ON THE DOCKET

Huskies host Buffalo on Senior Day

Date: Feb. 18, 2012

Time: 1 p.m.

Location: DeKalb, Ill.

Venue: Victor E. Court

THIS WEEK

The Northern Illinois wrestling team wraps up their 2011-12 regular season at home Saturday when they welcome the Buffalo Bulls to Victor E. Court for Senior Day. NIU seniors Brad Dieckhaus, Mike Lukowski and Izzy Montemayor will be honored prior to the match.

The Huskies enter Saturday's regular season finale with an 8-8 mark overall and 0-4 MAC record on the season following a pair of wins against Tiffin and SIU-Edwardsville Sunday, Feb. 12. In those matches, NIU won all but three matches and outscored the Dragons and Cougars by a combined 76-8 margin.

The Bulls, meanwhile, come to DeKalb sporting a 5-14 record overall and are also looking for their first conference win of the season. UB has dropped their last three duals following a 24-15 win over The Citadel Jan. 14 at the Virginia Duals, but also have three wins in road/neutral sites. The Bulls are led on the mat by 141-pounder Kevin Smith (26-7 overall) and 165-pounder Mark Lewandowski (29-6 overall), who leads the nation with ten technical falls.

PAW PRINTS

Huskies Against the Bulls

Saturday marks the 13th time that Northern Illinois and Buffalo have met on the mat, with NIU holding an 8-4 record against UB since their first meeting on Jan. 3, 2000. The Bulls have won the last two meetings between the two teams. Yet, the Huskies won eight straight versus UB from the 2001-02 season through 2008-09. The last Northern win against the Bulls came on Feb. 21, 2009, when NIU emerged with a 21-15 victory in western New York.

Recapping SIUE and Tiffin

The Northern Illinois wrestling team recorded two wins Feb. 12 at Victor E. Court, toppling in-state rival SIU-Edwardsville, 34-8, and Tiffin, 42-0. With the wins, the Huskies evened their record at 8-8 on the year. That mark is the second-highest win total for NIU in the last six seasons. In addition, NIU won all but three of the matches on the day, including four major decisions and a pinfall by Brad Dieckhaus. The victory against Tiffin was the Huskies' second shutout in 2011-12.

Searching for 500

Following wins against Tiffin and SIU-Edwardsville Feb. 12, the Huskies are only two wins away from 500 all-time, meaning that the team have a legitimate chance of reaching the 500 win plateau early in the 2012-13. The Huskies can all but guarantee that the mark will be reached next year with a win against Buffalo in Victor E. Court to move the program to 499 wins. NIU is 6-3 at home this season, with their only losses in DeKalb coming to Stanford, Purdue and Kent State.

Senior Day Salute

Saturday's dual against Buffalo will mark the last time seniors Brad Dieckhaus, Mike Lukowski and Izzy Montemayor will compete in the Cardinal and Black at the Convocation Center, with all three being honored prior to the 1 p.m. match. The three seniors have combined for 93 wins and 20 pins in their time at NIU. In addition, the trio has combined for 10 tournament placings and an individual MAC Championship.

Three Huskies in NCAA Rankings

With the NCAA Championships about a month away and the selection show about three weeks away, three Huskies find themselves in the latest edition of the NCAA Coaches' Poll. The highest among the three is senior Brad Dieckhaus, who sits at No. 16 in the 184-pound class. Additionally, Nick Smith is No. 19 at 125 and Kevin Fanta is right at the edge in 141 with a tie for 33rd.

CONFERENCE

The More, The Merrier

Northern Illinois' eight wins so far this season is the most the team has had in four seasons, as the Huskies recorded 11 dual wins during the 2007-08 season. In addition, a win Saturday would give NIU their first winning season on the mats since the 2007-08 team went 11-7 overall. Regardless of Saturday's result, though, NIU's eight dual wins is the second-most wins in a year since the start of the 2006-07 campaign.

Fanta-stic Season for Kevin Fanta

With two more wins over the weekend, sophomore Kevin Fanta improved his record in dual meets to 11-1 and 12-3 overall on the year. The Lake Zurich, Ill., native has now won seven-straight matches and has yet to lose in the 2012 calendar year. His 13-2 win against SIU-Edwardsville's Patrick Myers was also his first major decision of the season. For his efforts, WrestlingReport.com has Fanta ranked 32nd in the 141-pound weight class.

The Big 'Haus

Senior Brad Dieckhaus has been a constant in the national rankings this season at 184. In addition to his 10-0 record in 2011-12, the St. Charles, Mo., native also has not lost a regular season match since Jan. 28, 2011, when he dropped a 7-1 decision to Northern Iowa's Ryan Loder, currently the No. 6 wrestler at 184 in InterMat's rankings. Below is a breakdown of where Dieckhaus stands in each of the major polls:

- InterMat: No. 17
- WrestlingReport.com: No. 15
- WIN Magazine: No. 19
- D1CollegeWrestling.net: No. 16

Sophomore Sensation Nick Smith's Solid Season

Sophomore Nick Smith has seen quite a bit of success during the 2011-12 season. Despite missing three meets due to injury midway through the season, the Ida, Mich., native boasts a 13-4 record. Here is a breakdown of where he stands in the national polls at 125 pounds:

- InterMat: No. 20
- WrestlingReport.com: No. 19
- D1CollegeWrestling.net: No. 24

Next Up

The Huskies kick off their postseason March 4 with the Mid-American Conference Championships in Athens, Ohio. The meet, which moves to a one-day format this season, gets underway at 9 a.m. CT with the opening rounds. Finals are scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. CT
