

DIRECTOR, RANDY WALDRUM

Randy Waldrum begins his tenth year as Head Women's Soccer Coach at the University of Notre Dame. Coach Waldrum – the 1999, 2000, 2003, and 2004 Big East Coach of the Year – led the Notre Dame team to five Women's College Cups, including two NCAA Semi-Finals, two NCAA Finals, and a National Championship in 2004.

From his first coaching job at MacArthur High School in Irving, Texas, to leading Baylor to the NCAA championship second round in its third year, Waldrum has been recognized by US Soccer as one of the top soccer minds around and has held a position on the U.S. national coaching staff for the past 13 years.

Waldrum came to Notre Dame after beginning the Baylor women's soccer team from scratch in 1995. By the time he left Baylor, he had led the Bears to a 9-0-1 Big 12 Conference record and their first-ever Big 12 championship in any sport in 1998.

He holds a UEFA "A" License, a USSF "A" License, and has served as assistant coach of the U.S. women's under-18 national team and for the under-20 national team as well as a National Staff Instructor for U.S. Soccer. He also serves as an instructor for the NSCAA Coaching Academies.

BEN WALDRUM

Ben has joined the Irish coaching staff as an assistant working alongside his father, head coach Randy Waldrum. Since joining the Irish, Notre Dame has won 5 Big East Regular Season Championships, and the NCAA National Championship.

Waldrum - who spent 2002-2003 playing with the A League's El Paso Patriots and the Dallas Sidekicks of the Major Indoor Soccer League - first played overseas as a prep, playing in Germany at Sports School Wedau ('97) and in ('98) with the KFC Uerdingen second-division Bundesliga squad.

He then played two seasons at West Texas A&M, helping the 2000 team finish sixth in the national polls. He played in Denmark with FC Copenhagen and Helsingor IF in 2000. Spent 2001-2002 in Mexico training with UNAM Pumas and Atlante turning down a contract offer to return home and sign with A-League's El Paso Patriots.

DAWN GREATHOUSE

Former Baylor All-American and WUSA goalkeeper Dawn Greathouse joined the Notre Dame women's soccer staff in 2003 as an assistant coach, reuniting with her former college coach Randy Waldrum (who departed for Notre Dame after the 1998 season).

Greathouse – who trained with the U.S. Under-20 National Team in 1998 – played with the Washington Freedom in the first two seasons of the Women's United Soccer Association (2001 and '02), also playing for the San Jose Cyber Rays in '02 and '03. She has made eight career starts in the WUSA while backing up National Team players Siri Mullinix (Washington) and former Notre Dame star LaKeysia Beene (San Jose).

She logged 7,121 minutes (sixth in NCAA history) in her four-year Baylor career while posting a 1.20 goals-against average, an .802 save percentage and 28 shutouts. The three-time all-Big 12 Conference and three-time Big 12 all-academic team honoree posted her top season as a sophomore in 1998, earning NSCAA second team All-America honors after ranking 12th in the nation with a 0.69 GAA. She helped the '98 team win Baylor's first Big-12 title in any sport – before an ACL knee sidelined her from Baylor's second straight trip to the NCAAs.

An NSCAA and Parade All-American at Allen (Texas) High School, Greathouse helped the Texas Longhorns place second nationally and trained with the U.S. under-16 and u-17 national teams, the Region III Olympic Development Program and North Texas ODP. She was named the Dallas Morning News player of the year as a senior and was district MVP as a junior.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY:

The difference between good soccer players and great soccer players is individual skill and tactical knowledge. But, more important is the ability to apply this skill and knowledge while under the pressure of the game. This ability can only be achieved through individual, group and team tactics, well-supervised skill development and intense training.

The staff of the Notre Dame Soccer Camp is carefully selected and oriented to provide girls with individual attention, while giving them the opportunity to grow, both as individuals and as team players.

CAMP STAFF:

Our coaching staff includes many of the top high school and college coaches from around the country. We also bring in the highest quality college players available. Every year a number of current and former Notre Dame players come back to campus to help our campers get to the top of their game.
