Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Kevin Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the nation boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason, with his tenure highlighted by quarterfinal appearances in 1995 and 2000 and the school's first-ever final four trip in '01. Notre Dame is one of just seven schools in Division I to have garnered 10 invitations to the NCAA tournament since 1990, and Corrigan and Princeton's Bill Tierney are the only two Division I mentors to have led their current teams to 10 NCAA tournaments in that span.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 12 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on a dozen occasions, including in 11 of the last 12 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 35 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including eight vs. top-10 foes. Overall, the Irish have a record of 139-79 (.638) during Corrigan's tenure.

Irish student-athletes who have played under Corrigan have been highly decorated. At least one Notre Dame player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 12 years, with 13 individuals earning a total of 23 All-America honors. Four Irish players have been named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) Player of the Year, while Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 85 occasions, an average of more than five per season.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top four scorers in the program's history, five of the top six goal scorers, and each of the top four players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Six have gone on to play professionally in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while a trio of Irish players has earned spots on United States national teams and come away with gold medals.

The pinnacle of Corrigan's coaching career thus far came in 2001, when the Irish put together the top season in the program's history. Notre Dame posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing at a program-best #4 and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history.

En route to its seventh Great Western Lacrosse League championship in '01, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road, as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season mark was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a first-ever win against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA tournament run. Notre Dame's fairytale '01 campaign ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals.

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL Player of the Year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history, gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship. In 1992, Notre Dame tied the school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NAAs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

In 1993, the Irish made their third trip to the NCAA tournament, reestablished the season victory record with 11 and sailed as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title -- and the first for the newly-formed Great Western Lacrosse League -- Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State that clinched an NCAA bid

- Gone on to professional careers on six occasions for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

Corrigan's 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL Player of the Year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan, a four-time GWLL Coach of the Year, helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up #4 Maryland 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL Player of the Year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Rassas was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame's highest final USILA ranking at the time came in 1997, as the Irish ended ninth. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, defenseman Rassas was named the GWLL Player of the Year and became the school's second three-time All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as the second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan reached another pinnacle in 2000, as his Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the NCAA tournament. The win marked the first for Corrigan in 10 tries against the Greyhounds and the first-ever victory for a Notre Dame team in 11 games against Loyola. The victory also avenged a 12-2 loss to Loyola at home during the regular season. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. With the core of that squad returning for the '04 season, Notre Dame opened the campaign with a 17-7 win over #17 Penn State, which allowed them to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to #5, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to reach the top five. A pair of disappointing last-second 9-8 losses -- against #17 Ohio State and at #3 Maryland -- caused the Irish to barely miss the NCAAAs again. Attackman Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaraton Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 17 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 149-94 (.613).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother, Tim, was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", is in his first year as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney, and Natale.

Kevin Anderson

Assistant Coach

Ninth Season

Loyola '93

Kevin Anderson is in his ninth year as an assistant under Kevin Corrigan on the Irish staff. Since Anderson arrived on campus, Notre Dame has had a great deal of success, compiling a 67-40 (.626) record, winning six Great Western Lacrosse League championships, finishing in the national top 20 seven times, and earning four invitations to the NCAA Championship, highlighted by an appearance in the 2000 quarterfinals and the '01 semis.

Anderson, a former All-American at Loyola, takes part in every aspect of the Irish program, including heavy involvement with recruiting and working with the Irish midfielders.

A variety of Notre Dame players have experienced tremendous individual success since Anderson has been on the Irish staff. In that time, 10 different players have earned All-America honors on 15 occasions, while Notre Dame has garnered 43 all-GWLL honors, an average of more than five per season.

The highlight of Anderson's tenure was the '01 campaign, in which the Irish posted the best record in school history, 14-2, rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing fourth, and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history. Five players from that squad earned All-America honors, the most-ever by the Irish in a single season. Attackman Tom Glatzel, also one of the five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy given to the nation's top player, led the way as Notre Dame's first-ever first-team All-American.

Anderson worked closely with the only two Notre Dame goalkeepers ever to earn All-America honors, Alex Cade ('98) and Kirk Howell ('01), and also with the lone Irish midfielders to be named All-Americans, Jimmy Keenan ('98) and Steve Bishko ('01).

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he served for two years as an assistant coach at Washington & Lee.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Anderson was a two-sport standout for Loyola in lacrosse and basketball. As a midfielder for the Greyhounds from 1990-93, he collected 35 goals and 10 assists. Anderson earned United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America honors his senior season after scoring 21 goals and dishing off six assists. He captained Loyola in his final collegiate campaign and played in the annual North-South All-Star Game.

Anderson was a member of the 1990 Loyola squad which finished as the runner-up to Syracuse in the NCAA tournament. During his sophomore season (1991), he played five games in goal and registered a career-high 21 saves in an 11-9 NCAA quarterfinal loss to North Carolina.

Anderson was a starting forward for the Greyhound basketball team while lettering all four years (1989-92). He captained the squad as a senior and finished his career with 827 points and 257 rebounds.

A 1993 graduate of Loyola with a bachelor's degree in mathematics, he played for the Charlotte Cobras of the Major Indoor Lacrosse League (MILL) during the 1996 season.

Born Aug. 5, 1970, Anderson resides in South Bend with his wife, the former Molly Lennon, a 1992 Notre Dame graduate and former Irish women's soccer player. The couple was married in 2001 and has a two-year-old son, KJ.

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Kevin Anderson ...

"I think Kevin Anderson is as good a coach as there is in the country, period. I just think he's a great coach. He's got a great way with people. He's a hard worker who can do pretty much anything you ask him to do, and he has a great mind for the game."

Dave Cornell

Assistant Coach

First Season

Gettysburg '96

Dave Cornell, formerly a two-time All-America midfielder for Gettysburg College (Pa.) who then founded and served as the first head coach of the Muhlenberg College (Pa.) program, is in his first season as an assistant coach for the Irish. He joined the staff in December of 2004, replacing Guy Van Arsdale, who took an assistant coaching position at Penn State University, where his son is a freshman and member of its lacrosse team.

After the school had not fielded a varsity men's lacrosse team since 1980, Cornell was selected to rebuild the Muhlenberg program from the ground up in 2001. He was involved in all facets of the program – including serving as head coach – during the Mules' transition to varsity status. In its first two seasons of varsity competition, Muhlenberg posted five wins in both 2003 and '04.

Prior to his Muhlenberg endeavor, Cornell coached at the United States national team tryouts during the summer of 2001 after serving as an assistant at his alma mater for the 1998-2001 seasons. Gettysburg won Centennial Conference titles and qualified for the NCAA tournament during all four of those campaigns, reaching the national title game in '01. Cornell was the Bullets' offensive coordinator during his first three years before switching to defensive coordinator for Gettysburg's NCAA runner-up year. That squad allowed just 7.17 goals per game – a mark that was among the best in Division III – en route to a school-record 16 victories. The 2000 team, the last with Cornell guiding the offense, put up just under 16.00 goals per game.

Cornell has twice been a featured speaker at the US Lacrosse National Coaches Convention (2001 and '04) and also served as a USILA Division III Top 20 Poll committee member from 2002-04.

As a player, Cornell was tabbed a third-team United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-American in 1995 before moving up to the second team in his final season. He finished his career with 38 goals and 40 assists, playing for four top-10 teams. All of his Gettysburg squads earned invitations to the NCAA Championship, with the '95 edition reaching the semifinals. Cornell, the team captain in '96, was twice an all-conference honoree, while the Bullets won three Centennial Conference championships. He also was tabbed the team's S.T.A.R. Leader, serving as a liaison for players with alcohol, drug, and/or emotional problems. At the conclusion of his career, Cornell participated in the 1996 USILA North/South Game.

Cornell graduated from Gettysburg in 1996 with a degree in business management and entrepreneurship. He then earned a master's degree in health and exercise science and athletic administration from McDaniel College (Md.).

Head Coach Kevin Corrigan on Dave Cornell . . .

"Dave has great experience. He has great passion and enthusiasm not just for the game, but also for teaching the game and coaching at a high level. As someone who has started a new program, Dave has been involved in every facet of running a program. It shows he is a very smart and committed guy, because it takes somebody like that to do the job that he did in building a solid and well-respected program at Muhlenberg, one which I think will just keep getting better over the next few years with the young guys he brought in there. I think he will make a huge impact on recruiting for us. He is a hard worker, and I am very thrilled to have him as part of our staff."

His other work experience includes serving as a sales representative for Gallo Sales Company, representing the world's leading winery in the San Francisco area. Cornell also worked as an assistant director of admission at Muhlenberg from 2001-04.

Born Aug. 27, 1972, Cornell and his wife, Amy – who were married in 2003 – reside in South Bend.

William Sullivan

Undergrad. Assistant Coach

Notre Dame '06

After his playing career was cut short by injuries, William Sullivan will serve as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2004-05, aiding the Irish coaching staff in film analysis and various other areas. Sullivan, a junior at the University, was a defenseman on the Irish roster in 2003 and '04, but did not see on-field action, struggling with multiple injuries.

Sullivan, a native of Babylon, N.Y., was a standout in both lacrosse and football at Chaminade High School, earning all-conference honors twice in each sport. He scored three goals in his junior season before moving to a longstick midfielder role in his final campaign, while serving as team captain. He helped Chaminade to a trio of Catholic League titles in lacrosse, while also being named MVP of the football team as a senior.

Born Sept. 13, 1983, in Long Island, N.Y., and the son of Richard and Gail Sullivan, he is enrolled in College of Arts & Letters as an English major.

Hannon Wright

Volunteer Assistant Coach

First Season

Virginia '99

Hannon Wright, veteran of two national championships at the University of Virginia as a player and coach, is in his first season as a volunteer assistant coach for Notre Dame after filling the same role at his alma mater in 2002 and '03. In addition to other duties, he will work with the Irish goalies, including third-year starter Stewart Crosland and rookie prospect Joey Kemp.

Wright was a reserve goalie for the Cavaliers from 1996-99, earning three monograms and appearing in nine games. During his career, UVa won the 1999 national championship, reached the NCAA final in 1997, and advanced to the national semis in '98. As a rookie, Wright shared the team's Rixey Award for inspirational play, following that up with the '98 E. Doyle Smith Award for boasting the squad's highest grade-point average. He was a co-winner of the Unsung Hero Award in his final campaign.

A 1999 graduate with a degree in English, Wright first enrolled in law school at William & Mary before transferring to Virginia's School of Law for his final two years of study. During that time, he was a volunteer assistant for Cavalier teams that reached the NCAA semifinals in 2002 and won the national title in '03.

A native of Virginia Beach, Va., Wright graduated from Norfolk Academy in 1995 after being a two-time all-prep standout in lacrosse.

Dave and Amy Cornell.

Meg Jones
Senior Manager
Notre Dame '05

Meg Jones is in her second year with the men's lacrosse program, serving as the team's senior manager in 2005. A Chicago native and graduate of Regina Dominican High School in Wilmette, Ill., Jones aides the coaching staff with the daily operations of the men's lacrosse program, as well as assisting with practice, statistics, and travel arrangements. She also acts as a liaison between the coaches and parents.

Prior to her involvement with the men's lacrosse program, Jones worked with the Irish football team, in 2003.

Born Sept. 7, 1983, and the daughter of Mary Ann and Robert Jones, she is enrolled in the College of Arts and Letters and will graduate in May '05 with a degree in psychology.

Dylan Drugan
Junior Manager
Notre Dame '06

Dylan Drugan is in his first year with the men's lacrosse program, serving as the team's junior manager in 2005. A native of Oswego, Ill., and graduate of Streamwood High School, Drugan aides the coaching staff and senior manager Meg Jones with the daily operations of the men's lacrosse program, as well as assisting with practice, videotaping, and travel arrangements.

Prior to his involvement with the men's lacrosse program, Drugan worked with the Irish football team, in 2004.

Born July 14, 1984, and the son of Kanute and Cheryl Drugan, he is enrolled in the College of Arts & Letters as an English and Spanish double major.

John Heisler
Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Missouri '76

A South Bend native, John Heisler is in his 27th year as a member of the Notre Dame athletic staff – including 15 years as its sports information director. He added the title of assistant athletics director in 1995, was named an associate athletics director in 2001, and was promoted to senior associate athletics director for media and broadcast relations in '05. He is in his 10th year as the sport administrator for the men's lacrosse team.

Heisler originally joined the athletic staff in April 1978 as assistant sports information director and was promoted to associate director in July 1982. In 2003, he was inducted into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame.

Following his graduation from the University of Missouri's School of Journalism in December of 1976, Heisler was named the first full-time assistant SID at his alma mater prior to moving to Notre Dame a year later.

Born Nov. 13, 1954, Heisler and his wife, Karen, are parents of two sons, Scott and Timothy.

Adam Sargent
Academic Counseling
Notre Dame '99

Former Notre Dame lacrosse player Adam Sargent is in his fifth year as an academic advisor at Notre Dame and third working with the men's lacrosse program. In addition to his duties with the men's lacrosse team, Sargent also works with the baseball, women's lacrosse and women's swimming programs. He also is working on a master's degree in mental health counseling, which is slated to be complete in May 2004.

Sargent, a '99 graduate of Notre Dame with a double major in history and anthropology, was a member of the men's lacrosse team from 1994-97. While playing, the Irish won the Great Western Lacrosse League and advanced to the NCAA tournament all three years. During the 1997 season, Sargent started all 12 games, helping the Irish to a 9-3 record.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Sargent is single and lives in South Bend.

Lon Record
Strength & Conditioning
Lock Haven '99

Lon Record is in his third season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Irish athletic teams after serving as an intern for the athletic department during the 2000-01 school year. Record works with men's soccer, men's lacrosse, and men's and women's track and field, while assisting with football.

Record came to Notre Dame from Austin Peay State University in Clarkesville, Tenn., where he was a graduate assistant strength coach. In the summer of 1999, Record worked as an intern with the Penn State football program.

Record earned a bachelor's of science degree in recreation from Lock Haven University (Pa.) in 1999. He was a member of the rugby team, serving as team captain from 1997-99. Record then earned a master's of science in exercise science from Austin Peay in 2000.

Sal Vallejo
Athletic Training
San Diego State '99

Sal Vallejo is in his third season as an assistant athletic trainer at Notre Dame and his first working with the men's lacrosse program. A 1999 graduate of San Diego State, Vallejo came to Notre Dame from Purdue University, where he was a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Vallejo began his career as the head student athletic trainer at Marion Catholic High School in Chula Vista, Calif., in 1999. He moved on to serve as an intern/student athletic trainer with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 - helping with the rehabilitation of various injuries with the team and organizing equipment and team supplies for road games. He also made the trip to the American Bowl in Sydney, Australia, with the Chargers in '99.

Also a student athletic trainer at San Diego State from 1997-2000, Vallejo moved to Purdue in 2000 and eventually earned a master's degree in pedagogy and administration.

Vallejo was born July 7, 1975, in Hollister, Calif., and currently resides in South Bend.

Bo Rottenborn
Sports Information
Notre Dame '03

Bo Rottenborn is in his sixth year in the Notre Dame Sports Information Office and second working with the Irish men's lacrosse team. He is in his first year as an assistant sports information director after serving previously as the sports information assistant for one year following four years as a student assistant, when he was the public address announcer for home lacrosse games in 2001.

As a student assistant, Rottenborn became just the second undergraduate ever to work at events for all 26 Notre Dame varsity sports. In addition, he served summer internships for the Indianapolis Colts (2001) and the Akron Aeros, an Eastern League Double A baseball team (2000).

A native of Salem, Ohio, Rottenborn graduated summa cum laude from Notre Dame in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in history and political science. An active member of the South Bend Kiwanis Club, he was formerly the president of Notre Dame's Circle K, a Kiwanis-sponsored service organization.

Born July 6, 1980, Rottenborn was a National Merit Scholar at Salem High School, where he earned six varsity letters, and graduated as a valedictorian in 1999.
