and Records

A black and white photograph of a lacrosse player, Meredith Simon, in action. She is wearing a white jersey with "Irish 27" on it and a protective face mask. She is holding a lacrosse stick with a ball in the net. In the background, another player in a dark jersey with the number "1" is visible. The background is blurred, suggesting a fast-paced game.

Meredith Simon became Notre Dame's first-ever IWLCA first-team All-American following the 2004 season. She set an Irish single-season record for points in a year (74) on 46 goals and 28 assists.

Meredith Simon ('04) was the BIG EAST attack player of the year in 2004 and is Notre Dame's only Tewaaron Trophy nominee. She was a first-team all-BIG EAST selection and the first-ever Irish IWLCA first-team All-American following the 2004 campaign.

One of the top defensive players in the 10-year history of the Notre Dame women's lacrosse program, Andrea Kinnik ('04) led the Irish in ground balls and caused turnovers in both 2003 and 2004. She was a second-team IWLCA All-American during her senior season (2004).

Irish women's lacrosse players have always been outstanding in the classroom. Lauren Fischer ('04) got it done both on and off the field. A three-time letter winner, Fischer had 64 goals and 20 assists in 52 career games. She was also the team's winner of the Rockne Student-Athlete Award and was selected twice (2003 and 2004) to the IWLCA All-Academic Team.
