Notes: For the third year in a row, the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship will feature 16 teams after the field was expanded from 12 participants in '03. Six conferences – America East Conference, the Eastern College Athletic Conference, the Great Western Lacrosse League, the Ivy League, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, and the Patriot League – will send their champions to the tournament via automatic bids. The other nine spots will be filled with at-large berths, with any of the 56 Division I men's lacrosse programs being eligible, provided they have a .500 or better record having played at least 10 games against other Division I teams.

Four sites, yet to be determined, will play host to eight first-round contests taking place May 15 and 16. Two of the quarterfinal matchups will be played at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore on May 21, with the other two to take place at Princeton University in Princeton, N.J., on May 22. The national semifinals are set for May 28 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, while the NCAA final will occur in the same venue on May 30.
