RESIDENTIAL ACADEMY DESCRIPTIONS

Developmental Academy (Ages 10-13)

This academy is designed to train elementary and junior high school players. In a challenging and fun environment, players will receive quality and individualized instruction from collegiate, club, and high school level coaches. Additionally, players will receive hands on training from collegiate players. Skill training, individual tactics, circuit training along with competitive matches highlight each day at camp.

Advanced Academy (Ages 14-18)

This academy is designed to provide top level training for high school age players. Featuring a staff of college coaches and top club coaches, players will be exposed to the next level of soccer. Advanced skill training, small group tactics, circuit training along with competitive matches highlight each day at camp.

College Prospect Academy (Ages 15-18)

This academy is designed for players with high school and club experience who wish to gain an edge in their development toward collegiate play and chance to train in a "NCAA Division I-like" college soccer environment. Many current NIU players have attended the College Prospect Academy. Additionally, players will be trained by the NIU Soccer Coaching Staff, as well as coaches from a variety of collegiate soccer programs.

Day Camp (Ages 6-14)

This camp is designed for athletes aspiring to better themselves, and have fun with the basics of soccer. The camp takes place over a span of five days. Each day your athlete will learn skills and receive tips and tricks on how to improve or alter their techniques. This camp is a very fun and useful camp for ages 6-14. Come and have fun with our current players and coaches!
