SCOUTING THE HOKIES — Virginia Tech is riding a five-game win streak heading into its final two games of the season. The Hokies, 10-5-1 overall and 5-3-0 in BIG EAST play, close out the season by hosting playing at Connecticut (Oct. 30) and at Notre Dame on Nov. 1. Six of Virginia Tech's games have been decided in overtime with the Hokies owning a 3-2-1 mark in those contests. Sophomore Ken Jonmaire leads the team in scoring with eight goals and six assists (22 points).

SCOUTING THE RAMBLERS — The Ramblers head into the game with a 3-13-0 record. Loyola is scheduled to play Northwestern on Oct. 30 before playing at Notre Dame on Nov. 3. After beginning season by winning its first three games, the Ramblers have lost 13 straight and have suffered eight one-goal losses. It's last victory was a 1-0 win at Northern Illinois on Sept. 6. Joe Nierzwicki leads the team in scoring with five goals and four assists.

RECAPPING VILLANOVA GAME — Notre Dame scored all five of their goals in just over 15 minutes of the first half in posting its second straight 5-0 win over Villanova and third in the last four years. The Irish got scores from five different goal scorers. The Wildcats managed just three shots and two corner kicks in the game, while Notre Dame has 15 shots and five corners. Chad Riley opened up the scoring midway through the first half at the 22:20 mark. Justin Dettler knocked in Notre Dame's second goal at 29:31 off an assist from Kevin Goldthwaite. Erich Braun notched his team-leading ninth goal of the season off an assist from Goldthwaite in the 31st minute of the contest. Devon Prescod and Justin Ratcliffe scored the final two goals of the game at the 36:00 and 37:31 marks, respectively. Greg Tait finished with three saves in recording his fourth shutout of the season.

RECAPPING GEORGETOWN GAME — Notre Dame had its five-game win streak snapped in dropping a 3-2 decision on the road. Jeff Curtin scored the game-winning goal, his second of the contest, off of a penalty kick with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. The Irish jumped out to an early 1-0 lead when Justin Dettler took a pass from teammate Erich Braun and beat Georgetown goalkeeper Tim Hogan at the 15:39 mark. Georgetown evened the contest at the 28:36 mark. The score remained tied until 18:03 of the second half when Curtin scored the first of his two goals. Notre Dame, which outshot Georgetown 24-15 in the game, tied the game for the second time with less than five minutes remaining on Greg Martin's fifth goal of the season at the 84:56 mark. The Irish were called for a handball which resulted in the penalty kick. Greg Tait stopped four shots in goal.

HEAD COACH BOBBY CLARK — Bobby Clark is in his second season at Notre Dame after being named the fifth head coach in the program's history on January 19, 2001. In his 16th season as a collegiate coach, Clark has an overall record of 174-74-28 for an overall winning percentage of .681 and is 21-11-3 (.643) at Notre Dame. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he ranked 16th all-time among active Division I coaches in terms of winning percentage. Last season, he guided the Irish to a 12-7 mark and their first NCAA tournament appearance since 1996. Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he spent five seasons guiding the Stanford Cardinal to a 71-21-12 mark and .740 winning percentage from 1996-2000. Clark also was head coach at Dartmouth from 1985-93 where he led the Big Green to an 82-242-13 record (.646). Seven of Clark's teams have advanced to NCAA tournament play with his '98 Stanford squad finishing as the NCAA runnerup that season. In between his coaching stints at Dartmouth and Stanford, he was head coach of the New Zealand National Team (1994-95).

CLARK HAS LED THREE DIFFERENT TEAMS INTO NAAs — As a head coach, Bobby Clark is certainly NCAA tournament tested. With Notre Dame's appearance in the 2001 championship, he has now guided three different schools to the NCAA postseason. At Dartmouth, he led the Big Green to two appearances in nine years, while his Cardinal teams at Stanford earned four berths in the five seasons he spent on Palo Alto, Calif., campus. Clark is the first Notre Dame coach to lead the Irish to the NAAs in his first season.

SERIES RECORD VS. VIRGINIA TECH — Friday's game will be just the second meeting between the two teams as the Hokies visit Notre Dame for the first time. Last year, Notre Dame earned a 2-0 win in Blacksburg.

SERIES RECORD VS. LOYOLA — Sunday's matchup will mark the 18 meeting between the two schools, but the first match since 1994 when Notre Dame dropped a 2-0 decision. Notre Dame has won two of the last three meetings and owns a 12-3-2 advantage in the series.

ROLLING ALONG — Before its loss to Georgetown, Notre Dame had won five straight, its longest win streak of the season. The Irish have won five of their last six. Notre Dame closed out the 2001 regular season by winning nine of its last 10 contests.

HOME COOKIN' FOR THE IRISH UNDER CLARK — Notre Dame suffered its first home loss of 2002 when the Irish dropped a 1-0 decision to Pittsburgh in overtime on October 4. It was just the second loss at home for the Irish during Bobby Clark's tenure. The setback was the first for the Irish since dropping a 3-0 decision to Rutgers on September 22, 2001. Notre Dame has a 12-2-1 record at Alumni Field under Clark.

FOUR WINS OVER RANKED OPPONENTS — The 3-1 win over Connecticut gave the Irish their fourth win over a ranked opponent this season — a first in the 26-year history of the program. The victory also was the third by Notre Dame versus a top-10 opponent — also a first by an Irish team. Prior to this season, the most wins by an Irish team over a ranked opponent was three in 1996. During that season, Notre Dame defeated No. 14 Connecticut (2-1), No. 12 Rutgers (1-0) and No. 2 UNC Greensboro (1-0) in consecutive outings. The Irish's other three ranked wins this season have been at home to No. 6 Seton Hall (4-0) and No. 7 Furman (2-1) and on the road at No. 15 Boston College (1-0) in overtime. In its 25-plus seasons of varsity competition, Notre Dame has 10 wins over teams that have been ranked in the top 10 of either the NSCAA or Soccer America polls.

THE CAPTAINS — Seniors Erich Braun and Justin Ratcliffe and junior Greg Martin are serving as captains for the 2002 men's soccer team. Braun and Ratcliffe will be serving as captains for the first time in their career, while Martin has been selected as one of the Irish leaders for the second consecutive year. In 2001, Martin was the first sophomore in the 25-year history of the program to serve as a captain and becomes just the 10th player ever to serve as a two-time captain.

PLAYING OVERTIME — Through the first 16 games of the season, Notre Dame has played six overtime contests. The Irish are 2-1-3 in those contests with four of them going to double overtime. Notre Dame's two overtime wins were against Boston College and Furman. In the victory against the Paladins, they tallied the game-winner with 2:31 left in the second overtime session. Last season, Notre Dame played just three overtimes in 19 outings and were 1-2 in those contests. Under head coach Bobby Clark, Notre Dame is 3-3-3 in overtime games.

BRAUN MOVING UP THE CHARTS — With his eight goals this season, Erich Braun is tied for ninth on the Irish goal-scoring chart with 33 career goals. His 79 points (33 goals, 13 assists) places him 10th on the all-time scoring list.

He also had the game-winning goal in Notre Dame's 1-0 overtime win at Boston College.

RAFAEL IS COMING UP BIG — One Irish player who has stepped up his level of play this season has been senior forward Rafael Garcia. He has two goals and three assists on the season and stands fourth in the scoring column with seven points. Garcia registered goals in both the Creighton and Seton Hall contests and is credited with assists in the Southwest Missouri State and Furman matches. Garcia has started all 16 games. Heading into the 2002 campaign, he had made 13 starts in 38 games and had scored two goals and dished off two assists.

He was the only Irish rookie to see action against Southwest Missouri State in the season opener. Rellas came up with a critical back save in the Connecticut which prevented the Huskies from going up 2-0 in the contest.
