

2009 NCAA Women's Tennis Championships
First and Second Rounds
May 8-9, 2009 * Courtney Tennis Center * Notre Dame, Ind.

Second Round
Notre Dame 4, Michigan 1

Notre Dame Head Coach Jay Louderback

On today's match ...

"Today was a tough match. We had two matches left when Kelcy won. In one of those we were down and the other was even, so if Kelcy loses, we're looking at two, maybe three three-set matches and that's where the pressure gets tough."

On the Irish doubles play ...

"We work on it a lot in practice. They've gotten so much better since the start. Our No. 3 doubles team, I was very proud of them today. They were fighting from behind the whole way, then got in the middle of the first set, and won the last three games to win 8-5."

Michigan Head Coach Ronni Bernstein

On today's match ...

"We're disappointed. We didn't come here to go home already, but I give credit to Notre Dame. They played well in some spots and we kind of gave away matches a little too quickly. When you get down to court one and you have to win there, that's a tough proposition as well. Hopefully, Notre Dame will represent the Midwest and do well down at Texas A&M."
