and left wing Andy Jurkowski who was a third team selection in 1999-2000.

CCHA ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM: Notre Dame 2001 graduate and two-time team MVP, left wing Dan Carlson (Edina, Minn.) was named to the prestigious eight-player CCHA All-Academic Team for 2000-01, making Notre Dame the CCHA's only school to produce an All-Academic honoree each of the last six seasons. Carlson led the Irish in scoring for the second consecutive season (17-25-42) and was also an honorable mention all-CCHA selection. A six-time Dean's List student, Carlson graduated from Notre Dame with a 3.49 cumulative grade point average and a double major in finance and computer applications. Notre Dame has produced eight previous first team CCHA All-Academic selections since rejoining the CCHA in '92-'93: Curtis Janicke and Carl Picconatto ('92-'93), Garry Gruber ('95-'96), Steve Noble ('96-'97, '97-'98), Forrest Karr and Aniket Dhadphale ('98-'99) and Andy Jurkowski ('99-'00). During that nine-year span, only Western Michigan (10) has produced more CCHA All-Academic selections than Notre Dame's nine.

CENTURY MEN: Left wing Dan Carlson became the fourth Notre Dame hockey player to reach 100 points for his career in the last four seasons. He finished his career with 50 goals and 82 assists for 132 career points, good for 20th on the school's all-time scoring list. The Edina, Minn., native joins right wing Brian Urick (57G-69A) and left wing Aniket Dhadphale (61G-44A) who each reached 100 points in the 1998-99 season and center Ben Simon (44G-86A) who reached the milestone in 1999-2000. Carlson is just the fifth Notre Dame player to score over 100 points in his career since the Irish returned to the CCHA in '92-'93. Only center Jamie Ling (1992-96) has scored more points (51-102-153) than Carlson over the past nine seasons. David Inman is the Irish player with the best chance to reach 100 points this season. The senior forward has 49 goals and 41 assists for 90 points in his career.

PATRIOTIC GROUP: The Notre Dame hockey team is no stranger to the National Team Development Program (NTDP) which includes the Under-18 and Under-17 teams. Nine members of this year's Irish hockey roster have come through the National program. In fact, Notre Dame and the University of Minnesota currently have the most NTDP alums (9). For the Irish, that group includes injured senior forward Brett Henning, four members of the junior class - forwards Michael Chin, Connor Dunlop and John Wroblewski and defenseman Paul Harris - plus three sophomores: center Rob Globke and defensemen Neil Komadoski and Brett Lebda. From Notre Dame's freshman class, defenseman Derek Smith played for the Under-18 team during the 2000-01 campaign.

MIDWEST MAGIC: Notre Dame continues to reap the benefits of the rapidly-improving youth hockey programs in the lower Midwest (namely Illinois and Missouri), as one-third of the current roster includes players from Illinois (6) or Missouri (3). Four are products of the USA Hockey National Team Development Program (NTDP): junior right wing Michael Chin (Urbana, Ill.), junior center Connor Dunlop (St. Louis, Mo.) and freshmen defensemen Brett Lebda (Buffalo Grove, Ill.) and Neil Komadoski (Chesterfield, Mo.). Junior defenseman Evan Nielsen (Evanston, Ill.) was invited to join the NTDP but returned for his senior year at The Taft School.

Notre Dame's other Illinois natives includes the team's top returning goaltenders - senior Jeremiah Kimento (Palos Hills) and junior Tony Zasowski (Darien) - plus freshman defenseman Joe Zurenko (Arlington Heights). Joining Dunlop and Komadoski from the St. Louis area is freshman forward Yan Stastny (St. Louis). Prior to 1995, the Notre Dame hockey program had produced just eight total letterwinners from Illinois and two from Missouri.

WINNERS: Two of the newest members of the Notre Dame hockey team were members of national champion teams during the 2000-01 season. Forwards Yan Stastny and Brad Wanchulak were members of junior hockey national championship teams in the United States and Canada. Stastny played for the USHL's Omaha Lancers while Wanchulak played for the Camrose Kodiaks of the Alberta Junior Hockey League. Stastny scored six goals and added six assists in 12 postseason games as Omaha won the USHL's Clark Cup as league champions and then followed by winning the Gold Cup as champions of junior hockey in the U.S. Wanchulak also played a key role in helping Camrose to the Canadian national title. He was the AJHL playoff Most Valuable Player helping the Kodiaks to the AJHL title. In the Royal Bank Cup, which brings together the champions of all the Canadian junior leagues, Wanchulak scored the winning goal in the championship game versus Flin Flon.
