IRISH STROKES

- Notre Dame earned its sixth overall berth (second consecutive) to the NCAA Championship after winning its 10th straight BIG EAST Championship May 19 on Mercer Lake in West Windsor, N.J.
- Five Notre Dame rowers received all-region honors from the Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association (CRCA) May 28. Molly Bruggeman, Erin Boxberger and Abby Meyers (coxswain), all from the Irish first varsity eight, were named to the Central all-region first team. Stephanie O'Neill and Ailish Sheehan, also from the Notre Dame eight, were tabbed for the second team.
- A total of 10 Irish rowers were also named CRCA National Scholar-Athletes May 28. Christina Dines, Rose Doerfler, Courtney Gaberino, Kelsey Haddad, Anna Kottkamp, Abby Meyers, Kelsey Murphy, Joanna Poinsette, Teresa Rubinger and Danni Schneider represented the most Notre Dame student-athletes to receive the honor in a single season.
- In 13 seasons of sanctioned competition in the BIG EAST, the Irish never finished outside of the top two crews at the conference championship races (runner-up from 2001-03).
- On the strength of Notre Dame's 10th consecutive BIG EAST Championship victory May 19, seven Irish rowers received all-BIG EAST citations. Molly Bruggeman, Erin Boxberger, Ailish Sheehan and Stephanie O'Neill were each first team selections, while Anna Kottkamp, Joanna Mulvey and Courtney Gaberino were tabbed to the second team.
- The Notre Dame coaching staff was recognized as BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year for the seventh time in program history. Head coach Martin Stone received the solo honor in 2004, and has shared the staff of the year award with associate head coach Joe Schlosberg and assistant coach Marnie Stahl in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2012 and 2013.
- Notre Dame's first varsity four and first varsity eight each claimed BIG EAST Boat of the Week accolades during the 2013 season. The Irish eight won a pair of races at the Oak Ridge/Cardinal Invitational March 16-17, and raced defending NCAA champion Virginia competitively in a runner-up finish. The Notre Dame four boat logged two victories in a four-team race at Michigan State the following week to claim the award.
- Molly Bruggeman and Erin Boxberger have each been invited to the United States Rowing Association Women's Under 23 National Team Selection Camp this summer in Princeton, N.J. Bruggeman, a 2012 CRCA Pocock First Team All-American, competed at the World Rowing Under 23 Championships last year. Boxberger will compete for a national team berth for the first time.
